10/03/15

48 HOURS: “The Doctor's Daughter” - an investigation into the 2012 death of Leslie Neulander, the wife of Dr. Robert Neulander, a prominent New York State obstetrician, and the quest to discover whether her death was an accident or murder. Leslie Neulander suffered a massive head wound while showering, but her body was found on the bedroom floor, near the bed and far from the shower. The Medical Examiner ruled the death an accidental but investigators suspected the husband, Dr. Neulander, of covering up the crime. The couple's daughter, Jenna Neulander, was the only other person in the home at the time, and made the 911 call to summon help. The investigation uncovered a troubled marriage, suggestions of a pending split and declining finances. Eighteen months after Leslie Neulander's death, her husband was charged with her murder. The defense maintained the Neulander's had a loving marriage and that Leslie had died from injuries from the fall in the shower. Prosecutors say it was murder and the doctor covered up the crime. The science of blood spatter and the 911 call for help became focal points in the trial. Jenna Neulander testified in her father's defense. Robert Neulander was found guilty. On-screen text graphic: Just this week, Neulander surrendered his license to practice medicine. Interviewed: Scott Kapral (NY Police Sergeant); Jim Stevens (attorney/CBS News Consultant); Bill Fitzpatrick (Onondage County DA); Dr. Mary Jumbelic (friend of Leslie Neulander); July Crosby (Neulander employee); Edward Menkin (defense attorney); Karen Green (forensic scientist). 48 HOURS (continued)

- 10/10/15      48 HOURS: “Shadow of Death” - a report on the murders of Andra and Brad Sachs, who in 2014 were killed during a suspected home invasion, in which their younger son was left paralyzed. Evidence in the crime points towards one of their older sons, Ashton Sachs, who was allegedly fascinated by the 1989 Menendez brothers’ murder case. The Sachs were a wealthy couple with five children, who had divorced, but continued to live together in upscale San Juan Capistrano, California. Investigation first led to the theory of a business deal gone badly, but a month after the shootings, then-19-year-old Ashton Sachs was charged with murder. Family members say that Sachs was an avid player of violent video games and had been fascinated with the sensational 1989 Menendez murders. Through interviews with various family members and experts, including highly respected child psychologist Ali Mattu of Columbia University, a portrait of Ashton Sachs emerges as a very troubled individual potentially suffering from mental illness. Warning signs of a troubled life were on the surface, and family dynamics played a part in the case. Sachs remains in a California jail and is scheduled to go on trial for the murders in March 2016. On-screen text graphic: Ashton Sachs is being held in solitary confinement. Authorities will not confirm reports he has tried again to take his own life. Interviewed: Orange County Register Meghann Cuniff; reporter/48 HOURS consultant Jack Leonard; Orange County realtor Monte Burghardt; Andra’s close friend Nina Lifshultz; weapons expert Nabil Khattar; trauma surgeon Dr. Enrique Ginzburg; Ashton’s friend Connor Ward; attorney Mary Fulginiti; Columbia University child psychologist, Ali Mattu; Andra’s sisters Lesley Summers and Stephanie Garber. - 10/17/15      48 HOURS: “Vengeance in Vegas” – an investigation into the 2012 murder of Shauna Tiaffay, a Las Vegas casino cocktail waitress who was brutally beaten to death in her townhouse, while her husband George Tiaffay, a West Point military graduate and firefighter, worked an all-night shift at the firehouse. Investigation revealed that the Tiaffay marriage had begun to crumble; they had separated, but shared custody of their daughter. Police focused on the husband, but George had a solid alibi. Police also discovered an earlier robbery and a strange clue the robber left behind. Forty-eight hours into the investigation, detectives received a crucial tip from a local resident, William Pennix (aka “Big Will”) – a friend had told him that he had just killed a woman. The tip led investigators to a homeless man named “Greyhound” (Noel Stevens) who lived in the desert away from the Las Vegas strip. Police believed that George Tiaffay had befriended Stevens, and manipulated his friend with the promise of cash if he would kill his wife. They also matched the murder weapon with merchandise that the two men are seen shopping for, on video footage acquired by the police. Stevens and Tiaffay were arrested. Stevens pleaded guilty in 2013 to Shauna’s murder. In a pre-trial deal, he agreed to testify against George Tiaffay once prosecutors promised not to seek the death penalty against him. George Tiaffay was found guilty. On-screen text graphic: Shauna’s family is raising awareness for domestic violence through their group Justice4Shauna. Noel Stevens will be sentenced in November for Shauna’s murder. He faces a maximum of life in prison without the possibility of parole. - 10/24/15      48 HOURS: “The Hunter” - a report on the 2012 disappearance of Kelli Bordeaux, a young army combat medic who went missing in Fort Bragg, North Carolina, and one local bounty hunter’s own efforts to find her -- his first case after he receiving his private investigator’s license. Bordeaux had gone to a local bar and never returned home. A massive search was conducted, but no clues turned up. Police had several suspects, including Mike Bordeaux, her estranged husband; Justin Thompson, a man she was dating; and Nicholas Holbert, a man who was last seen with her the night she went missing. Without telling the police, bounty hunter David Marshburn (now a 48 HOURS consultant), launched his own investigation. Alibis for Bordeaux and Thompson were airtight, so Marshburn befriended Holbert, putting him at ease and sometimes paying him to open up with information. Finally, Marshburn told police what he was up to and they told him to continue with his investigation. Holbert confessed to Marshburn, that Bordeaux had learned that Holbert was a sex offender, which offered a motive. In 2014, Marshburn decided time was up and convinced Holbert to lead him to Kelly Bordeaux’s body. The footage shown from the subsequent arrest video is the first broadcast of a confession captured by a police officer’s bodycam. On-screen text graphic: Under his plea deal, Nicholas Holbert waived all rights to an appeal. Nicholas Holbert will receive psychiatric counseling and substance abuse treatment in prison. David Marshburn is investigating a new missing person’s case. - 10/31/15      48 HOURS: “The Bugs Bunny Defense” (10:00-11:00p) – a report on the 2007 death of Patrick Duffey and the incredible story his wife, Linda told police about what actually happened: she and her husband had reenacted a moment from a Bugs Bunny cartoon and she accidentally shot and killed her husband with a gun. Police questioned whether what happened in the suburban Whittier, California home was a freak accident, or an intentional murder. The investigation dragged on for five years, and the case grew cold. Linda Duffey remarried and was now living with her husband Larry Gwozdz, a well-known jazz musician in Mississippi. In 2012, with a new prosecutor urging them on, police arrested and charged Linda Duffey Gwozdz with murder. At the trial, her team used the Bugs Bunny defense and the case ended with a deadlocked jury. One year later, for her second trial, prosecutors did not rely on the interrogation videos in which Linda spoke about the cartoon defense. Instead they claimed that it was a pre-meditated, deliberate murder. In order to bring up the cartoon defense, Linda Duffey Gwozdz would have to testify herself. She declined to do so. She was found guilty of murder. On-screen text graphic: Linda Duffey Gwozdz is appealing her conviction. Interviewed: Shaun McCarthy and Shannon Laren (Los Angeles County detectives); Julie Prendergast (Linda Duffey’s former friend); Katherine Hunt (Patrick Duffey’s sister); Tracy Peck (Los Angeles County firearms expert); Paul Delhauer (blood evidence expert); Robert Villa (Deputy District Attorney); Brandi Jones, Andrew Dixon, Danielle Wong, Patricia Enriquez (jurors from first and second trials). “Veterans Journey Home: Faith, Hope & War”: an interfaith special examining the issues veterans face as they transition to civilian life. According to the Department of Veterans Affairs, there are 22 million veterans in the U.S. This program highlights the stories of some of these men and women who have volunteered to serve their country. Featured on the program are: (1) Rev. Dr. Rita Nakashima Brock is founding Co-Director of the Soul Repair Center at Brite Divinity School in Ft. Worth, Texas. A widely recognized expert on the emerging study of moral injury and recovery, she talks about moral injury and what it takes to rebuild a moral identity. (2) Rev. Dr. Craig Combs, a retired chaplain with the Texas National Guard, served two tours in Iraq. Currently a Faith & Community Based Initiative Coordinator with the Military Veteran Peer Network, he discusses how society needs to do a better job in helping veterans transition from a “war mind to a peace mind”. Also includes footage of Rev. Dr. Combs leading a discussion with a group of Texas veterans. (3) Traumatic brain injury and post-traumatic stress (PTS) are often referred to as the unseen wounds of war. It’s estimated that 500,000 veterans have returned from the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan with symptoms of PTS. Less than half seek help for their condition, and many self-medicate with drugs and alcohol. Among the areas impacted is the criminal justice system in Denton County, Texas, where a Veterans Treatment Court Program is offered as an alternative to serving time in jail. Includes interviews with Judge David D. Garcia and Ginger Simonson, a Veteran Peer Services Coordinator with the Military Veteran Peer Network. (4) Olivia Bush, Program Coordinator for The Lotus Project for Women Veterans, discusses the challenges that are unique to women vets. In addition to mental health referrals and basic needs support, the organization offers permanent, supportive housing options for disabled women veterans. Also features two female veterans who found permanent housing and support through the program. (5) Rev. Dr. Robert Lee Hill, Minister Emeritus of the Community Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) in Kansas City, Missouri, talks about how the faith community can help foster a “repair of the soul”. 48 HOURS (continued)

11/21/15

48 HOURS: "The Accidental Husband" (9:00–10:00p) – an updated rebroadcast about Harold Henthorn, a twice-widowed man from Colorado whose two wives both died in unusual accidents, and whose changing account of events led family members to suspect that he murdered them. In 2012, Harold Henthorn surprised his wife Dr. Toni Henthorn, a successful ophthalmologist, with a weekend hike in Rocky Mountain National Park to celebrate their anniversary -- only to have it end in her death from a fall. Henthorn's version of events to family members changed several times and they began to doubt his account of events and to suspect he was responsible for her death. While reporting on the case, investigative reporter Brian Maass received an anonymous email stating Henthorn's first wife died in a freak accident as well. Maass looked into the accident and discovered first wife Lynn Henthorn had died 17 years earlier in another freak accident. He found: (1) both accidents occurred in very remote locations in Colorado; (2) Henthorn was the only witness; (3) the accidents were extremely unusual; (4) he had told numerous versions of the events; and (5) both wives had large life insurance policies, with him as the sole beneficiary. Federal investigators also discovered that Henthorn had not worked for the past twenty years. He had also taken out a fraudulent policy worth millions on his ex-sister-in-law, Grace Rishell, who now believes she was to be his next target. In 2014, two years after Toni Henthorn's tragic death, federal authorities arrested and charged Harold Henthorn with her murder. His trial is scheduled to begin in the fall. On-screen text graphic: A judge will decide if Lynn's death can be included in Henthorn's trial for the murder of Toni. Henthorn has yet to receive any proceeds from Toni's life insurance. Harold Henthorn declined our request for an interview. 11/21/15 UPDATE: This September, Henthorn's trial began. Prosecutors were confident they would win this largely circumstantial case. The defense rested without calling a single witness. Harold Henthorn was convicted of murder. On-screen text graphic for the 11/21/15 updated rebroadcast: Henthorn will be sentenced on December 8th. He faces a mandatory life sentence with no chance of parole. Harold Henthorn declined our request for an interview. Original 04/04/15 interviews: Barry Bertolet, Yvonne Bertolet and Bob Bertolet (Toni Henthorn's brother and parents); Daniel Jarvis (friend of Harold Henthorn); Tammi Abbruscato, Christie Drews (Toni Henthorn's co-workers); Brian Maass (investigative reporter); Grace Rishell (ex-sister-in-law of Harold Henthorn and Lynn Henthorn) and daughter Laura Rishell; Ann McNally, Nancy Hodges (co-workers of Lynn Henthorn); Patricia Montoya (offered aid during first accident); Lora Thomas (Douglas County Coroner); Arnold Wheat (48 HOURS consultant/ accident reconstruction specialist). 48 HOURS (continued)

11/21/15

48 HOURS: “The Strange Case of Kurt Sonnenfeld” (10:00-11:00p) - an investigation of Kurt Sonnenfeld, a man wanted for the 2002 murder of his wife, Nancy Sonnenfeld, in the United States, and who is now living with a new life with a new wife in Argentina, a country that has yet to agree to extradite him to the United States. He claims that the United States government wants to silence him for what he saw at Ground Zero following the 2001 terrorist attacks. He also maintains that his wife committed suicide after a New Year’s Eve celebration on January 1, 2002. Police believed it to be a homicide. Her death came during a troubled time in their marriage; Nancy had filed for separation and intended to divorce Kurt. He was arrested for murder, but the charges were dropped shortly before he was to go to trial due to insufficient evidence. The investigation continued, and police eventually refiled the murder charge. By that time, Sonnenfeld had moved to Argentina, remarried and had launched a campaign to clear his name by giving interviews to the local media. He claims that he is wanted in the United States because of something he saw while working as a cameraman for FEMA at the World Trade Center Ground Zero site, and also claims that he is facing the death penalty -- which he is not. The case now drags on through the Argentine court system, and the President of Argentina even says that Kurt Sonnenfeld will not be extradited. On-screen text graphic: Tomorrow is Argentina’s presidential election. It’s not clear whether the decision to keep Sonnenfeld in Argentina will stand. Interviewed: Paula Sonnenfeld (second wife); Amy Leek (Nancy’s sister); Leslie Lindberg (Nancy’s cousin); Jonathan Priest (retired Denver detective); Dr. Amy Martin (Denver assistant Medical Examiner); Carrie Thompson (defense attorney); Bill Ritter (District Attorney); Robert Dreyer (informant); Bill Owens (former Colorado governor); Dolores and Jorge Richar (Sonnenfeld supporters/ through translation); Adolfo Perez Esquivel (Nobel Prize winner, Sonnenfeld supporter); Rolondo Grana (Argentine TV personality); Kirk Mitchell (Denver Post reporter/48 HOURS consultant). 11/28/15

48 HOURS: “Road to Redemption” - a report about Jeanne Bishop, who for more than two decades struggled to move on after losing both her sister and brother-in-law, Nancy Bishop Langert and Richard Langert -- murdered in their suburban Chicago home in 1990 by 16-year-old David Biro. In seeking closure to the crime, she pursued a face-to-face meeting with Biro in prison – which she eventually had. In 1990, Nancy and Richard Langert were found dead in their Winnetka, Illinois home, in what seemed like a home invasion/robbery. Their killer was identified months later as David Biro, a local high school student, who bragged to a friend that he had done it. Biro was tried as an adult and convicted of murder. He was sentenced to two mandatory life terms for the murders of Nancy and Richard Langert, and the judge gave him a discretionary life sentence for the death of their unborn child. For Jeanne Bishop, the crime was a life-changing moment: her actions during the investigation made authorities think she was uncooperative, and, because of the way she was treated by police, she changed careers, going from being a high-powered corporate attorney to a public defender. Still, for 23 years, in order to forgive, she felt she needed to know what motivated David Biro, thus lifting the crushing burden victims often live with. Biro agreed to meet with her, at Pontiac Correctional Center, where he is serving his time. In June of 2012, the U.S. Supreme Court decision deeming mandatory life sentences for juveniles as “cruel and unusual punishment.” meant that David Biro could qualify for a reduced sentence, or even be released. The ruling guarantees that there will be a re-sentencing. Jeanne’s mother and sister have ideologically different views about forgiveness and the Supreme Court decision, but have agreed to disagree. On-screen text graphic: David Biro is one of approximately 80 offenders convicted as juveniles awaiting re-sentencing in Illinois. Across the country, more than 1,000 offenders may qualify for resentencing under the Supreme Court ruling. Interviewed: Jeanne Bishop (sister); Joyce Bishop (mother); Jennifer Bishop-Jenkins (sister); Gene Kalvaitis (Sergeant, multi-town task force); Patty McConnell (Sergeant, Winnetka Police Department); Gera-Lind Kolarik (true-crime writer); Mark Osler (law professor).
