

TEXARKANA, Texas — A Missouri, City, Texas, man has been arrested in Texarkana on felony charges for allegedly evading after an attempted ATM theft.

Reginald Cole was arrested on the felony evading charge and could face more charges, according to the Texarkana, Texas Police Department.

A witness called 911 about 4 a.m. Wednesday and reported seeing a truck backed up to an ATM at the TexAR Federal Credit Union on Richmond Road. Officer Daniel Linn arrived a couple of minutes later and saw a silver car leaving the parking lot at a high rate of speed, which immediately took off when he turned on his lights and siren.

During the short pursuit through the neighborhood behind the credit union, the driver who was identified as Cole, suddenly stopped and several guys jumped out and started running in opposite directions. The driver then sped away again with Linn still pursuing it.

Cole pulled over on Richmond Road and was taken into custody. The other people jumped out of the car and have not been located yet.

Back at the credit union, police found a Ford truck with a chain attached to the bumper that had crashed through a fence. The truck was registered to someone in Marshall and had been stolen during the night.

The men were never able to get into the ATM, and they didn't get away with any money. Unfortunately, they did thousands of dollars of damage to the ATM.
