Topic: Woman gets VIP treatment from American Airline because she's the ONLY passenger on flight

American aviation industry has been hit hard recently because of the pandemic. But when a woman took a flight from Washington to Boston, Massachusetts on board American Airline, she was surprised to find herself as the only passenger on the plane. She shared her "special treatment" of the journey on social networks. US media reported last Friday (3rd) that Sheryl Pardo had flown to Boston earlier to visit her seriously ill mother and accidentally found herself the only passenger on board. The crew said humorously, "let us warmly welcome Pardo". Pardo praised that the two crew members did not ignore her because she was the only passenger, they professional work ethic were excellent, and they took the initiative to upgrade her to first-class seat.

Topic: Atlanta (Georgia) police fatally shot an African-American man outside of a Wendy's drive-thru

Last Friday night (June 13, 2020), a 27-year-old African-American man, Rayshard Brooks, fell asleep in his car on the driveway of the Wendy's drive-thru in Atlanta, Georgia, and blocking the driveway of the fast food restaurant. Two officers came after staff of the restaurant called the police, and conducted an sobriety test for Brooks. Test failed, officers attempted to arrest Brooks which he resisted and tried to flee. And at one point snatched the officer's Taser as he ran where the officers shot him on the back during the chase. Atlanta police Erika Shields resigned 24 hours later on Saturday after video of this shooting emerged and as protests over police brutality and racism continued for the third straight weekend. Atlanta Mayor Keisha Lance Bottoms, who announced Shields's departure, also called for the immediate termination of the police officer involved in the shooting of 27-year-old Rayshard Brooks after a DUI stop, saying she did not "believe that this was a justified use of deadly force."
