

The number of confirmed coronavirus cases in Bowie County, Texas, rose by 10 Monday to Tuesday, reaching a total of 332 infections in the county so far.

One-hundred nineteen Bowie County COVID-19 patients have recovered and 26 have died, according to the local emergency Joint Operations Center.

Cass County, Texas, held at 57 cases, with 39 recoveries and three deaths, according to the JOC.

Elsewhere in Northeast Texas, Titus County's tally leapt by 100, from 742 to 842, according to the Texas Department of State Health Services. Morris County added six cases to reach 49, and Red River County held at 117 cases.

In Southwest Arkansas, Miller County added eight cases to reach 228, according to the Arkansas Department of Health. Lafayette County's tally increased from 21 to 22, Hempstead County's from 63 to 64, Howard County's from 101 to 102 and Sevier County's from 743 to 748.

Pike County held at 10 cases, Little River County at 40 and Nevada County at 104.

Caddo Parish in Northwest Louisiana added 95 cases from Friday to Monday, for a total of 3,835, and Bossier Parish added 69 cases to reach 1,099, according to the Louisiana Department of Health.

Statewide, Arkansas reported 24,253 cumulative cases with 292 deaths, Louisiana reported 68,263 cases with 3,211 deaths, and Texas reported 210,585 cases with 2,715 deaths.

The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention reported 2,932,596 total cases so far in the U.S., with a national death toll of 130,133.