Farm/Agriculture Issues
Morris Westfall - Farm Reports

The following subjects were covered in Farm Reports from October through December 2015.

1. Major agriculture events
 - a. Missouri Farm Bureau Annual Meeting (over 1200 in attendance). I attended and reported on the meeting, plus interviewing the President and other members before and after the meeting.
 - b. Governor's Conference on Agriculture; I attended and reported on the event, plus interviewing the State Director of Agriculture twice.
 - c. Misc. agriculture events.
2. University of Missouri Extension Service
 - a. Utilized portions of many of their press releases on my programs, with an emphasis on recommended agriculture production practices.
 - b. Interviewed Patrick Buyers (Horticulture Specialist) for 5 minutes weekly on "Page 3, Farm Page of the Air."
 - c. Interviewed Eldon Cole (Livestock Specialist) numerous times.
 - d. Interviewed Dave Burton (Information and Communications) on "History and Sources of Information relating to One Room Schools." This created substantial interest, resulting in Dave being a guest on our morning call in show and the "W Factor." I think Wayne Glenn had him as a guest on KTXR.
 - e. Interviewed other Extension personnel.
3. Reported on Government proposals and political activity.
4. Utilized stories that emphasize the livestock industry as a whole provides safe and humane treatment of farm animals.

The annual OTC Enactus Craft Bazaar will be held from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Saturday, November 15, in the Atrium of Information Commons on the OTC Springfield Campus.

The Enactus team has worked with over 30 booth vendors to bring their home-based craft items to the target market. Helping home-based entrepreneurs is a focus of the Holiday Bazaar.

Funds raised support the team's project outreach to community nonprofit organizations, like the Ozarks Food Harvest and Christian County Freedom's Rest Crisis Center. The booth fees start at $35 with a discount for OTC students, faculty or staff members.

To fill out the form to reserve a booth, contact the Enactus Holiday Bazaar project team members via email at enactus@otc.edu by calling (417) 447-8981, or stop by in Graff Hall 114A.
