

Q4 2014 Quarterly Issues – Codcomm Inc. 243 South Street Hyannis, MA 02601

INSIDE CAPE COD is a thirty-minute community affairs program for Cape Cod and the Islands, MA, produced in-house by CodComm, Inc. This program broadcasts every Sunday morning at 6 a.m. on WPXC-FM (102.9), WHYA-FM (101.1) WFRQ-FM (93.5) and WKFY-FM (98.7)

Dr. Christine Horner
Waking the Warrior Goddess
Classification: medical
Broadcast date: October 5, October 12
Time: 30:00

Brest Cancer Awareness month brings Inside Cape Cod an in-depth interview with Dr. Horner. She describes many factors that can lead to Breast Cancer, including a unique lifestyle change women can adopt starting in the pre-teen years, through each decade of life to age 40, can cut the risk of cancer in half, or eradicate the threat of cancer (including: tofu, alternatives to the HPV vaccine, probiotics, skipping bars and alternate screenings for mammograms).

Website: www.drchristinehorner.com

Flower Angels U.S.A.
Classification: community
Broadcast date: October 19, October 26
Time: 17:00

Suzanne Carter: grace@flowerangelsusa.org
Mara: maraschusterman@gmail.com
Ro: bunsie2@gmail.com
Stacey: ssmith@capecodlife.com

Scott had a full studio with the volunteers of Flower Angels U.S.A. A non-profit group that takes flowers to the elderly in nursing homes. 85% of those in a nursing home are abandoned. Flower Angels is spreading warmth and happiness to many who are in their twilight years. Flower Angels USA is Cape Cod based, founded by Suzanne Carter.

Website: www.flowerangelsusa.org

Mike VanKleef

Newest member of the Renewable Energy Commission

Public Forum to be held on Monday, Oct. 20 5:30pm, 2nd floor, town hall in Hyannis.

Classification: Community

Broadcast date: October 19

Time: 7:00

Mike explained ways to cut your energy costs in advance of a 29% NSTAR rate increase on January 1, 2015. This public forum promotes renewable energy resources, and offers ways for the public to sign-up for fuel assistance through non profit organizations.

Website: www.townofbarnstable.us

BJ Hill/Ron Beaty

Classification: community

Broadcast date: November 2

Time: 22:00

After concluding his walk across Massachusetts, collecting messages from the public for the state's next governor in advance of the Nov. 4th election, BJ Hill gave us a glimpse into his epic journey that ended in Provincetown on Sunday, November 2nd. Also joining the conversation was the candidate for the Massachusetts State Senate, Ron Beaty.

Website: www.highwaytohill.com

Tara Cronin

ALS Charity Poker Tournament @ Dino's Sports Bar

Classification: medical, community

Broadcast date: November 9

Time: 15:00

Tara and Dino gave us a historic timeline of ALS, otherwise known as Lou Gehrig's disease. This bi-annual fundraiser has been raising donations for 8 years. Over 60 players participated in this event on November 9, 2014, making it one of their biggest Cape Cod fundraisers.

Website: <http://alsfamily.org/>

Dave Foreman
Author: The Four Pillars of Health
Classification: community, medical
Broadcast date: November 9
Time: 20:00

Dave offers travel tips in this age of Ebola. Also, what Cape Codder's can do during the winter month to stay healthy and strong.

Website: <http://www.herbalpharmacist.com/>

Greg O'Brien
Author "On Pluto - Inside the Mind of Alzheimer's"
Classification: community, medical
Broadcast date: November 16
Time: 19:00

A Cape Cod resident, Greg has an outstanding ability to communicate the patient perspective of living with this condition, the symptom burden, longitudinal course of the disease, impact on family, etc. We believe this book provides invaluable information to help family, caregivers, health care professionals, as well as industry clinical development teams to "get an inside glimpse" of living with this insidious disease, and thus better understand and help patients living with this condition.

Website: <http://onpluto.org/>

.....
November 23 and 30

Matt Barry
Announcer WPXC and Participant in 14th annual "Homeless For The Holidays"
Classifications: Homelessness, community, charitable causes
Time: 17:34

Synopsis: Matt Barry prepares for his upcoming 103 hour broadcast outdoors between December 10th and 13th 2014, by replaying last year's segment of Inside Cape Cod. CodComm's former ICC host Scott

Beels spoke with PIXY 103 Radio Personality Matty Barry about the Homeless for the Holidays 103 hour marathon taking place in Buzzard's Bay, December 12 – 16, 2013. They discussed how people can donate food to the Bourne Friends Food Pantry and new & unused toys that will benefit the U.S. Marines Toys for Tots program. The segment closes with Matt Barry promoting the upcoming "Homeless for the holidays event" with additional locations and ways the community can help the less fortunate this time of year.

Matt Barry – Air Personality and Participant in 14th annual "Homeless For The Holidays"
December 10-14, 2014
Duration: 103 hours non stop!
Classifications: Homelessness, community, charitable causes

Synopsis: Matt Barry broadcast outdoors on WPXC for 103 hour between December 10th and 13th 2014, better known as the "Homeless for the Holidays" a 103 hour marathon taking place in Buzzard's Bay, People stopped by and donated food to the Bourne Friends Food Pantry and new & unused toys that benefited the U.S. Marines Toys for Tots program. All for CodComm station participated in this event, with each station broadcasting at various times from different "Homeless for the Holidays" events. WKFY broadcasted with the Yarmouth Fire Department on Route 28, WHYA broadcasted with the Falmouth Fire Department on Brick Kiln Rd. and WFRQ broadcasted with the Mashpee Fire Department from the Rotary.

Matt Barry – Air Personality and Participant in 14th annual "Homeless For The Holidays"
December 14 & 21
Duration: 21:52
Classifications: Homelessness, community, charitable causes

Synopsis: Matt Barry recaps the highly successful 14th annual "Homeless For The Holidays" which In it's second year, WHYA helped the Falmouth Fire Fighters bring in over 900 toys, 800 pounds of food and over $650 for the Falmouth Service Center. WFRQ's Homeless camp in Mashpee brought in 1960 food items, over 1000 toys and $6,372. And Finally, WPXC, the granddaddy of them all in Buzzards Bay with the Bourne Fire Fighters, PIXY 103 helped collect over 3,000 toys, more than 4,000 pounds of food and $19,638.75!!! Matt includes "best of" recordings in this report.

