

WRFL 88.1 FM
2022 - Third Quarter (July - September)

Description of issue	Program	Date	Time	Length	Program Description
Voter awareness, Local music, international music culture	Trivial Thursdays	Aug 25, 2022	10am	2 hrs.	Liza Holland, Chair of Candidate forums and Lee Carroll of the GreenRoom Exchange's Senegal Project.
Local music festival, Environmentalism, social justice	Trivial Thursdays	Sept 1, 2022	10am	2 hrs.	KYukefest organizer Sarabeth Brownrobie; Organizers of "And The Creek Rose: A Flood-Relief Benefit for Appalshop's Appalachian Media Institute."
Local music festivals, community arts and education	Trivial Thursdays	Sept 8, 2022	10am	2 hrs.	Kim Baird, organizer of the Lexington Roots & Heritage Festival; Living Arts & Science Center's new Gallery Director Jeanette Tesmer. EXPANSION Psychedelic Music fest, with Jared Lee.
Environmentalism, local music, festivals	Trivial Thursdays	Sept 15, 2022	10am	2 hrs.	gardener/ecologist/activist Jim Embry; musician Nathan Pendleton; Laura Clay, coordinator of Maysville's McNeill Music Series.
Local arts culture, international art connections, local music	Trivial Thursdays	Sept 22, 2022	10am	2 hrs.	HorseMania with Ame Sweetall and Maury Sparrow of LexArts and participating artists Sarah Heller and Lauren Case; Robert RAUSCHENBERG: "A Gift in Your Pocket from the Collections of Friends in Honor of Bradley Jeffries", with UK Art Museum Director Stuart Horodner and

					Mary Lynn Houlihan; and musician Nicholas Teale
Acid Mine Drainage	Campus Voices	September 28, 2022	5:30-6pm	30 min	Host, Alex Hamilton, sat down with UK professor Dr. Christopher Barton and UK Associate Dean Dr. Carmen Agouridis talked about acid mine drainage in abandoned/active coal mines and how it affects drinking water and more.
Election awareness, health and wellness.	Trivial Thursdays	Sept 29, 2022	10am	2 hrs.	Lexington League of Women Voters; Lexington Fayette County Health Dept's Christina King; God's Pantry CEO Michael Halligan; and the Gaines Center for Humanities fellows Joshua Miller and Eriel Burns, and Jenny Fitzpatrick of Blackbird Dance Theatre.