

WRFL 88.1 FM
2022 - Fourth Quarter (October - December)

Description of issue	Program	Date	Time	Length	Program Description
Voting, people voting on campus.	Campus Voices	10/05/2022	4-4:30 pm	30 mins	Alex Hamilton and Kakie Urch put together a program to inform listeners how to get registered to vote, importance of voting. Information about Amendment 2. Actualities from people on campus, guest Micheal Adams, Gillian.
The History and Accomplishments of Women's Athletics at the University of Kentucky since the Installment of Title IX.	Campus Voices	10/12/2022	5:30-6 pm	30 mins	Students Sophie Davis and Nyah Leveretter (both female athletes for UKY) report on the accomplishments of the women's accomplishments at the university. Alex Hamilton is the host, and guests Letitia Hollingsworth-Gray and Sandy Bell are on the program to provide their insight. Letitia Hollingsworth-Gray is Aquatics Director at the University of Kentucky, Member of first ever swim team, Sandy Bell is Title Executive Associate AD at the University of Kentucky.
Culture, rhetoric, public health, local music	Trivial Thursdays	10/13/2022	10 am	2 hrs.	UK professor of Writing, Rhetoric and Digital Studies Tom Marksbury; Lexington Fayette County Health Dept's Christina King; Live Green Lex and LFUCG arborist Heather Wilson; and musician Mason Colby

Deep Fakes	Campus Voices	10/19/2022	5:30-6 pm	30 mins	DJ Ashley, student at UKY reports on deep fakes, what they are and the effects they have on modern tech and the misuse of it as well(what does this mean for the people who have deep fakes used against them?). Host of the show is Alex Hamilton, guests are Professor David Stephenson and Micheal Murray. Stephenson is a Freelance Photojournalist and Professor at the University of Kentucky. Murray is a writer of Law books (has 27 books published, along with a long list of law accomplishments).
Literacy, charity, local music, election awareness, halloween	Trivial Thursdays	10/20/2022	10 am	2 hrs.	International Book Project's Lisa Fryman; Lexington Philharmonic's Alex Chadwell; musicians Josh Wright and Kim Conlee of Bear Medicine; CivicLex's Megan Gulla and Liza Holland LWV Chair of Candidate Forums; and Lexington's Halloween Parade & Festival showrunners and creators Teresa Tomb and Mel Smyth of Mecca Live Studio!
Parking on Campus	Campus Voices	10/26/2022	5:30-6 pm	30 mins	Samantha Money, student at UKY reports on the parking situation in Lexington, mainly on campus and issues surrounding this. Host was Alex Hamilton, with guests Laney Harris, Gianna Gallo, and Rylee Jones who are all freshmen at

					UKY. This special also had Sandra Broadwill, Alternative Transportation Manager as a guest.
Literacy, teen themes, election awareness, indigenous culture	Trivial Thursdays	10/27/2022	10 am	2 hrs.	Teen Howl 2.0, a teen poetry slam with Hunter and Jessica; election awareness with Jen Jackson of the League of Women Voters; The Living Arts & Science Center's La Dia de los Muertos; and singer-songwriter Vanessa Davis
Voting	Campus Voices	11/02/2022	5:30-6 pm	30 mins	Alex Hamilton informs viewers again how to get registered, and the importance of voting. Guest speaker Megan Gulla of Civic Lex, a nonprofit civic information and engagement group that operates LexVote, is included to provide additional information on voting in Lexington and Kentucky.
Exercise, community, election awareness, food justice	Trivial Thursdays	11/3/2022	10 am	2 hrs.	Angela Poe, 2022 Lexington Glow Ride; Jen Jackson of the League of Women Voters and Brittany Strube, Chair of the Lex League's Reproductive Rights Committee; and Garden/Slow Food/Cultural/Global activist Jim Embry
Racial Accountability (double)	Campus Voices	11/09/2022	4-4:30 pm	30 mins	Kati Hall reports on the march/protest that happened after UKY student Sophia Rosing attacked and threw racial slurs at UKY student Kyla Spring. Host was Kati, guest speaker was Assistant Dean of Student Affairs, Hannah Simms.

Racial Accountability (double)	Campus Voices	11/09/2022	5:30-6 pm	30 mins	Kennedy Whitby reports on the march/protest that happened after UKY student Sophia Rosing attacked and threw racial slurs at UKY student Kyla Spring. Alex Hamilton hosted and guests featured were, Jon Latimer, a UKY student, BSU Secretary Jazmine Rose, and UKY Alumni Savon Gray.
Literature, parks, thanksgiving, art, music, holidays	Trivial Thursdays	11/10/2022	10 am	2 hrs.	Author Doris Settles; Jenny Sanchez, Superintendent of Natural Areas for Lexington-Fayette Urban County Government Parks; Teresa Tomb, 1001 Nights Presents: "For The Love of Women."; Artist/musician Dave Farris and UK Singletary Center Director Matt Gibson joins!
Tailgating	Campus Voices	11/16/2022	5:30-6 pm	30 mins	Student at UKY reports on tailgating at home games. Alex Hamilton is host and speaks with UK Police guest.

Social justice, public health, cook	Trivial Thursdays	11/17/2022	10 am	2 hrs.	Milton Meza and Miriam Cabrera of the Kentucky Migrant Education Program; Christina King of the Lexington Fayette County Health Dept.; cookbook author Ondine Quinn
Social justice, public health, cook	Trivial Thursdays	11/17/2022	10 am	2 hrs.	Milton Meza and Miriam Cabrera of the Kentucky Migrant Education Program; Christina King of the Lexington Fayette County Health Dept.; cookbook author Ondine Quinn
Racial Accountability Rerun	Campus Voices	11/23/2022	5:30-6 pm	30 mins	An email update from UKY President, Eli Capilouto, informed the campus of what is going to happen for inclusion and diversity on campus after the assault on Nov. 6th. 2022. What the email stated was shared over the air, along with a rerun of Kennedy Whitby's special from the Nov. 9th 2022 episode of Campus Voices.
Social justice, youth crisis, thanksgiving	Trivial Thursdays	11/24/2022	10 am	2 hrs.	Guest host Emily Wilhoit and Chris Primeaux of Arbor Youth Services.
Red River Gorge Development	Campus Voices	11/30/2022	5:30-6 pm	30 mins	Clay Conner, UKY student reports on the developments going into the Red River Gorge, plans, what will this affect? Alex Hamilton hosts this program,

					guests are Jonathan Hicks, owner of Red River Gorge Cabin Company, Board member of RRGU and Nancy Hamaan, owner of SCENIC Cabin Rentals.
Social justice, homelessness, regional cuisine, art, music	Trivial Thursdays	12/1/2022	10 am	2 hrs.	CASA of Lexington Director Melynda Jamison and Community Outreach Coordinator Ben Kleppinger; James Beard award-winning Chef Vishwesh Bhatt, Kentucky's celebrated, award winning Chef Ouita Michel, and Chef Sam Fore, of Tuk Tuk Sri Lankan Bites and Milk Street radio; and LA-based Kentuckian artist/musician Sammy Beam.
Amendment 2 after effect	Campus Voices	12/7/2022	5:30-6p	30 mins	Kati Hall reports on the after effects of the vote of no on amendment 2. The importance of protecting a woman's access to healthcare. Alex Hamilton hosts the segment, guest speakers are Hallie Rice, who is the UKY Young Dems President and Ellie Browning, Who is the UKY Young Dems Chief of Staff.
Education, literacy, social services, music, environment	Trivial Thursdays	12/8/2022	10 am	2 hrs.	Anne Donworth, of Lexington Public Library; Steve Ricketts of the Kentucky Solar Energy Society; and Eli Uttal-

					Verof of the ORIGINS Jazz Series.
Literature, design, film, holidays, music	Trivial Thursdays	12/15/2022	10 am	2 hrs.	Author Amelia Zachry; author/designer Renmeleon; Max Morris, of the Kentucky Theatre; and singer/songwriter Vanessa Davis