Sections 3: Supplemental (Non-Vacancy Specific) Recruitment Activities Undertaken by KPYG-FM, KWWV-FM, KXTZ-FM, KXDZ-FM, KYNS (AM)

1. Cuesta College had a job fair on April 25, 2017 and Dimes Media was the exclusive media sponsor. The stations pre-promoted this event for business recruiters to attend and there was 32% increase over the previous year. All the stations had on-air interviews promoting the job fair. Dimes Media's President, two Program Directors, two On-Air staff, 4 Sales/Marketing consultants, and a Student Intern attended the fair. They had station information to hand out, available job opportunities for Sales/Marketing Consultants, Student Interns, and part-time Promotions staffers. The Dimes Media representatives accepted applications, and had on-site interviews. The job fair was geared for students, general public, and other youth. Several hundred people including many minorities and women attended the fair throughout the day.
2. Dimes Media is the radio sponsor for the San Luis Obispo County Foodbank and pre-promoted the Foodbank's one day annual fundraiser with on-air interviews airing on all stations and broadcasting over 240 promotional announcements. All stations had live broadcasts as well as 120 live cut-ins on the day. This event raised over $100,000 for the SLO Foodbank. All Dimes Media stations became involved with a new program with the SLO Foodbank, "Green SLO" in April 2017 by providing over 850 minutes of on-air exposure for this new venture and helping to solicit community members to participate. The program coordinates farmers and local orchard owners to recruit community members to harvest commercially left over produce which is given to the food programs of the SLO Foodbank. Additional food is provided for thousands of San Luis Obispo residents.
3. Cal Poly Job Fair was held on April 19, 2017 and Dimes Media was one of the 100 businesses which participated. Dimes Media President, 2 Program Directors, 2 On-Air staff, and 2 Sales/Marketing Consultants represented the stations. They distributed station information and accepted applications for full-time Sales/Marketing Consultants, part-time Promotions Staffers, and Student Interns. The Job Fair was targeted for Cal Poly students and over 1000 attended.

4. Dimes Media Central Coast developed a relationship with Cuesta College specifically with Cuesta's Career Connection program in that a male black student was an intern at the stations from March through May, 2017. As an intern, he also earns college class credit and learns all aspects of radio. He worked in Production department (creating, voicing, and producing a commercial spots); aided in executing on-air and on-line contesting. In Promotions, he researched promotions and events in and outside of the market; he staffed the booth at different station events; and helped with music and concert research. For Sales/Marketing, he created proposals for various clients. At the conclusion of his internship, he was offered and accepted a part time position with Dimes Central Coast in the Promotions department as a "street team" member at the stations as well as representing the stations' at outside events.
5. On-air announcements are broadcasted daily on all stations airing the following PSA: KPYG, KWWV, KXTZ, KXDZ, and KYNS are looking for organizations that regularly distribute information about employment opportunities to job applicants, or have job applicants to refer. If your organization would like to receive notifications of job vacancies from our stations, please contact our General Manager at (805)786-2570.
6. EEOC Training is ongoing with all information from the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) read and processed immediately upon receipt. Any new FCC policies are reviewed quarterly with the General Manager, Department Supervisors. This information is then sent to the remaining staff through meetings and memos.
