

WRFL 88.1 FM
2022 - Second Quarter (April – June)

Description of issue	Program	Date	Time	Length	Program Description
NFTs	Campus Voices	April 6, 2022	4pm	2 hrs	Host, Samantha Valentino sits down with financial advisor Josh Smith and CEO Ricky Mason to discuss the basic principles of NFTs.
Local music, art therapy, cinema	Trivial Thursdays	April 7, 2022	10am	2 hrs.	Max Morris, of the Kentucky Theatre; Anessa Arehart discusses her new book Everyday Magic; Matt Gibson and Jonathan Hampton, from Lexington's "positive drone" collective Everyone Lives Everyone Wins
Purchase of new land at UK for Cancer Research Center	Campus Voices	April 13, 2022	4pm	2 hrs	Host Samantha Valentino sits down with UK Spokesperson, Jay Blanton, to discuss what the new outpatient center looks like for UK and how the new property affects residents
Voter awareness, Local music, LGBTQ culture, oral history, archival folk music	Trivial Thursdays	April 14, 2022	10am	2 hrs.	Liza Holland, Chair of Candidate forums and Sharon Stewart, Chair of our Vote411.org voter guide, both on behalf of the Lexington League of Women Voters; WRFL founding member Kakie Urch interviews UK Nunn Center for Oral History Director Douglas Boyd and Cafe LMNOP Oral History project director Mick Jeffries; and UK John Jacob Niles Center Director Revell Carr.
Benefits and pitfalls to fast fashion	Campus Voices	April 20, 2022	4pm	2 hrs	Host Samantha Valentino sits down with Fashion Crew president Brandy Jackson to discuss the pros and cons of fast fashion today.

Voter awareness, Local music	Trivial Thursdays	April 21, 2022	10am	2 hrs.	County Clerk Don Blevins along with Jennifer Jackson of the Lexington League of Women Voters; Seth Murphy of the Tahlound Music Festival; Otto & Christin Helmuth about 4th Friday benefit, in support of local musician Robby Cosenza.
The shortage of blood donations	Campus Voices	April 27, 2022	4pm	2 hrs	Host Samantha Valentino sits down director of media and branding at the Kentucky Blood Center, Eric Lindsay and another representative from the Kentucky Blood Center with to discuss the shortage of blood donations since the beginning of the pandemic.
KY literature, local music, local theatre	Trivial Thursdays	April 28, 2022	10am	2 hrs.	Award-winning author N.V. Haskell; Bluegrass Community & Technical College's Tim X. Davis and Nick Jackson to discuss "Much Ado About Nothing" theatre production; music with Nicholas Teale
Voter awareness, local music, poetry	Trivial Thursdays	May 5, 2022	10am	2 hrs.	Jennifer Jackson of the Lexington League of Women Voters; Teen Howl founder Elizabeth Beck and Hunter Nelson; and music with Kevin Murphy
Local activism	Queer & Cultured	June 24, 2022	12am	2 hrs	Conversation about activism with guest Olivia Meikle