This was a get acquainted meeting with Studio M (Mary) and the Host, Tony May, and our Guest, Fr. Dennis Miller, of St. Patrick in Cedar Rapids. We got into the topic of Tony's new Granddaughter, Rose, who was born on the Feast of Thomas Aquinas (Jan 28). Father asked if her name was Tomasita. I said she is a Hillbilly Baby. We sequed into a discussion of the Hillbilly Thomists. A Thomist is a follower of Thomas Aquinas. Hillbilly Thomist is a "not so strict sense" follower of Thomas, a phrase which Flannery O'Connor coined. We discussed her work (dark literature, with the theme of good wins out over evil) as well as her tie into Iowa (writer's workshop at the University of Iowa). Finally, we decided to show / listened to the Hillbilly Thomists, live at the Grand Ole Opry, from a YouTube video. |

Dennis Miller is on reconciliation in the Catholic Church. Reconciliation is the sacrament which keeps the Holy Eucharist sacred: "O Lord I am not worthy" is turned into positive when we have a recent confession behind us. It makes the sacrament mean more to us. In the 3 year Eucharistic Revival currently ongoing, Reconciliation MUST BE a big part of this revival. A listener called in near the end of the program with a question on reconciliation for Father Miller.  |

Bishop Saunders was asked to air his talk he gave to an energized group of marchers after the January 22, 2023, Local Cedar Rapids March for Life. The event as well as the talk and chili after the March were sponsored by Coalition for Life of Iowa and St. Matthew Catholic Church. Bishop Saunders refuted the claim by some bible expositors using Genesis 2:7 "The Lord God formed the man from the dust of the earth and breathed into him the breath of life, and the man became a living being," saying that breath is the demarcation of point of where life begins. Using his background in Hebrew as an undergraduate and Greek in graduate school, Bishop Saunders uses the root of the words used in the text to show that the dual form of the word "living" to refute this claim. In Gen 2:7 "...living ...bespeaks that in Adam was now a soul joined to his physical body which breathed." He explains that this is a different "living" from Gen 1:30 where animals were created breathing in a single act of creation, "simply by the formative hands of God." Forty Days for Life is currently happening until April 2. Additionally Fr. Dennis talked about a listener who had contacted him. He just came back from a Benedictine retreat and also had a few more things to say about Reconciliation from Episode 4. Tony read the poem by St. Francis of Assisi, Salutation of the Blessed Virgin Mary. This poem is used in defense of St. Maximilian Kolbe, that rather than starting a new practice of honoring the Blessed Virgin (whom he called the Immaculata), he simply revitalized a devotion which was part and parcel with St. Francis and the origins of the Franciscan Orders. https://www.franciscantradition.org/.../179-fa-ed-1-page-163 As St. Maximilian said, no one loved Jesus more than Mary and no one loved Mary more than Jesus.   |

Written over 100 years ago, this applies to today. Unemployment numbers do not look as bad as they really are, since many workers have taken themselves out of the workforce, with early retirement, or just not looking for employment. The Catholic Church teaching on same sex unions. The genetic sex of individuals vs. the opportunistic "self-created" approach to sexual descriptions. Love the sinner and hate the sin is the correct message that must be conveyed. |
