Issue Addressed – View Points		Segment 1: Citizen Scientists: What everyone can do to help create a better world Synopsis: When we think of scientists, most of us think of college graduates working in laboratories on very important projects for the government or large corporations. Not many of us think of the retired bricklayer next door who likes to garden, or the 10-year-old girl who is fascinated by birds. We talk to two “citizen scientist” advocates about the importance of having average citizens be the eyes and ears of large research projects, and how anyone can find a science project they can help advance in the world. Host: Gary Price. Guests: Mary Ellen Hannibal, author of the book, Citizen Scientist: Searching for heroes and hope in age of extinction. Links for more info: www.maryellenhannibal.com www.christmasbirdcount.org Compliance Issues Covered: nature, science, technology, public service Segment 2: Helping Animals Weather Natural Disasters Synopsis: Natural disasters such as floods, wildfires and tornados can devastate a community, cause widespread health concerns and push families out of their homes. We’re all concerned that the humans caught in these circumstances are taken care, but what about the pets that live in the area? How can we help them survive and stay with their human caretakers? We talk to a Human Society spokesperson who has seen his share of disasters about keeping your pets safe and secure during a catastrophe. Host: Marty Peterson: Guest: Jeff Dorson, Executive Director of Humane Society of Louisiana Links for more info: www.humanela.org 1-888-6-HUMANE Compliance Issues Covered: natural disasters, animal welfare, public safety, community activism

Issue Addressed – View Points		Segment 1: Remembering the Activism of Tom Hayden Synopsis: In 2004, we spoke with activist and former California legislator Tom Hayden who passed away last month. The topics were gangs and violence, how and why young men and women join gangs and how we can stem the violence of these groups and help the young people who belong to them to live better, safer and more productive lives. In these days of continued strife on urban streets, we can still benefit from his hopeful – yet controversial – ideas on the topic. Host: Gary Price. Guests: The late Tom Hayden, former member of The Chicago Seven and California State Senator of 18 years, is the author of the book, Street Wars: Gangs and the future of violence. Links for more info: www.tomhayden.com Compliance Issues Covered: African American issues, minorities, violence, law enforcement, poverty, labor Segment 2: Brain Briefs: How our minds perceive the world Synopsis: Does working crossword puzzles, Sudoku, and playing other games help prevent Alzheimer's and dementia? Why does time seem to crawl when we're young and speed up as we age? Does multitasking really help us get more done? We talk to a psychologist and author about these popular ideas and get the real story about how our minds can sometimes trick us into thinking things that really aren't true. Host: Marty Peterson. Guests: Bob Duke, professor at the University of Texas-Austin and an expert on music and human learning. He and his co-author, Art Markman, are also the co-hosts of the popular podcast "Two Guys on Your Head." Their book is titled Brain Briefs: Answers to the most (and least) pressing questions about your mind. Links for more info: twoguysonyourhead.org www.kut.orgwww.kut.org Compliance Issues Covered: popular culture, mental health, aging, work

We're joined by two experts who both agree that closing the wage gap should be a top priority in this country, but who have very different takes on how that can be achieved. We talk governmental regulations, tax codes, charity, and much more in regards to bringing the haves and the have-nots together. Our experts say doing so may just bring a very divided country together before the wedge between the two groups changes America into a very different, and likely very worse-off, place for our children to inherit. Host: Gary Price. Guests: Chuck Collins, website editor for The Institute for Policy Studies and author of the book, Born on Third Base. Kyle Hauptman, executive director of the Main Street Growth Project Links for more info: http://www.ips-dc.org www.chelseagreen.com Compliancy Issues Covered: US Government, Economics, Politics, Business and Industry Segment 2: Henry Clay: The great American statesman you should know about Synopsis: Most of us have heard the name of Henry Clay, but he's not one of the people we usually remember the way we do George Washington or Thomas Jefferson. Our guest says that Clay was just as important to our nation as the founding fathers, and he discusses the great contributions this Speaker of the House made to keep our country together, fight for justice, and create the foundations of our extensive modern U. S. transportation system. Host: Marty Peterson. Guests: Harlow Giles Unger, author of Henry Clay: America's Greatest Statesman and contributor to the Huffington Post Links for more info: http://www.huffingtonpost.com Compliancy Issues Covered: Government, Transportation, War, Law, Slavery, History

Issue Addressed – View Points		Segment 1: Christmas at the Battle of the Bulge Synopsis: This year, many families will spend the holidays with family members away, in combat in Iraq and Afghanistan. It's tough being on the battlefield at any time of year, but during Christmas it's especially hard. We talk to a historian and author about one Christmas, in 1944, when American soldiers spent a freezing holiday in the Ardennes forest, fighting for their lives against Hitler's army during the Battle of the Bulge; and how a general's prayers could have been the key to turning the tide in the Allies' favor. Host: Gary Price. Guests: Stanley Weintraub, Evan Pugh Professor Emeritus of Arts & Humanities, Penn State University, and author of "11 Days in December: Christmas at the Bulge, 1944." Links for more info: http://www.simonschuster.com/authors/St Stanley Weintraub Compliance Issues Covered: Military, War, Religion, History Segment 2: Using The Voices in Your Head Synopsis: Hearing voices in your head comes with an unfortunate stereotype that you must be mentally ill. However, experts tell us the "voices in your head" can be used to talk to, and about, yourself in a healthy, productive way. In fact, most people hear voices in their head and already use inner speech on a daily basis. Host: Marty Peterson. Guest: Dr. Charles Fernyhough Links for more info: http://www.charlesfernough.com Compliance Issues Covered: Psychology, Mental health, Self-help, Science
