

WTVF
1ST QUARTER ISSUES/PROGRAMS
JANUARY 1, 2018 – MARCH 31, 2018

This report of programs and program segments addressing issues of importance and concern in the NewsChannel 5 viewing area includes the following:

- NEWSCHANNEL 5 NEWS – WTVF produces daily newscasts providing local information of interest to viewers in the Nashville designated market area. The station produces 36 hours of local news each week, not including breaking news, special reports, and severe weather coverage. In-depth reports on subjects such as Crime, Health, Government and Politics, Education and Consumer News are routinely included in the news. WTVF also presents newscast features that heighten viewer awareness of problems and concerns including segments such on crime, education and health. Regularly scheduled newscasts air Monday through Friday, 4:00 to 7:00 AM, 4:00 PM, 5:00 PM, 6:00 to 7:00 PM, and 10:00 PM; and on weekends starting at 5:00 AM, in the early evening, and at 10:00 PM. Segments may also appear in our daily “Talk of the Town” program (Monday-Friday 11:00-11:30 AM). Also, on a continuing but irregular basis, WTVF may telecast local specials, either produced by WTVF, CBS or syndicated, in all dayparts, addressing subjects of special importance.
- NEWSCHANNEL 5 REPORTS - WTVF regularly produces major series of one or more parts scheduled in the 6 PM REPORT and 10 PM REPORT. These special features provide in-depth reporting on subjects of importance to the WTVF viewing audience and may focus on such topics as government, crime, consumer news, public health, and other issues of local interest. (See Attachment A.)
- CBS PROGRAMS - WTVF regularly telecasts 60 MINUTES, 48 HOURS, and FACE THE NATION, and from time to time, CBS specials. These specials take the form of Public Affairs programs or news specials. (See Attachment B.)
- PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENTS - WTVF schedules public service announcements for a myriad of community agencies and organizations. Attached is a representative list of PSAs’ that aired January 1, 2018, through March 31, 2018. (See Attachment C.)
- NEWSCHANNEL 5+ PROGRAMMING – WTVF produces and programs a second channel, NewsChannel 5+ which is distributed via cable and over the air on 5.2 to approximately 650,000 households. NewsChannel 5+ provides 24 hours of news and information programming with primarily a local focus. Programming includes shows for niche audiences, including African Americans, Hispanics, LGBT, business, politics, schools, local politics/government, call-in programs to discuss significant local issues in-depth, and rebroadcasts of WTVF programming. NewsChannel 5+ also carries local specials, including government prayer breakfasts, local court proceedings, election coverage, and other events of local interest. Local government officials, law enforcement leaders, and the director of schools are regular guests. This regular interaction with community leaders helps WTVF stay abreast and ascertain those issues of concern to viewers in the Nashville area (See Attachment D).

DATE/TIME	PROGRAM/DURATION	SUMMARY/PARTICIPANTS
1/8/18	WTVF Special (110 minutes)	PRESIDENT TRUMP VISIT TO NASHVILLE: NewsChannel 5 provided live coverage of President Donald Trump's second visit to Nashville as President. Mr. Trump visited the Gaylord Opryland Hotel to deliver the keynote speech at a meeting of the American Farm Bureau Association. About 5000 farmers, ranchers and others involved in agriculture attended the event. The speech lasted about 40 minutes- during that time, Mr. Trump discussed rural initiatives and policy promises that he had made to farmers Mr. Trump also signed two executive orders while in Nashville after his speech – one was aimed at promoting the expansion of broadband internet into rural areas that lack connectivity. Mr. Trumps' address marked his first major policy speech in several weeks. We also covered how the Presidential motorcade would affect rush hour traffic. We also interviewed several supporters as well and protestors of the President during his visit. We had several crews around town, including at the airport for Air Force One's arrival. We also provided extensive coverage on Newschannel5.com and on many of our social media platforms.
1/23/18	Gubernatorial Forum (60 Minutes)	2018 GUBERNATORIAL FORUM ON EDUCATION: NewsChannel 5 held the first forum with the candidates who will be running for the office of Tennessee Governor later this year. Participants included Randy Boyd (Businessman, served on Governor Haslam's cabinet – R), Karl Dean (former mayor of Nashville – D), Craig Fitzhugh ((Tennessee House of Representatives, Minority Leader – D), Beth Harwell (Tennessee House of Representatives – Speaker of the House) and Bill Lee (Tennessee businessman). NewsChannel 5 anchor Rhori Johnson and David Plazas, op-ed page editor for the Tennessean, acted as moderators while former Senate Majority Leader Bill Frist served as the forum's honorary host. Belmont University as a co-sponsor of the debate which was held on their campus. Education will be the focus of the forum. The candidates largely agreed on broad issues facing the state but split along party lines on in-state tuition for immigrants whose parents brought them to the country illegally. WTVF also provided a live stream of the forum.
1/31/18	6 PM News (4:49)	CITY HALL SCANDAL - Mayor Megan Barry admitted earlier in the day to an extramarital affair with a Metro police sergeant who had been assigned to protect her. In an exclusive interview with NewsChannel 5 Investigates , Barry insisted that she has not misused taxpayer funds as part of the relationship with Metro Police Sergeant Rob Forrest. Barry's admission came just days after NewsChannel 5 Investigates began inquiring about her use of taxpayer money. Participants included Nashville Metro Mayor Megan Barry.
2/1/18	6 PM News (2:44)	CTY HALL SCANDAL PHOTOS - A new photo, discovered by NewsChannel 5 Investigates , shows Nashville's mayor on a taxpayer-funded trip to Paris with the police bodyguard with whom she was having an affair. Other photos show the two of them in New York last July, taking a tour during a leadership conference. On that day, police sergeant Rob Forrest charged taxpayers for a full day, plus five hours overtime. Forrest retired effective this week. His former boss, Chief Steve Anderson, insisted that he does not believe that taxpayer money has been misspent. Participants included Nashville Metro Police Chief Steve Anderson.

2/5/18	5 PM News (2:00)	CITY HALL SCANDAL TRAVEL - New information raises even more questions about Nashville Mayor Megan Barry's need for police security. These new documents show that, during the first year of her administration, Barry traveled alone to Boston, New York, Washington D.C., Oklahoma City, and Phoenix. There were other trips -- to Los Angeles, for example -- where she traveled with other staff members, but no security. Her first out-of-state trip with Forrest -- as well as other city officials -- was to Minneapolis in April 2016. However, in 2017, for the first time, Barry and Forrest started traveling alone together - they took nine trips, including to Athens, Greece and Paris, France.
2/6/18	6 PM News (2:10)	CITY HALL SCANDAL – FORMER PROSECUTOR - With Nashville Mayor Megan Barry trying to calm the City Hall Scandal, a former federal prosecutor says her biggest challenge may be political -- not criminal. Still, he says, the mayor has got some explaining to do for investigators. Participants included attorney Gary Blackburn.
2/8/18	6 PM News (2:03)	CITY HALL SCANDAL – PAY BACK - Mayor Megan Barry says she is prepared to write a check if investigators question any of her use of taxpayer money. Her comments, in an exclusive interview with NewsChannel 5 Investigates , come amid two separate investigations stemming from her two-year affair with her police bodyguard Rob Forrest. Participants included Nashville Metro Mayor Megan Barry.
2/9/18	6 PM News (1:29)	CITY HALL SCANDAL - As the City Hall Scandal unfolded, Police Chief Steve Anderson insisted he never approved Sgt. Rob Forrest's travel with Nashville Mayor Megan Barry. However, documents released earlier in the day by the Mayor's Office say he did. City officials are now blaming a computer glitch for registering approvals by Chief Anderson that never occurred.
2/9/18 6:30-7 PM	INSIDE POLITICS (30 minutes)	Inside Politics is hosted by veteran political reporter Pat Nolan who sits down with the big big newsmakers to get the inside scoop on the decisions that affect us all. Pat's guest was Nashville Mayor Megan Barry who sat down for her first in-depth interview since the scandal broke about her two-year affair with her bodyguard. Here are some of the topics that were discussed: 1) Her thoughts on the several investigations into whether she misused government funds as her bodyguard accumulated enough overtime to become the 2 nd highest paid member of the Nashville police department. 2) The nine-billion-dollar transit plan that Barry has been advocating for and if the scandal will impact how people vote for it in May. 3) Controversy surrounding the budget for Metro General Hospital.
2/22/18	6 PM News (3:10)	CITY HALL SCANDAL – CITY CEMETARY – Security video uncovered by NewsChannel 5 Investigates showed Mayor Megan Barry found time alone with her police bodyguard during early morning visits to the Nashville City Cemetery. In every case, payroll record show that taxpayers were paying Sgt. Rob Forrest to be there. Participants included Metro Council member Steve Glover.
2/23/18	6 PM News (2:07)	CITY HALL SCANDAL – CELL PHONE CODE – According to her attorney's statement, Mayor Megan Barry has surrendered the passcode for her personal phone to the Tennessee Bureau of Investigation. Meanwhile, documents obtained by NewsChannel 5 Investigates show Barry's attorney asked District Attorney Glenn Funk to recuse himself from the case.
2/26/18	6 PM News (2:30)	CITY HALL SCANDAL – PROTECTION POLICY - For weeks, Nashville Mayor Megan Barry has insisted she was just following police department policies for her security. It turns out, there is a written policy -- and it looks a lot different from what the mayor suggested. Participants included Nashville Metro Mayor Megan Barry.

2/28/18	6 PM News (3:38)	CITY HALL SCANDAL – TENNESSEAN - The editorial board of The Tennessean called earlier in the day for Nashville Mayor Megan Barry to resign, saying she has violated her own order that set an ethics code for her administration. It came at the end of a month of bad days.
3/6/18	WTVF Special (203 minutes)	MAYOR BARRY RESIGNS: Five weeks after NewsChannel 5 broke the story about Mayor Mega Barry's two-year affair with her police bodyguard Rob Forrest, she announced at a press conference that effective this date she would be resigning her office. Vice-Mayor David Briley would take over mayoral duties until a special election can be held later this year. In addition to her resignation, Mayor Barry pleaded guilty to felony theft and must pay the city back $11,000 stemming from the overtime caused by Forrest. Forrest himself had to plead guilty to the same charge and pay back the city $45,000. Our coverage included Barry's press conference and later he appearance in criminal court. During our coverage, we had many interviews with Nashville politicians including several city councilpersons and some previous mayors of the city. Later in the day, our coverage included the swearing in of Briley as the city's new mayor. We simulcast our coverage on both WTVF and NewsChannel 5 Plus and had extensive coverage on NewsChannel 5.com and our social platforms.

"The Leaning Tower of San Francisco" - a report on The Millennium Tower, a luxury high-rise building in San Francisco constructed in 2009 and sinking steadily since. This has led to decreasing property values, lawsuits, and no explanation from the builders. Includes interviews with: Jerry and Pat Dodson, residents of Millennium Tower; Aaron Peskin, San Francisco Board of Supervisors; Andrew Faulk and Frank Jernigan, former residents/home owners at Millennium Tower; Petar Marinkovic, engineer; Jerry Cauthen, engineer; Larry Karp, geotechnical engineer. (C: Jon Wertheim – P: Nathalie Sommer) (OAD: 11/05/17)
"Le Carre" - an interview / profile of novelist John le Carre, the pen name of David Cornwell, whose spy thrillers include The Spy Who Came in from the Cold, Tinker Tailor Soldier Spy, and The Little Drummer Girl. He himself was once an agent in Britain's famed M16 during the Cold War, and he discusses his life, work and a writing process that has made him an extremely successful author. 01/06/18 48 HOURS: "Grapes of Wrath" – a report about the 2015 showdown between two millionaires, Robert Dahl and Emad Tawfilis, whose bitter money dispute over a Napa Valley winery business ended in murder. Entrepreneur Robert Dahl was drawn from Minnesota to the Napa Valley wine scene, while wealthy Silicon Valley businessman Emad Tawfilis wanted to be an investor in the lucrative wine business. Dahl invested in two failed businesses -- the first with Dominic Foppoli; and the second with local business couple Greg and Francine Knittel. Dahl still always had money. Dahl eventually partnered with Emad Tawfilis, which also failed. After hiring a private investigator, Tawfilis filed a lawsuit, hoping to get his money back. Dahl and Tawfilis met at the vineyard where they consulted their attorneys via a conference call. They then decided to talk privately. Something went drastically wrong, resulting in Tawfilis running through the vineyard while being shot at by Dahl. Tawfilis managed to call 911. Police arrived at the scene to find him shot in the head. Dahl tried to escape, but after a chase, committed suicide. They found other articles in his truck that suggested he had other victims in mind. On-screen text graphic: Dahl's wife and kids still live in California wine country. The grapes on the old Dahl vineyard were harvested last fall. The property is for sale. Interviewed: Dominic Foppoli (Napa Valley businessman); Lew Perdue (tech entrepreneur/wine writer); Francine and Greg Knittel (Napa Valley business couple); Myles Davis (electrician who worked for Dahl); Jonathan Kesselman (film director/Tawfilis friend); Steve Burch (winemaker); Dawn King (private investigator); David Wiseblood (Tawfilis' attorney); Jasmin Duel and Kousha Berokim (Dahl's attorneys). 48 HOURS (continued)

- 01/20/18 48 HOURS: “Murder in the Mansion” (9:00-10:00p) – a report on one of the most notorious cases in Texas history -- the 1976 ambush in a lavish Fort Worth mansion owned by Texas oilman Cullen Davis, that left two people wounded and two people dead -- one of them a child. To this day, no one has ever been held accountable for the crime. In 1976, Cullen Davis’ estranged wife, Priscilla Davis, returned home to the mansion with her boyfriend, Stan Farr, and a friend. Gunfire erupted, and when it ended, Farr and Andrea Wilborn, Priscilla’s 12-year-old daughter from a previous marriage were dead, and Davis and her friend were wounded. Both Davis and her friend identified the shooter -- a man dressed in black -- as Cullen Davis. The DA’s theory was that Cullen committed the crimes because of the pending divorce and his banishment from the mansion, which had been ordered by the judge handling the divorce. They also believed that Andrea was shot before the adults returned home. Davis, then worth an estimated $500 million, hired Richard Haynes, the most famous defense attorney in Texas at the time, to defend him. When Andrea Wilborn’s murder trial finally began, Haynes turned a routine case upside down, making the trial more about Priscilla than Andrea’s murder. It took four hours for the jury to find him not guilty. Nine months later Cullen Davis was in trouble again -- charged with hiring a hitman -- but at trial, he was acquitted again. The Davises eventually divorced, Cullen Davis left Fort Worth, the mansion was sold and today is used as an event space. Now 83, Cullen Davis describes himself as a born-again Christian and he did not kill Farr and Wilborn, nor did he shoot Priscilla and her friend. On-screen text graphic: Richard "Racehorse" Haynes died in April 2017. The mansion is now an event space often used for weddings. Interviewed: Jack Strickland (former Fort Worth prosecutor); Christy Jack (attorney); Dee Davis (Andrea Wilborn’s sister); Trey Davis (adopted son of Cullen Davis); Dan Cogdell (attorney, protégé of Richard Haynes); David McCrory (friend of Cullen Davis). (C: Maureen Maher - P: Chuck Stevenson, Gail Abbott Zimmerman) (OAD: 05/13/17)
- 01/20/18 48 HOURS SPECIAL: “All-American Murder: The Rise and Fall of Aaron Hernandez” (10:00-11:00p) – an investigation by best-selling author and 48 HOURS contributor James Patterson, author of “All-American Murder”, which delves into the life and death of convicted murderer and former New England Patriots’ player Aaron Hernandez. Through interviews, Hernandez’s life is traced through the people who knew him. Also included is an examination of the possible role Chronic Traumatic Encephalopathy (CTE) played in his life as an adult and if it contributed to his suicide. Hernandez turned a hardscrabble New England childhood into superstar NFL dreams; in 2012 he was on one of the all-time best teams in the NFL and had received a $40 million contract extension. Everything soon fell apart when he was arrested for the 2013 murder of semi-pro linebacker Odin Lloyd in North Attleboro, Massachusetts. In 2015, Hernandez was convicted of murdering Lloyd. In April 2017, Hernandez committed suicide at the age of 27, in prison where he was serving a life sentence. His life is traced from his childhood in Bristol, Connecticut, to football glory, first in college at the University of Florida and then in the NFL, with the New England Patriots. However, his personal demons remained hidden behind the mask of a celebrity. Off the field, he ran with a bad crowd, used drugs and was also charged and acquitted of killing two other people. After his death, doctors learned the countless hits he took playing football may have caused Chronic Traumatic Encephalopathy (CTE), a degenerative brain disease found in people who have suffered repeated trauma to the head. On-screen text graphic: Prosecutors are appealing to have Aaron Hernandez's murder conviction reinstated. Shayanna Jenkins-Hernandez has filed a lawsuit on behalf of the couple's daughter, against the NFL and helmet maker Riddell seeking damages for the brain injuries Hernandez sustained. Ursula Ward has filed a wrongful death lawsuit against Aaron Hernandez's estate. Interviewed: Shawn Courchesne (former sports reporter, Hartford Courant); Tim Washington (family friend); Ian Rapoport (NFL Network); Shayanna Jenkins-Hernandez (exclusive footage from the “Dr. Phil Show”); Ruban Meyer (former head football coach, University of Florida); Deonte Thompson (Buffalo Bills wide receiver, former college teammate); Dr. Bennet Omalu (Forensic Pathologist, University of California); Linda Kenney Baden (Hernandez defense attorney); Brian Murphy (Hernandez Sports Agent); Don Gobin (witness to shooting attributed to Hernandez); Kenny Smith (Palm Beach County Sheriff’s office); Ursula Ward (mother of Odin Lloyd); Doug Shef (Ward’s attorney); Joseph Dizenzo (North Attleboro Police Captain); Michael Kin (Detective Lieutenant, Massachusetts State Police); Thomas Hodgson (Bristol County Sheriff); William McCauley (Bristol County Sheriff); Michael Fee (Hernandez attorney); Dr. Ann McKee (Director, Boston University CTE Center). 01/27/18 48 HOURS: “Sins of the Father” – a followup to 48 HOURS: “The Last Confession” (OAD: 03/01/14; 1st rebroadcast: 07/26/14; 2nd Updated Rebroadcast: 04/16/16), which was a report on the investigation into the 1960 murder of Irena Garza, in McAllen, Texas, and the efforts that family members and police have taken to bring the suspect, a Roman Catholic priest, to trial for the crime. Nearly 60 years after Irene Garza disappeared after going to confession on Easter weekend, the priest accused of murdering her goes on trial. In 1960, Irene Garza told her family she was going to church for confession but never returned home. Five days later, her body was found in a drainage canal. Police say she was beaten, sexually assaulted and suffocated. The investigation kept leading to Father Feit, who admitted hearing her last confession in the church rectory. Information about another attack, also led to Father Feit. He pled no contest to aggravated assault and was fined, but the Irene Garza case went cold. Rumors swirled that there was a conspiracy between the church and the authorities. Feit was re-assigned. In 2002, the McAllen Police Department asked the Texas Rangers’ cold case unit to re-examine the evidence. The investigation took a dramatic turn when a former monk, Dale Tacheny, told police that Feit admitted to killing a young woman while Tacheny was a counselor at a monastery. Despite the new finding, Hildago County District Attorney Rene Guerra did not believe the case was strong enough to take to court. In 2016, the new District Attorney said he had new facts and evidence and that a jury would get past the threshold of reasonable doubt in this case. John Feit was arrested, and flown back to Texas to stand trial. In December 2017, at trial, the latest details, including evidence and testimony from witnesses that the prosecution said was evidence of the long-suspected cover-up between authorities and the church lead to a guilty verdict in this case. On-screen text graphic: Former DA Rene Guerra says he has no regrets about how he handled the Irene Garza case. He plans to make another run for the DA's office this year. Do you have more information about John Feit? Please contact us at 48Hourstips@cbsnews.com. Interviewed: Mike Garza (Assistant District Attorney); Noemi Ponce Sigler and Lynda de la Vina (Irene Garza family members); Ana Maria Hollingsworth (new witness); Darrell Davis (former TV reporter/attorney); Dale Tacheny (former monk); Rudy Jarmillo (Texas Ranger); Rene Guerra (former District Attorney). 02/03/18

48 HOURS: “A Brother’s Mission” (9:00 – 10:00p) – An updated rebroadcast on the 2007 death of Karl Hoerig, a decorated military pilot from Ohio and his brother’s mission to track down and bring to justice the accused killer -- Claudia Sobral Hoerig, Karl’s second wife. Karl was found shot dead in his Ohio home after failing to show up for reserve duty. His family and friends immediately suspected Claudia, who had also vanished. Karl and Claudia’s joint bank accounts had been emptied and she had returned to her home country of Brazil. One month later, Claudia Sobral was charged in absentia with aggravated murder. However, Brazilian law prevents Brazilian citizen from being extradited. One of the many questions being raised in this ground-breaking judicial case, is that since Claudia was also an American citizen and had renounced her Brazilian citizenship, is she still protected from extradition under Brazilian law? She fought back, winning many rulings. But in 2016, the Brazilian Supreme Court ruled against her and she is now in prison. Paul Hoerig traveled to Brazil to press U.S. authorities and Brazil to expedite the matter. Three weeks after he got home, the Supreme Court of Brazil officially closed the case: Claudia can be extradited. The last step: the Brazilian President must issue the order to put Claudia on a plane. For the first time in a decade, the family feels hopeful that Claudia will be returned to the United States to stand trial. Original 11/25/17 on-screen text graphic: There is no timetable for the President of Brazil to rule on Claudia Sobral’s extradition. Claudia Sobral will remain in jail until she is extradited, or tried for Karl Hoerig’s murder in Brazil. UPDATE for the 02/03/18 rebroadcast: Once the Brazilian president made his ruling, the case heated up. Seventeen days ago, Claudia was released to the U.S. Marshalls. She was flown back to Ohio from Brazil, where she appeared in court for arraignment. Bail has been set at $10 million. The Hoerig family sees the end of the road ahead for this case. On-screen text graphic for the 02/03/18 updated rebroadcast: Claudia Hoerig has been assigned a public defender. Claudia Hoerig is expected to go on trial in about a year. Interviewed: Ed Hoerig, Paul Hoerig, Eva Snowden (Karl’s father, brother and daughter); Rhonda Sharpe (Karl’s first wife); Gary Dodge, Chris Swegan, Casey Keibler (Karl’s friends); Richard Sliter (gun instructor); Dennis Watkins (Trumbell County prosecuting attorney); Rep. 48 HOURS: “Natalie Wood: Death in Dark Water” (10:00 – 11:00p) - a follow-up report about the unexplained drowning death of Hollywood star Natalie Wood nearly four decades ago. County sheriff’s investigators speak for the first time and tell 48 HOURS that her then-husband, actor Robert Wagner, is now a person of interest; the investigators want to speak with Wagner about the circumstances surrounding her death that night in 1981. Wood drowned off the coast of Catalina Island in California in November 1981 after she went missing from the Splendour, her family’s yacht. Also aboard that night was Captain Dennis Davern, and actor Christopher Walken. The next day, Wood was found floating in the water wearing a red down jacket and flannel nightgown. After a two-week investigation, the death was ruled an accident. In 2011, as detailed in “Natalie Wood’s Fatal Voyage” (OAD: 11/19/11), the Los Angeles County Sheriff’s Department reopened the death investigation. In 2012, the Los Angeles Coroner’s Office amended the death certificate from an “accidental drowning” to “drowning and other undetermined factors.” Now, six years after that investigation 48 HOURS talks with the investigators about new witnesses, new evidence and new theories as to what happened that night. Rumors of foul play have long surrounded Wood’s mysterious death. At first, the three men aboard the boat told detectives that Wood, took off in a dinghy and went ashore. Over time, however, Wagner and Davern’s accounts have shifted, raising a red flag to the investigators. Investigators also say Wagner has refused to speak with them since the case was re-opened. Investigators today note the autopsy report indicates there were several bruises that appeared to be fresh on Wood’s body. The latest information is detailed through interviews with the detectives, and Natalie Wood’s sister, Lana Wood. Also included are archival interviews with Robert Wagner and Captain Dennis Davern. On-screen text graphic: 48 HOURS’ requests to interview Robert Wagner and Christopher Walken were declined. The Splendour is currently up for sale. Interviewed: John Corina (LA County Sheriff’s Office); Detective Ralph Hernandez; Lana Wood (sister); Sam Kashner (Vanity Fair contributing editor); Matt Crowley (close family friend); Duane Rasure (original detective); and Thomas Noguchi (coroner). 48 HOURS: “Paradise Lost” - an updated report on the investigation into the 2010 shooting death of Wall Street millionaire John Bender, who was killed in his exotic home in Costa Rica. His wife, Ann, is charged with the crime, but she claims innocence. After making a $100 million fortune on Wall Street, the Benders bought land in Costa Rica where they built a nature preserve, along with an elaborate, four-story hilltop home with no walls or windows as the centerpiece. The couple seemed to have everything; but both suffered from severe depression, became isolated, and were not entirely welcomed by the locals. On January 8, 2010, John Bender died from a bullet wound to the back of the head. Ann Bender says her husband was trying to kill himself. Nineteen months after the shooting, Ann Bender was charged with murder. At trial, Ann was found not guilty of murder; but in Costa Rica, there is no double jeopardy rule and Ann was brought up on the same charges again and this time was found guilty. 48 HOURS brought in the world-famous independent forensic team of Richard and Selma Eikelenboom, who, after examining evidence, say there were problems with the conclusion drawn by the prosecution. Today, Ann Bender is in prison continuing to fight for her innocence. Original on-screen text graphic: The Bender gems, worth an estimated $20 million, were confiscated by the Costa Rican authorities. 07/25/15 EPILOGUE: Last February, nine months after Ann Bender was convicted, an appeals court overturned that decision. Its finding was that the prosecution’s evidence was insufficient proof of murder. Ann was released. The court has ordered a third trial. Her boyfriend died while she was in prison. She must remain in Costa Rica, pending her next trial. On-screen text graphic for the 07/25/15 rebroadcast: The trial is scheduled to begin next month. Ann Bender has moved into a new home on the East Coast. She has put the Boracayan property up for sale. Just last summer, she got her multimillion-dollar gem collection back. 02/10/18 UPDATE: After six months, the third trial began. Two lawyers from the United Kingdom and two from the United States joined her legal team. In an unusual move, they also hired the Eikelenbooms for the defense team. After ten years and three trials, Ann Bender hears the words “not guilty” from the jury. Taking no chances, she flew home to the U.S. with no intention of going back to Costa Rica. Months later, the court announces its intention for a fourth trial. Legal experts say that they would be surprised to see the United States extradite Ann Bender. On-screen text graphic for the 02/10/18 updated rebroadcast: Ann Bender has moved into a new home on the East Coast. She has put the Boracayan property up for sale. Just last summer, she got her multimillion-dollar gem collection back. Interviewed: Ann Bender; John Bender’s friend Pete DeLisi; CBS News consultant/reporter Ned Zeman; prosecutor Edgar Ramirez; Ann’s psychiatrist Dr. Carlos Lizano; Bender friend, Paul Meyer; Bender Trust administrator Juan Alvarez; Ann’s current boyfriend Greg Fischer; Ann’s attorney Fabio Oconitrillo; security guard Oswaldo Aguilar; forensic experts Richard and Selma Eikelenboom. 02/17/18

48 HOURS PRESENTS: “Rodney Alcalá: The Killing Game” – an updated report on the criminal justice system’s 50-year pursuit of serial killer Rodney James Alcalá. From his 1968 abduction, rape and attempted murder of 8-year old Tali Shapiro in Los Angeles; to his 2010 conviction -- with the help of advances in DNA technology -- for the kidnapping, rape and murder of five California women; and to the subsequent discovery of other murders attributed to Alcalá in New York and Wyoming. Although he had been initially apprehended in New York in 1971, the California prosecution at that time had no choice but to enter into a plea agreement with Alcalá. He pleaded guilty to a lesser charge of child molestation and was ultimately convicted -- but released by a parole board after thirty-four months in prison. In 1979, he was arrested for the murder of Robin Samson. Police had discovered a storage facility he had rented in Seattle, which contained photographs he had taken of more than one hundred young women, including photos which placed him near the scene of Robin Samson’s abduction. He was convicted, and sentenced to death. In 1984, the California State Supreme Court then ruled that he had not received a fair trial. He was tried and convicted a second time...and again the verdict was overturned. In 2003, DNA technology enabled Los Angeles Deputy District Attorney Gina Satriano to link Alcalá to three other unsolved murders: Jill Barcomb, Georgia Wixted, and Charlotte Lamb. Evidence also linked Alcalá to the 1979 murder of another Los Angeles woman, Jill Parenteau. In January 2010, Alcalá went on trial for these murders -- and was found guilty and sentenced to death. In 2012, Alcalá was sent to New York to face justice for two cold cases from the 1970s that had recently been solved: the 1971 murder of Cornelia Michael Crilley and the 1977 killing of Ellen Hover. He pleaded guilty to both. He was sentenced to two concurrent prison terms and returned to California. Meanwhile, Kathy Thornton had spent 39 years trying to find her sister, Christine, who went missing after a trip out west with her boyfriend. Her son urged her to examine the 48 HOURS website with the images of Alcalá’s unidentified photos of women. She recognized her sister in one. After entering her DNA into a database of missing persons, Kathy found out that her sister was a murder victim -- Christine had the misfortune of taking a motorcycle trip with Alcalá. Detectives met with Alcalá and after his statement to them, he was subsequently charged with first-degree murder. Includes interviews with: Chris Camacho, Los Angeles police officer; Matt Murphy, deputy District Attorney, Orange County, CA; Steve Hodel, detective; Bridget Wilvurt, friend of Robin Samson; Marianne Connelly, mother of Robin Samson; Robert and Tim Samson, brothers of Robin Samson; Pat Ellis, Detective; Tali Shapiro, victim of Alcalá. New interviews for the 02/17/18 updated broadcast: Steve Bracini (former cold case detective, NYPD); Leon Bornstein (roommate of Cornelia Crilley); Melissa Mourges (Manhattan Prosecutor); Martha Bashford (Manhattan Prosecutor); Anita Feinberg (friend of Ellen Hover); Mary Ellen O’Toole (former FBI Profiler); DeDee Parenteau (sister of victim); Cyrus Vance (Manhattan DA); Jeff Sheaman (Wyoming detective); Daniel Errasmoupe (County Prosecutor); Joe Tomich (Detective, Sweetwater County, Wyoming); Kathy Thornton (sister of victim). 48 HOURS PRESENTS: “The Family” (9:00-10:00p) and “The Family...A Cult Revealed” (10:00-11:00p) – a two-part report on “The Family,” a cult that began in Australia and later moved to New York. Includes allegations of stolen children, drugs, and abuse and a portrait of its leader, Anne Hamilton-Byrne, who claimed to be the second coming of Christ. This is the story of a woman’s attempt to build a perfect race through a collection of 28 children, who each had their hair bleached, were home-schooled on an isolated property, and were injected with LSD as part on an initiation ritual. The children of the cult, now adults, tell their harrowing stories of the treatment they received from loyal cult members, referred to as “Aunties”. It is also the story of Detective Lex De Man who spent years trying to stop Anne Hamilton-Byrne, finally succeeding with the help of the FBI in the United States. Includes: (1) “The Family” – Yoga teacher Anne Hamilton-Byrne formed The Family in 1963. It was an apocalyptic cult with about 500 followers and more than 28 children. Some members willingly gave their children to her, others came from unwed mothers who were tricked into signing over their newborns to be raised by the cult, helped by members of The Family who were doctors and nurses at a nearby hospital. Many had no idea who their real parents were. In 1977, after years of rumors and speculation, police stormed a rural property and rescued seven children. The “Aunties” only faced charges of welfare fraud, while Anne Hamilton-Byrne and her husband Bill Byrne fled the country and for years, their whereabouts were unknown to the authorities in Australia. (2) “The Family...A Cult Revealed” - finding Anne Hamilton-Byrne became the obsession of Melbourne detective Lex de Man. He received a break in the case when Anne called one of the cult children from the United States. In New York, he enlisted the help of FBI, who would track her down to a farmhouse in the Catskills, and de Man personally escorted the couple back to Australia. Prosecutors ended up charging Hamilton-Byrne with conspiracy to make a false statement. Neither she nor her husband would spend one day in prison; they would each pay a fine of $5000. Authorities decided not to pursue any other charges. A couple of a dozen true believers stayed loyal. Hamilton-Byrne disappeared from the public until 2009, when she resurfaced on 60 MINUTES Australia where she denied any abuse. Anne Hamilton-Byrne is 95-years-old and is living in a nursing home in Melbourne suffering from dementia. On-screen text graphic: True believer Michael Stevenson-Helmer visits Anne every day. There is no designated successor to take over The Family from Anne. Interviewed: (all appear in hours 1&2 unless noted): Lex De Man (former detective, Victoria Police Department, Melbourne, Australia); Adam Lancaster, Dave Whitaker, Sarah Moore, Anouree Treena-Byrne, Ben Shenton, Rebecca (granddaughter of Anne-Hamilton-Bryne) (children of “The Family”); Steve Eichel (psychologist/cult expert); Michael Steenson-Helmer, Fran Parker (members of “The Family”); Phillippe de Montagnie (investigative journalist); Marie Mohn (journalist); Hilda Kogut (FBI Agent) (2); Joan Bridges (follower of celebrity guru Swami Muktananda) (2) (C: Peter Van Sant – Sr. P: Rosie Jones, Anna Grieve; P: Clare Friedland, Kat Teurfs) (OAD: 04/29/17 as 48 HOURS: “The Family” (9:00-10:00p) and “The Family...A Cult Revealed” (10:00-11:00p))
