

Quarterly Issues/Programs Report
2nd Quarter 2015
April 1, 2015 – June 30, 2015
Kansas City, MO

The following is a listing of some of the issues covered by Station KSMO - TV, Kansas City, MO, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period. The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect any priority or significance.

Issues covered during this quarter might include:

- Community
- Education
- Health
- Charities
- Political
- Safety
- Religion
- Social
- Environment

Description of Issue	Program/Segment	Date	Narration of Program/Segment
Politics	KCTV 5 News	4/07/2015	KCTV had coverage of Kansas City Missouri's April general election.
Charity	KCTV 5 News	4/09/2015	KCTV 5 reported on Day 3 of the 7 days of kindness. Day 3 focused on giving to and working for others and charities.
Crime	KCTV 5 News	4/19/2015	Nathan Vickers reported on the 1-year anniversary of the shooting of Ka'Vayea Curry. Curry was shot in April of 2014 while sitting in a car at a gas pump at a gas station. Curry's father was killed in the attack.
Religion	KCTV 5 News	4/21/2015	Emily Rittman reported on the resignation of embattled Bishop Finn.
Education	KCTV 5 News	4/26/2015	KCTV 5 reported that a new principal has been appointed to Liberty Middle School. The new principal replaces an embattled principal who resigned following a bullying incident.
Health	KCTV 5 News	4/29/2015	KCTV 5 reported on a less expensive breast cancer screening test. The test is less expensive, but doctors are noting that less expensive is not necessarily better.
Community	KCTV 5 News	4/30/2015	Erika Tallan reported on a new program by the Kansas City Missouri Police Department that are targeting high crime areas.
Environment	KCTV 5 News	5/6/2015	Elisabeth Rentschler reported on a new noise ordinance proposed by the Kansas City Missouri Health Department. The ordinance will take effect 10 days after it is approved.
Politics	KCTV 5 News	5/11/2015	Heather Staggers reported on private protest by a Lawrence business owner against President Obama's policies.
Health	KCTV 5 News	5/19/2015	KCTV 5 Reported on Chronic Fatigue Syndrome. The patient's labs show no problems, but they always feel fatigued.
Crime	KCTV 5 News	5/20/2015	Betsy Webster reported on four cancer charities that have been accused of using donated funds to pay personal expenses, take vacations and other non-related expenses.
Religion	KCTV 5 News	5/23/2015	KCTV 5 reported on the ordination of 7 Catholic deacons by Bishop Finn. Finn who resigned in April, was called to preside over the ordination, because the acting Bishop was presiding over the ordination of priests in Leawood, Kansas.
Crime	KCTV 5 News	5/26/2015	Jamie Oberg reported on an unsolved homicide in Belton, Missouri.

			Craig Donaldson was shot and killed as he was walking home from a convenience store in December of 2014.
Social	KCTV 5 News	5/26/2015	KCTV 5 reported that the Irish referendum for Same Sex marriage passed. The Irish government noted that Same Sex marriages might begin as soon as July.
Education	KCTV 5 News	5/28/2015	Lisa D'Sousa reported on recruiting efforts by the Kansas City, Kansas School District to find new teachers to fill voids within the school system.
Community	KCTV 5 News	5/29/2015	Elisabeth Rentschler was live at a fund raising golf tournament for the Henning Family Foundation. Their goal is to raise funds to place AEDs in public places across the Kansas City metropolitan area.
Health	KCTV 5 News	6/8/2015	KCTV News reported on the increase in the number of patients that end up in hospital emergency rooms during the summer, and what you can do to avoid injuries that would send you to there.
Education	KCTV 5 News	6/17/2015	KCTV News reported on free retakes of the SAT exam. This occurred after SAT officials invalidated a portion of the exam for the test date because the instructions in the test booklet allowed for too much time for the section.
Crime	KCTV 5 News	6/18/2015	Lisa D'Sousa reported on a new initiative launched by Kansas City Missouri Councilman John Sharp has started to help to attempt to reduce domestic related violence in the city.
Religion / Crime	KCTV 5 News	6/19/2015	KCTV News reported on reaction from local church members on the shooting of 9 people in Charleston, South Carolina.
Politics	KCTV 5 News	6/23/2015	KCTV News provided coverage of the Kansas City Missouri city election.
Charity	KCTV 5 News	6/24/2015	KCTV News reported on online charity donations and cyber security. A security expert explained what you need to know and how to keep your information safe.
Environment	KCTV 5 News	6/24/2015	Erika Tallan reported on a neighborhood meeting about excessive emissions from the BNSF Argentine Rail Yard in Kansas City, Kansas.
Social	KCTV 5 News	6/26/2015	KCTV News had reaction from both Missouri Gov. Jay Nixon and Kansas Gov. Sam Brownback on the Supreme Court's decision striking down all

			Same Sex marriage bans.
Community	KCTV 5 News	6/30/2015	KCTV News reported on a Kansas City Missouri police officer that was named the Missouri State Peace Officers Association Officer of the Year.