Good day to you. I'm Jennifer Andrews with your Minute Magazine. More jobs and economic development for Ouachita Parish. It's getting a new Entergy solar facility in Sterlington. It'll be near its plant on Old Sterlington Road. Entergy says it'll bring in well-paying jobs. Congratulations to the Beatenhearn Museum and Gardens in Monroe. The Louisiana Travel Association awarded it the Louis Award for being the number one attraction in the state of Louisiana. The award showcases individuals and groups who have made big contributions to state tourism. And Baskin, Louisiana native and country music star, Lanie Wilson has joined Coors Light. Coors says that she will be featured in ads and merchandise. Wilson was recently nominated for two Grammys this year and one entertainer of the year last year. She says 2024 is gonna be another rule-breaking year and I am thrilled to have Coors Light along for the ride. With your Minute Magazine. I'm Jennifer Andrews.
