The reelection campaign of U.S. Representative French Hill is using the popular Governor Asa Hutchinson in his latest campaign commercial. A recent Talk Business & Politics-Hendrix College poll had the 2nd district Republican incumbent in a dead heat with Democratic challenger state Senator Joyce Elliot. The same survey had Hutchinson with a 70-percent approval rating. In the ad, the governor compliments Hill for securing federal coronavirus funds for Arkansas, saying it helped – quote “save lives and jobs.”
