26.1 Politics		10PM	1/18/2018	155 seconds	2 News at 10PM on Dayton's CW	The House passed a measure to keep the Government open for another month. Now the bill goes to the Senate where it doesn't likely stand a chance. President Trump claiming Democrats want to see a shutdown to get off the subject. With the deal moving to the Senate, Ohio's Sherrod Brown believes his chamber will do what's necessary to avoid a shutdown.
26.1 Politics		7AM	2/28/2018	100 seconds	2 News Today on Dayton's CW	Changing gun laws is the number one topic on the table when President Trump meets with lawmakers today. At the White House lawmakers will talk about raising the limit to buy the A-R 15 semi automatic rifle from 19 to 21. Bump Stocks make a regular rifle fire like the A-R 15. The White House now says President Trump will support Congress banning that device. If he can't the Justice Department is working on that. The Senate is expected to vote on gun control legislation as soon as this week.
26.1 Politics		10PM	3/19/2018	140 seconds	2 News at 10PM on Dayton's CW	As many as 50 million Facebook users might have had their information used without their permission in the run up to the 2016 election. Facebook stock is tanking, dropping nearly 7 percent after allegations that data firm Cambridge Analytica secretly harvested the personal information of 50 million unsuspecting Facebook users. In 2014 Cambridge Analytica funded a personality test and paid people to take it. This allowed the company to gather personal information from participants Facebook feeds. What users didn't notice was the company was also collecting data of the users friends with an alleged goal of influencing the views of the American Electorate, Cambridge Analytica denies misusing Facebook data.

26.1 Economy	10PM	1/2/2018	90 seconds	2 News at 10PM on Dayton's CW	Hardware stores are seeing green this winter with consumers purchasing hot ticket items such as ice scrapers, ice melt, shovels and de-icer for your wiper blades. Other customers were forced to buy insulation strips for their doors to better keep warm. A store associate at Westlake Hardware in Dayton says sales are higher than normal around this time as the customers should be patient while they restock their shelves.
26.1 Economy	10PM	2/8/2018	90 seconds	2 News at 10PM on Dayton's CW	The stock market took a nosedive for the second time in a week with The Dow closing 1033 points on Thursday following a drop of 1175 points on Monday, officially putting the three largest market indicators in the red. Traders on Wall Street fear The Federal Reserve will start aggressively raising interest rates in order to fight off inflation. But the White House doesn't seem to share the concern, with historically low unemployment rates and rising wages they are certain the economy is still enjoying an upswing.
26.1 Economy	10PM	3/5/2018	105 seconds	2 News at 10PM on Dayton's CW	Trotwood City Council members voted down all 3 resolutions which, if passed would have allowed medical marijuana processors, dispensaries and cultivators to do business within the city limits. The City's vote tonight does not fall in line with what residents had to say back in 2017 when they were surveyed about the issue. 78 percent say they would support having a medical marijuana cultivator in Trotwood according to the roughly 200 people surveyed. The City is able to revisit this issue anytime and potentially reverse their decision. The Mayor says while it is not the fit now for the city that could change.

26.1 Healthcare	10PM	1/30/2018 115 seconds	2 News at 10PM on Dayton's CW	Three mega companies and their influential CEO's say they're forming a partnership to drive down the costs for their combined one million employees. Rising healthcare costs continue to be a problem for many across the country. Billionaire Warren Buffett saying that the ballooning costs of the Healthcare Act is a hungry tapeworm on the American Economy. Healthcare makes up a staggering 18% of the U.S economy, costing each American roughly $10-thousand a year! More than any country in the world.
26.1 Healthcare	10PM	2/23/2018 105 seconds	2 News at 10PM on Dayton's CW	Quality over quantity is the key to Governors John Kasich, Bill Walker and John Hickenlooper's bipartisan Healthcare Plan. The Democrat, Republican and Independent Governors say their proposal will give states more flexibility, encourage competition and innovation and ultimately make healthcare less expensive. The Governors hope their framework will encourage Congress to follow their lead and work together to find solutions.
26.1 Healthcare	10PM	3/19/2018 105 seconds	2 News at 10PM on Dayton's CW	Texas Christian University is teaching medical students how to use food to heal the body. During the six week course, TCU seniors studying to become dietitians teach medical students from UNT Health Science Center how nutrition can be as powerful as medicine. With healthcare costs, chronic disease and ER visits trending up, professors say diet is a cost-effective way to reduce it all and it starts in the kitchen with the next generation of healthcare professionals. At least 10 U-S medical schools teach culinary medicine to undergrads as elective courses.

			2 News at 10PM on Dayton's CW	It is a relatively calm day at Dayton International Airport but the weather in the southeast and Mid-Atlantic states has been grounding flights all morning. One passenger trying to leave Dayton says he can't catch a break. It's been hours and he hasn't made it past security yet and more notifications are flashing on the flight boards. Two of the flights he was on have cancelled and he has been put on a third flight and said if his next flight fails, he is willing to rent a car and drive to another city and take a different flight just so he can sleep in his own bed tonight.
26.1 Environment	10PM	1/17/2018 85 seconds	2 News at 10PM on Dayton's CW	A good working furnace isn't the only factor in making sure you home stay warm in the winter. Energy efficient windows can reduce drafts and save you money on your heating bill. According to All Seal Sales Manager new windows are actually heat reflective so they'll work all year around. They reflect the heat from your furnace back into the inside of your home and in the summer they'll reflect the warm air from the sun. New doors and windows may be costly upfront but according to Energy Star dot gov, you could see a 9 to 22 percent savings per year, which would save money and energy in the long run.
26.1 Environment	10PM	3/3/2018 80 seconds	2 News at 10PM on Dayton's CW	Water rescues continued Saturday in Quincy Massachusetts as the powerful Nor'easter's winds pushed the midday high tide inland once again. More than 200 people have been rescued from their homes by firefighters. A falling tree killed a six year old boy in Virginia in his home. Nearly 3000 flights have been cancelled and the ones that did make it bounced around like balloons. The storm is moving off shore but its effects will be felt for days.

26.1 Crime	7AM	1/19/2018 80 seconds	2 News Today on Dayton's CW	Cleophus Cooksey was arrested for the murder of his mother and step-father in December and police believe he killed seven other people in the three weeks leading up to the double murder. Officers say they didn't stop looking for clues, working with our partner agencies and found more victims. Sooksey is currently being held on 2 counts of pre-meditated first-degree murder and one count of being a felon in possession of a weapon. Cooksey previously served time for manslaughter and armed robbery.
26.1 Crime	10PM	2/19/2018 90 seconds	2 News at 10PM on Dayton's CW	The Stand Your Ground Laws in Ohio were debated at the State Capital by lawmakers. At the hearing people opposed to the bill had an opportunity to tell lawmakers why they felt it was a bad idea. Part of this bill would reduce the penalty for carrying a concealed weapon illegally to be less than is someone were carrying a concealed knife.. Governor Kasich said "you're never going to fix all of this but common sense gun laws make sense, and I'm hopeful that the group that I've assembled on both side of the issue are going to come together with recommendations. The Speaker of The House Cliff Rosenberger said he's anxious to see what can be produced. We'll see, and if they don't produce anything, I'll put my own stuff out."
26.1 Crime	10PM	3/22/2018 110 seconds	2 News at 10PM on Dayton's CW	The Dayton Fire Department responded to a call in the 1000 block of Kammer Avenue on Monday to find a Pitbull had been set on fire. Jermaine Long can't understand how stuff like this happens in this area. This is an area I grew up in. I have a Pitbull myself. Because of the cruel nature of the Pitbull's death the Humane Society thinks people may have witnessed the burning.
