

Quarterly Issues/Programs List
MontanaPBS (KUSM-TV Bozeman & KUFM-TV Missoula)

MontanaPBS is committed to providing coverage of major issues and problems in the communities served. The following list represents a sample of significant issues responded to by MontanaPBS along with the most relevant programming treatment of those issues for the 1st quarter of 2024 (January 1, 2024 – March 31, 2024). This listing is by no means the entire response, and does not include the Learn at Home block programs on weekdays which were put in place to respond to the needs of Montana students, parents and teachers during the Coronavirus, and have remained there for educational purposes. Additionally, this quarter saw the continuation of Indian Country Today News with Aliyah Chavez and a second season of Montana PBS Reports: IMPACT, which features news and public affairs reporting on issues which affect all Montanans.

The order in which the issues appear does not reflect any priority or significance.

Economic Inequality	America's Dairyland at the Crossroads	1/30	11am	56 mins.	There is no more quintessential image of Wisconsin than a red barn with a herd of cows grazing in a green field against a blue sky. The state's dairy history is an essential part of the state's culture and economy. All of it is at risk. A confluence of factors are causing many small, family-owned dairy farms to quit, including low milk prices, changing consumer tastes, labor issues and now a pandemic. The industry has been the state's economic engine, generating more than $45 billion a year. But many farmers are at a crossroads of either making big changes or calling it quits. Milwaukee PBS has partnered with the Milwaukee Journal Sentinel to produce "America's Dairyland at the Crossroads," an hour-long documentary that takes a deeper look at the continuing crisis and the future for farmers, businesses and communities who rely on the dairy industry to survive.
