32nd Annual Grecian Festival

Catherine DiMauro - Chairman of the 2014 Grecian Festival, and Pat Trempellas Talked about their big event on July 18 – 20th at the Greek Orthodox Church in Centerville. They also sent Scott a thank you note.

Scott,

I want to thank you very much for your patience and professionalism in putting together the interview that will highlight the Grecian Festival on Cape Cod. We also appreciate having the opportunity to mention some of the other community-related charity work that the folks at St. George Greek Orthodox Church do throughout the year.

I never imagined that it would take such time to put together a 20 minute program, but the outcome was certainly rewarding. I appreciate that you made me sound smooth and confident in my conversation by eliminating the ums and ahs that are so easy to slip into. You have found a fan!

Look forward to hopefully doing this again for the 33rd annual festival.

Pat Trempelas
