The Cale Clarke Show	Relevant Radio	06/05/23	17:00	Babe Ruth "Sultan of Swing" deathbed conversion	Cale Clarke	Quoted from Babe Ruth's memoirs Brother Matthias, the greatest man I have ever known, and for the religious training I received there which has since been so important to me. ...As I look back now, I realize that knowledge of God was a big crossroads with me. I got one thing straight (and I wish all kids did)—that God was Boss. He was not only my Boss but Boss of all my bosses. Up till then, like all bad kids, I hated most of the people who had control over me and could punish me. I began to see that I had a higher Person to reckon with who never changed... Thanks to Brother Matthias I was able to leave St. Mary's in 1914 and begin my professional career with the famous Baltimore Orioles. Out on my own... free from the rigid rules of a religious school...boy, did it go to my head. I began really to cut capers. Don't you believe it. As far as I'm concerned, and I think as far as most kids go, once religion sinks in, it stays there—deep down. The lads who get religious training, get it where it counts—in the roots. They may fail it, but it never fails them. ...As I lay in bed that evening I thought to myself what a comforting feeling to be free from fear and worries. I now could simply turn them over to God. Later on, my wife brought in a letter from a little kid in Jersey City. "Dear Babe", he wrote, "Everybody in the seventh grade class is pulling and praying for you. I am enclosing a medal, which if you wear will make you better. Your pal—Mike Quinlan. "P.S. I know this will be your 61st homer. You'll hit it." I asked them to pin the Miraculous Medal to my pajama coat. I've worn the medal constantly ever since. I'll wear it to my grave.

SHOW	FEED	DATE	TIME	ISSUE	HOST/GUEST	SUMMARY
The Kolbe Connection	KMMK	04/28/23	16:00	Simplicity and Complexity in the Catholic Faith.	Tony May	Kolbe Konnection Episode 13 An untruth if it can't be put in simple terms it can't be true GK Chesterton defends the Catholic things that both Catholics and non-Catholics may not understand. They may be simple things, but as Chesterton says, "The mind must be enlarged to see the simple things — or even to see the self-evident things." In Orthodoxy, GK Chesterton states that The Church explains simple things simply, but it is right where reality is complex, the explanation of the truth gets equally complex. He is speaking about Rules and Dogmas of the Church Mathematician and the heart. Damnation from the simplicity of sin... Attempting to obtain knowledge without blood, sweat & tears. Now this started with perfect human creation, Adam and Eve simply blew it. They paid for their sin as prescribed by God. They even saw it in son Cain. The law prescribed an atonement for sin but not forgiveness... Then Christ entered the scene. Talk about complex! Look at all the prophecies he fulfilled. All Christians pretty much interpret similarly until we get to John 6:30. Jesus just got done walking on the water. What sign are you going to perform? Our ancestors ate...Jesus maybe is grinning at this point as he is about to unveil the biggest mystery of all time...
						(cont'd) FATHER MILLER Then we go complex to simple: The story of Naaham from 2 Kings 5:10-14 RSV-CE 10 And Elisha sent a messenger to him, saying, "Go and wash in the Jordan seven times, and your flesh shall be restored, and you shall be clean." 11 But Naaman was angry, and went away, saying, "Behold, I thought that he would surely come out to me, and stand, and call on the name of the LORD his God, and wave his hand over the place, and cure the leper. 12 Are not Abana and Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? Could I not wash in them, and be clean?" So he turned and went away in a rage. 13 But his servants came near and said to him, "My father, if the prophet had commanded you to do some great thing, would you not have done it? How much rather, then, when he says to you, 'Wash, and be clean?'" 14 So he went down and dipped himself seven times in the Jordan, according to the word of the man of God; and his flesh was restored like the flesh of a little child, and he was clean. The Eucharist, eat my body and drink my blood -- bread and wine turned into his body and blood is simple. Jesus left a simple prescription for staying united to him. But his followers at that time state that the teaching is too hard. And there in John 6:66 we see that "many of his followers left him that day."

A revolution hit the Church, 999 AD - 1088 Berengarius publicly denied the Real Presence. Pope Gregory VII made him sign a retraction. Had his feast this week (Jun 25th). Henry IV exiled the pope to Salerno, where he died. The pope made a credo out of the retraction, which he wanted Benegarius to sign. Church's first definitive statement of something that had been believed for years. Pope Paul VI quoted this in Mysterium Fide, a Vatican II document. "I profess...that the bread and wine placed on the altar are...substantially changed into the true and life-giving flesh and blood of Jesus Christ our Lord, and that after the consecration, there is present the true body of Christ which was born of the Virgin and offered up for the salvation of the world...true blood of Christ which flowed from His side...not only by means of a sign and of

The Kolbe Connection	KMMK	06/16/23	16:00	"The History of Eucharistic Adoration" booklet continued / Dodger's Sacrilege,	Tony May / Father Dennis Miller	Kolbe Konnection Episode 20 (Originally aired on June 16, 2023. The stream did not stay posted. Had to reload it. James and John wanted a prominent seat in the Kingdom. Can you Drink of the Cup I am about to drink? Humility, following Christ, ending in martyrdom. We love the "dumb questions" answered in the Gospels so that we in turn do not have to ask them. Bring me out to the ballgame. Review the National Catholic Reporter version of the story vs. the AP version (Mainstream Media). NCR opened their reporting with a long time fan, who had seen the 1988 Gibson home run. Grew up loving the Dodgers. On June 16, Feast of the Sacred Heart, during Gay Pride month, honoring the group "Sisters of Perpetual Indulgence." The title is a play on words. The indulgence that the drag group intended is sexual indulgence, where as the indulgences from prayers or works has the meritorious value in the Catholic Church. Honoring a group like this (SOPH) is not tolerance, it is religious bigotry. Bill Donohue of the Catholic League states that "The last living acceptable prejudice is against the Catholic Church." A Catholic sister commended the Dodgers handling of the event. She in turn This sister has been previously censored by Pope John Paul II and Pope Benedict XVI (in reference to gay men in gay relationships). In response, Archbishop Broglio of the Military Services, Archbishop Gomez of Los Angeles, and Cardinal Dolan of New York have all weighed in, calling it blasphemy.

						(cont'd) Add this to the list of boycotts. The Target boycott. Gender dysphoria pajamas for infants. The clothing has a gusset to tuck away male parts (so the parent cannot see). No one asks the obvious hard question of what dysphoria can an infant experience? The parents have the dysphoria. Another example of boycott is Budweiser Marketing Director Dylan Mulvaney (he posing as a she), followed a mandate at the company, from the very beginning, to evolve the brand and make it more inclusive. Budweiser has suffered through this boycott, but is not recanting. Some Archbishops call it blasphemy. SOPI honors and emulates Catholic Nuns with shower curtain headress and rubber chicken. How could this in anyway be interpreted as honoring Sisters? We've taken a positive approach on the "oppression" of the Catholic Church toward gays and lesbians. We love the sinner but hate the sin. This is the proper approach of the Catholic Church. If Muslims were mocked like this, you'd have severe retaliation. Please boycott Budweiser! "Blessings from sisters" – May you know you're made of Love and Joy. Only Catholic priests and deacons can give official Church blessings. The SOPI do help AIDS victims. PP similarly prescribes hormone blocking drugs so that they can say they do 10,000 other medical services and "only 1,000 abortions." In this way they downplay the evil they perform.
						Reality: Protestant card deck with purposeful misunderstanding of Catholic doctrine. This is high-pressure sales tactic, where partial truths are used. There is not a lack of vitrol against the Catholic Church in this example. The card deck is intended for people who do not know their Catholic faith very well or not at all. Rather than this form of misinformation we would like to have intelligent Catholic conversations. We don't have to join each other's churches but should know what they believe, but not make things up about these beliefs. Winston Salem authored books are from a known group of witchcraft-oriented individuals. They put their spin on the narrative of history– ex. First Thanksgiving – rather than thanking God at this event we have pilgrims thanking Indians for teaching them how to grow crops. NOTE: A copy of the card deck mentioned above is available upon request.

However, from now on June 24, (except when feast of the Sacred Heart superceedes it, which is celebrated 19 days after Pentecost). Much work is to be done on the state level at this point.
