HEALTH	UniMás News Briefs	7/22/15	3:22PM	:30	Under new FDA regulations, partially hydrogenated oils, which have been shown to raise "bad" cholesterol, will be allowed to be used unless authorized by the FDA. The regulations will take effect in three years, giving companies time to either reformulate products without partially hydrogenated oils or petition the FDA to permit specific uses of them. Following the compliance period, no partially hydrogenated oils can be added to human food unless approved by the FDA. The new regulations will apply to all food whether it is domestically produced or imported. The regulations do not apply to naturally-occurring trans fats found in some animal products such as meat and dairy.
HEALTH	Perspectiva Nacional	8/2/15	6:00 AM	9:03	Republicans and Democrats have passed a bill in the House of Representatives that enables medical and scientific research to find cures to rare diseases. Such common diseases to the Latino community include Alzheimer's, Parkinson's and diabetes. Representative Carlos Curbelo (R-FL) will discuss these issues further on Perspectiva Nacional .
HEALTH	UniMás News Briefs	8/4/15	2:27AM	:30	Nationwide there have been 2,400 cases of Legionnaires' disease this year. So far in New York City's outbreak, 81 people have been infected including 28 who have been treated and discharged. According to the New York City Health Department, all the victims who died from the severe form of pneumonia were older and had other underlying ailments.
HEALTH	Perspectiva Nacional	8/16/15	6:00 AM	5:58	We discuss the alarming increase in cases of mental illness in the United States, especially among the young. Psychologist Claudia Campos explains why there are more diagnoses of mental problems, and the attitude of our community to this problem.

HEALTH	UniMás News Briefs	9/30/15	3:30PM	:30	A new study finds that people over 50 don't get stronger bones either by taking supplements or from eating extra servings of calcium-rich foods such as dairy products. The extra calcium does not go to strengthen bones but instead can build up in the arteries, causing heart disease, or in the kidneys causing stones
ALSAC / St. Jude/ALSAC / St. Jude - Unimas	PSA	7/1-9/30	858	1:00	Information about St. Jude Children's Research Hospital Its mission is to find cures for children with cancer and other catastrophic diseases through research and treatment. St. Jude is the only pediatric cancer research center where families never pay for treatment not covered by insurance. No child is ever denied treatment because of the family's inability to pay
House Denver/AD COUNCIL	PSA	7/1-9/30	57	:30	The Children's Oral Health English and Spanish PSAs aim to motivate parents to take action to reduce their children's risk of oral disease by making sure their kids are brushing their teeth for two minutes, twice a day. The PSAs aim to show parents that spending just two minutes, twice a day making sure their children brush could help save them from a lifetime of tooth pain. Because two minutes is such a short amount of time for such an important part of parenting, the new PSAs feature parents trying--and struggling--to squeeze other parenting lessons into so little time. These scenes suggest that while most parenting is hard, making sure your kids brush for two minutes, twice a day is one aspect that's easier. Parents are directed to 2min2x.org, where they can find fun two minute videos that kids can watch while brushing.

House Denver/AD COUNCIL	PSA	7/1-9/30	62	:30	Clean. Separate. Cook. Chill. An estimated 48 million people get food poisoning each year, but there are practical steps that families can take at home to help reduce their risk of getting sick
House Denver/AD COUNCIL	PSA	7/1-9/30	80	:30	The new Seat Belt Safety campaign pulls from the insight that as a parent, sometimes you have to let your kids have their way. But your kid's safety should never be up for negotiation, no matter how much they push back on the seat belts being uncomfortable, unnecessary for just a "short drive" or any other excuses. The campaign utilizes the concept that "life as a parent is full of compromises, but seat belt safety for my children is not up for negotiation."
House Denver/AD COUNCIL	PSA	7/1-8/31	30	:30	According to a study by the RAND Corporation using statistics from the United States Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, approximately 1.4 million homes have firearms stored in a way that makes them accessible to the wrong hands – children, at-risk youth, potential thieves, and those who intend to harm themselves or others. PSA's direct firearms owners to NCPC.org to determine the best storage safety solution to fit their household.
House Denver/POOL SAFELY	PSA	7/1-9/30	186	:15	It happens quickly and silently. About 260 children younger than 5 drown in pools each year. That's about one kindergarten class each month. Put a fence around your pool. Place an alarm on doors leading to the pool area. If a child is missing, look in the pool first. Remember, every second counts.
House Denver/AD COUNCIL	PSA	9/1-9/30	41	1:00	From hurricanes and floods to wildfires and earthquakes, Americans have experienced natural and man-made disasters, yet only 20% claim to be very prepared for the next. PSA's to help everyone ensure they have an effective household emergency plan for preparedness.
IMMIGRATION	UniMás News Briefs	7/1/15	11:26PM	:30	One year ago, activists obstructed the path of federal buses that brought hundreds of undocumented Central American children to a center in Murrieta, California. According to a report by the "Centro Para Una Nueva Comunidad" (CNC) anti-immigrant and extremist groups were tipped off by DHS. CNC is calling for an investigation against DHS agents who may have provided information to anti-immigrant groups that were present in the 2014 demonstrations.
IMMIGRATION	UniMás News Briefs	7/7/15	11:26PM	:30	In an effort to get more Americans to understand the importance of Washington to pass an immigration reform, advocates kick off a campaign. The purpose of the campaign is to get the undocumented immigrants to not conceal their identities and hide from the law enforcement officials, but rather share their stories through videos on a website to help show what they do for the country. The push is the latest step in a slowly developing strategy by undocumented immigrants to go public as a way to push for action from Washington and to use the publicity to protect themselves from deportation.
IMMIGRATION	Perspectiva Nacional	7/12/15	6:00 AM	23:47	Due to the many questions and concerns from our viewers regarding immigration, we continue to provide legal advice from attorneys Jose Pertierra and Alissa Lachow.

IMMIGRATION	UniMás News Briefs	7/18/15	11:19PM	:30	Now citizens and residents can request "pardon" from inside the U.S. The rule is part of the executive action announced last November by President Obama. The measure is not being blocked by courts and experts say the change will not be immediate. First the government must go through two months of public comment regarding the measure.
IMMIGRATION	UniMás News Briefs	7/22/15	2:24PM	:30	The First U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals affirmed last year's decision by a federal judge in Rhode Island, who found that a naturalized U.S. citizen's fourth amendment rights against unreasonable searches and seizures were violated when she was held on an immigration detainer. The appeals court has ruled that federal immigration authorities need probable cause to arrest and detain someone in order to investigate their immigration status.
IMMIGRATION	Perspectiva Nacional	7/26/15	6:00 AM	23:49	We address and answer immigration questions from our audience. Immigration attorneys, Luis Paoli and Julia Toro join us on the show to provide information and give legal advice on immigration.
IMMIGRATION REFORM	Perspectiva Nacional	8/9/15	6:30 AM	6:02	In an era in which the Republican and Democratic parties are more distant than ever, a bill that seeks to benefit the immigrant community is getting bipartisan support. Congressman Tony Cardenas (D-CA) speaks of this proposal that seeks to make easier the process to become a citizen.
IMMIGRATION	UniMás News Briefs	8/13/15	6:09PM	:30	According to Gallup's 2015 Minority Rights and Relations poll, immigration is of special significance to Hispanics, about half of whom are immigrants themselves. The Gallup poll asked the same question in 2006 to groups that included an expanded sample of Hispanics. The survey shows that Hispanics are slightly less likely now than in 2006 to favor a path to citizenship for immigrants. Two in three U.S. adults favor a plan to allow undocumented immigrants living in the U.S. to remain in the country and become citizens if they meet certain requirements over time.
IMMIGRATION	Perspectiva Nacional	8/23/15	6:00 AM	8:00	We interviewed ICE spokeswomen to learn how they plan to prevent the same humanitarian crisis on the border that took place in 2014, from recurring.
IMMIGRATION	UniMás News Briefs	8/27/15	11:30PM	:30	Six people crossed the United States border as first members of a class-action lawsuit eligible to return to the U.S. under the provisions of a settlement reached between the American Civil Liberties Union and the Department of Homeland Security. The lawsuit filed in 2013 accused U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement and the Border Patrol in Southern California of using coercive tactics to pressure unauthorized immigrants into voluntarily leaving the U.S. The lawsuit claimed the immigrants were deprived of their right to be heard by an immigration judge, who might have granted them legal status under certain programs.
IMMIGRATION	Perspectiva Nacional	8/30/15	6:00 AM	9:00	The Republican primaries are being dominated by an anti-immigrant message from Donald Trump, the candidate leading the polls. In his immigration plan he announced an aggressive strategy to deport undocumented immigrants and is conditioning its relations with Mexico. The political analyst Patricio Zamorano and the immigration attorney Luis Paoli tell us which of these proposals could become reality and which are false campaigns promises.

DESCRIPTION OF ISSUE	PROGRAM SEGMENT	DATE	TIME	DURATION	NARRATION OF TYPE/ DESCRIPTION OF PROGRAM SEGMENT
IMMIGRATION	UniMás News Briefs	9/4/15	11:02PM	:30	The Assembly passed a bill today to reduce the threat of deportation of immigrant crime victims and foster their trust and cooperation with law enforcement. SB 674, the Immigrant Victims of Crime Equity Act, requires local and state law enforcement agencies to sign certifications for qualified immigrant crime victims when they have been helpful to the investigation of crimes like sexual assault and domestic violence. These certifications are prerequisites to an application for a Victim of Crime U-Visa. U-Visas are issued by the federal government and prevent deportation of victims of specific crimes who have cooperated with the investigation or prosecution.
IMMIGRATION	UniMás News Briefs	9/9/15	4:22PM	:30	The Department of State's (DOS) Chief of the Visa Control and Reporting Division, Charlie Oppenheim, shared extensive information on the future availability of immigrant visas (green cards) in light of the recent changes to the Visa Bulletin which includes the incorporation of a "Date for Filing" date. DOS is the government agency that controls and tracks the annual quotas on the issuance of green cards.
NATIONAL POLITICS	UniMás News Briefs	8/10/15	6:10PM	:30	Univision news anchor, Maria Elena Salinas, conducted an exclusive interview with former U.S. Secretary of State Hillary Rodham Clinton. This is her first Spanish-language interview since her announcement of being a candidate in the presidential election in 2016. Topics discussed in the interview were education and college affordability, as well as immigration and other issues of importance to Hispanics in the U.S.
NATIONAL POLITICS	UniMás News Briefs	8/14/15	6:10PM	:30	U.S. Secretary of State John Kerry visited Cuba for the hoisting of the U.S. flag as a historic moment representing the lifting of the trade embargo on Cuba. The U.S. flag was presented by the same U.S. marines who brought it down in 1961. Mr. Kerry also warned that the U.S. would not stop pressing for political change in Cuba.
NATIONAL POLITICS	Perspectiva Nacional	7/5/15	6:00 AM	9:01	We analyze the recent news on racism, gun control and the White House political race. Community leaders present their views on these issues.
NATIONAL POLITICS	Perspectiva Nacional	9/13/15	6:00 AM	8:59	After the August recess, senators and representatives return to Washington to decide on several important issues, such as the nuclear deal with Iran, and the conditional approval of the budget linked to discussion on the federal funds to the Planned Parenthood clinics. We further discuss these issues with Democratic party spokesman, Reynaldo Benitez and Republican analyst, Rocio Velez as they explain the positions of their parties.

2016 PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION	UniMás News Briefs	8/27/15	5:30PM	:30	A new poll shows Vice President Joe Biden's favorability is higher than that of any candidate in either, the Democratic or Republican party. According to the poll, Hillary Clinton remains the frontrunner with 45 percent, while Bernie Sanders is trailing at 22 percent. On the Republican side, Donald Trump is now at 28 percent, with Ben Carson trailing at 12 percent.
2016 PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION	UniMás News Briefs	8/31/15	3:30PM	:30	Presidential candidate, Chris Christie's idea of solving the immigration problem is for the U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement to set up a system for tracking people, similar to FedEx's system of tracking packages. Roughly, 40 percent of undocumented immigrants enter the U.S. legally on visas and then simply overstay their visas. Implementing this idea would presumably involve some sort of device by which the government could monitor the movements of all those who do enter legally, but this does not solve the current problem of what to do with the majority of the 11 million undocumented immigrants already here.
2016 PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION	Perspectiva Nacional	9/6/15	6:00 AM	7:59	Democratic National Committee spokesman, Pablo Manriquez, gives his view and update on what is happening in the Democratic campaign.

GOVERNMENT	UniMás News Briefs	7/20/15	2:17PM	:30	Republican lawmakers expressed their discontent on Monday after the U.S. and Cuba formally ended more than a half-century of estrangement, formally re-establishing diplomatic relations severed at the height of the Cold War. They have vowed not to repeal the trade embargo and have pledged to roll back President Obama's moves to normalize relations with its island neighbor.
GOVERNMENT	UniMás News Briefs	7/22/15	4:27PM	:30	According to trustees who oversee Social Security and Medicare, the disability trust fund will run out of money in late 2016. The typical beneficiary would see a reduction of $93 a month. In addition, the trustee's project there will be no cost-of-living increase in benefits at the end of the year. On a separate note, Medicare beneficiaries could face a monthly premium increase of at least $54 for outpatient coverage. That works out to an increase of more than 50 percent.
GOVERNMENT	UniMás News Briefs	8/7/15	6:30PM	:30	The U.S. government has asked a federal judge to reconsider her ruling on immigrant family detention saying recent changes mean federal authorities are no longer violating a ban on holding immigrant children in secure facilities. In late July, U.S. District Judge Dolly Gee ordered the release of all children from immigrant family detention centers "without unnecessary delay," along with any mothers not deemed a flight or national security risk. Justice Department lawyers filed documents at the California central District Court urging Judge Gee to not implement her decision, saying the Department of Homeland Security intends to turn the centers into short-term processing facilities.

GOVERNMENT	UniMás News Briefs	8/17/15	4:34PM	:30	The IRS revealed that a criminal syndicate's massive theft of American taxpayer data was much worse than originally thought. After conducting an extensive review covering the 2015 filing season, the IRS discovered criminals used a tool on the IRS website to steal the tax forms of 220,000 taxpayers. The IRS is now sending letters to those taxpayers to warn them about potential identity theft, offer free credit protection and give them an extra PIN to protect future tax filings.
GOVERNMENT	UniMás News Briefs	8/22/15	5:33PM	:30	U.S. District Judge Dolly Gee refused the government's request to reconsider her ruling that children held in family detention centers after crossing the U.S./Mexico border illegally must be released rapidly. She found the U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) in breach of a longstanding legal agreement stipulating that immigrant children cannot be held in unlicensed secured facilities, and gave agency officials until October 23 to comply.
House Denver/AD COUNCIL	PSA	7/1-7/31	19	:30	To encourage the adoption of children from the U.S. foster care system and to increase the number of potential families inquiring about adoption. The campaign encourages potential adoptive parents to call 888.200.4005 or visit www.adoptuskids.org to find out more information about adopting children from foster care.
House Denver/AD COUNCIL	PSA	7/1-9/30	132	1:00	Making Home Affordable (MHA) launched in 2009 and is a critical part of the Administration's strategy to help homeowners avoid foreclosure, stabilize the country's housing market, and improve the nation's economy. The program offers a range of solutions, including lower monthly mortgage payments for struggling homeowners, as well as options for unemployed or underemployed homeowners and those who owe more than their homes are worth

TERRORISM	UniMás News Briefs	7/1/15	6:13PM	:30	Law enforcement often issue warnings over holidays and major national events in an abundance of caution knowing that, from a terrorist's point of view, the timing of an attack can determine how much coverage it gets. For the fourth of July there are additional concerns, including the recruiting ISIS has done in the United States and the potential for relatively small-scale, but still dangerous, attacks. Following overseas attacks in June, Department of Homeland Security was being encouraged to be "vigilant and prepared" for Independence Day celebrations.
TECHNOLOGY	UniMás News Briefs	7/8/15	2:15PM	:30	Technical glitches affected three major institutions although it was not believed to be a cyber-breach. The New York Stock Exchange suspended trading at 11:32 a.m. because of an internal technical issue. The Wall Street Journal's homepage stopped functioning around the same time. United Airlines' computer system malfunctioned earlier in the day, but was back up by the time the other problems began. Trading has been halted since this morning on the exchange because of a technical problem.
TECHNOLOGY	UniMás News Briefs	7/9/15	11:26PM	:30	Two major breaches last year of U.S. government databases holding personnel records and security-clearance files exposed sensitive information on at least 22.1 million people, including not only federal employees and contractors but their families and friends. U.S. officials say the breaches rank among the most potentially damaging cyber heists in U.S. government history because of the abundant detail in the files. Officials said hackers accessed not only personnel records of current and former employees but also extensive information about friends, relatives and others listed as references in applications for security clearances for some of the most sensitive jobs in government.
