

New Jersey Public Broadcasting Authority
Significant Issues and Programs Broadcast From
January 1, 2008 through March 31, 2008

Introduction:

The New Jersey Public Broadcasting Authority produces and broadcasts the following programming, which specifically address topics of interest and concern to the citizens of the state.

Another View: A 30-minute monthly public affairs program focusing on New Jersey's African-American communities. Airsthe third Tuesday of the month at 6:30 p.m.; rebroadcast the third Friday at 11:30 p.m..

Caucus: New Jersey with Steve Adubato: A 30-minute program featuring the analysis of the major issues facing New Jersey. Airst weekly on Sundays at 8:30 a.m.; rebroadcast Mondays at 11:30 p.m.

Classroom Close-up, NJ: A 30-minute program featuring New Jersey's public school success stories. Airst weekly on Mondays at 6:30p.m.; rebroadcast Saturdays at 9:00 a.m.

Due Process: A 30-minute program addressing contemporary legal issues and featuring various legal professionals and experts. Airst weekly on Sundays at 9:30 a.m.; rebroadcast Sundays at 6:30 p.m. and the following Tuesday at 11:30 p.m.

Images/Imagenes: A 30-minute program focusing on cultural events and public affairs in the Hispanic community. Airst weekly on Thursdays at 6:30 p.m.; rebroadcast Sundays at 8:00 a.m.

NJN News: A 30-minute news program focusing on the issues and events relevant to New Jersey's citizens. Airst weeknights at 6:00 p.m., 7:30 p.m. and 11:00 p.m. and rebroadcast Tuesdays through Fridays at 6:30 a.m.; Saturdays at 6 a.m.

On the Record: A 30-minute programs featuring one-on-one interviews with NJ newsmakers and lawmakers. Airst weekly on Sundays at 9:00 a.m.; rebroadcast Sundays at 11:00 a.m. and Mondays at 6:30 a.m.

Reporters Roundtable with Michael Aron: A 30-minute program featuring reporters discussing New Jersey's political scene. Airst weekly on Fridays at 6:30 p.m.; rebroadcast Sundays at 10:00 a.m.

State of the Arts: A 30 minute program on location with creative personalities in New Jersey. Airst Fridays at 8:30 p.m.; rebroadcast Wednesdays at 11:30 p.m.

Issue: Education

Weekdays from 7:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m., NJN Public Television provides a complete daytime educational program schedule for pre-school through college levels. These are listed in the program guide and includes: Sesame Street, Reading Rainbow.

At 5AM, Monday through Thursdays, and repeating at 1:30 PM on those days, NJN airs GED and ESL classes. At 5:30 AM weekdays, we air A Place of Our Own, providing parents and caregivers solid educational information on how young children learn.

Also, NJN's new Digital Classroom offers a video-on-demand service for students, teachers and adult learners.

NJN also airs Classroom Close-up, a weekly series co-produced by the New Jersey Education Association and NJN Public Television. The series highlights innovative teaching methods in classrooms across NJ.

Issue: Government

Weekly updates of the political climate in New Jersey are featured on On the Record and Reporter's Roundtable. (see above)

In January, NJN News presented live coverage of Governor Jon Corzine's 2008 State of the State Address.

In February, NJN News provided live coverage of the 2008 Presidential Primary.

Also in February, NJN News provided live coverage of Governor Jon Corzine's 2008 Budget Address.

Issue: Community Relations and Public Affairs

In January, NJN aired a special 35 year anniversary show from Images/Imagenes capturing a time capsule of Latino/a images over three decades.

Also in January, NJN presented Pope John Paul II: A Saint for Our Times, a special program using music, images and the deceased pope's own words and statements to enlighten and inspire viewers.

In February, NJN aired African American Lives 2, revealing the triumphs and tragedies of an all-new group of remarkable participants.

Issue: Nature and the Environment

NJN regularly airs episodes of Nature, Living Edens and National Geographic.

In January, NJN aired A Year at Kew, examining this 250 year old horticultural phenomenon and the efforts to preserve one of England's great botanical treasures.

Issue: Arts and Culture

In January, NJN premiered Words and Music by Jerry Herman, an original documentary by award-winning filmmaker Amber Edwards.

In February, NJN aired Mario Lanza Singing to the Gods chronicling the life and times of the beloved tenor.

In March, NJN aired Jackie Onassis: An Intimate Portrait, tracing the life of one of the most glamorous and admired women of modern times.