

WTVF
4TH QUARTER ISSUES/PROGRAMS
OCTOBER 1, 2023 – DECEMBER 31, 2023

This report of programs and program segments addressing issues of importance and concern in the NewsChannel 5 viewing area includes the following:

- NEWSCHANNEL 5 NEWS – WTVF produces daily newscasts providing local information of interest to viewers in the Nashville designated market area. The station produces 36 hours of local news each week, not including breaking news, special reports, and severe weather coverage. In-depth reports on subjects such as Crime, Health, Government and Politics, Education and Consumer News are routinely included in the news. WTVF also presents newscast features that heighten viewer awareness of problems and concerns including segments such on crime, education and health. Regularly scheduled newscasts air Monday through Friday, 4:00 to 7:00 AM, 9:00 AM, 4:00 PM, 5:00 PM, 6:00 to 7:00 PM, and 10:00 PM; and on weekends starting at 5:00 AM, in the early evening, and at 10:00 PM. Also, on a continuing but irregular basis, WTVF may telecast local specials, either produced by WTVF, CBS or syndicated, in all dayparts, addressing subjects of special importance.
- NEWSCHANNEL 5 REPORTS - WTVF regularly produces major series of one or more parts scheduled in the 6 PM REPORT and 10 PM REPORT. These distinctive features provide in-depth reporting on subjects of importance to the WTVF viewing audience and may focus on such topics as government, crime, consumer news, public health, and other issues of local interest. (See Attachment A.)
- CBS PROGRAMS - WTVF regularly telecasts 60 MINUTES, 48 HOURS, and FACE THE NATION, and from time to time, CBS specials. These specials take the form of Public Affairs programs or news specials. (See Attachment B.)
- PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENTS - WTVF schedules public service announcements for a myriad of community agencies and organizations. Attached is a representative list of PSAs' that aired October 1, 2023, through December 31, 2023. (See Attachment C.)
- NEWSCHANNEL 5+ PROGRAMMING – WTVF programs a second channel, NewsChannel 5+ which is distributed via cable and over the air on 5.2 to approximately 503,000 households. NewsChannel 5+ provides 24 hours of news and information programming with a local focus. Programming includes shows for niche audiences, including African Americans, Hispanics, LGBT, business, local politics/government, call-in programs to discuss significant local issues in-depth, and rebroadcasts of WTVF programming. NewsChannel 5+ also carries local specials, including government prayer breakfasts, court proceedings, election coverage, and other events of local interest. Local government officials and law enforcement leaders are regular guests. This regular interaction with community leaders helps WTVF ascertain those issues of concern to viewers in the Nashville area (See Attachment D).

10/3/2023	6 PM News (6:03)	WHITE SUPREMACIST GROUP DELIVERS SHOW OF FORCE FOR FRANKLIN MAYORAL CANDIDATE GABRIELLE HANSON - The often-bizarre race for Franklin mayor took a disturbing new turn this week as white supremacists made a show of force for Gabrielle Hanson. That group, which calls itself the Tennessee Active Club, showed up Monday night at a forum hosted for candidates for mayor and alderman in Franklin, escorting Hanson and her husband into the event. The unprecedented showing by the group came as voters in Franklin, a city that prides itself on its small-town charm, packed City Hall to hear from the candidates who want to run the town for the next four years. Hanson refused to answer our reporter's questions. Participants included Jeff Tischauser, senior research for the Southern Poverty Law Center; Sean Kauffmann and Brad Lewis; white supremacists supporting Gabrielle Hanson; Brandy Blanton, Franklin alderman.
10/4/2023	6 PM News (1:27)	MAGA MAYORAL CANDIDATE SHARES HATE GROUP'S POSTS, WARNING "THERE IS NO POLITICAL SOLUTION" - Controversial MAGA candidate Gabrielle Hanson, in another escalation of tensions in this city's campaign for mayor, shared social media posts Wednesday from a hate group, accusing her opponent of being "connected to Antifa" and warning "there is no political solution." Hanson's Facebook story shared a Telegram post from the Tennessee Active Club claiming that incumbent Mayor Ken Moore "has been connected to Antifa." "Remember, there is no political solution," the post continues. A separate Active Club post, shared by Hanson, warns: "You don't want us showing up, get rid of the antifa in your city." Participants included Sam Whitson, Republican representative for Franklin.
10/5/2023	6 PM News (6:51)	AEROSPACE EXECUTIVE, APPAREL COMPANY OPERATOR, THERAPIST? FRANKLIN CANDIDATE'S DUBIOUS BIO – Jeff Feldman is a relative unknown running for office based on what he says is an incredible resume: a former aerospace executive, head of an apparel printing company, even a trained therapist. Feldman is running for Franklin alderman. NewsChannel 5 Investigates began investigating after hearing Feldman, a man who moved here from California just a year ago, make sometimes grandiose claims about himself and his accomplishments. Participants included Jeff Feldman, candidate for Franklin Alderman.
10/13/2023	6 PM News (4:21)	GROUP REVOKES ENDORSEMENTS OF GABRIELLE HANSON AND JEFF FELDMAN AFTER NEWSCHANNEL5 INVESTIGATION - An influential Franklin conservative group has revoked its endorsements of Gabrielle Hanson for mayor and Jeff Feldman for alderman following a series of damning NewsChannel 5 investigations. The Westhaven Conservatives group, based in the affluent neighborhood where both candidates live, announced the decision late Friday in a pair of Facebook posts. In Hanson's case, the organization pointed to her association with white supremacists who appeared at a candidate's forum to provide security for her. During a meeting of Franklin's Board of Mayor and Alderman this week, the current Franklin alderman admitted she knew the hate group was coming to the meeting but did not discourage it. In withdrawing its endorsement of Feldman, the group was pointing to how he addressed our questions about Facebook posts where he threatened to use guns against unruly Westhaven children.

10/19/2023	6 PM News (8:25)	CRITICS SAY NEW GABRIELLE HANSON VIDEO SHOWS RISE OF CHRISTIAN NATIONALISM - New video shows how the increasingly bizarre campaign for mayor in Franklin is being viewed by some as a spiritual war. Video from a tent revival in Franklin late last week shows how Gabrielle Hanson appears to believe God is on her side. But critics say that video should be a wake-up call about the dangers of those who are now trying to get political control to force their faith on others. The video posted on Facebook by evangelist Amy Elizabeth Taylor shows a charismatic tent revival in the heart of Franklin. Participants included Kevin Riggs, pastor of Franklin Community Church and Eric Welch, Williamson County School Board member.
10/24/2023	6 AM News (1:53)	IT'S FRANKLIN ELECTION DAY. HERE IS WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW - Oct. 24 is voting day in Franklin, which means it is the last chance to head to your polling place before the votes are counted for both mayor and at-large aldermen candidates. Polling is open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. The mayoral candidates are incumbent Mayor Ken Moore and At-Large Alderman Gabrielle Hanson. Both are Republican. Moore has said this is Franklin's most significant election. He says it is about uniting the city to keep it moving forward. Controversial candidate Hanson said this is a race that sets the tone for the city. She says it is a battle for the heart and soul of Franklin's community, culture and identity. Numbers show the turnout is higher than in previous elections. At least 10,214 residents have early voted. The last mayoral election had less than 2,000 voters participate. The total of registered voters in the City of Franklin is 60,950. There are also four at-large seats up for grabs. City elections are nonpartisan, although all the candidates are Republican.
10/24/2023	10 PM News (6:00)	VOTERS SOUNDLY REJECT GABRIELLE HANSON AND OTHER MAGA CANDIDATES IN HISTORIC FRANKLIN, TN ELECTION - In the most bizarre race that this picturesque Middle Tennessee community has ever experienced, Franklin voters resoundingly rejected a candidate for mayor who openly embraced white supremacists and Christian nationalism. Incumbent Mayor Ken Moore easily defeated Gabrielle Hanson, a local real estate developer and first-term city alderman who faced one controversy after another. White supremacists showed up at a candidate forum in a show of support for Hanson, who refused to distance herself from the men despite broad condemnation from fellow aldermen. Final election results show Moore garnered 12,822 votes (79.4%), compared to Hanson's 3,322 votes (20.6%). The election results also brought a decisive defeat for other MAGA candidates for alderman-at-large that had been supported by the far-right Williamson Families PAC, including Jeff Feldman, Patrick George and Gary Moore. In addition, Alderman-at-large candidate Jeff Feldman was the focus of other NewsChannel 5 investigations, including social media posts in which he threatened to use guns against unruly kids. Final election results showed Feldman received 4,243 votes, compared to 10,961 for incumbent Ann Petersen. Participants included Ken Moore, Mayor of Franklin, TN.
11/1/2023	6 PM News (3:39)	GABRIELLE HANSON DOES NOT SEE DEFEAT IN FRANKLIN MAYORAL RACE – CLAIMS CONSPIRACY INSTEAD – Defeated mayoral candidate Gabrielle Hanson, refusing to accept her landslide loss in Franklin's city election, has now partnered with discredited election deniers in Arizona in claiming the election was rigged. Hanson — who was defeated by incumbent Mayor Ken Moore by a four-to-one margin following a scandal-filled campaign — recorded a podcast over the weekend with right-wing activist Lyle Rapacki and defeated Arizona Secretary of State candidate Mark Finchem. Hanson's defeat followed a series of NewsChannel 5 investigations that included her association with self-proclaimed white supremacists and neo-Nazis, her lifting of social media images to falsely claim a group of diverse women as supporters, her bogus claims to have had inside information about Nashville's Covenant School shooting and the hypocrisy of her having supported LGBTQ Pride events in Chicago while opposing them in Franklin. But, by Hanson's telling, none of that was her fault. Participants included Mark Finchem; defeated Arizona candidate for Secretary of State; Gabrielle Hanson, defeated mayoral candidate for Franklin, TN; Chad Gray, Williamson County election administrator.

11/2/2023	6 PM News (4:20)	IS NASHVILLE GETTING THE BEST DEAL POSSIBLE FOR THE FAIRGROUNDS SPEEDWAY – The head of Bristol Motor Speedway plans to bring back a proposal that would expand and upgrade the racetrack at the Nashville Fairgrounds and bring NASCAR Cup races to Music City. Under the proposal - Metro would issue bonds to help cover the cost of the project and taxpayers would be responsible if revenue from the racetrack does not cover the cost of the bonds. NewsChannel 5 Investigates questioned the proposal and how it compares to a deal Wilson County received for its super-speedway more than twenty years ago. In that case, Wilson County taxpayers were not on the hook if revenue slows. Participants included Jerry Caldwell, President and General Manager, Bristol Motor Speedway; Randall Hutto, Wilson County Mayor; Sherry Weiner; chair of the Fair Board and Metro council member.
11/24/2023	10 PM News (4:20)	SUMMARY OUTLINES GOVERNOR LEE'S PLAN TO EXPAND SCHOOL VOUCHERS ACROSS TENNESSEE - Gov. Bill Lee is preparing to announce a plan to dramatically expand Tennessee's controversial school voucher program, allowing K-12 students to receive taxpayer funding for private school regardless of need, according to talking points obtained by NewsChannel 5 Investigates . The plan — which critics argue would upend traditional public schools across the state — would even provide funding for students to attend unaccredited private schools with little history of success. Lee's new proposal for an Education Freedom Scholarship Act would provide an estimated $7,000 per student beginning in the 2024-25 school year, the document says.
11/29/2023	10 PM News (4:20)	WHERE DID ANY OGLES GET $320,000 FOR HIS CONGRESSIONAL CAMPAIGN - Where did Congressman Andy Ogles get $320,000 that he claims to have loaned his campaign? As NewsChannel 5 Investigates followed the money involving Middle Tennessee's newest member of Congress, that investigation turned up even more questions about the Maury County Republican. Ogles made the dramatic claim in reports filed with the Federal Election Commission during the 2022 campaign, raising eyebrows among some because the former Maury County mayor had never been seen as a person of great wealth. Now in Congress, NewsChannel 5 Investigates discovered that Ogles has not disclosed any substantial investments. He does not even report having a savings account. Ogles did not respond to an email sent to his office, nor a text message to his personal cell phone. Participants included Danielle Caputo, legal counsel for Campaign Legal Center; Aaron Gulbransen, Tennessee Star political editor; Michale Patrick Leahy, conservative radio talk show host.

10/5/2023	5 PM News (3:41)	TRAITOR OR HERO: FORMER SHERIFF'S DEPUTY ON TRIAL FOR ASSUALTING COPS ON JANUARY 6TH - He's been called a "traitor" and a "hero," but January 6 defendant Ronald McAbee hopes a jury will call him "innocent." The former Williamson County Sheriff's deputy is on trial for assaulting a U.S. Capitol police officer among other charges, but maintains he was trying to help officers during the January 6th breach of the Capitol. Body-cam video from that day is being used to prosecute McAbee, but he and his supporters believe some of these same videos will prove McAbee's innocence. Both McAbee and his wife Sarah say video will show McAbee shielding a fallen officer, before eventually giving CPR to an unconscious protester. He pleaded guilty in September to a felony charge of assaulting an officer and one misdemeanor count of acts of physical violence on Capitol grounds. However, he wants to take his other five charges - including assault of another officer and disorderly conduct - to trial. Some have called McAbee's actions nothing short of heroic. Others see a now-former deputy who traveled more than 10 hours dressed in tactical gear, anticipating a fight with whoever stood in his way. Participants include Ronal and Sarah McAbee.

10/17/2023	6 PM News (4:15)	LOCAL JANUARY 6TH PROTESTOR SAYS IT “WAS BEAUTIFUL UP TO A POINT AND THEN IT BROKE DOWN.” - He was convicted of violently entering the U.S. Capitol on Jan. 6, 2021, but Michael Timbrook of Cookeville continues to describe his experience as one of "the best days ever." Timbrook agreed to what would be our first sit-down interview with a Tennessean charged with what happened on Jan. 6. By now he had already agreed to a plea deal to avoid a felony charge and spent seven weekends in jail and one year on probation. He is still employed and still married but has not heard from some family members since. Participants included Michael Timbrook, January 6 th protestor.
10/20/2023	6 PM News (3:13)	NASHVILLE MAN EXONERATED AFTER SPENDING NEARLY TWO DECADES IN PRISON FOR 2005 MURDER - He was convicted of murder two decades ago, but now Thomas Clardy is walking out of prison as he waits on his appeal. Only NewsChannel 5 cameras were there as Clardy left Riverbend Maximum Security with his attorneys from the Tennessee Innocence Project. Back in 2005, a group of men opened fire and killed Kirk Clouatre outside a body shop in Madison. Kirk's wife Melissa and his brother Kent were also shot. Eventually, Kent gave Metro Nashville Police a description of one of the shooters that they believed matched Clardy. It would turn out to be the only evidence linking Clardy to the crime, but it was enough to sentence him to life in prison — until now. Attorneys argued that Clardy was denied effective assistance of counsel at his original trial in violation of his constitutional rights. Judge Trauger agreed that Clardy's original lawyer could have done more to present expert testimony on the "limitations of eyewitness identifications." Participants included Jessica Van Dyke, Tennessee Innocence Project; Kirk Clouatre, witness whose testimony helped originally convict Clardy.
10/25/2023	6 PM News (2:06)	WTVF FILES LAWSUIT ASKING JUDGE TO ORDER GLENN FUNK TO PRODUCE PUBLIC RECORDS - NewsChannel 5 has asked a Davidson County judge to order Nashville District Attorney General Glenn Funk to turn over public records relevant to an on-going criminal investigation of his office. The petition for access, filed in Davidson County Chancery Court, also asks Chancellor l'Ashea L. Myles to order the Nashville Democrat to pay NewsChannel 5's legal fees because of his "unjustified and willful" failure to comply with the Tennessee Public Records Act. At issue are documents related to the installation of security equipment in and around DA offices that is capable of surreptitiously monitoring and recording conversations of individuals who do not know anyone is listening. After NewsChannel 5 Investigates first raised questions about the equipment in February, Funk held a staff meeting to discuss the reporting. However, when NewsChannel 5 filed a request for notes taken during that meeting, the DA's Office provided them only after making substantial redactions that rendered the documents useless. Funk has insisted that no laws were broken, that the listening devices were installed in areas where his employees and visitors had no reasonable expectation of privacy.
11/6/2023	6 PM News (2:19)	METRO LEGAL LOOKING AT HOW IMAGES WERE RELEASED FROM COVENANT DOCUMENTS - Nashville Mayor Freddie O'Connell said he and his offices were looking into the unauthorized release of three images from the Covenant school shooter's documents. This comes after conservative radio host Steven Crowder released the documents from The Covenant School shooter on Monday. Metro Nashville Police Department authorities said at they are aware of the situation, but they were unaware of the veracity of the documents. NewsChannel 5 has not heard directly from MNPd since. Three children and three adults died in The Covenant School shooting. The shooter also died after being confronted by police. One piece of the papers described a schedule for the shooter, which does not match up to the times that happened on March 27. One of the sticky notes on the schedule included the note of a lunchtime. The other notebook paper titled "Death Day" had a doodle on the top of a gun pointing at a target. The shooter writes about the nerves and emotions of committing the mass shooting, noting the hope that the victims did not expect the shooter. Participants include Freddie O'Connell, Mayor of Nashville; David Raybin, lawyer representing the shooter's family; Lorna B. Fox; Metro Legal Attorney.

11/8/2023	6 PM News (3:10)	MAN ARRESTED FOR SHOOTING STUDENT WAS PREVIOUSLY INCOMPETENT TO STAND TRIAL - A man arrested for shooting a Belmont University student Jillian Ludwig was previously deemed incompetent to stand trial according to the Nashville District Attorney's Office. Police identified Shaquille Taylor, 29, as the suspect. Court records show Taylor has an intellectual disability and is not competent to stand trial. His mother testified in court that he developed pneumonia at birth which led to a brain infection. According to his mother, he was diagnosed with an intellectual disability and still functions at a kindergarten level. NewsChannel 5 Investigates has been looking into Tennessee's broken mental health system and how this case is played out.
-----------	------------------	---

11/8/2023	10 PM News (2:45)	WHO IS SHAQUILLE TAYLOR, THE MAN CHARGED WITH SHOOTING A BELMONT UNIVERSITY STUDENT? - Court documents show the man accused of shooting a Belmont University student had a criminal history but was recently found not competent to stand trial. Shaquille Taylor, 29, has an intellectual disability and language impairment, according to court records obtained by NewsChannel 5. That determination meant he was not able to participate in a trial where he was accused of shooting into a car in 2021 where a 3-year-old and 1-year-old were in the back seat. He admitted to detectives in 2021 that he did it. Taylor was the co-defendant in the case, and he was originally charged with three counts of aggravated assault with a deadly weapon. By law, Judge Angelita Blackshear Dalton had to dismiss the case because he was deemed incompetent. The recent evaluation was not the only one Taylor underwent. In 2010, when Taylor was a teenager, he was referred to the Department of Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities where doctors found he was "incompetent and not restorable," meaning his disability could not get better. Taylor's criminal history points directly to our Broken Mental Health system. NewsChannel 5 Investigates has done extensive reporting on how that is impacting the Nashville and Middle Tennessee communities. The order from Judge Dalton released Taylor after hearing from three different doctors. Davidson County's presiding judge Melissa Blackburn told NewsChannel 5 Investigates earlier this year that a $600,000 grant from the county meant people deemed incompetent are no longer immediately released back on the street. During an 18-month period beginning in 2020, her office found 182 Nashvillians declared incompetent to stand trial had been released.

10/12/2023	6 PM News (5:26)	TENNESSEE SHERIFFS BLAST LACK OF TREATMENT FOR MENTALLY ILL IN THE STATE - The closing of state-run psychiatric hospitals has filled county jails with people who should not be there, according to several Tennessee sheriffs. Coffee County Sheriff Chad Partin and Franklin County Sheriff Tim Fuller say deputies are often forced to arrest mental health patients in emergency rooms. Many of those arrested had been waiting days for a bed to open at a psychiatric hospital. Police reports and 911 calls reveal the mental health crisis inside Tennessee's emergency rooms. Patients amid a mental health crisis are arrested for disorderly conduct, assault and resisting arrest. The number of state-run psychiatric beds has plummeted since 1996. That year, state officials said there were 1,114 public, staffed psychiatric beds. By 2006, the number had fallen to 980. As of last year, it was down to 577. Participants included Chad Partin, Coffee County Sheriff; Tim Fuller, Franklin County Sheriff; Helen Moore; mentally ill patient threatened with arrest; Scott Ward; fiancé of a mentally ill patient.

When you go to the pharmacy to pick up medication, you pull out your insurance card first. A new study found out that may not be the best way to save money. Brand name prescription drug prices continue to soar. This report listed simple ways to cut those costs, sometimes in half. - Doctors Participants included Kevin Day, independent pharmacist; Varun Vaidya, pharmaceutical professor, University of Toledo Doug Hirsch, co-founder of GoodRX.
10/23/2023	9 AM News (2:06)	STEPS TO TAKE WHEN CHECKING FOR BREAST CANCER - October is Breast Cancer Awareness Month, but staying on top of your checkups is a year-round thing. The approach is simple – monthly self-breast examinations along with a yearly physical exam and a yearly screening mammogram. Checking for breast cancer starts early. A 20 you should start self-exams, at 30 physical exams with your primary care; and at 40 you should start getting mammograms. That is unless there is a family history of Breast Cancer. Participants included Great Hollar; local breast cancer patient; Dr. Mark Cooper, Sarah Cannon Institute.
10/26/2023	6 PM News (2:13)	MENTAL HEALTH EXPERT SHARES WAYS TO DEAL WITH TRAUMA SURROUNDING MASS SHOOTINGS - We know the mass shooting in Maine can reawaken trauma for so many still coping with Nashville's Covenant School shooting from back in March. So NewsChannel 5 sat down with Dr. Aaron Brinen, a Doctor of Psychology at Vanderbilt University. He suggests finding healthy outlets to process your grief. Participants included Dr. Aaron Brinen, Doctor of Psychology, Vanderbilt University
11/3/2023	6 AM News (2:05)	STUDY FINDS DECLINE IN HIGH SCHOOLERS SMOKING e-CIGS AND TOBACCO - According to a 2023 National Youth Tobacco Survey done by the CDC, tobacco and e-cigarette use is down among high schools' four percent compared to last year. The FDA said the change is due to a decline in the availability of flavored e-cigarette products. In 2019 the use of e-cigarettes among young people was labeled by health professionals as an epidemic. Unfortunately, use of tobacco and e-cigarettes among middle school students saw a slight bump compared to last year so, the work to discourage kids from smoking is not over. Participants included Dr. Brian King, Food and Drug Administration.
11/7/2023	6 AM News (2:53)	STRUGGLING WITH MEDICAL DEBT? YOU ARE NOT ALONE -You've got your mortgage or rent; utility bills and chances are you have also got medical bills that you just cannot afford to pay right now. 100 million people in the country have some form of medical debt. Part of the problem? Medical credit cards and loans that promise to ease the burden of medical debt. But experts say you really should think twice about signing up. According to the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, the average medical credit card carries a whopping 27-percent interest rate, much higher than the typical 16-percent for a general-purpose credit card. Other tips - never provide your credit card when receiving care in an emergency room. If you are insured, ask for the invoice to be sent to your insurance company. And if your insurance company refuses to cover a procedure that is not elective or cosmetic, you should consider filing an appeal. And it does not hurt to contact your company's HR department and get them involved on your behalf. Participants included Lisa Gill, Consumer Reports
11/14/2023	6 PM News (5:03)	SHORTAGE FORCES EMS TO KEEP AMBULANCES WITH OVER 200K MILES ON THE ROAD - A lot of people look to replace their cars when they hit 100,000 miles or so. The same is true for many EMS departments and their ambulances. NewsChannel 5 Investigates has discovered that there are a lot of ambulances out there with a lot more miles on them because of a nationwide ambulance shortage. We obtained a database from the state health department which shows almost a third of the ambulances in Tennessee have 200,000 miles or more. There are dozens with well over 300,000. And unbelievably, there are some with 400,000, 500,000 and even 600,000 miles. Emergency departments say they have no choice but to keep sending them out on calls. The search for a successful treatment is one reason a clinical trial in Franklin started this month at the Clinical Trial Center of Middle Tennessee. Their team is now working with the National Institute of Health, Duke University, and several other labs across the country in the largest study looking into a treatment for long-haul COVID. If you or someone you know has long COVID, the Tennessee team is still looking for participants. Participants included Dr. Alex Slandzicki, CEO of Clinical Trial Center of Middle Tennessee; Jessica Wallan, research coordinator involved in the trial.
11/18/2023	6 AM News (2:29)	TENNESSEE RECEIVES D RATING REGARDING INFANT MORTALITY -Tennessee is lagging much of the U.S. when it comes to infant and maternal mortality. That is according to a new survey by the March of Dimes. The group has given Tennessee a "D" rating. It said there are several factors that go into the grade, but among them is how high the preterm birth rate is. Preterm birth is one of the leading causes of infant deaths in the U.S., and Tennessee's preterm birth rate is at 11 percent. That reflects the nation's overall percentage of about 10.4 percent. The preterm birth rate for Black mothers is one and a half times higher than white mothers. Hispanic, Asian, and Native American mothers also have a higher preterm birth rate than white mothers. Tennessee is among 15 other states with a D rating. Kentucky is among eight other states and U.S. territories with an F rating.

10/17/2023	6 AM News (1:41)	METRO TO ACCEPT $3.3 MILLION TO STAFF SCHOOL RESOURCE OFFICERS IN METRO SCHOOLS – Metro Council is set to accept a grant for more school resource officer funding on Tuesday. It will cover the amount for SROs in every Metro middle and high school but not in elementary schools. While there was money to cover an officer in every school, Metro Police opted out. Chief John Drake made the decision because of a staffing shortage. He said while Metro Police could have taken all the money to fund them, they did not have enough people to fill them. The grant reimburses MNPD up to $75,000 per SRO, per school, and Metro Council is set to vote to accept more than $3.3 million to do that.
10/17/2023	6 PM News (2:03)	METRO SCHOOL'S BLUE RIBBON TEACHERS HONORED - 50 of Nashville's top teachers were rewarded with a cash prize of $1,000, a trophy and a round-trip airline ticket. It was part of the Blue-Ribbon Teacher Awards from Metro Schools and the Nashville Public Education Foundation. The teachers were honored for their demonstration of exemplary dedication and teaching talent that impacts MNPS students and their schools. Awards were given in excellence in equity, instruction and leadership. Southwest Airlines provided the plane tickets given to each of the award recipients. But these teachers say their destination is not as important as their students' journey. Participants included Kellee Hill and Katie Fitzpatrick, recipients of Blue-Ribbon Teacher Awards.
10/30/2023	6 PM News (2:33)	HALLOWEEN SAFETY TIPS FOR KIDS - With little superheroes, swifties, spooky skeletons and more out on the streets the night of Halloween, it is important to know how to stay safe. Some tips included : Having a flashlight handy, and make sure your kids can be seen. A handy way to do this is by adding some reflective tape to the costume or even the trick or treating bag. Also, walk with an adult present (only to houses with porch lights on), and exercise caution around animals. Walk on sidewalks as much as possible, avoiding streets. If you are on a roadway where there are no sidewalks, walk on the edge facing traffic. Finally, at the end of the night after all the candy is collected that an adult verifies there are no open packages, loose candies or choking hazards.
11/3/2023	6 PM News (2:57)	FORMER TENNESSEE EDUCATION OFFICIAL BLASTS NEW SCHOOL EVALUATION POLICY - Tennessee parents are used to keeping a close eye on their child's report card, but soon, they will be getting one for their child's school as well. Architects of the plan, which first passed in 2016, say it is a way to keep schools accountable. But an education expert is now sounding the alarm, saying the plan could do more harm than good. There are now have three separate accountability systems in this state. They include the federal accountability system and the TISA which was introduced as the funding formula last year. Now Tennessee has this new school accountability system. Under the state's new evaluation system, every public school in Tennessee will receive a letter grade, ranging from A to F. The new letter grades primarily rely on student test scores, which could prevent failing schools from ever improving. Participants included Mary Batiwalla, former Assistant Commissioner for the Tennessee Department of Education.
11/10/2023	6 PM News (1:59)	TEACHERS LEARN TRAUMA CARE, CHOKEHOLDS, AND HOW TO STOP AN ACTIVE SHOOTER - On their day off, dozens of Metro Nashville Public School teachers trained to take down an active shooter if one ever darkened the doors of their schools. It was firsthand training as one demonstration, Defend Systems, showed teachers how to stop someone from bleeding out if they were shot. Defend Systems is the same group that did active shooter training at The Covenant School a year before their shooting. Police believe it saved lives. Participants included Tracy Mendehall, director of training and operations, Defend Systems; Zuri Egbuji and Mary Horton, Metro teachers.

11/13/2023	6 PM News (7:29)	CONFIDENTIAL DOCUMENTS DESCRIBE SECRET EFFORT TO ELECT LAWMAKERS FOR SCHOOL PRIVATIZATION - Confidential documents reveal that a group of school privatization groups, each claiming to be separate entities with separate agendas, work together to try to buy seats in the Tennessee legislature for candidates who are willing to vote against traditional public schools. The documents, leaked to NewsChannel 5 Investigates , show how those groups — working as part of what they call the "Tennessee Coalition for Students" — sometimes try to convince voters that politicians who support traditional public schools are just bad people. As a litmus test, the groups would only support politicians who support privately operated charter schools, state interventions to take over traditional public schools and private choice — in other words, school vouchers to send tax dollars to private schools. NewsChannel 5 Investigates reached out to the groups involved in the coalition. None would go on camera, and they did not respond to several specific questions posed by email. Still, in separate statements, they did not deny that they do have this arrangement nor that they are working together to try to flip even more seats to their side in next year's elections. Participants included J.C. Bowman, executive director, Professional Educators of Tennessee; State Representative Bryan Richey R-Maryville, received money from Tennessee Coalition for Students; former state representative Bob Ramsey, lost to Richey in primary; Jim Wrye, Tennessee Education Association lobbyist; State Representative Gloria Johnson D-Knoxville

10/24/2023	6 AM News (2:00)	TENNESSEE NAACP VOTER RIGHTS LAWSUIT ALLEGATIONS SHUT DOWN BY ATTORNEY GENERAL - There's a back and forth in the fight that could restore voting rights to thousands of people in Tennessee. The Attorney General has moved to shut down the NAACP's voting rights lawsuit. In December 2020, the Tennessee Conference of the NAACP and some people who were denied the right to vote alleged that Tennessee officials failed to follow state law that allows people to legally restore their voting rights after serving their sentences and completing parole. Now, the Attorney General's Office filed motions asking a judge to reject the claims entirely. The attorney general did not explain why. According to the Sentencing Project: one in five Black voting-age person in Tennessee lacks the right to vote due to a past criminal conviction, which is the highest rate of African American disenfranchisement in the nation. Overall, 10% of the Tennessee electorate, which is about 470,000 people, have lost their right to vote due to convictions. Since 2016 almost 3,500 people have been granted restoration in the state. The NAACP hoped this would be settled in time for the presidential election.

48 HOURS: “Who Wanted Nicki Lenway Dead?” – a report on the attempted murder of Nicole “Nicki” Lenway and the ensuing police investigation, which resulted in the arrest and conviction of Tim Amacher and Colleen Larson. On April 20th, 2022, Nicki, a crime scene investigator for the Minneapolis Police Department, was shot in broad daylight and left for dead in a parking lot by a single assailant, as she went to pick up her son from FamilyWise, a parenting center. The shooting was caught on surveillance video, but the suspect could not be easily identified; Nicki was certain the shooter was a woman and that Tim, her ex-boyfriend and son’s father, was somehow involved. Tim, who was inside the parenting center on his scheduled weekly visit at the time of the crime, appeared to have an air-tight alibi. Nicki had sole and legal custody of their son, awarded in the fall of 2020, after Tim spent years abusing the legal system by filing multiple false accusations against her and boyfriend Donovan Ford. Investigators soon discovered Tim lied about owning a black Dodge Ram truck, the vehicle used by the shooter to flee the scene of the crime. Police questioned Colleen Larson, Tim’s longtime taekwondo student and girlfriend, who had access to the truck. Cell phone records, the truck’s digital trail and the evidence found during a raid of the couple’s house, resulted in Colleen’s arrest on April 28th, 2022. She confessed and implicated Tim, who continued to deny involvement. Tim’s trial began on November 3rd, 2022; he was found guilty of premeditated attempted murder and aiding his accomplice and sentenced to 18 years in prison. Colleen pleaded guilty and was sentenced to 16 ½ years in prison, doing what prosecutors say was Tim’s bidding. Nicki and Donovan are now married and expecting a baby. No on-screen text graphic for this broadcast. (Broadcast contains an on-screen in memoriam card: In Memory of John Yacobian). Interviewed: Nicole Lenway (aka Nicki), victim, forensic scientist, Minneapolis Police Department (her first television interview); Jacob Fischmann, assistant Hennepin County attorney; Patrick Lofton, assistant Hennepin County attorney; Emilie Clancy, witness, assisted Nikki until paramedics arrived; Pat Zellmer, Tim’s former friend; Claire Zellmer, Tim’s former friend; Donovan Ford, Nicole’s then-boyfriend, Minneapolis, MN police officer; Charlie Dettloff, Tim’s neighbor; Richard Fennern, FBI special agent, technology specialist; Matthew Troiano, defense attorney, 48 HOURS consultant, reviewed the case; and Woman #1, Tim’s former girlfriend, asked not to be identified. 48 HOURS: “Jade Janks and the Secret Photos” – a report on the murder of 64-year-old Tom Merriman of Solana Beach, CA, and the case against his stepdaughter, Jade Janks, for his death. On December 31st, 2020, Jade, a 37-year-old interior decorator, picked Tom up after he had spent more than two weeks in the hospital and a rehab center after a bad fall; he also had heart and liver problems. On January 1st, 2021, the San Diego Sheriff’s Department received a call from a man who claimed his friend, Jade Janks, confessed to drugging, suffocating and strangling her stepfather, Tom Merriman. The call triggered a police search for Tom and police questioned Jade, who denied knowledge of his whereabouts. Police searched Tom’s apartment and when in his driveway, removed a trash bag from a pile of trash and saw the silhouette of a man; it was Tom Merriman, still in his hospital pajamas. On January 2nd, 2021, Jade was arrested and charged with his murder, but claimed innocence and that Tom, just released from the hospital, was in poor health and fell asleep in her car. She maintained she found Tom dead in her car the next morning, panicked and tried to hide his body. The autopsy supported Jade’s account because prosecutors were looking for evidence of strangulation and not a prescription drug overdose of Ambien, what Tom actually died of. Investigators learned that on December 23rd, 2020, Jade discovered hundreds of explicit photos of herself on Tom’s computer while cleaning his apartment. Jade’s cellphone contained text messages, which prosecutors described as “suspicious” and “incriminating”, to a man she wanted to help her in getting rid of Tom. In December 2022, Jade went on trial for Tom’s murder. Evidence included Jade’s DNA on the outside of a plastic bag prosecutors believed she used to suffocate him, with Tom’s DNA found on the inside, as well as her DNA on the pill packs. Jade testified at her trial and the defense emphasized the perceived weaknesses of the case. The jury found Jade guilty of first-degree murder and she was sentenced in March 2023 to 25 years to life in prison. Tom’s hard drive was never recovered, but prosecutors believe that the nude photos on Tom’s computer existed. On-screen text graphic: Jade Janks will be eligible for parole in 2038. She is appealing her conviction. Interviewed: Ramona and George Hamilton, Tom’s neighbors, saw Tom on December 31st, 2020, in Jade’s SUV in the driveway; Pat Flanagan, Tom’s friend and business partner at the butterfly farm; Heather Pearce, grew up next door to Jade in San Diego County; Marc Carlos, Jade Janks’ attorney; Jorge Del Portillo, deputy district attorney, San Diego County, CA; and Teresa Pham, assistant district attorney, San Diego County, CA. 48 HOURS (continued)

10/21/23 48 HOURS: “The Daughters Who Disappeared” (9:00 – 10:00p) – a report on the latest developments in the murders of four young women: 12-year-old Laura Smither, who disappeared on April 3rd, 1997 in Friendswood, TX (her body was found on April 20th, 1997); 20-year-old Kelli Cox, who disappeared on July 15th, 1997 in Denton, TX (her remains were found in April 2016); 26-year-old Tiffany Johnston, who disappeared on July 26th, 1997 in Bethany, OK (her body was found the next day); and 17-year-old Jessica Cain, who disappeared on August 17th, 1997 in Le Marque, TX (her remains were found in March 2016). William Reece, a sex offender who had been released from prison six months before the murders began and was working in Friendswood, was named a suspect. Investigators found evidence that tied him to Laura Smither’s murder but were unable to make an arrest. While police continued to investigate, he remained free. In April 1998, William Reece went on trial for the kidnapping of Sandra Sapaugh in Texas; he was convicted and sentenced to 60 years in prison. Eventually identified by DNA, William Reece agreed to talk to investigators about the cases in 2016. In May 2021, he went on trial for the murder of Tiffany Johnston in Oklahoma and was found guilty and sentenced to death. In Texas, William Reece agreed to plead guilty to murdering Laura Smither, Kelli Cox, and Jessica Cain; in exchange, he received three life sentences. Original on-screen text graphic: William Reece is still in a Texas prison. Oklahoma authorities are in the process of trying to bring him back to face his sentence there. On-screen text graphic for the 10/21/23 rebroadcast: William Reece is still in a Texas prison. Interviewed: Mary Ellen O’Toole, retired FBI profiler; Gay Smither, Laura Smither’s mother; Jan and Alexis Bynum, Kelli Cox’s mother and daughter; Kathy Dobry, Tiffany Johnston’s mother; Josh Rogers, deputy chief of police, Friendswood, TX; Lynn Williams, retired police chief who in 2012, was working on cold cases at the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigations (OSBI) and was assigned to Tiffany Johnston’s case; Wendy Duke, supervising criminologist, OSBI cold case unit; Jimmy Harmon, Oklahoma County prosecutor; and Ryan Stephenson, Oklahoma County prosecutor. 48 HOURS (continued)

- 10/21/23 48 HOURS: “Unmasking the Zombie Hunter” (10:00 - 11:00p) – a report on the case of the Phoenix Canal Murders in Arizona and how the crime was eventually solved. In November 1992, Angela Brosso, a tech worker who had recently moved to Phoenix, went out for her evening bike ride along the Phoenix canal. The next morning, her torso was found in a field next to the trail she had been riding on; 10 days later, her head was found stuck on a grate in the canal. With no leads, the case went quiet until September 1993, when 17-year-old Melanie Bernas went missing after she went for a bicycle ride along the canal. Her body was found in the canal the next day. Detectives suspected the same assailant; knife wounds were in the exact same position on the back of each victim and both were sexually assaulted. DNA testing linked both murders and confirmed their suspicions. The case went cold until 2014, when thanks to DNA and genetic genealogy, police were able to zero in on 42-year-old Bryan Patrick Miller, a divorced father raising his teenage daughter. Miller had a police record and spent time in juvenile detention until he was 18 for stabbing a woman in the back. He also had an alter ego; Miller was a local celebrity known for participating in parades and festivals as the “Zombie Hunter”, a zombie-slaying comic book hero. In January 2015, Detective Clark Schwartzkopf met Miller at a local Chili’s restaurant under the guise of filling out a job application for a security position. DNA from his water glass linked him to the crimes and he was arrested and charged with first-degree murder in both Angela Brosso and Melanie Bernas’ deaths. Miller’s trial began in October 2022. His defense admitted he was the killer but was not guilty by reason of insanity and that Miller was tortured and beaten, both physically and mentally, by his mother Ellen when he was a child. His ex-wife testified for the prosecution about his violent behavior. The judge found him guilty. Miller’s defense requested life in prison and though the judge believed his abuse as a child was proven, sentenced him to death. On-screen text graphic: Under Arizona law, Bryan Miller’s death sentence will be automatically appealed. Interviewed: Briana Whitney, true-crime reporter, KPHO-TV, CBS affiliate, Phoenix, AZ; Morgan Loew, investigative reporter, KPHO-TV, CBS affiliate, Phoenix, AZ, 48 HOURS consultant; Rachel Schepemaker, Melanie Bernas’ childhood friend; Clark Schwartzkopf, detective, Cold Case Squad, Phoenix Police Department; Charlotte Pottle, local resident who telephoned police in 1993, after she rode through a puddle of blood while biking along the Phoenix canal; Colleen Fitzpatrick, forensic genealogist, founder, Identifiers International, matched the crime scene DNA in 2014; Celeste Bentley, victim, stabbed by Bryan Miller in May 1989; Eric Braverman, Bryan Miller’s friend; and Kristin Dennis, sister of Brandy Myers, who disappeared on May 26th, 1992 in Phoenix, and who investigators believe was killed by Bryan Miller, though he denies involvement. (C: Peter Van Sant – P: Paul La Rosa, Susan Mallie, Kat Teurfs)
- 10/28/23 48 HOURS: “Melissa Turner’s Closing Act” (9:00 – 10:00p) - a report on the investigation into the death of Matthew Trussler, who lived with his fiancée, Melissa Turner, in Riverview, FL, a suburb of Tampa. On October 18th, 2019, Turner called 911, saying she had discovered Trussler lying unresponsive near their swimming pool. He was pronounced dead at the scene and an autopsy later revealed he had died from stab wounds. Turner initially told detectives that the couple had been drinking the night before and could remember few details. Investigators located a security camera above a neighbor’s garage door that recorded audio of screaming and yelling and when confronted, Turner’s story changed. She then claimed to have acted in self-defense and stabbed Trussler when he tried to choke her. Turner was eventually arrested and charged with second degree murder with a weapon. Turner, who had been out on bail since her 2019 arrest, went on trial on February 14th, 2022; prosecutors used the audio from the neighbor’s camera, as well as video from inside the couple’s home. The trial wrapped on February 18th, 2022; after seven hours of deliberation, the jury found Turner guilty of murder in the second degree. On March 18th, 2022, Melissa Turner was sentenced to 20.5 years in the Florida State Prison. On-screen text graphic: Prosecutors say Matthew Trussler was a victim of domestic violence. If you or someone you know needs help, please contact the National Domestic Violence Hotline at 800-799-7233 or visit TheHotline.org. Interviewed: Melissa Turner, former cosplay model; Sean Trussler, Matthew’s brother; Jennifer Giles, Sean’s fiancée; Ryan LaGasse, a detective for the sheriff’s office at the time; Cameron Walega, Melissa’s former boyfriend; John Trevena, Melissa’s attorney; Katherine Fand, prosecutor, Hillsborough County; Chinwe Fossett, prosecutor, Hillsborough County; and Donald Goodwin, juror. 10/28/23 48 HOURS: “Murder by Clown” (10:00 – 11:00p) – an update to 48 HOURS: “The Clown Did It” (OAD: 04/21/18; Rebroadcast: 01/12/19), a report on the May 26th, 1990, shooting of Marlene Warren, and the decades long hunt for her killer: a clown bearing balloons, flowers and a gun. Her son, Joe Ahrens, witnessed his mother being shot; Marlene died two days later, after being removed from life support. At the time, the case rocked the Florida neighborhood where Warren lived and has haunted family members ever since. Hours after the shooting, police received an anonymous tip from a caller telling them to look at Marlene’s husband Mike Warren, but he had a solid alibi. The caller also told police about Sheila Keen, an employee of Mike’s. Police learned Keen fit the description of a woman who bought a costume, flowers and balloons. There were also rumors that Mike Warren and Sheila Keen were lovers. No arrest was ever made. Keen quit her job and moved away. Mike Warren battled with Marlene’s son Joe Ahrens over her estate. Warren was investigated, convicted and sentenced on 43 fraud charges and served four years in prison. In 2012, Warren and Keen were married. They settled in Tennessee and operated a burger joint called Purple Cow; rumors about Keen’s past persisted among their employees. They sold their business and retired to their vacation home in Virginia. In 2017, investigators say they finally developed DNA evidence to make their case and Sheila Keen-Warren was subsequently arrested and charged with Marlene Warren’s murder, but there was not enough evidence to prosecute Mike Warren. 10/28/23 Update: In February 2020, after a reevaluation of Sheila Keen-Warren’s case, prosecutors announced they would no longer seek the death penalty. Her trial was postponed six times and by 2022, Keen-Warren had spent five years in jail. Over the years, mistakes in how the evidence was handled and the delays caused problems for both the prosecution and defense. On April 25th, 2023, two weeks before Sheila Keen-Warren’s trial for the murder of Marlene Warren was to begin, a plea deal was reached: she agreed to plead guilty to second-degree murder and be sentenced to 12 years in prison, thereby avoiding a possible life sentence. Under sentencing guidelines for time served, she is expected to be released in 2025, perhaps sooner. Sheila and Mike both continue to maintain her innocence. Joe Ahrens approved the plea deal. On-screen text graphic: Marlene Warren’s mother Shirley Twing died in March 2023, before Sheila Keen-Warren pleaded guilty to Marlene’s murder. (This broadcast contains footage and interviews from 48 HOURS: “The Clown Did It”: Shirley Twing, Marlene Warren’s mother; Della Ward, worked with Mike Warren and Sheila Keen at Bargain Motors; Deborah Offord, costume shop employee who identified Sheila Keen; Brook Blevins, neighbor in Virginia who knew Sheila Keen as Debbie Keen-Warren; Ashley Sexton and Cynthia Swafford, former Purple Cow employees; and Mike Warren, interviewed at their Virginia home through a closed door, after Sheila Keen’s arrest.) New interviews for the 10/28/23 broadcast: Joe Ahrens, Marlene Warren’s son; Aleathea McRoberts, assistant state attorney, Palm Beach County, FL; Dave Aronberg, current state attorney, Palm Beach County, FL; and Greg Rosenfeld, Sheila Keen-Warren’s defense attorney. 11/18/23 48 HOURS: "The Death of an Officer's Wife" (9:01 – 10:00p) – a report on the events leading up to the day Seth Perrault reported his wife, Amanda Perrault, dead. Five days after Amanda made allegations of abuse against Seth, an Eatonton, GA police officer, he reported that she took her life by shooting herself on February 3rd, 2020. Investigators immediately doubted Seth's story, based in part on the crime scene, including the position of her body in the couple's bed, the way the Smith and Wesson .380 was found lying next to her body with its magazine ejected, other forensic evidence and allegations of abuse. Two days after Amanda's shooting, Seth was arrested, but the COVID pandemic shut down the courts and Seth remained in jail. During that time, the medical examiner released the autopsy report, which declared Amanda's death a suicide. In November 2020, the grand jury decided that the case should go to trial; Seth was charged with malice murder, felony murder and aggravated assault. At his February 2022 trial, Seth decided not to testify; prosecutors included evidence found on Amanda's cell phone. Seth Perrault was found guilty of murder and sentenced to life, without the possibility of parole. 48 HOURS: “The Hunt for Sarah Yarborough’s Killer” (10:00 – 11:00p) – a report on the December 14th, 1991 murder of 16-year-old Sarah Yarborough, who was on her way to drill team practice at Federal Way High School, in Federal Way, WA, outside of Seattle. Sarah was found murdered on school grounds by 13-year-old Drew Miller and a friend. Both boys noticed a man in the bushes and, after he walked away, discovered Sarah’s body. Drew noticed the man was still staring at them; they raced home and called the police. Though Sarah was not raped, investigators believed it was a sexually motivated murder; there was semen on her underwear and jacket, which gave detectives a full male DNA profile. By the early 2000s, investigators had received over 3,000 leads and advances in technology made them hopeful. In 2011, they reached out to Colleen Fitzpatrick, who began to work on Sarah’s case. In September 2019, the team came up with two possible suspects: brothers Edward and Patrick Nicholas. Edward Nicholas was a registered sex offender and his DNA was in the CODIS system, but he was not a match. Patrick Nicholas was known to police and had a record for prior sexual assaults. In late September 2019, undercover detectives surreptitiously procured a sample of Patrick’s DNA; it was a match and he was arrested days later. In early 2023, more than 30 years after Sarah Yarborough’s murder, the 59-year-old suspect went on trial. The defense challenged how forensic genetic genealogy was used to first identify him; it was the first time that kind of defense had been used in Washington State. The jury found Patrick Nicholas not guilty of the crime of murder in the first degree, premeditated, but found him guilty of first-degree murder and second-degree murder and ruled both had been committed with a sexual motivation. Two weeks later, he was sentenced to almost 46 years in prison. Although forensic genetic genealogy helped solve Sarah’s case, familial DNA searches are not allowed in Washington State, which could have solved her case earlier. Prosecutors and Sarah’s family both feel that it’s time to get that law changed. On-screen text graphic: Investigators have not linked Patrick Nicholas to any additional crimes, but his DNA is now in the CODIS database. Interviewed: Celia Lee and Mary Barbosa, King County deputy prosecuting attorneys; John Free, detective, King County Sheriff’s Office, Major Crimes Unit; Laura and Tom Yarborough, Sarah’s parents; Andrew Yarborough, Sarah’s youngest brother; Amy Parodi, Shannon Grant, Liberty Barnes, Kristi Gutierrez, and Mary Beth Thome, Sarah Yarborough’s friends; Drew Miller, discovered Sarah’s body on school grounds and helped police draw a sketch of the suspect; Scott Strathy, former detective (retired), King County Sheriff’s Office; Bill Fuller, Yarborough family friend, discovered during the DNA investigation to be a distant cousin of brothers Edward and Patrick Nicholas; Colleen Fitzpatrick, forensic genetic genealogist, worked on the Sarah Yarborough case; Anne Crony, escaped from attack by Patrick Nicholas in June 1983 and spoke at his 2023 sentencing; and David Montes, Patrick Nicholas’ public defender. 48 HOURS: “Stephen Smith - A Death in Murdaugh Country” – a report on the death of Stephen Smith, a 19-year-old gay man, whose body was found on a South Carolina country road on July 8th, 2015. Before Hampton County, SC, legal scion Alex Murdaugh was convicted for the murders of his wife and son in 2023, this was one of the other mysteries in the Murdaugh orbit. The supervisor called to the scene where Smith’s body was found didn’t see any signs of a hit and run and suspected the scene was “staged” and that Smith’s body had been placed there. The medical examiner ruled it a hit and run, but for years, his mother Sandy Smith wanted a second opinion. Rumors that the Murdaughs were somehow involved persisted and the Murdaugh name comes up dozens of times in the case file. With the investigation stalled and no suspects named in Smith’s death, in late 2016, the case went cold. It reignited in June 2021 after the murders of Paul and Maggie Murdaugh. During that investigation, the South Carolina Law Enforcement Division (SLED) announced a new lead in Smith’s death and took over the case; it has not said what that evidence is. In March 2023, after Alex Murdaugh was found guilty in the murders of his wife and son, Sandy Smith gained a high-power legal team; Eric Bland and Ronnie Richter, who are representing her pro bono and have pursued their own investigation. Richter and Bland had Smith’s body exhumed and assembled a team of experts: Dr. Michelle Dupre and Dr. Kenny Kinsey. In April 2023, Dr. Dupre oversaw the examination of Smith’s body and said it confirms he died from a single blow to his forehead and that, oddly for a hit and run, there were no injuries to his body that would indicate he’d been hit head-on by a vehicle. Both experts say they believe Smith died on the road where his body was found; the independent investigative team has turned over all its findings to SLED. Sandy Smith has established a college scholarship in her son’s name. This broadcast also includes an update on the ongoing local and state charges against Alex Murdaugh, including his November 17th, 2023 plea deal agreement encompassing all of the state financial charges he faced for defrauding and stealing millions from clients and law partners, as well as his legal team’s September 2023 announcement of a motion for a new trial. On-screen text graphic: If you have information about the Stephen Smith case, please email tips@sled.sc.gov. Interviewed: Sandy Smith, Stephen’s mother; Michael Dewitt, editor, Hampton County Guardian, reported on Stephen Smith’s death in 2015, author, “The Fall of the House of Murdaugh”; Ronnie Richter and Eric Bland, attorneys representing Sandy Smith; Liz Farrell, writer and podcast co-host, “Murdaugh Murders”; Thomas Moore, retired lieutenant, South Carolina Highway Patrol, supervisor called to the scene where Smith’s body was found in 2015; Dr. Michelle Dupre, former investigator and forensic pathologist; Dr. Kenny Kinsey, retired chief deputy, Orangeburg County Sheriff’s Office, star prosecution witness in the Murdaugh murder trial; and Alania Spohn, detective, Lexington County Sheriff’s Office and Hannah Plyer. Both sisters survived a 2005 car crash due to a faulty tire that killed their mother and brother; Alex Murdaugh was their attorney and both he and conservator Russell Laffitte defrauded the sisters.
