48 HOURS

07/07/18

48 HOURS: “Red Notice For Murder” - a report on the international search conducted by Nadia Ford and private detective Herman Weisberg for Viktoria Nasyrova, a Russian woman suspected of the 2014 murder of Ford’s mother, Alla Aleksenko, in her Russian hometown and of stealing her money and other valuables. Nasyrova was believed to be the last person to see her alive. When Aleksenko vanished, Ford went to Russia where she spent several months unraveling the mystery of what happened to her mother. Her investigation led to the discovery of a traffic cam video of Nasyrova driving with Aleksenko’s body in the front seat of the rental car. Nasyrova fled the country when she found herself with a Red Notice on Interpol’s list of most wanted fugitives. Later, to Ford’s disbelief, she discovered Nasyrova was living in Brooklyn, NY, just blocks away from her own home. After the NYPD could not locate her, Ford enlisted former police officer and private detective Herman Weisberg to continue the search. He hit paydirt - discovering Nasyrova was continuing her life of crime with several other victims, from a man who met her on a dating site, to a woman with similar looks who believes she was out to kill her and steal her identity. He closely examined her online life and was able to track the alleged killer down. Police arrested her. She remains in custody. Original on-screen text graphic: Viktoria Nasyrova has been in jail for 7 months. She will stand trial in New York for her alleged crimes. Russia will then formally request Viktoria Nasyrova be sent back to stand trial for the murder of Nadia’s mother. On-screen text graphic for the 07/07/18 rebroadcast: Viktoria Nasyrova has been in jail since March 2017. Nasyrova will stand trial in New York for her alleged crimes. Russia will then formally request Nasyrova be sent back to stand trial for the murder of Nadia’s mother. 07/14/18

48 HOURS: “The Widow on Solway Road” – an investigation into the murder case against Raynella Leath for the death of her second husband, David Leath, who was found shot dead in his marital bed, the trial, and the mysterious death of the widow’s first husband, Ed Dossett, originally classified as an agricultural accident. Raynella and Ed Dossett were a power couple in Knoxville, Tennessee, where Dossett was the Knox County District Attorney General. Tragedy befell them, when Ed was diagnosed with terminal cancer; he then died in a freak accident on the family farm. Six months later, Raynella married David Leath, the local barber. After Leath’s death, the wheels of justice moved slowly, and Leath’s daughter, Cindy Wilkerson, filed a civil suit against Raynella. Prosecutors took notice and interest was revived in Dossett’s death. One theory was that Dossett’s unusual death was more about insurance money than cancer. His medical records were reviewed and the cause of death was ruled to be a morphine overdose. In 2009, Raynella went on trial for David Leath’s death but the jury deadlocked. In the second trial, she was convicted of first degree murder and sentenced to life in prison. After six years, the conviction was tossed out, because the judge was revealed to have been impaired by drug addiction. In 2017, fourteen years after Leath’s death, a third trial begins, but before the jury has a chance to deliberate, Judge Paul Summers (soon to be retiring), grants an acquittal (not guilty), dismissing the case; saying that prosecution had not met its case. Under Tennessee law, there is no appeal. Prosecutors are stunned. Jurors believe that, had they deliberated, they would have convicted her. Information also came to light about her trying to murder another man, Steve Walker, who had found out that his wife had given birth to Ed Dossett’s biological child. Raynella Leath is a free woman. On-screen text graphic for the original broadcast and the 07/14/18 rebroadcast: Prosecutors intend to file a petition to exhume the body of Raynella’s first husband, Ed Dossett, to gather more evidence. They will decide whether to review charges against her for his death. Raynella has moved back to the farm outside Knoxville on Solway Road. Interviewed: Diane Fanning (author); Cindy Wilderson (Leath’s daughter); Beth Roberts (Leath’s cousin); Steve Crump (prosecutor); Rebecca LeGrand and Josh Hedrick (defense attorneys); Dr. Greg Davis (Kentucky state medical examiner/defense consulting doctor); Steve Walker (intended victim); Paul Summers (trial judge, now retired); Michael Persicano, Jesse Caps, William McMichael (jurors) (C: Erin Moriarty – P: Josh Gaynor, Lisa Freed) (OAD: 09/30/17)

07/21/18 48 HOURS: “Moment of Truth” – an investigation into the death of Patrick Gilhuley, a retired NYPD officer and former bodyguard to stars Angelina Jolie and Brad Pitt. Gilhuley died at the Mount Olive, NJ home of his on-again, off-again girlfriend, schoolteacher Virginia Vertetis. On the night of March 3, 2014, Gilhuley placed a series of frantic calls to his daughter; she heard shots, and within minutes of those calls, he was dead. When police arrived, Vertetis at first lied about an intruder, then said she shot Gilhuley in self-defense. What got Gilhuley and Vertetis to this point is at the center of this complicated case. She claimed he was going to kill her and she shot him in self-defense, but lied about an intruder in the house to police. The prosecution maintains Gilhuley was murdered because her life was falling apart and he was leaving her for another woman. A broken storm door takes center stage during the trial – she claimed the glass broke as Gilhuley slammed it shut. Forensic tests disprove this – bullets from the gun shattered the glass. One of his daughters testified that the murder weapon was Gilhuley’s police revolver that was last seen at his house in Staten Island. The prosecution believes Vertetis stole the gun from the house. Vertetis takes the stand to tell her side of the story. After seven hours of deliberation the verdict is guilty of first degree murder. On-screen text graphic for the original broadcast and the 07/21/18 rebroadcast: Virginia’s daughter and son did not attend the trial or sentencing. Her mother says Virginia did not want them to see her that way. Interviewed: Ed Bilinkas and Sara McArdle (defense attorneys); Jim Faulkner (third husband); Matt Troiano (prosecutor); Jim Molinaro (forensics expert); Jennifer Gilhuley (daughter); Patti Meudt, John Hoover, Gina Samara (jurors). 07/28/18 48 HOURS: “Death and the Dentist” (9:00 – 10:00p) – an updated rebroadcast of “Death and the Dentist” (OAD: 09/17/16), which includes an exclusive interview with Kingston, New York dentist Gilberto Nunez, who faces second-degree murder charges for the death of his lover’s husband, Thomas Kolman, the case against him, and the secrets exposed during the homicide investigation. In 2011, Thomas Kolman was found dead by his wife, Linda, in his car outside of a gym he frequented. At first, no foul play was suspected; Kolman suffered from sleep apnea and was slightly obese. However, the medical examiner found an unusual drug in Tom’s system -- midazolam -- a sedative sometimes used by those in the dental profession, and the death was ruled a homicide. Further investigation revealed that his best friend, Dr. Gilberto Nunez, was having an affair with his wife, Linda Kolman. Nunez told police Kolman knew about it and was fine with it. There were hundreds of text messages between all the parties, including some where Nunez impersonated other people. Even the name of the CIA was dragged into the case through a fake ID. It took four years for prosecutors to charge Nunez with second-degree murder and forgery. Nunez hired two top New York City defense attorneys who presented a very different scenario, saying Tom Kolman died of natural causes, insisting this was a murder case without a murder. The verdict: Nunez was acquitted of the murder charges and found guilty on the forgery charges. The Kolman family was unhappy with the verdict. Some former jurors were interviewed and were adamant that there were too many unanswered questions to prove the murder charges. Update for the 04/08/17 rebroadcast: In 2017, Nunez was sentenced for the forgery, insurance fraud and perjury convictions. He will spend the next two to seven years in prison. The Kolman family finds some comfort in knowing that he is behind bars. Original on-screen text graphic: Gilberto Nunez is expected to be sentenced on his forgery related charges later this year. On-screen text graphic for the 04/08/17 rebroadcast: As part of Gilberto Nunez’s sentence, he was ordered to have no communication with Linda Kolman. A New York State review board is deciding if Nunez’s dental license will be revoked. On-screen text graphic for the 07/28/18 rebroadcast: As part of Gilberto Nunez’s sentence, he was ordered to have no communication with Linda Kolman. In May 2018, Gilberto Nunez was granted parole. His earliest release date is September 10, 2018. The New York State review board revoked Nunez’s license to practice dentistry. Interviewed: Gilberto Nunez; Detectives Michael Thomas and Brian Reavy; Lieutenant Kyie Berardi; Michele Kolman-Weber (former wife); Jillian Kolman (daughter); Marie Kolman and Tom Kolman, Senior (parents); Mary Ellen McManus (dental hygienist); Murray Weiss (criminal justice editor DNAinfo/48 HOURS consultant); Grant Fredricks (forensic video expert); Yameil Nunez (Gilberto Nunez’ new wife); Gerald Shargel and Evan Lipton (criminal defense attorneys); Frances Kwak and Michael Dougherty (jurors). 48 HOURS (continued)

07/28/18      48 HOURS: "Murder In Pinyon Pines" (10:00 - 11:00p) – an updated rebroadcast on the investigation into the triple murders and the long quest for justice for Vicki Friedli, her boyfriend Jon Hayward, and Vicki's daughter Becky Friedli. In 2006, in Pinyon Pines, California, Friedli and her boyfriend were shot dead and their house set on fire. Outside the home, investigators found the charred remains of Becky Friedli, in a wheelbarrow. She was burned so badly, they could not determine how she died. Retired policeman Ron Friedli, Vicki's ex-husband and Becky's father, had a theory about what happened: Becky was deathly afraid of fire and he suspected she knew her killer. Police searched for clues but the case went cold. Years later, Luis Bolanos, a private investigator and a former colleague of Ron's, asked if he could get involved; he said he could get the case back in the news. He did just that. Seven years after the murders, police arrested Becky's ex-boyfriend Robert Pape and his best friend Christian Smith and charged them with murder. Their families say they are innocent. But an unexpected courtroom twist turned the case upside down. The District Attorney said there was an "issue" in the grand jury proceedings against Pape, and dropped the charges against them both. However, it may not be completely over; the investigation continues. Original on-screen text graphic: A new DA was sworn in last week. He says he will review the case "with an open mind". Christian Smith has been honorably discharged from the Army. On-screen text graphic for the 08/01/15 rebroadcast: A new DA was sworn in in January. He said he will review the case "with an open mind." Christin Smith has been honorably discharged from the Army. Epilogue for the 07/28/18 updated rebroadcast: In June 2016, stating new evidence, the police re-arrested Robert Pape and Christian Smith. In January 2018, they said they had a fingerprint match. In April 2018, almost twelve years after the murders, the trial began. After one month of testimony and ten days of deliberation, the jury reached a verdict: Robert Pape and Christian Smith were found guilty of the first-degree murders of Vicki Friedli and John Hayward. Pape was also found guilty of the second degree murder of Becky Friedli. On-screen text graphic for the 07/28/18 updated rebroadcast: Robert Pape, 30, and Christian Smith, 29, face life without parole. Their sentencing is next month. Robert and Sara Pape were divorced at the end of 2015. Interviewed: Tanya Friedli, Drew Friedli, Ron Friedli (Becky's sisters and father); Katie Hayward (Hayward's daughter); Daniela Zermeno (Becky's cousin); Luis Bolanos (private investigator); Kathleen Pape and Christy Pape (mother and sister of Robert Pape); John Conrad Smith (Smith's father); Brandon Kugler-Harrison (friend of Pape and Smith); Richard Blumenfeld (Pape attorney); Eduardo Roy (attorney for Becky's friend Javier Garcia Junior) (Correspondent: Troy Roberts; Correspondents for the 07/28/18 updated rebroadcast: Troy Roberts, Maureen Maher (Introduction & Epilogue) – Producers: Lourdes Aguiar, Peter Shaw) (OAD: 01/17/15; 1st Rebroadcast: 08/01/15)

07/01/18

“Reclaiming History: A Movement for Equality” - an interfaith special that looks at the role of faith in the lives of African-American women and the way it invigorates the fight for justice in black communities. African-American women are among the most deeply religious groups in America and it has been said that the black church is an institution of women. They lead Sunday school, sing in the church choir and run the local soup kitchen. This special focuses on how faith and spirituality sustain African-American women, as they confront systemic racism, sexism and oppression through the ballot box. Among those featured are: (1) Rev. Dr. Yolanda Pierce, dean of Howard University School of Divinity and professor of African-American religion and literature, discusses how faith has played a role in black women’s lives since the days of slavery and why it is an important part of who they are today. (2) Rev. Traci Blackmon, executive minister of justice and local church ministries for the United Church of Christ (UCC) and senior pastor of Christ The King United Church of Christ in Florissant, MO. She shares her experiences as a national faith leader and as one of the local pastors who provided pastoral care in the wake of the death of Michael Brown in Ferguson, MO in 2014. (3) Tammy Fournier Alsaada is a community organizer and co-founder of the “People’s Justice Project”, a faith-based, grassroots community outreach organization, in Columbus, Ohio. It is spearheading a voter registration effort leading up to the 2018 midterm elections. Through political advocacy, the group wants to bring an end to excessive police violence and curb the disproportionate number of people of color who are incarcerated. Fournier Alsaada discusses the group’s efforts and their work to educate minority populations about their rights as citizens. (Narrator: Rolland Smith. Producer & Writer: Elizabeth Kineke. Associate Producer: Jennie Kamin. Director & Senior Executive Producer: John P. Blessington. Produced in consultation with Interfaith organizations, clergy, and Catholic, Protestant, Jewish, Islamic, and Sikh scholars.)

48 HOURS

08/04/18

48 HOURS: “The Evidence Room” (9:00-11:00p) – An exploration of the sometimes emotional and occasionally frustrating preparations that go on behind closed doors before a jury ever walks into a courtroom as detailed in two cases prepared by The Evidence Room, a company run by CBS News Consultant Scott Roder. The Evidence Room prepares visual representations, made by cutting-edge forensic animators for either the defense or the prosecution and they may play a significant part in the trial or they may not, depending on the legal strategies the teams choose to take. As detailed in two cases, Roder and his team prepare analysis as detailed: 1) the murder cases against Colleen McKernan, charged with shooting her husband, Robert McKernan ten times on New Year’s Eve in 2014. Her attorneys claimed it was self-defense and hired Roder to create visual representations of her story. The Evidence Room staff re-created the crime scene to prove the defense theory. As the case went to trial and testimony progressed, the prosecution had the re-creation excluded from the trial. The defense focused on battered woman syndrome and Colleen took the stand to testify. The verdict: a mistrial. At the second trial, with a new defense team, Roder presented some of the animation to the jury, but the result was the same – a mistrial. On March 17, 2017, a resolution was reached in the case: in a plea offer, McKernan pleaded guilty to one count of voluntary manslaughter. 2) in a civil suit, The Cochran Firm client Emmanuel Bracy was left partially incapacitated and in a wheelchair, after being shot by Los Angeles Police detectives. Bracy was the suspect in a string of robberies and police used Vehicle Containment Technology to capture him. Three of the four detectives claimed he had a gun, and a shootout resulted. Bracy was severely injured. Bracy pled guilty to the crime, but that did not stop him from seeking justice. After the shootout, Bracy and the car suffered heavy damage, but there was no gun in plain sight, although one was found wrapped in a cloth, hidden inside an air conditioning vent in the dashboard. The Evidence Room was hired to prove that the gun that was found was not used by Bracy. They re-created the entire scene with cars, guns and ammunition. In the end, after all the time and effort, the jury never saw the presentation. The state’s forensic expert was not able to testify, and Roder, as a rebuttal expert on the case was not able to either. After nine days of testimony, the jury returned a judgement in favor of the LAPD. On-screen text graphic: Colleen McKernan is currently serving her sentence at the Ohio Reformatory for Women. She could be released as early as September 2020, by a judge’s decision based on her behavior in prison. Interviewed. 48 HOURS (continued)

08/11/18      48 HOURS: “Death on Valentine’s Day” – a retitled and updated rebroadcast of “What Did the Children See?” (OAD: 02/20/16), focusing on Curtis Lovelace, a former Quincy, Illinois prosecutor on trial for the second time, for the February 14, 2006 murder of his wife, Corey Lovelace. The main question in this case is the cause of Cory Lovelace’s death -- alcohol abuse or murder. Lovelace was an All-American high school athlete who went on to become a prosecutor who seemed to have everything including a successful career and a loving family. On Valentine’s Day 2006, Lovelace returned home after dropping his children off at school to find his wife dead. After an investigation, the cause of death was never determined and the case was closed. Eight years later, in 2014, a Quincy detective reopened the case. This investigation determined the cause of death as suffocation. Lovelace was arrested and charged with murder. The case hinged on two things – science and the testimony of the Lovelace children. The first trial resulted in a hung jury and a mistrial was declared. Lovelace has remarried twice since he wife’s death. At the time of the second trial, the family was and still is deeply divided: daughter Lyndsey Lovelace has not spoken to her family since Lovelace’s arrest and is moving on with her life. His first ex-wife Erika Gomez was a witness at the second trial. Following the second trial, more than ten years after his wife’s death, Curtis Lovelace walked out a free man after being found not guilty. Original on-screen text graphic: Lovelace’s new trial date is scheduled for May 31st. Curtis Lovelace’s bail was set at five million dollars. He remains in jail. On-screen text graphic for the 03/18/17 Rebroadcast: Christine Lovelace adopted Curtis’ three sons. Lyndsay was already 18 years old. Christine and Curtis are undecided if they will return to live in Quincy. On-screen text graphic for 08/11/18 Rebroadcast: Christine Lovelace adopted Curtis’ three sons. Lyndsay was already eighteen years old. Christine Lovelace filed a federal civil rights lawsuit against Quincy police and Adams County officials. He claims he was denied due process and constitutional rights and was the subject of malicious prosecution. 48 HOURS (continued)

- 08/18/18      48 HOURS: "Death on the Hudson" (9:00 – 10:00p) – a revised and updated rebroadcast on the case against Angelika Graswald, who has been charged with killing her fiancé Vincent Viafore, during a kayaking trip on the Hudson River in April 2015. New information and evidence may prove there was no murder. Ten days after Viafore's death, Graswald was questioned by police for approximately 11 hours, then arrested for murder in the second degree. Investigators maintain Graswald killed Viafore for financial gain after their relationship soured. Her defense team argues his death was a boating accident. The case is examined through interviews with legal experts, friends of the couple and an examination of key evidence in the case. 07/29/17 Epilogue: After years of proclaiming her innocence, Graswald pleaded guilty to criminally negligent homicide. The Orange County District Attorney explained the decision to downgrade the charges, saying it would be difficult to prove intent, even though she did admit to pulling the plug from the kayak. Pulling the plug would only cause death when combined with a number of other factors. This plea spares her a possible twenty-five years to life prison term; with time served, she could be on parole by the end of the year. Epilogue for the 08/18/18 revised and updated rebroadcast: On December 21, 2017, Angelika Graswald was released on parole. She had served less than 32 months behind bars. Her future is uncertain; when her parole is completed, she could be deported back to Latvia. Original On-screen text graphic: Angelika has been in jail for more than four months. Her trial is expected in Spring 2016. Angelika's family says they are giving their life savings to help pay for her defense. On-screen text graphic for the 07/29/17 updated rebroadcast: Angelika Graswald is scheduled to be sentenced November 1, 2017. On-screen text graphic for the 08/18/18 revised and updated rebroadcast: Despite her conviction, Angelika Graswald had not forfeited her right to claim to Vincent Viafore's life insurance. His policies reportedly totaled around five hundred thousand dollars. But earlier this week, Graswald and the Viafore's family agreed to a confidential settlement over the life insurance proceeds. Interviewed: Amanda Hoysradt (Viafore's former roommate); Sheri Parte (friend of Graswald's); Monte Nesheiwat (Sheri Parte's boyfriend); Michael Colin (Graswald's former boyfriend); Buddy Behney (kayaker); Jeff Schaack (Cornwell Yacht Club Commodore); Michael Archer (defense expert); Jeff Chartier (defense attorney); Richard Portale (lead defense attorney); Jim Tranium (former detective/interrogation expert) (C: Peter Van Sant – P: Patti Aronofsky, Lourdes Aguiar, Elena DiFiore) (OAD: 09/12/15; 1st Rebroadcast: 07/29/17)
- 08/18/18      48 HOURS: "Grapes of Wrath" (10:00 – 11:00p) – a report about the 2015 showdown between two millionaires, Robert Dahl and Emad Tawfilis, whose bitter money dispute over a Napa Valley winery business ended in murder. Entrepreneur Robert Dahl was drawn from Minnesota to the Napa Valley wine scene, while wealthy Silicon Valley businessman Emad Tawfilis wanted to be an investor in the lucrative wine business. Dahl invested in two failed businesses -- the first with Dominic Foppoli; and the second with local business couple Greg and Francine Knittel. Dahl still always had money. Dahl eventually partnered with Emad Tawfilis, which also failed. After hiring a private investigator, Tawfilis filed a lawsuit, hoping to get his money back. Dahl and Tawfilis met at the vineyard where they consulted their attorneys via a conference call. They then decided to talk privately. Something went drastically wrong, resulting in Tawfilis running through the vineyard while being shot at by Dahl. Tawfilis managed to call 911. Police arrived at the scene to find him shot in the head. Dahl tried to escape, but after a chase, committed suicide. They found other articles in his truck that suggested he had other victims in mind. On-screen text graphic: Dahl's wife and kids still live in California wine country. The grapes on the old Dahl vineyard were harvested last fall. The property is for sale. Interviewed: Dominic Foppoli (Napa Valley businessman); Lew Perdue (tech entrepreneur/wine writer); Francine and Greg Knittel (Napa Valley business couple); Myles Davis (electrician who worked for Dahl); Jonathan Kesselman (film director/Tawfilis friend); Steve Burch (winemaker); Dawn King (private investigator); David Wiseblood (Tawfilis' attorney); Jasmin Duel and Kousha Berokim (Dahl's attorneys). 48 HOURS

- 09/01/18 48 HOURS: "Sins of the Father" (9:00 – 10:00p) – a followup to 48 HOURS: "The Last Confession" (OAD: 03/01/14; 1st rebroadcast: 07/26/14; 2nd Updated Rebroadcast: 04/16/16), which was a report on the investigation into the 1960 murder of Irena Garza, in McAllen, Texas, and the efforts that family members and police have taken to bring the suspect, a Roman Catholic priest, to trial for the crime. Nearly 60 years after Irene Garza disappeared after going to confession on Easter weekend, the priest accused of murdering her goes on trial. In 1960, Irene Garza told her family she was going to church for confession but never returned home. Five days later, her body was found in a drainage canal. Police say she was beaten, sexually assaulted and suffocated. The investigation kept leading to Father Feit, who admitted hearing her last confession in the church rectory. Information about another attack, also led to Father Feit. He pled no contest to aggravated assault and was fined, but the Irene Garza case went cold. Rumors swirled that there was a conspiracy between the church and the authorities. Feit was re-assigned. In 2002, the McAllen Police Department asked the Texas Rangers' cold case unit to re-examine the evidence. The investigation took a dramatic turn when a former monk, Dale Tacheny, told police that Feit admitted to killing a young woman while Tacheny was a counselor at a monastery. Despite the new finding, Hidalgo County District Attorney Rene Guerra did not believe the case was strong enough to take to court. In 2016, the new District Attorney said he had new facts and evidence and that a jury would get past the threshold of reasonable doubt in this case. John Feit was arrested, and flown back to Texas to stand trial. In December 2017, at trial, the latest details, including evidence and testimony from witnesses that the prosecution said was evidence of the long-suspected cover-up between authorities and the church lead to a guilty verdict in this case. Original on-screen text graphic: Former DA Rene Guerra says he has no regrets about how he handled the Irene Garza case. He plans to make another run for the DA's office this year. 48 HOURS (continued)

- 09/01/18      48 HOURS PRESENTS: LIVE TO TELL: “The Long Road Home” (10:00 – 11:00p) - a report on the recovery of Sebastien Bellin, an international basketball star-turned tech entrepreneur, who was nearly killed in the March 2015 Brussels airport terror attack. His recovery is detailed over the course of eight months as he recovered from the bomb attack that caused him to lose over fifty-percent of his blood and left him with shattered bones and torn muscles. Following his basketball career, Bellin moved to Battle Creek, Michigan with his family and began a new career as a tech entrepreneur. The job involved regular travel to Brussels, including during the tense time in Europe. On March 22, 2015, he arrived at the Brussels airport to fly home and that day ISIS terrorists set off bombs at the airport and at a nearby train station. Bellin was severely wounded. This report takes a look at what it takes to survive an attack and put a life back together -- including Bellin’s first-person account of the attack, his refusal to let the terrorists win, how his 15 years as a basketball player in Europe prepared him for the moment his life would change forever, his three months in the hospital, the quest to get back home to his family, hours of intense physical therapy and an inspirational return to the basketball court. Original on-screen text graphic: Sebastian is back flying to and from Europe. He even flies into Brussels airport. Sebastian is writing a book about his story of survival. On-screen text graphic for the 09/01/18 rebroadcast: Sebastien Bellin completed a ten-mile race in Antwerp last April. He plans to run a full marathon in Brussels next October. Interviewed: Sebastian Belli, Sara Belli (wife); Cecilia and Vanessa Belli (daughters); Ketevan Kardava (foreign correspondent); Dr. Dimitrios Koulalis (surgeon); Dr. Sean Smith (rehab doctor). - 09/08/18      48 HOURS: “Mystery at Eagle Creek” (9:00 – 10:00p) – a rebroadcast of an updated report on the 2009 death of Rhonda Casto, who went hiking in Oregon’s Columbia River Gorge with her boyfriend, Stephen Nichols, only to never return home, as detailed in 48 Hours: “Trail of Tears” (OAD: 03/05/16). In a new interview, Stephen Nichols, addresses what may or may not have happened that fateful day, giving bizarre answers and elusive clues. Before Casto headed out on her hike, she joked to a friend that Nichols was either - “going to propose or kill me”. Somewhere along the trail, she slipped or fell 150 feet to her death. An autopsy seemed to support Nichols’ version of events, but authorities declined to declare the death an accident, and Nichols was never charged. Investigation revealed several tawdry elements, including insurance policies, a potential love triangle involving Rhonda’s younger sister and theft of Social Security payments by Rhonda’s mother, Julia Simmons. Nichols moved to China, and began a new life with his daughter. In 2014, a secret grand jury heard evidence and indicted Nichols for murder. He was arrested during a trip home and pleaded not guilty. In 2016, while awaiting trial, Nichols pleaded guilty to two counts of sexual abuse of Rhonda’s younger sister, Melanie Casto. In 2017, the prosecution decided to agree to a plea deal of criminally negligent homicide and coercion. Nichols received credit for time served and will remain on parole for three years. He says the reason he took the deal was time was running out for him to regain custody of his daughter. Original on-screen text graphic: About half of Rhonda’s million dollar life insurance policy is being held in a court-controlled account for her daughter. The rest of the money has gone to attorneys’ fees and Julia Simmons. Stephen Nichols still awaits a decision regarding custody of his daughter, now nine years old. On-screen text graphic for the 09/08/18 rebroadcast: Since this broadcast last aired, Stephen Nichols publicly admitted to having sex with Rhonda’s younger sister, Melanie. An Oregon court terminated Nichols’ parental rights. He is appealing that decision. Interviewed: Stephen Nichols, Julia Simmonds (Rhonda’s mother); Mike Arnold (defense attorney); and Jessica Coleburn (friend of Rhonda’s). 48 HOURS (continued)

- 09/08/18      48 HOURS: “Who Killed Fabio?” (10:00 – 11:00p) - a report on the 2017 murder of famed hairstylist and beauty company executive Fabio Sementilli who was found stabbed to death by his pool in Los Angeles, California. At first, police believed he was the victim of the “knock-knock” burglars, a ring targeting Los Angeles celebrities. Sementilli grew up in Canada, and became a superstar in the world of hairdressing. He moved to Los Angeles with his second wife and seemed to live a charmed life. Police investigation revealed that even though the Sementilli house had video surveillance, the DVR was gone. His widow, Monica, was anxious – calling the police every day. Police soon ruled out the burglars – they had never killed anyone before, and an $8000 watch was still on Sementilli’s wrist. DNA from blood left at the scene led to Robert Baker, a man with a colorful past, and a member of Monica Sementilli’s racquetball league. Finally, clues led them to believe that he and Monica were responsible for the murder, motivated by Fabio’s life insurance policy. Monica had been quite unhappy in Los Angeles and wanted to return to her native Canada and had enlisted Robert Baker to help her. Fabio’s sister believes there is more to the story. Both are currently in custody in Los Angeles and will be tried together. There is still one loose end – a third person was involved. Original on-screen text graphic: The knock-knock burglars continue to hit homes in Los Angeles. The trial of Monica Sementilli and Robert Baker is expected to be later this year. On-screen text graphic for the 09/08/18 rebroadcast: The knock-knock burglars continue to hit homes in Los Angeles. The trial of Monica Sementilli and Robert Baker is expected to be next year. Interviewed: Mirella Rota (Fabio’s sister); Luigi Sementilli (Fabio’s son); Joe Mercurio (Fabio’s friend); Bill Dunn (Los Angeles Police Department Detective); Justin Eisenberg (neighbor); Navid Solouk (home security expert); Pete Castellanos (friend of Fabio’s); Mitch Englander (Los Angeles City Councilman); Elyse (friend of Monica’s from the racquetball league); William Hayes (Los Angeles Police); and Mary Fulginiti (former federal prosecutor). (C: Michelle Miller – P: Chuck Stevenson, Greg Fisher) (OAD: 03/10/18)
- 09/15/18      48 HOURS: “Killer Performance” (9:00 – 10:00p) - a report on the 2010 murder investigation of 23-year-old dancer Julie Kibuishi in Southern California, and how her friend, former U.S. Army soldier Sam Herr, became the prime suspect in the case until investigators encountered an aspiring actor with a horrific tale to tell. Kibuishi was found dead in Herr’s bedroom, shot twice in the head. Police immediately believed Herr was the prime suspect, but friends and family thought otherwise. While searching for Herr and tracing his ATM and credit card usage, police were led to Herr’s neighbor, actor Daniel Wozniak, who told police that Herr confessed to him and was on the run. Suspecting he was lying, detectives continued to question Wozniak, and he became their prime suspect. They also brought his fiancé, fellow actor Rachel Buffet, in as well, and she barely reacted to the news – another red flag to investigators. Under further questioning, Wozniak confessed to killing both Julie and Sam. He told police he had lured Herr to the theater, where he killed and dismembered Herr, ultimately disposing of his body in a park. Herr then went back and performed in a play. The investigation eventually revealed that Daniel Wozniak planned and executed the murders in order to steal Sam Herr’s life savings, which he planned to use to pay for his honeymoon trip with Rachel Buffet. After murdering Sam, Wozniak set Sam up by texting Julie to come to Sam’s apartment, where he killed her. Wozniak then went back to the theater and performed with his fiancé in a play. Rachel Buffet and his brother Tim Wozniak were arrested as accessories after the fact. Five and a half years later, in a five day trial, the jury found him guilty in two and a half hours. During the penalty phase, Wozniak’s attorney tried to shift the blame Rachel Buffet. Family members addressed the court to speak about Sam and Julie and their friendship. No one spoke for Wozniak. The judge sentenced him to death. Original on-screen text graphic: Rachel Buffet and Tim Wozniak’s trial dates are pending. UPDATE for the 09/15/18 updated rebroadcast: Daniel Wozniak went on trial for the double murder of Julie Kibuishi and Sam Herr. After five days, his fate was in the hands of the jury and after five-and-a-half years, he was found guilty and sentenced to death. In September 2018, after a week-long trial, Rachel Mae Buffett was also found guilty. On-screen text graphic for the 09/15/18 updated rebroadcast: Rachel Buffet will be sentenced November 8. She faces almost four years in prison. Interviewed: Steve and Raquel Herr (Sam’s father and mother); Masa Kibuishi and June Kibuishi (Julie’s parents); Jose Morales, Ed Everett, and Mike Cohen (detectives); Miles Foltz (friend of Sam’s); Wesley Freilich (friend of Daniel Wozniak); Matt Murphy (prosecutor); Deborah Kennedy and Kara Kessener (Wozniak’s cast mates). 48 HOURS (continued)

- 09/15/18      48 HOURS: “The Last Ride Home” (10:00 - 11:00p) – an examination of the 2016 case of wealthy lawyer Tex McIver, who shot his wife Diane McIver from the backseat of a car while their friend drove them home. Exactly what led to the gunshot that killed Diane McIver is at the heart of the case against her husband. During the drive home, traffic got bad and Diane told the driver Dani Jo Carter to take the back roads towards the Buckhead section of Atlanta. Tex McIver asked for his .38 caliber handgun, which he kept in the car because he was concerned about the neighborhood they were in at the time, and Diane handed it to him. He told police he fell asleep and the gun accidentally went off, shooting Diane, who was in the front passenger seat, in the back. Carter sped to a hospital four miles away at Tex’s insistence, even though there were closer hospitals. He never called 911. Diane died on the operating table, but not before telling doctors she thought the shooting was an accident. The Atlanta Police Department investigated and decided that it was not intentional. The Fulton County District Attorney charged McIver with involuntary manslaughter and reckless conduct. The District Attorney thought there was more than meets the eye and conducted their own investigation finding out that Tex was broke and even owed Diane money. He also started selling off her belongs with the money going to the estate, not to him, even though the couple kept their finances separate. They charged him with murder, thinking that he killed her because he was desperate for money. The defense says the shooting was nothing but an accident. In March 2018, the trial began in Atlanta and this week, Tex McIver was convicted of felony murder. Interviewed: Anne Schwall (friend of Diane); Linda and Rance Winkler (neighbors); Howard Sills (friend); Dani Jo Carter (friend/driver of vehicle); Bill Rankin (reporter); Vincent Hill (law enforcement analyst/former police officer); Bert Davis (Georgia Bureau of Investigation agent); Bruce Harvey (Tex McIver’s attorney); Paul Howard (Fulton County DA). - 09/22/18      48 HOURS: “Death by Text” – an updated rebroadcast about the death of Conrad Roy III, and the groundbreaking case against Michelle Carter, who prosecutors say influenced Roy, via text messages, to kill himself. On July 12, 2014, Conrad Roy died of carbon monoxide poisoning after sitting in his truck with a gas-powered water pump running in the backseat. Prosecutors say Roy was driven to kill himself through hundreds of incessant messages from Carter, who was more than 30 minutes away at the time he died. Carter was later charged with involuntary manslaughter. Her defense team maintains Roy decided to kill himself on his own. As seen through his own videos, Conrad Roy talked about his own struggles with social anxiety, depression and thoughts of suicide. His mother Lynn Roy, also talks about the death of her son and the pain she lives with. Though they lived an hour apart in Massachusetts, the couple communicated almost exclusively via texts, online and by phone. The prosecution maintained Carter could have done something to stop Roy. The heart of the case is the question of whether Carter’s texts and messages pushed Roy to take his life, or would he have done it anyway. Prosecutors argued that Carter played on Roy’s mental health and her actions were reckless; she knew what she was doing and just wanted attention. The defense maintains Carter had her own psychological problems and that she was also involuntarily intoxicated by the antidepressant drug Celexa: she was enmeshed in the delusion that it was a good thing to help him die. The prosecution hoped the judge paid attention to the text Carter sent to her friend a week after his death, in which she admitted she could possibly go to jail. After three days of deliberation, the judge rendered his verdict, completely rejecting Carter’s defense and finding her guilty. At sentencing Michelle Carter could receive twenty years behind bars. The Roy family knows that words have power, and that they can forever change lives. UPDATE for the 08/05/17 updated rebroadcast: Nearly seven weeks after being convicted, Michelle Carter, arrives for sentencing. The prosecution asked that Carter serve 7-12 years in prison. Her attorney requests probation. Judge Lawrence Moniz sentences Michelle Carter to fifteen months behind bars – a sentence that does not please the defense, who will appeal the conviction. Her attorneys request to stay the jail sentence. The judge grants the stay, meaning Michelle will be out on probation until the appeal makes its way through the Massachusetts court system. Neither Michelle nor her family, have reached out to the Roy family. On-screen text graphic for the 08/05/17 updated rebroadcast: Lynn Roy has filed a 4.2 million wrongful death suit against Michelle Carter. The goal is to establish a memorial for Conrad. On-screen text graphic for the 09/22/18 rebroadcast: Lynn Roy has filed a 4.2-million-dollar wrongful death suit against Michelle Carter. Interviewed: Lynn Roy (mother); Camdyn Roy and Morgan Roy (sisters); Aryanna Taylor (friend of Conrad Roy); Ed McFarland (Carter’s softball coach); Bob McGovern (Boston Herald legal columnist); Harold Koplewicz (child and adolescent psychiatrist). 48 HOURS (continued)

09/29//18 48 HOURS: “Murder on the Dark Web” (9:00 – 10:00p) and “Click For A Killer” (10:00 – 11:00p) - a two-part report on the alarming world of murder-for-hire on the mysterious “dark web”. The two-hour season premiere exposes an international criminal organization in a hunt for a self-described murder mastermind simply named Yura. The six-month investigation, which covered 30,000 miles, uncovered solid information that led law enforcement to arrest people in four separate cases, who were allegedly willing to pay to have someone killed. Includes: (1) “Murder on the Dark Web” - 48 HOURS learned first learned of Yura, the unknown person behind an alleged hit-man-for-hire organization, while investigating the shooting death of Amy Allwine in Minnesota. Police learned of a plot to murder Amy Allwine in 2016. The FBI investigated, but nothing was discovered. From that point on, Amy lived with the knowledge that someone wanted her dead. Another threat asked her to commit suicide. Soon after, Amy was shot dead. Police did not believe it was suicide and immediately suspected her husband Stephen Allwine. Investigation led to the conclusion that Stephen was unhappy in his marriage and divorce was not an option in his life. Stephen had hired Yura, but things did not work out and he finally took matters into his own hands – Stephen drugged and shot her to death himself. After an eight day trial, the jury convicted him of first-degree murder. He was sentenced to life in prison without the possibility of parole. (2) “Click For A Killer” – Anchor Peter Van Sant and the 48 HOURS team investigate deep into the “dark web”, discovering information which lead to arrests in four murder plots. They found that anyone with money, a computer and the right software can find websites advertising hitmen for hire with as much ease as online shopping. With the help of Chris Monteiro, a white-hat computer hacker; and writer Eileen Ormsby, they continue their search for Yura. At one point, Yura agrees to meet with Van Sant in London, but he backs out at the last minute. Then Yura begins to share the names of potential hit targets, turning on the customers who have paid him thousands of dollars in bitcoins. 48 HOURS shared the information with law enforcement. One of the targets identified by Yura was Sydney Minor, a 22-year-old single mother in Tennessee. Told of the plot, she realized her married boyfriend, Brandon States, had ordered the hit, because she refused to have an abortion. Another target includes Tina Jones, a woman allegedly involved in a wild love triangle, accused of trying to pay thousands in bitcoin to have her lover’s wife murdered. The team also notified authorities in India, Iran, Taiwan and Singapore about plots. Lastly, they contacted the authorities about the case of a woman named Laurie, in San Luis Obispo, California, who was the subject of a murder-for-hire plot meant to look like an accident. Ultimately, clues led to her step-son Beau Brigham, who was identified as the suspect. In yet another twist, Monteiro and Ormsby raise questions about whether Yura is running a real murder-for-hire site or just swindling people out of money. Authorities aren’t sure either. On-screen text graphic: Yura is still generating new customers. One inquiry, just last week, was trying to secure a hit man in New York City. Interviewed: Chris Monteiro (computer hacker); Eileen Ormsby (writer/ CBS News consultant); 1) Terry Raymond (Cottage Grove Detective); Gwen Martin (Cottage Grove Sergeant); Randy McAlister (Cottage Grove Police Captain); Jamie Kreuser (Washington County (MN), Prosecutor); Jane Sharpe (Amy Allwine’s friend); Kevin Devore (defense attorney for Allwine); 2) Sydney Minor (target); Justin Kmitch (journalist); Wong Pei Ting (journalist); Dan Dow (District Attorney, San Luis Obispo County); John Bledsoe, Suzie Welsh, Antony Peluso (San Luis Obispo law enforcement officers); John Lehr (Central Coast Cyber Forensics Laboratory); Beau Brigham (stepson of potential victim); Alexis Brigham (mother of Beau). (Correspondent: Peter Van Sant – No producers listed for either broadcast.)

FCC QUARTERLY REPORT
July 1 – September 30, 2018

Racine & Me

Host: Jacob Kittilstad

July 1

Topic: Paul Nehlen; Cathy Myers; Mark “Mr. Racine” Eickhorst Award at 4th Fest; Masta Ace

Guests: Paul Nehlen – Candidate for Wisconsin’s 1st Congressional District; Cathy Myers - Candidate for Wisconsin’s 1st Congressional District; Dustan Balkcom – Mark “Mr. Racine” Eickhorst Spirit of Racine Award Winner; David Maack – 4th Fest of Greater Racine Board Member; Masta Ace – Influential Brooklyn Rapper

Jacob Kittilstad brings the most controversial candidate for Wisconsin’s 1st Congressional District on the program this week. Paul Nehlen was disavowed by the Republican Party of Wisconsin earlier this year after he made racist remarks online and during interviews. However - back in 2016 - Nehlen received about 10,000 votes in the GOP primary when he ran against Speaker Paul Ryan (he even received a thank you tweet from then-presidential candidate Donald Trump). Jacob asks Nehlen about what he’s telling voters about himself on the campaign trail – then Jacob confronts Nehlen with just a few of the posts from the candidate’s Facebook page which includes images and captions attacking Jewish people, African Americans and Latino immigrants.

Staying with congressional politics, Cathy Myers joined Jacob in-studio to talk about why she wanted to get on the Democratic Primary ballot. She says that her background is in education and she currently is a school board member for the Janesville School District – her decision to get into politics motivated by her involvement protesting Act 10. She also shared her disgust with the treatment of immigrants and their families at the Southern border of the U.S. – and also talked to us about her goal to legalize marijuana.

4th Fest of Greater Racine is coming up and can’t be ignored in the city’s downtown. The festival boasts the title of “Largest Fourth of July Parade in the Midwest” and packs the sidewalks of Main Street between Goold Street and 14th Street - but you probably want to arrive well before the 8:45 a.m. start time if you want to secure decent seats. Jacob also meets the recipient of the first ever Mark “Mr. Racine” Eickhorst Spirit of Racine Award – an award created after Mark Eickhorst’s recent passing. In its inaugural year the award is going to the creator of the Ask Me Why I Love Racine campaign.

And – to close out the show – legendary hip-hop artist Masta Ace joined us to talk about how his latest album is coming along. The Brooklyn-raised rapper recently moved to New Jersey but he’s still putting a lot of work into his music in New York City working with producer Marco Polo. He also shared how he’s been coping with his multiple sclerosis diagnosis (he says that right now he’s basically a pescatarian – but could eventually become a vegan). He also performed the single “Brooklyn” from his forthcoming – yet unnamed – album.

July 8

Topic: State Sen. Bob Wirth; the Racine Calliope; Peter and the Starcatcher; Animal Crackers

Guests: Bob Wirth – Racine/Kenosha State Senator (D); Michael Becker – Racine Calliope Player; Joycelyn Fish – Racine Theatre Guild Director of Marketing and Development; Beth Heidorn – Racine Zoo Executive Director

Jacob Kittilstad abandoned the studio to visit the 4th Fest of Greater Racine parade – which is touted to be the largest Fourth of July parade in the Midwest. Racine/Kenosha State Senator Bob Wirth stopped by during the balmy visit outdoors to talk about his political priorities which include raising the minimum wage. He also talked about why he’s supporting Randy Bryce for Congress and how he feels about hecklers along parade routes (he’s all for them).

The Racine Calliope is back in action at this year’s 4th Fest parade and it’s looking as good as ever! Recently the circus-style organ was rehabbed in Missouri – which is no easy task considering felt, leather, and metal are integrated into the 80-plus-year-old instrument. Jacob talked to the man who plays the calliope during the parade and learns about his background as a musician (He currently plays at Mt. Pleasant Lutheran Church AKA “The Spaceship Church”).

The Racine Theatre Guild is looking ahead to their next production which includes a lot of characters that people already know. Peter and the Starcatcher basically works as a prequel to “Peter Pan” and spells out what led to the character dynamics at play in Neverland. The cast is not a huge group of people but they depict more than one hundred characters though pantomime.

And it is the 32nd year of the Animal Crackers Concert Series put on by the Racine Zoo. Staff brought in “Laurel” the Green Tree Python to help promote the shows (and showed an amazing proficiency to talk about details of the event while handling a rather energetic animal!) The music theme running throughout the shows is Jazz – and organizers share the secret to having a good time at the events because they do go on rain-or-shine.

July 15

Topic: SC Johnson Aquatic Center; Ken Yorgan, Visioning a Greater Racine; RAM’s KJB Tribute
Guests: Amy Winters – SC Johnson Public/Corporate Communications Director; Jonathan Delagrave – Racine County Executive; Dr. Ken Yorgan – Independent Congressional Candidate; Trevor Jung – Visioning a Greater Racine Community Engagement Coordinator; Beth Bender – Visioning a Greater Racine “Culture & Recreation” Team Member; Lena Vigna – Racine Art Museum Curator of Exhibitions

Jacob Kittilstad doggy-paddled into the program by learning more about the SC Johnson Community Aquatic Center. The space – with 15,000 total square feet of water surface – opened to the public about one month ago and is managed by Racine Family YMCA. It was made possible by a $6.5 million donation from SC Johnson which – of course - is headquartered in Racine. Racine County Executive Jonathan Delagrave also joined the discussion to talk about the amenities and programs offered at the new facility.

Next, Dr. Ken Yorgan stopped by the studio to talk about why he is running for Congress. He is running as an Independent meaning that he will not have to go through a primary to make it on the ballot for the general election. He talked about how his outsider status has helped him connect with potential voters while campaigning. He shares his views on Foxconn, money in politics, and marijuana during the interview.

The group Visioning a Greater Racine is hosting a few events ahead of Saturday Sounds on the Square trying to connect with the community – especially younger people. They say their efforts are based off a recent large-scale in-depth survey which asked people to share their opinions on what will make the city of Racine thrive for decades to come. One thing they identified is that many survey-takers were asking for things that already exist in the community – so now they are doing their best to promote those events and programs. Their ‘culture & recreation’ team will be out leading extra activities ahead of upcoming “Saturday Sounds on the Square” dates.

The Racine Art Museum is transforming all of their galleries into tributes to Karen Johnson Boyd – an art collector and philanthropist who supported the museum for decades. The curator of exhibitions explains how the galleries will be organized and why it’s important to recognize “KJB” as someone who committed so voraciously to donating to the arts in the city.

July 22

Topic: Randy Bryce, BOLD; Competitive Eater Andrew Kogutkiewicz; Fleeing Artists Theatre
Guests: Randy Bryce – Congressional Candidate; Ray Tweedale – BOLD: Blind Outdoor Leisure Development President; Carla Ernst – BOLD: Blind Outdoor Leisure Development Communication Director; Andrew Kogutkiewicz – Major League Eating Signed Competitive Eater; Alex Metalsky – Fleeing Artists Theatre Founder and Outreach Director; Kevin Duffy – Fleeing Artists Theatre Artistic Director

Jacob Kittilstad continued his mission of talking to all of the candidates running in the party primaries for Wisconsin’s 1st Congressional District. This week he had a conversation with Democrat Randy Bryce – also known as the “Ironstache”. Bryce talked about why he got into the race and how he secured an endorsement from Vermont Senator Bernie Sanders. He also shared his thoughts on Foxconn, his support for a Medicare-for-All system, and what it’s like to have national attention for his campaign. He also addressed questions about his arrest record, which was first reported by CNN.

Water skiing and wakeboarding are huge aspects of summer lake activities but if you are blind or have a visual impairment – the opportunity to really get a feel for the activity may never present itself. BOLD: Blind Outdoor

Leisure Development is teaming up with a group in Burlington to connect those people with a chance to get on the water. Group leadership tells Jacob about why it is important and what special guidance is given to make sure people have a positive experience.

Did you know that Wisconsin's only Major League Eating-signed competitive eater lives in Racine? It's true: Andrew Kogutkiewicz discovered his eating abilities as a young man and has competed in events for about a decade. He says he's strongest at eating chicken wings – but he's preparing for a competition at the Wisconsin State Fair that features a Dairyland favorite: Cheese Curds. He talks to Jacob about his strategy for the event and name-drops a few of his favorite places to eat in Racine.

Fleeing Artists Theatre returns this year with more productions of free Summer Shakespeare. The actors will be performing outside at different parks around Kenosha over the next few weeks. They are prepared to put on productions of Medea and Twelfth Night. Actors from the productions talked about connecting with the audience despite the stereotype of 'inaccessibility' – and viewers got to see a monologue from an upcoming show.

July 29

Topic: Bryan Steil; Kevin Adam Steen; Racine Public Library Repair Café; Olympian 5k/10k

Guests: Bryan Steil – Congressional Candidate; Kevin Adam Steen – Congressional Candidate; Hazel Dickfoss – Repair Café Volunteer and Expert; Jeff Schultz – Repair Café Volunteer and Expert; Cari Greving – Real Racine Events Manager; Dave Hoffman – Wisconsin Senior Olympics Athlete; Ella Greving – 7-year-old Runner

Jacob Kittilstad has completed his set of interviews with every candidate seeking to replace Speaker Paul Ryan. As a former employee, Bryan Steil has been endorsed by Speaker Ryan ahead of the Republican Party primary. The core of his work with the congressman involved economic, finance, and budget issues – and he shared no political criticism of his potential predecessor or President Donald Trump. Steil expressed hope about the possibilities the Foxconn Development will bring to the region – and also shared his opinion on a few key issues including immigration and abortion.

As a follow-up, congressional candidate Kevin Adam Steen joined Jacob in-studio for a discussion on his background. Steen spends most of his time around the Burlington-area and has separated himself from the other candidates by defining his political identity in terms of his religious beliefs. The candidate shared his opinions on abortion, gay marriage, and the legalization of marijuana. He also talked about his support of President Donald Trump – and his skepticism of one of his opponents on the primary ballot: Bryan Steil.

When a toaster stops toasting or a blender stops blending the typical response from people these days is to throw away the appliance. The new Repair Café at the Racine Public Library is hoping to reverse that trend by providing both tools and volunteer-experts to guide people with questions. The volunteers are often older individuals who learned how to be handy by virtue of how they were raised. The goal is to share those skills as they may have not made it through the latest generational jump. Volunteers also can offer guidance on fixing clothing, furniture, and other items you might find around the house. The events are scheduled for the third Sunday of every month at the Racine Public Library from 11:00 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

And the Wisconsin Senior Olympics has a qualifier race for nationals planned for Racine. The Olympian 5k/10k will take runners on a route along Lake Michigan – and will bring a wide variety of age ranges to the course. While many older racers will be competing in the WSO aspect of the event, younger athletes are also welcome to participate. In fact, organizers with Real Racine say the event will be inter-generational – and past events have included family members supporting one another.

August 5 (OAD 3/25/18)

Topic: UW-Parkside; Real Racine 2018 Events; Wines & Steins; Egg-stravaganza at the Zoo

Guests: Debbie Ford – Chancellor of University of Wisconsin Parkside; Dr. Bryan Lewis – UW-Parkside Associate Dean of the College of Natural and Health Sciences; Cari Greving – Real Racine Events Manager; Julie Soyka – Junior League of Racine President; Sarah Greening – Junior League of Racine Member; Kristina Prochaska – Junior League of Racine Member; Beth Heidorn – Racine Zoo Executive Director; Amber Olsen – Racine Zoo Special Events and Sales Manager

Jacob Kittilstad made it a priority to connect with local educational institutions as Foxconn prepares to shift and add to the regional workforce. This week he spoke to the chancellor of the University of Wisconsin–Parkside (which is the youngest UW school – celebrating their 50 years anniversary in 2019). The school has a large number of pre-medicine and pre-healthcare students, so faculty is also looking into how Foxconn’s medical imaging technology might intersect with their curriculum.

Next, Real Racine took a series of rapid-fire questions about events coming up this summer. A short list of events includes Open House Racine County, EVP Volleyball at North Beach, a Pro Watercross Tour Stop, and the US Australian Football League National Championships.

The Junior League of Racine is preparing for their upcoming fundraiser known as Wines & Steins Around the World. The event is structured like a food and wine tasting – where people can visit table-to-table sampling different wine, beer, and food from around the world. All proceeds will benefit the group’s charitable mission – developing female civic leaders who dedicate their time improving the lives of women and children in the community.

Finally, Jacob got to meet Belle the rabbit – a visitor from the Racine Zoo which will soon be hosting their annual Egg-Stravaganza! The event takes on an Easter theme and ditches the rowdiness of an egg hunt – instead encouraging kids to make their way throughout the zoo visiting different “cluck-cluck” doors to collect their prizes (a la trick or treating).

August 12 (OAD 4/1/18)

Topic: SAFE Haven; Noelle Hetzel; Homeless Piano Virtuoso; the Song a Day Project

Guests: Justin Tighe – SAFE Haven of Racine Inc. AmeriCorps Outreach; Evie Kalmar – SAFE Haven of Racine Inc. Case Manager; Noelle Hetzel – Make-up and Special Effects Artist/Owner of Wonderlust Studio; Atone Pendleton Brooks – Classically Trained Pianist; Joannie Williams – Parish Nurse for Living Faith Lutheran Church; Zachary Scot Johnson – Musician and Creator of the Song a Day Project

Jacob Kittilstad started his Easter Morning broadcast with a visit from SAFE Haven of Racine Inc. to talk about their Child Abuse Awareness event – which allows people to learn more about the function of the children’s center and meet people involved with the work. The event is family friendly and includes activities for kids as well. An original part of the event plan was to put out a pinwheel for every Racine-area case of child abuse or neglect – but that number is actually in the hundreds and the group can’t invest that much money into buying pinwheels. They hope the event will raise awareness about this hidden issue during April which is actually Child Abuse Awareness Month.

Make-up and Special Effects Artist Noelle Hetzel will also be at the SAFE Haven of Racine Inc. event doing face-painting for children (and adults) who would like to take advantage of her skills. Her notoriety in the movie-making and fashion world has been growing. She’s hoping to continue her education and grow her business – Wonderlust Studio. Noelle gave viewers a window into her process by creating a special make-up design inspired by Child Abuse Awareness Month.

Next, Atone Pendleton Brooks shared his musical talents with viewers – as well as part of his life story. Atone is a classically trained pianist who fell on hard times when he was fired from his non-music job. Since then he has struggled through bouts of homelessness made even more difficult recently after a massive heart attack and worsening kidney disease (requiring dialysis three times a week). Now he has linked up with Living Faith Lutheran Church in Racine. They are helping him get back on his feet and are also encouraging him to rediscover his musical talents. The church is taking up a special offering for him on Sunday, April 15.

Lastly Jacob met Zachary Scot Johnson – a Racine musician continuing The Song a Day Project along with his rigorous touring schedule. Every day Johnson uploads a new song (either an original or a cover) and he has just crossed his 2,000 song mark. He has a few shows coming up in Racine and Milwaukee and he gave viewers a taste of his style with an in-studio performance.

August 19 (OAD 5/13/18)

Topic: Bunnies Return to the Old Playboy Club; French Horn Rebellion; Sister Act; Steel Doves

Guests: Diana Petersen – Lake Geneva Playboy Club 50th Anniversary Co-Organizer and Former Bunny; April Sesek – Former Bunny at the Lake Geneva Playboy Club; Pegs Weber - Lake Geneva Playboy Club 50th Anniversary Co-Organizer and Former Bunny; Joy Grossman – Former Bunny at the Lake Geneva Playboy Club; Robert Perlick-Molinari – French Horn Rebellion Member, Pink Flamingo Rhythm Revue – Artist, Performer, and Guitarist; Jasmine Ridgell – “Deloris Van Cartier” in the Racine Theatre Guild Production of Sister Act; Robbyn Wilks – “Mother Superior” in the Racine Theatre Guild Production of Sister Act; Angel Lawrie – Founder of Steel Doves; Shannon Roberts – Steel Doves Member; Olivia Bushey – Steel Doves Member; Braxton Hinds – Steel Doves Member; JJ Rude – Steel Doves Member

Jacob Kittilstad greeted past bunnies of the old Lake Geneva Playboy Club who are preparing for the 50th Anniversary of the opening of the resort. Now in their 60s, 70s, and 80s – the former bunnies say they have tried to stay in touch through the years because the working experience was so positive. They say they were treated like celebrities around Lake Geneva and often were invited as guests of honor at local events. More than 100 bunnies are expected to attend the 50th Anniversary as well as more than 100 more past employees – and ahead of that, a group of four women visited the Racine & Me studio to show off memorabilia and show photos from their past.

Next, one half of the electronic/dance music duo French Horn Rebellion dropped by during their brief tour of the Midwest. The pair is originally from Southeastern Wisconsin but Robert Perlick-Molinari says his main memory of Racine County is when he got a speeding ticket on I-94 and had to go to court in the city. The group is still moving fast – expanding their musical ideas with their studio You Too Can Woo. Joined by Pink Flamingo Rhythm Revue, viewers were also treated to a plugged/unplugged performance (of course accompanied by the French Horn).

The upcoming production at the Racine Theatre Guild is Sister Act – and the women depicting Deloris Van Cartier and Mother Superior stopped by to talk about their preparations. They also reflected on their past experience with nuns (which admittedly was limited) before showing off their spectacular vocal ranges in a brief duet.

Lastly, Steel Doves is a new steel drum orchestra in the city of Racine put together by Angel Lawrie – and it would be an understatement to say that she had a diverse skill set. Examining her purely as a drummer, she has grown the band to the point that now she is planning larger concerts for the group. With the assistance of close to 20 people – young and old - she graced the program with a Caribbean-feeling cover version of “Don’t Stop Believin” by Journey.

Topic: ICE Detains Activist Ricardo Fierro; USBC Champion Bowler Cotie Holbek; 4-H

Guests: Maria Morales – Community Activist; Fabi Maldonado – Racine County District 2 Supervisor; Cotie Holbek – 2018 USBC Open “Regular Singles” Champion; Abbie Hammer – Racine County 4-H Member; Alec Edstrom – Racine County 4-H Member

Jacob Kittilstad invited two people onto the program who know Ricardo Fierro - the 39-year-old Racine resident who was detained by ICE one month ago. Currently, the father of seven is being held in Illinois and faces possible deportation to Mexico. Supporters say Fierro first entered the U.S. at age 16 and has been involved in immigrants’ rights groups for a large part of his adult life – communication with the Racine Mayor’s office, RUSD, and the county. Many elected officials have written letters expressing their support for his release on bond. One activist told Jacob that Racine’s Latino community feels that it is “under attack” and that authorities with ICE have increased enforcement in the region more than in the past.

Wisconsinites – if you can believe it – are low-key monsters when it comes to the United States Bowling Congress Open Championships. A good example of the phenomenon is Cotie Holbek – a 24-year-old Burlington man who won the “regular singles” event in 2018 with a score of 804 (three consecutive games: 278, 278 and 246). He tells Jacob about the experience in Syracuse, New York and even lugs the game ball to the studio to show it off. He currently works at Towne & Country Lanes in Burlington.

The Wisconsin State Fair is behind us and Jacob welcomed two members of the Racine County 4-H to the studio to show-off what they're been working on. That included a Lego project which won a Merit Award – automating a tiny version of Plinko.

Another member of Racine County 4-H described her journey from infancy to adulthood within the program. Her most recent interests have involved photography and quilting – both making appearances in fair competitions in the past few years.

Topic: Gold Medal Lofts; Racine-Kenosha Heart Walk; Mayor Hefty's Rescue Squad Retirement

Guests: Joshua Jeffers – J. Jeffers & Co. President and CEO; Amy Connolly – Racine Director of City Development; Kelsey Gumm – Racine-Kenosha Heart Walk “Heart Walk Hero”; Tim Goodman – Racine-Kenosha Heart Walk Chairperson; Jeannie Hefty – Mayor of Burlington and Retiring Member of the Burlington Rescue Squad; Brian Zweibel – Burlington Rescue Squad Chief; Joni Beck – Rochester Area Historical Society President; Judy Bratz – 2017 Rochester Pie Contest Champion

Jacob Kittilstad learned about the second-life for one building in Racine thanks to Affordable Housing Tax Credits from WHEDA. The development will renovate the historic Gold Medal Camping Furniture building at 1700 Packard Avenue. A representative from J. Jeffers & Co Real Estate said that 77 units will be going into the space, adding much needed housing stock as businesses continue to expand in the region.

Next, the “Heart Walk Hero” from the Racine-Kenosha Heart Walk sat down with Jacob to talk about how she discovered she had heart disease. She was a petty officer in the Navy going through boot camp when she started to frequently pass out during strenuous exercise. It took more than 10 years for Kelsey Gumm to get a diagnosis – and although her health situation barred her from a career in the Navy, she is now sharing her story to raise awareness on the struggle and prevalence of heart issues. The chairperson for the 2018 Heart Walk also talked about how people can get involved and fundraise for local causes.

You may know her best as the mayor of Burlington, but in 1987 Jeannie Hefty became the first-ever woman to join the city's Rescue Squad. Now – after more than 30 years of service – she is retiring from her life as a volunteer. She tells Jacob that she is now moving into an advocacy role and trying to get more people to consider joining the group. But she also reflected on what she brought to the Burlington Rescue Squad - including a compassionate approach to medical emergencies and a stuffed animal program for young children at accidents scene whose parents had been injured.

And one of the most competitive pie competitions is just ahead on the calendar – the 14th Annual Pie Contest and Auction is scheduled to happen during the upcoming Rochester Day in the Country. The rules are simple: the pie has to be made in at least a 9” pan that won't be given back, and the pie can't require refrigeration. They need to be delivered on September 15 to Community State Bank (201 West Main Street, Rochester) between 9 a.m. – 11 a.m. along with a notecard listing the ingredients. The 2018 champion let Jacob have a taste-test of her German Chocolate inspired pie while Jacob gave her a taste of his Racine & Me Nectarine and Blueberry pie. What's wrong with a little kitchen competition? ...especially when the auction benefits the Rochester Area Historical Society.

Topic: Race to End Racism; Blithe Spirit; Wayman AME Church Sesquicentennial; the Racine Zoo

Guests: Carl Fields – Community Organizer; Leland Pan – YWCA Southeast Wisconsin Racial Justice Trainer; Mark Neufang – Charles Condomine in “Blithe Spirit”; Alyssa Falvey – Elvira Condomine in “Blithe Spirit”; Rev. Ernest J. Ni'A – Wayman AME Church Pastor; Elizabeth Markham – Wayman AME Church Anniversary Committee Vice Co-Chair; Aszya Summers – Racine Zoo Conservation Education Manager; Beth Heidorn – Racine Zoo Executive Director

Jacob Kittilstad got information about an upcoming event coordinated by a few groups including Coming Together Racine, YWCA Southeast Wisconsin, and the Racine Public Library. Organizers are calling the inaugural event the Race to End Racism and plan to have speakers talk about issues including implicit bias and mass incarceration.

Next, the Australian Consul General in Chicago – Matt Wise – visited the set to talk about the upcoming United States Australian Football League (USAFL) National Championships which are being held in Racine at the SCORE Soccer Complex. Along with Real Racine, the conversation drifted from the rules of the sport to the atmosphere of the crowd. Jacob also brewed a special beer for the visit by a foreign dignitary: a saison by the name of the “Australia Caledonia Connection”.

Oktoberfest celebrations will soon be happening across the state but organizers of a new event in Franksville hope their bash dedicated to the harvest season will become a mainstay. The Franksville Craft Beer Garden will be holding their inaugural Oktoberfest this year - mainly because this is the first season they have ever been open. The husband-wife owner team reflects on how business has been at the Caledonia-Mount Pleasant Joint Memorial Park and talk to Jacob about how their professional lives intersect with their personal lives.

With the help of the Franksville Craft Beer Garden – Jacob invited guests from the previous segments back to the set for a Stein Hoisting Competition! Who will prevail in the feat of strength? Police officer, firefighter, or a representative of Australia?

September 30

Topic: State Rep. Greta Neubauer; Not Your Parents Basement; Polka Mass in Union Grove

Guests: Rep. Greta Neubauer – (D) District 66/Racine; Ian Ballantyne – Not Your Parents Basement Owner; Dan Padila – Twin Dragon Games Owner; Dane Becker – Founding member of Walden III eSports Team; Tom Goetz – Knights of Columbus #4106 Oktoberfest Chairman; Ed Hause – Concertina Player for the Ed Hause Band

Jacob Kittilstad welcomed Representative Greta Neubauer (D-Racine) on the program for the first time since she took office – replacing now-Mayor Cory Mason in the Wisconsin Assembly. She talked about her recent testimony before the U.S. Department of Education where she said she criticized Education Secretary Betsy DeVos for loosening regulations for predatory lenders. She says that there is a looming (and current) student debt crisis that needs to be addressed. She also spoke about the current national discussion on sexual assault and misconduct – and spoke personally about how she is treated online as a young, female legislator. Also, Jacob asked her about her adjustment to life as an elected official – asking her to share her Racine-to-Madison driving playlist.

With eSports continuing to grow in prominence worldwide, Jacob wondered where is the local impact? He got his answer from the people who recently opened Not Your Parents Basement gaming lounge which connect gamers ‘in-person’ as they hone their online skills for games including PUBG, Fortnite, and Overwatch. The space has also teamed with Twin Dragon Games to help people learn tabletop and trading card games through hands-on experience. A regular customer (and virtual learner at Walden III High School) talked to Jacob about how the social aspect has helped him grow as a gamer.

And as the harvest season ramps up, so too does Oktoberfest season! In Union Grove the Knights of Columbus #4106 will be hosting a Polka Mass as a part of the festivities. The service will happen at St. Robert Bellarmine Catholic Church and will feature classic polka tunes with lyrics adjusted to fit the Mass.

The concertina player – Ed Hause of The Ed Hause Band – also gave viewers a taste of what to expect at the event with a special in-studio performance.
