Health Care

Action News Sunday

Host: Action News TV Anchors

Airdate: 8/2/14

Topics: jobs, medical marijuana

Guests: Rick Scott/Florida Governor

Duration: 20:39

Governor Rick Scott says last month in the state of Florida businesses generated 36,900 jobs in 3.5 years. He says ports are working at a high level, tourism is up. The governor says as long as we get a return then the state will continue to invest to allow the dredging of JaxPort. He says education funding is at a historic high right now. He says he is worried about drug abuse when it comes to medical marijuana.

Ascertainments show that Jacksonville is very much interested in the continual progress of JaxPort. Also, medical marijuana is a hot topic right now as it will be on the upcoming ballot.

Jax Journal

Airdate: 8/9/14

Topics: health

Guests: Dr. Pauline Rolle/Medical Director of the Fl. Dept. of Health in Duval County

Duration: 24:34

Dr. Rolle says parents must stay on top of the vaccines and immunizations that are required before their children attend school. It is important that all these documents are submitted to the schools so the student will not be prevented from starting school. Children can be vaccinated free of charge up to the age of 18 if they don't have insurance.

Ascertainments show that as the school year is about to begin the local parents are looking to get their kids ready for school.

Jax Journal

Airdate: 8/16/14

Topics: hunger, community need

Guests: Bruce Ganger, Feeding Northeast Florida, president and CEO

Duration: 26:32

Bruce says hunger is a big issue and it's not getting any better. He says in some homes the parents work but they don't bring in enough money to stretch them to the next paycheck. Many only eat one meal a day or skip meals so their kids can eat. Once school starts he says they're able to be nourished there even if they weren't able to be nourished at home. He says the intent of the organization is that everyone who wants access to nutritional food can have access. He says there is plenty of food out there but it is not where it needs to be.

Ascertainments show that hunger is a huge problem in Jacksonville and this is a very important organization as they attempt to help hungry local families.

First Coast Forum

Host: Nicole Hurtado

Economy

Action News Sunday

Host: Action News TV Anchors

Airdate: 7/19/14

Topics: budget/public safety

Guests: Clay Yarborough/Jacksonville City Council President, John Rutherford/Jacksonville Sheriff

Duration: 20:28

Clay Yarborough talks about the new budget that was unveiled this week and says this budget uses some funds from the city's reserve account. He says these reserve funds should be left alone and only used in an emergency. He has full confidence that the council will review the budget and figure out priorities. There are many good priorities in the budget but why is it putting Jacksonville in such debt.

John Rutherford says 40 police officers and 40 community service officers will be a tremendous help in the community. He says there will be some delay in deploying this. It takes 11 months of training before a police officer can go out and patrol the streets alone. The sheriff says there is a direct correlation of the rise in violent crime and the decrease of police officers in Jacksonville. He says we cannot arrest our way out of this crime problem, but many local programs are here to help.

Ascertainments show that Jacksonville residents want to know what is in the new proposed budget and find out how this will impact them. Also, the citizens of Jacksonville are concerned of the rise in violent crime in their community.

Jax Journal

Show: Jax Journal

Topics: foreclosures

Guests: Martha Cox/Chief Strategy and Development Officer of Family Foundations

Duration: 25:58

Martha Cox says there are a number of programs out there through the Florida's Hardest Hit program. These are funds that are for people who are facing foreclosure or who are underwater on their homes. An application needs to be filled out and then they will be processed. She has seen quite a few people come through to take advantage of this program. Family Foundations has a core group of Certified Financial Counselors available to help people with basic budget management, debt reduction, housing preparation, and foreclosure assistance. Ascertainments show that the citizens of Jacksonville do need assistance when they are faced with foreclosure or an overwhelming amount of debt.

First Coast Forum

Host: Jeremy Gold

Airdate: August 10, 2014

Topic: Economy

Duration: 26 minutes

Today's guest on First Coast Forum is Ju'Coby Pittman, President and CEO of The Clara White Mission. During the broadcast we discussed the economy and how it's affecting organizations like the Clara White Mission. The Clara White Mission is a staple in Florida. It feeds, shelters, and aids hundreds of homeless and at risk youth and adults. It also offers vocational and tech programs.

Action News Sunday

Host: Action News TV Anchors

Airdate: 8/30/14

Topics: city budget

Guests: Clay Yarborough, City Council President

Duration: 20:46

Clay Yarborough says the budget the city council is reviewing for next year has quite a few new requests to borrow money for new projects. He says this is the most concerning budget he's seen since being part of the council. Hemming Plaza is one of the projects that is being upgraded by public and private investing. Ascertainments show that the community is concerned with the concerns of the city council and the budget review.

Host: Nicole Hurtado

Airdate: Sunday, September 21 2014

Topic: Economy

Guest: Malinda Everson

Duration: 23 Mintues

Our host speaks with Malinda Everson Development Director of The Betty Griffin House. Mrs. Everson addresses the topic of lack of funding for nonprofit organizations like hers. She talks about how they do receive funding but due to the bad economy it's not enough. She informs listeners they create other alternatives to form some kind income. They have a thrift shop as well as 5k that helps them raise money to sustain the Betty Griffin house. Because of the terrible economy it's also been difficult to help families find a job. Therefore they have to stay in the house longer which makes it harder for other families of domestic abuse to move in. Thanks to donations and charity events they can maintain a home. She discusses the topic of domestic violence and that all families from different backgrounds and incomes stay at the house. At the end of the interview she tells listeners how they can help fund the Betty Griffin house.

Education

First Coast Forum

Host: Nicole Hurtado

Airdate: Sunday, July 13, 2014

Topic: Education

Guest: Pearl Roziars, Dr. Sylvia Johnson, Tamara Williams, Truitte Moreland, and Jason Bloom

Duration: 31 minutes 14 seconds

Our host speaks with Pearl Roziars the Assistant Super Intendant from the Office of School Choice for Duval County Public Schools. Mrs. Roziars addresses the topic of how programs in our public schools offer real world and college training for its students. This is done through the magnet programs at all of the public schools. There are 63 magnet programs and each one offers some sort of theme or training, that students can choose from. In addition to addressing the magnet programs, she brought along the Principals of the 3 new magnets programs Duval County Public Schools will be starting up in August.

Dr. Sylvia Johnson is the principal for West Riverside her new programs will be offering a K-2 Dual Language Program. With this program students will learn both English and Spanish from k-5th grade. By the time they graduate they will be bi-literate in both languages. Tamara Williams and Truitte Moreland are the principals for Eugene J. Butler Young Women/Men's Leadership Academy. This school will be separated by gender. And will offer various programs to help better both young men and women. The final principal was Jason Bloom from the Joseph Stilwell Military Academy of Leadership. This school will teach students with a military based system, but will not have a boot camp. Mrs. Roziars than addressed how parents can find more information about the various programs along with what benefits will come from enrolling their student in a magnets program.

Jax Journal

Airdate: 7/19/14

Topics: education

Guests: Cynthia Bioteau/FSCJ President

Duration: 24:51

Cynthia believes in community and open access colleges because she says communities are more vibrant when it has education. Open access colleges allow anyone who wants an education to obtain one. FSCJ has 5 full campuses and 4 satellite campuses. She says her team is working hard on a culture of accountability. She says they are looking forward and have made progress but that it does take time to fix the problem areas from the past.

Ascertainments show that the local community has a strong interest in higher education and the quality of that education that can be found in Jacksonville.

Action News Sunday

Host: Action News TV Anchors

Airdate: 8/16/14

Topics: education; hunger

Guests: Dr. Nikolai Vitti, Superintendent of Duval County Public Schools; Bruce Ganger, CEO of Feeding Northeast Florida

Duration: 20:46

Dr. Vitti says that we cannot become the public school system that we want to be unless all our children are performing at high levels and all our school are performing at high levels. He says we need consistency regarding personnel at the leadership level and at the classroom level. He is offering incentive pay of teachers go to schools that need more success. This incentive pay is given if the teachers can maintain certain testing requirements. Dr. Vitti says the extra hour in certain schools to increase reading levels will help reading to become easier for students.

Bruce Ganger says his organization rescues food from grocery retailers, farms, packing houses, manufacturers that would otherwise be thrown out. They inspect to ensure it nutritional and provide out into the community. He says what they really need right now it more volunteers.

Ascertainments show that parents do want a good education for their children and want to make sure the right teachers are in place to make that happen. Also, the community is willing to assist with getting food out as hunger is a problem here in Northeast Florida.

Jax Journal

Airdate: 8/30/14

Topics: education

Guests: Dr. Nikolai Vitti, Superintendent of Duval County Public Schools

Duration: 26:32

Dr. Vitti says everything is going well as the school year starts. He says it does take a lot of planning to ensure everything runs smoothly. He says we are at where we should be in terms of enrollment. He feels much more confident this year than last year with his team of principals in Duval County. He encourages all parents to be engaged in their children's education.

Ascertainments show that education is of critical importance in our community and that parents are interested in hearing about their child's education.

Crime

Jax Journal

Show: Jax Journal

Host: Roxy Tyler

Airdate: 7/5/14

Topics: crime

Guests: Donald Foy, president of MAD DADS

Duration: 26:46

Donald says a new program called Saturday Night Hoops will be starting to have young people come and have fun instead of leaning towards a life of crime. They teach them discipline and character. Donald says there is a problem with black-on-black crime and they are trying to do something about it. He feels Operation Cease Fire can only help. He says everyone needs to step up for this cause. People should get involved instead of criticizing everything that's going on.

Ascertainments show that the people of Jacksonville are concerned with the crime rates and want to have something done about it.

Jax Journal

Airdate: 7/12/14

Topics: crime

Guests: State Attorney Angela Corey

Duration: 26:47

Roxy Tyler sits down with State Attorney Angela Corey. Angela states they are handling the Nipper's shooting with a complete investigation and that it will take time to complete. They are certain they have the correct suspect in this case but their job now is to find out if the shots fired were justifiable. People should feel free to visit their local hangouts but they should be careful wherever they go. In regards to parents leaving their kids in hot cars, Angela feels that drivers are too distracted and need to put their personal devices down. She says people need to make their children a first priority.

Ascertainments would show that the people of Jacksonville are very interested in local crimes affecting their community.

First Coast Forum

Host: Jeremy Gold

Airdate: September 6, 2014

Guests: Lt. Goleme from the Clay County Sheriff's Office

Today's guest on First Coast Forum is Lt. Paul Goleme of the Clay County Sheriff's department. We discussed juvenile crime in Clay County and ways to keep at risk youth off the street with the PAL Program. PAL or police activities league. Prevent juvenile crime and violence by building the bond between law enforcement officers and kids.

Action News Sunday

Airdate: 9/27/14

Topics: Governor Race; Michael Dunn trial

Guests: Charlie Crist, running for Governor; Dale Carson, law and safety expert

Duration: 20:13

Charlie thinks the voters are seeing the negative campaign of Rick Scott. He says Floridians are smart and they are not being conned by the governor. He now calls himself a social moderate and he says the Republican Party left him, he didn't leave it. Charlie says dredging at JaxPort needs to happen and that it's critical. He also supports giving gun rights back to convicted felons.

Dale Carson says it's fascinating to see the two different trials in the Michael Dunn/Jordan Davis trial happening now in Jacksonville. Dale says Judge Healy doesn't take any nonsense from anybody and he wants to see this trial done in a timely manner. He says the prosecution has to paint a broad picture that shows Michael Dunn acted unreasonably and that he in fact murdered Jordan David. He says all the defense has to show is reasonable doubt.

Ascertainments show that the people of Florida are watching the race for Governor closely and that the Michael Dunn trial is very important as well.

Tax Reform

Action News Sunday

Host: Action News TV Anchors

Airdate: 7/5/14

Topics: IRS, national security, immigration reform, Uber X

Guests: Ander Crenshaw, Robin Lumb

Duration: 20:37

Congressman Ander Crenshaw says proposing a bill to dramatically cut funding to the IRS is the right thing to do. He says they won't give them any more money unless they prove that they can be good stewards of the money that they already have. He says they were stunned that IRS says they lost the emails. The congressman thinks the IRS needs to stop singling out individuals based on their political philosophy. About national security, Congressman says the number one responsibility of the federal government is to protect American lives. He says that the current president is acting like an imperial president. He says it is unconstitutional for the president to act alone by signing Executive orders.

City Councilman Robin Lumb says Uber X wants to be a ridesharing service no different than car-pooling. The general counsel's office says the Uber X would be subject to the city's ordinance code. Uber's drivers go through a background check, a vehicle inspection and they must have insurance. Miami have actually been impounding cars driving for Uber as it violates city ordinances.

Ascertainments show that people of Jacksonville are concerned about the way the federal government is dealing with issues. Also, at the local level, Uber X is affecting the way people get around, and it may be breaking local laws.

First Coast Forum

Host: Clarence Natto

Airdate: Sunday, July 27th, 2014

Topic: Tax Reform

Guest: Mr. Michael Corrigan, Duval County Tax Collector

Duration: 24 minutes: 31 seconds

Tax reform is an ongoing debate among public constituents and governmental agencies. Our guest on First Coast Forum this week is Duval County Tax Collector Mr. Michael Corrigan. Mr. Corrigan shared insight about the establishment of the tax system and more specifically the formation of tax collection and the role of the tax collector in Duval County. The office of Tax Collector is by election and Mr. Corrigan has served as its chief since July 2011. Technology has played a pivotal role in tax collection for the county and for citizens. Mr. Corrigan explains that technology has enhanced the tax collection experience for citizens and administrators who work in the Tax Collectors office. Mr. Corrigan tells us that dollars collected are used to sustain the county's infrastructure and services.
