

WVPT/WVPY Quarterly List of Programming
Providing the Most Significant Treatment of Community Issues
("Issues List")

Third Quarter 2012
July 1, 2012 – September 30, 2012

In the past quarter, WVPT continued in its longstanding efforts to provide programming on issues of concern to our community. These issues include those concerning public policy, politics, current events, the economy, and national developments of local and regional 40 county coverage area concern.

The programs that provide the most significant treatment of community issues are described below. The remainder of the Issues List consists of:

- A brief description of each issue addressed by WVPT in the preceding quarter; and
- The titles of the programs that provided the most significant treatment of these issues, as well as a description of each program (including its airdate, the time at which it aired, and the duration of the program).

Program	Day	Time	Description
Living in Virginia	Various days and times throughout the quarter. See schedule list below.		Locally produced program touching on the lifestyle and cultural issues living in the Commonwealth
Road Trip to History	Various days and times throughout the quarter		The "Road Trip to History" series is a spellbinding journey through the communities, history, and events that shaped the heartland of the Shenandoah Valley, as well as the entire Appalachian region. Follow the footsteps of the first settlers that came to America, travel down the "Great Valley Road," or march with the brave soldiers from "The Battle of

Program	Day	Time	Description
Washington Week	Regular Schedule	8:00 p.m.	For more than 40 years, Washington Week has delivered the most interesting conversation of the week. Washington Week is the longest-running primetime news & public affairs program on television.
Politics Matters	Friday		Paynter interviews Whitehead about a wide range of civil liberties issues with particular emphasis on the preservation of free speech. Paynter created Politics Matters in 2009 with the intention of fostering greater citizen awareness and participation in local, state, and national issues. In the 2012 season, Paynter will interview sitting officials, scholars, prospective political candidates, and private citizens on a wide range of topics affecting all Virginia communities.

Program	Day	Time	Description
This week in Richmond	Quarterly Regular Schedule Tuesday	Tuesday 5:00 p.m.	This Week in Richmond gives Virginians an in-depth look at important developments and decisions coming out of the capitol. From budget cuts to regulatory affairs, the program spotlights the latest happenings at the General Assembly. It provides timely insights and behind-the-headlines analysis of the most recent news about taxes, education and other matters that are critical to people in our region.
That World is Gone			Revealing the history of Charlottesville's largest African American neighborhood, Vinegar Hill, That World is Gone explores black property ownership and the area's destruction in 1965. Surviving residents describe the neighborhood they knew and loved, and consider future prospects for black residence and success in the city. Features a soundtrack of local blues and jazz musicians, helping to bring to life the fond memories, painful past, and uncertain future familiar to African American communities throughout the South.
