The event marks one week since a mass shooting killed seven people at at July 4th Parade in Highland Park, Illinois. The new Federal Gun Law includes incentives for states to pass red flag measures, along with stricter requirements for young people to carry guns. President Biden is expected to reiterate his own call for tougher gun measures, but the prospects are slim for any further Congressional action.

On CNN's State of The Union, White House Economic Adviser Jared Bernstein, said gas prices have gone down 50 cents a gallon since the last inflation report. And Bernstein believes the price tag on gas will continue to decline. Vermont Senator Bernie Sanders believes the Government should do more to prioritize everyday Americans and not big oil companies. But Florida Republican Senator Rick Scott says the President and Democrats are out of touch and should follow Scott's plan.

26.1	Health/Healthcare	8AM	7/28/2022	61 seconds	2 NEWS Today on Dayton's CW	Mental Health Professionals say financial stress can affect the mental health of you and your family. With skyrocketing inflation, financial experts say it's hard to predict what will happen next. That uncertainty is causing stress for a lot of people, which can have detrimental effects. Some studies show financial stress is more likely to cause a heart attack, fast breathing, high blood pressure, trouble sleeping and lack of energy could be signs to seek help.
26.1	Health/Healthcare	10PM	8/1/2022	89 seconds	2 NEWS @ 10PM On Dayton's CW	New challenges as Covid-19 cases rise. Doctors Mande Sobhanie with O-S-U Wexner Medical Center and Dr. Joseph Gastaldo with Ohio Health say it's important to know the difference between the two. Gastaldo added people who "rebound" are considered contagious. Doctors are also worried about reinfection. They say if you had covid earlier this year, you could get sick again and test positive because of the BA 5 variant. They're urging communities to remain vigilant when it comes to covid and protective measures like masking and testing.

Officers were checking on the hotel on Miller Lane Wednesday night and found a 21-year-old man who had been shot in the face. The man was alert and conscious when he was taken to the hospital. The suspect had left the scene before police arrived. Police are still working to determine his identity.

					2 NEWS @ 10PM On Dayton's CW	Former President Trump's name wasn't on the ballot, but it's clear he still has influence over the Republican Party. Trump has vowed to oust any Republicans who has turned against him, starting with Cheney. Wyoming Republican voters fired Congresswoman Liz Cheney, in Tuesdays Primary, giving a landslide to her Trump-backed opponent. Cheney said following her Primary defeat Tuesday that her fight against the former President is not over. Cheney voted to impeach Trump, and has been Trump's loudest Republican critic in the house. She is Vice Chair of the committee investigating the January 6th attack on the Capitol. Only two of the House Republicans who voted to impeach Trump will be on the Ballot in November. Two resigned, and Trump backed candidates won 6 other races.
26.1	Politics	10PM	8/17/2022	120 seconds	2 NEWS Today on Dayton's CW	On this day in 2005 Hurricane Katrina made landfall as a Category three Hurricane with 125 miles per hour winds along the Louisiana Coast, becoming the single most catastrophic Natural Disaster in U.S. history. More than 18 hundred lives were lost in the days after the storm struck, and caused billions of dollars in damage, destroying hundreds of thousands of homes. The loss of life and damage to properties was worsened, because levees in the Crescent City broke. At one point, at least 80 percent of New Orleans was under flood water.

					White House Council of Economic Advisers Jared Bernstein says bringing manufacturing jobs back to the U.S. is an important part of strengthening the economy. A recent report from the Reshoring Initiative estimates nearly 350,000 jobs will return this year. A new high in a decade long trend. Reshoring Initiative Founder and President Harry Moser says companies are recognizing it makes sense to keep production close to home. However, Moser says the trend presents a challenge because not enough Americans are trained to work in manufacturing. Moser is advocating for the Administration to promote the skilled workforce so there will be enough recruits going forward.

					The Federal Reserve is expected to announce another interest rate hike at their meeting in 2 weeks and Chair Jerome Powell says they have to move quickly because "the public's expectations of future inflation will play an important role in the actual path of inflation." He says the longer high inflation is around the more people will get used to it and that will impact their long term buying habits. The Biden Administration is trying to project confidence about the direction of the economy. But Republicans blame Democrats for creating the high inflation. And Senator Tommy Tuberville is predicting ongoing economic pain. Republicans are also focusing on the economy in their midterm election pitches. They say with the party back in power they can get things back on track.
