

Absentee DE

MEH/TB&P

9/22 (Tues PM & Wed AM)

A lawsuit claims that Arkansas's requirements for accepting absentee ballots is unconstitutional and will erroneously disenfranchise eligible voters in November. The federal lawsuit was filed today (Tues) by the League of Women Voters against the Secretary of State's office. As Roby Brock with Talk Business & Politics reports, it involves the state's signature match requirement.

News15 0:48 "...registered to vote."

...Reporter Roby Brock. The lawsuit seeks a court-ordered change in the law before November's general election.