ISSUE: WOMEN'S INTERESTS

1/5/22 at 11:00 ... The Family Room... 57 minutes... Mike and Laurie Carlton, parishioners at St. Peter Chanel in Roswell, Georgia, share with us over a decade of experience in parish-based support for marriage. The Carltons know what it means to hit a wall in your marriage. Helping couples who may have become hopeless is a passion for Mike and Laurie. They each give personal witness to the sources of inspiration that brought them to focus on meeting each other's deepest needs and to living a simple, vibrant faith in their marriage and family of eight.

1/12/22 at 11:00 ... The Family Room ... 57 minutes... Thomas Clements shares how God's hand showed itself in his healing, sobriety, and ongoing recovery from alcohol and drug addiction. The experience of the love of God brought Thomas to found a healing ministry, Zenith Ministries, to serve men and women, ages 18-45, in a mission "to build community, help the hurting find healing, and accompany each other to living life to the full." God wants to heal those trapped in addiction and lead them to a beautiful life of freedom, which Thomas describes in his e-book, Seven Steps to Overcome Addiction.

2/2/22 at 11:00 ... The Family Room ... 57 minutes... Heather Triggs, a consecrated woman of the DeSales Secular Institute, gives testimony to the providential love and care of God the Father in her life, as she has come to discern, over a number of years, this vocation to "be the leaven in the world for Jesus."

Steeped in the wisdom and spirituality of St. Francis de Sales, these consecrated women share a rule of life and vows (poverty, chastity, obedience), and they live in the world. They live the consecrated life espoused to Christ Jesus, bringing His salvation and compassion into daily life.

2/9/22 at 11:00 ... The Family Room ... 57 minutes... Father Martin Connor, L.C., has turned his attention to having life-giving (not death-dealing) conversations with young adults about the total and unconditional gift of self that is true love. In his books and podcasts, Father Martin interviews young people who yearn for the deeper, lasting relationships that truly satisfy our hearts. He does not shy away from the troubling waters of our times, like the hook-up culture, cohabitation (which predicts relational dissatisfaction and divorce), and pornography use. Healthy dating involves slowing down and introspection. Spiritual direction, self-assessment, and support from family and friends help us all love others as Christ loves us.

2/16/22 at 11:00 ... The Family Room ... 57 minutes... Christopher and Wendy West, parents to five children, have been called to a special mission within the Church. They share the gift of St. John Paul II's Theology of the Body. Christopher West shares how the Theology of the Body radically changed his life in the early 1990s. The deepest hungers and desires of our hearts are placed in us by God to lead us to Him now and to an eternal wedding feast. Yes, Christopher tells us, "God wants to marry us." In this episode, we take a deep dive into questions such as: What does it mean to be human? Was the Incarnation God's "plan B?" How do I talk to and pray with my children and grandchildren in a way that upholds God's creating the human person male and female? What does it mean to have a body and that the body is for the Lord, as St. Paul exhorts? Theology of the Body is for everybody, a gift of the Fire of Divine Love.

3/2/22 at 1:00 ... The Family Room ... 57 minutes... Married for nearly 20 years and parents of three children ranging in age from 8 to 15, Becky and Chris Eldredge know the challenges facing families trying to find time to pray and discern God's will amid busy lives. In this episode, Becky, an Ignatian-trained spiritual director and retreat leader, reflects on her own journey of faith, including how and when a “lived practice” of the Catholic faith became a reality for her.

3/9/22 at 11:00 ... The Family Room ... 57 minutes... Christopher West returns to The Family Room to discuss the first book from the Theology of the Body Institute Press, God is Beauty: A Retreat on the Gospel and Art. In 1962, Karol Wojtyla (St. Pope John Paul II) delivered this retreat to a group of artists. It is now available to us for the first time in English. When we open our hearts in faith, we allow God’s beauty to flow through us. The human body is meant to be an instrument of the Divine Beauty. Christopher and our co-hosts ponder how the teachings in this retreat inspire both love of God and the fulfillment of our deepest longings.

3/30/22 at 11:00 ... The Family Room ... 57 minutes... Clinical director of Holy Family Counseling Center, Peter Attridge, joins our co-hosts in an encouraging discussion about communicating, openly and fruitfully, in our families. As the father of three growing girls, Peter shares creative strategies for parenting that are informed, both by his clinical practice, and by personal challenges that we all face which are unique to our times. Peter is a licensed marriage and family therapist (LMFT) in the State of Georgia and supervises other professional helpers. This episode will inspire you to step back from your fears and communicate with those you love, especially children and young people, in an open and faith-filled way.
