

Political Advertising on Bounce TV

The Hillary Clinton presidential campaign ran advertising on Bounce TV last week. The FCC currently is considering whether political campaign advertisements sold by a network are required to be posted in the local affiliates' political files. Pending a decision, Bounce TV's FCC counsel has recommended that each Bounce TV station place in your FCC public file the document that is ACCESSIBLE HERE to provide information regarding the Clinton campaign ads that previously aired on Bounce TV.

Bounce TV will notify our affiliates when political campaign ads are placed with the network and will provide a monthly report listing the actual dates of times that the ads ran.
