

Voter Registration Day – 1

DM/MEH

9/21(Mon PM/Tue AM/)

Tomorrow (Tuesday) is National Voter Registration Day. Pulaski County Circuit and County Clerk Terri Hollingsworth says more than 253-thousand residents of Pulaski County are currently registered, and they're working to expand that number.

NEWS22 0:19 "...get your books."

Compared to the last presidential year, Hollingsworth says Pulaski County has 12-thousand more registered voters than at this point in 2016. The deadline to register to vote in November is October 5th. She says it takes about a week to get a voter ID card in the mail after the registration form is submitted. Hollingsworth says her office is also processing a record number of absentee ballot requests,

Voter Registration Day – 2

DM/MEH

9/21 (Mon PM/Tue AM)

The deadline to register to vote in Arkansas for the November elections is October 5th. Tomorrow (Tuesday) is National Voter Registration Day, but efforts to get more people registered has been ongoing. Pulaski County Circuit and County Clerk Terri Hollingsworth says compared to the previous presidential election year, Pulaski County has 12-thousand more registered voters than at this time in 2016.

NEWS23 0:21 "...need them involved."

Hollingsworth says over 253-thousand residents of Pulaski County are currently registered to vote. According to the most recent U.S. Census Bureau estimates, there are about 300-thousand voting-age residents in the county. Voter registration forms can be downloaded, but a signed paper form must be submitted to the county clerk's office.