48 HOURS

- 03/04/17 PREEMPTION
- 03/11/17 48 HOURS: LIVE TO TELL: “Afraid of the Dark” - Jennifer Schuett was just 8 years old in 1990 when she was yanked through her bedroom window by an unknown man – and then strangled, slashed and left for dead in a field off a gravel road in Dickinson, Texas. She didn’t die – and the kidnapper couldn’t silence her. This is story of Schuett’s will to live, her unwavering focus on pushing police to find her kidnapper, and how through the trauma she found a purpose in life by advocating for other crime victims. Schuett was alone in her bedroom, when she woke up in the arms of a man carrying her outside of the apartment building where she lived with her mom. He said he was an undercover police officer and that they would meet up with her mother. Both were lies. He took her to the field, tried to strangle her, and raped her and slashed her throat before driving away. When she came to, she couldn’t scream, couldn’t lift her head or even move. She was found by children playing in the field. Her assailant didn't count on Schuett living, let alone having an acute ability to recall critical details of the man. While in the hospital, Schuett, struggling with a fear of men and police because of the attack, began writing notes describing her kidnapper. His name was Dennis. She was also able to give a forensic sketch artist a detailed description of him. Despite the details, years went by with no suspects or closure. The case was passed between detectives, and each time it felt like she was starting over. Then, 18 years after the attack, Schuett got a call from Detective Tim Cromie from the Dickinson Police Department. He was now on her case. Cromie vowed to do everything he could until the end of his career to get the answers she so longed to find. Cromie partnered with FBI Special Agent Richard Rennison to work on the case. In September 2017, utilizing DNA technology that was not available before, Rennison got a call: the kidnapper's identity had been established. His name is Dennis Earl Bradford. On-screen text graphic: Jennifer has become a fierce advocate for other crime victims. Interviewed: Jennifer Schuett; Ralph Garcia (former detective); Dr. Cheryl L. Strunk; Sharon McBride (pediatric nurse); Lois Gibson (forensic artist), Tim Cromie (Dickinson Police Department); Richard Rennison (FBI Special Agent). (C: Michelle Miller - P: Stephen A. 03/18/17 48 HOURS: “Death on Valentine’s Day” – a retitled and updated rebroadcast of “What Did the Children See?” (OAD: 02/20/16), focusing on Curtis Lovelace, a former Quincy, Illinois prosecutor on trial for the second time, for the February 14, 2006 murder of his wife, Corey Lovelace. The main question in this case is the cause of Cory Lovelace’s death -- alcohol abuse or murder. Lovelace was an All-American high school athlete who went on to become a prosecutor who seemed to have everything including a successful career and a loving family. On Valentine’s Day 2006, Lovelace returned home after dropping his children off at school to find his wife dead. After an investigation, the cause of death was never determined and the case was closed. Eight years later, in 2014, a Quincy detective reopened the case. This investigation determined the cause of death as suffocation. Lovelace was arrested and charged with murder. The case hinged on two things – science and the testimony of the Lovelace children. The first trial resulted in a hung jury and a mistrial was declared. Lovelace has remarried twice since he wife’s death. At the time of the second trial, the family was and still is deeply divided: daughter Lyndsey Lovelace has not spoken to her family since Lovelace’s arrest and is moving on with her life. His first ex-wife Erika Gomez was a witness at the second trial. Following the second trial, more than ten years after his wife’s death, Curtis Lovelace walked out a free man after being found not guilty. Original on-screen text graphic: Lovelace’s new trial date is scheduled for May 31st. Curtis Lovelace’s bail was set at five million dollars. He remains in jail. On-screen text graphic for the 03/18/17 Rebroadcast: Christine Lovelace adopted Curtis’ three sons. Lyndsay was already 18 years old. 03/25/17 48 HOURS: “What Happened in Apartment 1601?” (9:00 – 10:00p) - a report on the 2013 death of Mark Waugh, a 23-year-old man murdered in an apartment in Silver Spring, Maryland after a night of bar-hopping with two friends. Since neither of them could remember what had happened, police employed an unusual method of interrogation. Waugh was stabbed to death in the apartment where his friends Rahul Gupta and his girlfriend Taylor Gould lived. Both Gupta and Gould were bloody and drunk, according to police, and were immediately interrogated, with Gupta apparently confessing to the crime, saying he had caught Mark and Taylor together. Then after the alcohol wore off, everything changed, with both insisting they had no idea what had happened. Gupta and Waugh were longtime friends, with successful jobs. Police struggled to understand what had happened. Police initially believed Taylor Gould's version of events, but took the unusual step of putting Gupta and Gould together alone, and monitored their conversations. Gupta kept trying to blame Gould, yet police still believed Gould's version of events. Further investigation revealed Gupta had a temper and smoked marijuana. Investigation also discovered information from a phone call between father and son after Gupta was arrested in which he told his father what had happened. Gupta was arrested and charged with murder. At trial, Gupta's defense was to point the finger at Taylor Gould. She herself was not much help on the stand; but she never blamed Gupta; she just stated she did not kill Mark Waugh. The jury found Gupta guilty. Though Taylor Gould is legally not guilty, Detective Paula Hamill believes she may have played some role in what happened that night, and that she may have possibly been involved in a relationship with Waugh behind Gupta's back. Original on-screen text graphic: Rahul Gupta is appealing his conviction. On-screen text graphic for the 03/25/17 Rebroadcast: Just yesterday, Rahul Gupta's latest appeal was denied. Nancy and William Waugh have filed a wrongful death suit against Rahul Gupta. Interviewed: Officer Dean Skiba and Detective Paula Hamill (Montgomery County, Maryland Police); Phil Armstrong and Jennifer Page (Gupta's defense attorneys); Jason Peters (childhood friend of Mark Waugh); Sherene Gupta Rapoport (sister of Rahul Gupta); Dan Morse (Washington Post reporter); Timothy Hagan and Patrick Mays (Prosecutors). 03/25/17 48 HOURS: “The Alternate Suspects” (10:00-11:00p) – a followup to “Playing By the Rules” (OAD: 03/12/16), itself a follow-up to “The Guessing Game” (OAD: 12/06/08), featuring an interview with David Mark Temple, a former football star turned coach who was convicted in 2007 for the 1999 murder of his pregnant wife Belinda, who was shot dead in their Katy, Texas home. He spent nine years in prison, vowing he was innocent. In December 2016, he was released from prison after the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals found he didn’t get a fair trial. Temple talks about his life, evidence not admitted in his first trial that he believes can clear him, his family and the future. After years of delays and little evidence, Temple was eventually convicted in 2007, in a trial that pitted two the biggest names in the legal world: renowned defense attorney Dick DeGuerin and prosecutor Kelly Siegler. Five years later, a new witness came forward. An investigation led Temple’s new attorneys to allege that the prosecutor, Siegler, had withheld crucial evidence from the defense. In July 2015, a hearing was held to determine if Temple had received a fair trial. The judge ruled in Temple’s favor. The case was then in the hands of a higher court. In December 2016, after nine years in prison, Temple was released. Kim Ogg, the new DA in Harris County has promised to personally review the case and decide whether to drop the charges, or prosecute David Temple all over again. Belinda’s family still maintains that Temple is responsible. On-screen text graphic: Stanley Schneider is now handling David Temple’s case alone. Belinda Temple’s family has asked for a special prosecutor to be assigned before a decision about a retrial for David is reached. Interviewed: David Mark Temple; Steve Clappart (Harris D.A. office investigator); Dean Holtke (Crime Scene Technician); Casie Gotro and Stanley Schneider (Temple’s new attorneys); Kelly Siegler (Prosecutor); Dick DeGuerin (original defense attorney).
