

ROME RADIO PARTNERS, LLC
QUARTERLY ISSUES: 3rd Qtr 2022
WRGA-AM 1470, W254CF 98.7

Weekend Spotlight is a locally produced program that airs Sunday, 6:00am-6:30am

Issues	Date	Description
Racial issues	7/3/2022	Author William B. Allen talked about issues of concern in Black America
Fire Safety, Education, Agro	7/10/2022	Shasta Farrer of Rome Fire talked about family safety in large gatherings. John Bailey of the Rome News Tribune discusses the issues of the current school system shortage of teachers for the upcoming year. County Extension Agent Keith Mickler talks about dealing with the extreme hot temperatures and the effects on gardens and lawns
Health, Law enforcement, Armed services	7/17/2022	Patrick Milligan talks about being a Warrant Officer in the US Army. Robert Headrick of the Highway Safety talked about Operation Southern Slowdown in Georgia and safe driving. Blood Assurances Brian McDaniel tells about the severe blood shortage in NW Georgia.
Education, Recreation, Public Health	7/24/2022	Nicola Sareze talks about the need for substitute teachers in Georgia. Kristie Kent of the City of Rome talks about the new branding of local urban trails. Dr. Gary Voccio of the DPH, talks about the new B5 variant of Covid.
Health, Non-profit	7/31/2022	Renee Blackburn with the Free Clinic of Rome speaks about the Tomato Supper. Captain Blevins gives an update on new program the Salvation Army is offering.
Business	8/7/2022	Robbie South of How Money works talks about the need for better financial education resources.
Elections, Arts	8/14/2022	Pete McDonald of the Board of Elections gives an update on new voting areas and important dates voters need to know. Indra Thomas talks about her upcoming concert and how she went from small town local girl to an international singing diva.
Seniors, Youth	8/21/2022	Bill Sweeney of AARP speaks about the effect of the Inflation Reduction Act for Seniors. Matt Hart talks about modern day Scouting.
Safety, Politics	8/28/2022	Dr. Dan McMillins talks about the need of campaign finance reform and why the lack of it is harming our elections. Pam Fisher of the Gov. Highway Safety Board discussed cannabis driving as the new highway killer.
Non-profit, Arts, politics	9/4/2022	Cheryl Jenkins speaks about the One Table event sponsored by One Community United. Mandy Maloney of Rome Little Theatre talks about the upcoming fall shows. Reps from League of Women Voters talks about the upcoming election and what voters need to know this year.
Public Health, Law enforcement,	9/11/2022	David Crowder shares updates on the clean up that is underway to help the Summerville floods over Labor Day weekend. Georgia AG Chris Carr speaks about the new Gang Law Enforcement State Task Force.
Education,	9/18/2022	Baseball great, Darryl Strawberry, talks with me and Dr. Don Dowless of Shorter University about his appearance in December at the school and about his life changing event.
Personal Growth, Recreation, Seniors	9/25/2022	Jeff Cornwell talks about the benefits of Toastmasters. Kristi Kent of the City of Rome talks about new Rec App. Ari Parker tells seniors how to avoid costly Medicare pitfalls.