

WPXC – 102.9 HD Hyannis, MA
WHYA – 101.1 Mashpee, MA
WFRQ – 93.5 Harwichport, MA
WKFY – 98.7 East Harwich, MA

CodComm Inc
243 South Street
Hyannis, MA 02601
Quarterly Issue Report
Quarter 2015

Top 10 Issues:

1. Substance Abuse
2. Mental Health
3. Homelessness
4. 2016 Politics: Local & National Elections
5. Housing
6. Environment: Wastewater
7. Economic Development
8. Environment: Climate Change
9. Multi-Modal Transportation / Traffic Issues
10. Local Quality of Life & Community Awareness

Programs List:

Inside Cape Cod

Quarterly Issues Report
2016 First Quarter

ISSUE: Health and Wellness

DATE: January 3, 2016; January 10, 2016

LENGTH: 23:14

Lisa Guyon, Community Benefits Coordinator, Cape Cod Healthcare

A discussion about the Community Health Needs Assessment process that is currently underway to identify the health needs of Cape Cod residents.

ISSUE: Economic Development, Arts & Culture

DATE: January 17, 2016

LENGTH: 20:54

Cape Cod Symphony and Conservatory's newly named Executive Director Roland Valliere is interviewed about his journey to Cape Cod and the work he hopes to accomplish with the Symphony, including helping to construct a new Performing Arts Center that is expected to be an economic driver for the area.

ISSUE: Health and Wellness; Substance Abuse

DATE: February 7, 2016; February 14, 2016

LENGTH: 25:45

Calmer Choice Executive Director Fiona Jensen, Adria Kennedy of Calmer Choice, and Sandy Rubenstein, parent of a Dennis-Yarmouth student, discuss the Calmer Choice program. The Calmer Choice program teaches young school children mindfulness-based stress reduction exercises to help center and calm. The program is effective in helping students focus, and is also a tool used in substance abuse prevention.

ISSUE: Animal Welfare; Health and Wellness

DATE: February 14, 2016

LENGTH: 14:19

Joe Ambrosini, Executive Director of the Cape Cod Police K-9 Relief Fund discusses his organization's work to help pay medical bills for retired police K-9 dogs. A fundraiser in February is also mentioned.

ISSUE: Environment; Economy

DATE: February 14, 2016

LENGTH: 9:34

National Grid spokesman Jake Navarro and Chris Connelly, Director of Power Development for National Grid discuss the upcoming Mid Cape Main Replacement Project and a series of community forums designed at educating the public about the project.

ISSUE: Economic Development; Health & Wellness

DATE: February 21, 2016

LENGTH: 27:34

Marie Younger Blackburn discusses the “Driven Women” conference, now in its second year. The conference is designed to bring together local women to discuss empowerment, business, local issues and more.

ISSUE: Substance Abuse

DATE: March 13, 2016

LENGTH: 28:18

Barnstable Youth Commission Chair Brendan Clark and Youth Commission Member Sean Smith discuss the issues surrounding substance abuse and their concerns as high school students. The Youth Commission’s two-day Community Forum and Stable Youth Summit is also discussed.

ISSUE: Substance Abuse

DATE: March 20, 2016

LENGTH: 28:43

The Lorusso Foundation spokesman Sid Davidson and film producer Thomas Milkey partnered up to create a substance abuse prevention film geared towards educating youngsters about the dangers of drugs. Davidson and Milkey discuss the film, its subject matter, and how it will be distributed to students on Cape Cod.