ISSUE: YOUNG ADULT CONTENT

10/21/23 at 16:00... Honest to God... 60 Minutes... From can men and women be friends? to how to know if they really like you? If you're just getting into the dating scene and are not quite sure what you're doing, then this episode is for you. We bring on a few young adults, some of whom have gotten all the way to marriage, and others who are single as can be. So we can hear their perspectives on how to go about getting from friend to more.

11/28/23 at 16:00... Honest to God... 60 Minutes... It's no secret making friends as a young adult is hard. In high school, you're forced to be around people 8 hours a day. If you go to college you're forced to live with people and are still in a bubble where there are countless organizations to get involved in. But if you don't go to college or recently graduated from there, it's tough. Where do you start? City on Purpose takes the work out of it for you in Atlanta to find events, roommates, and more. We also discuss practical steps to take when searching and why in-person is more important than online.
