ABC NEWS PROGRAMS – Third Quarter, 2013

PT: WHAT WOULD YOU DO?

Friday, July 5, 2013

- Women in Business: What would you do if you witnessed a job interview at a café where the male manager tells a younger female interviewee that she will not be hired because of her gender? Will any customers stand up for the female job-seeker? "Shark Tank" judge Barbara Corcoran guest stars. (OAD 9/14/12)
- Food for the Homeless: When a waiter/bartender refuses to serve a homeless man, even though another woman leaves money to cover his food bill, will anyone intervene? (OAD 9/14/12)
- Super Sour Sixteen: How will fellow shoppers react when a bratty and entitled girl throws a fit at a dress shop because she hates her custom-made Sweet 16 dress? (OAD 9/14/12)
- Sandwich Board Kids: Recently some parents have been turning to a controversial form of punishment: making their kids wear a sandwich board that describes their offense (from stealing to smoking to doing drugs) on a public street. Will any bystanders intervene? (OAD 9/14/12)
- Careless Pharmacist: What would you do if you saw a pharmacist loudly disclosing potentially embarrassing information regarding a prescription pick-up about someone waiting in line? Will anyone tell our loudmouthed pharmacist to tone it down? (OAD 5/11/12)

- Boy Manicure: What would you do if you saw a mom taking her young son for a manicure and someone was criticizing her for doing such a "girly" activity? What if it was the dad objecting?
- Drive Thru: What would you do for a fast food freebie? From asking customers to perform jumping jacks to singing your order – how long before this unique drive thru experience forces you to drive off?!
- Wedding Cake: What would you do if you saw a lesbian couple being denied a wedding cake at a bakery because the owner doesn't believe in gay marriage?
- Insult Comic: What would you do if you were at a comedy show and one of the comedians was insulting audience members, including two overweight women and an older man with an attractive young Asian woman. (OAD: 10/12/12)

Friday, July 19, 2013

- Open Car: A man walks down a sidewalk, checking the handle on every parked car in his path, until he gets to our staged unlocked car. He then leans in, rummages around, and starts to take items from the car. Will anyone confront him on his blatant attempt at theft? What will happen if the thief is African American or a woman?
- The Cool Dad: At a liquor store, a father is buying his teenage son alcohol for a party with his friends. Will anyone confront the dad or tell the store manager? (OAD: 10/5/12)
- Daughter Diet: Will anyone dining in a restaurant intervene when they witness a mother restricting what her young daughter can eat, saying that the daughter is getting too heavy and must slim down? (OAD: 10/19/12)
- Vintage Bottle: When a clumsy customer accidentally breaks a very rare, expensive bottle of wine and pretends she has nothing to do with it, even placing the blame on other customers, will anyone in the store speak up? What if the clumsy customer casts the blame on a store employee who does not speak English? (OAD: 10/12/12)

WOULD YOU FALL FOR THAT?

From the creators of What Would You Do? comes Would You Fall For That? - a one hour, unscripted show that takes eye-opening and head-scratching psychological experiments out of the classroom and into the real world. Anchored by Nick Watt.

Friday, July 26, 2013 (Season Premiere)

- Photo Swap/Change Blindness: Under the right circumstances our brains are wired to be blind to changes happening right in front of our eyes. Using only a digital camera, a large cardboard sign and some helpful passersby, “Would You Fall for That?” gives this scientific principle a real-world test. Watch as people agree to snap a photo of our bearded host, Scott, only to end up taking a picture of clean-shaven Nick -- without ever spotting the switch! And what if Scott and Sasheer switch places? Or a picture of Scott and Sasheer becomes a three-shot of Scott, Sasheer and Nick? Will anyone even notice?
- Bird in a Tree/Foot in the Door Theory: “Foot in the door” theory says that if you start small, you can gradually get people to do more and more outlandish things. Really? How outlandish? “Would You Fall for That?” takes flight to New York’s Central Park to find out. Scott, dressed as a bird watcher, stops random park goers and tells them he’s spotted a ridiculously rare bird in a tree. What he doesn’t tell them is he bought the stuffed bird and wired it to the tree. Using “foot in the door technique,” Scott sees how far out on a limb he can get people as he asks them to perform more and more bizarre things in an effort to attract the attention of our Bird in A Tree.
- Horoscope/The Forer Effect, Subjective Validation: How many people will believe that a generic horoscope, cut and pasted from several newspapers over 60 years ago by a psychology professor, is meant just for them? Why do horoscopes have such a powerful impact on people? To find out, Nick Watt disguises himself as a famous astrologer from London and “reads” the horoscopes of six random people who believe they’ll be on a pilot for a new TV show. Will they fall for it? And how will they react when we tell them the truth? Cameras are rolling for their surprising reactions.

Friday, August 2, 2013

- Power Drink/The Placebo Effect: Will beachgoers feel stronger and more energetic after drinking what they are told is an energy drink that is actually nothing more than club soda? “Would You Fall for That” tests their strength, before and after drinking the placebo drink, on the classic carnival game, the High Striker.
- Marry a Stranger/Obedience: How far will people go just because they’re told to do something? Could “Would You Fall for That” actually get someone off the street to marry a stranger?
- Celebrity/Follow the Crowd: Social science tells us that, in situations where people are unsure of what to do, they generally just follow along with the crowd. We test this theory by dressing Sasheer up like a pop icon and bringing her to Times Square, accompanied by fake fans and fake paparazzi. Will the fake hype generate real hype? Will people believe she is a superstar simply because we’ve made her look like one?
- Lost Dog: If you were given a “Lost Dog” flyer, do you think you'd recognize the same dog if he was standing 50 feet away? What if the dog is dressed in a Elvis Presley costume?

Friday, August 9, 2013

- Anchors Away: Nick Watt is playing an all familiar role of a news anchor. Yet, this time, there is a catch. Can he convince unsuspecting passersby in Washington Square Park in New York that he needs them to sit in for his expert who is running late? How far can Nick push their limits?
- Change Blindness: People often fail to notice change when it happens right in front of them. To demonstrate, “Would You Fall for That?” tests visitors to the Intrepid aircraft carrier to see if they will notice when we switch out one person for another after participating in a power of memory experiment.
- Stop Eating: What would you do if an authority figure came between you and your lunch? Would you put on a suit jacket to eat at a hot dog joint? Would you stop eating a sandwich mid-bite just because a red light told you not to eat? “Would You Fall for That?” tests to see if people will obey authority figures even in the most absurd circumstances.
- Dirty Diaper: Social science tells us that when the price tag is zero, rational behavior goes out the window. So “Would You Fall for That?” set out to test the power of “free” to its very limits, setting up a promotional event giving away free ice cream to passersby in a Brooklyn park. The catch? All the chocolate ice cream you can eat as long as you eat it from a “recycled” diaper. Will people really take anything for free?

- Designated Lanes: What if a fake park ranger asks pedestrians to walk on one side of the bridge because of their hair color, relationship status or height? Will people obey his outrageous orders just because he is an authority figure?
- Elevator: Will people conform to group dynamics? If we face the back of the elevator, will they do the same? What if we start dancing? Or sit on the floor? “Would You Fall for That?” tests the Asch Paradigm to see how far people will go to feel like a member of the group.

LOSING IT

From road rage, athletes gone wild and unbelievable courtroom shenanigans to a successful doctor who keeps making headlines for alleged violence against women, this week everybody is “Losing It” (OAD: 6/22/12)

A SHOT IN THE DARK

It's been the burning question in a murder case that has polarized the country - what exactly happened when teenager Trayvon Martin was shot dead after a fatal encounter with 28-year-old George Zimmerman? Was it murder or self-defense? The case comes to a close after a heated three-week trial that presented the jury with two wildly different versions of events. From inside the courtroom and interviews with key players, ABC News' Matt Gutman reports the latest and most in-depth information from the trial.

I ESCAPED MY LIFE

Eric Myers seemed to have it all...so what would cause him to go missing on a business trip and literally disappear from his life and his family for more than 15 years? Was it a kidnapping? Amnesia? Was there another woman? In this dramatic and surprising story, Deborah Roberts uncovers exclusive details of how Myers allowed his own wife and kids to think he was dead for so long, and what he did while he was away.

DUNWOOD DAY CARE TRIAL

Andrea Sneiderman claims she's a grieving wife whose obsessed boss loved her enough to kill her husband, Rusty Sneiderman. But Sneiderman's family has long insisted that she was the master manipulator behind the murder plot. This week “20/20” covers stunning developments in the case, known as the Dunwoody Day Care trial, which has captured national attention.

THE NAKED TRUTH

- Too Attractive to Work: After working as a dental assistant for 10 years, 32 year-old Melissa Nelson was fired by her dentist boss for being too attractive. Dr. James Knight, who is married, said that he felt Ms. Nelson's beauty was simply too tempting and presented a threat to his marriage. But Nelson was not about to take this reverse form of beauty bias lying down. She sued Knight for gender discrimination. The all-male Iowa Supreme Court would make a surprising decision, not once, but twice. Paula Faris reports.
- The Tongue Patch Diet: A Long Beach cosmetic surgeon is helping patients lose weight by sewing a patch onto their tongues. The postage stamp-sized patch is abrasive, making it so painful to eat solid foods that the patient can only consume liquids. Promising to help shed 20 pounds in 30 days. ABC News Correspondent Cecilia Vega reports.
- Six Pack Abs in 60 Minutes: You know those too-good-to-be-true before and after weight-loss photos we see on TV? Famed personal trainer Andrew Dixon had everybody talking last week by demonstrating that the secret to body transformation on film was just a few lighting tweaks and grooming tools. “20/20” put Dixon's tactics to the test.
- Charity Angels: The old adage “sex sells” apparently holds true even for charity fundraising, as Los Angeles-based company Charity Angels only hires attractive women in a bid to get wealthy men to part with their cash at philanthropic events -- from golf tournaments to black tie galas and cancer fundraisers. Chris Connelly reports.

Friday, August 9, 2013

- One of the Luckiest Men Alive: David Hayes of Columbus Ohio knows a bit about luck - good and bad. Last October he went on an incredible streak playing blackjack at an Ohio casino, walking away with $36,000 in cash. But some thugs were watching him. He awoke in his bed at home hours later with three armed men pointing a gun at his head, stealing his winnings. Hayes returned to the same casino and in subsequent visits won back all that money again. So, is it skill, karma, or blessed good fortune? Deborah Roberts reports.

- Pennies From Heaven: What is it like to suddenly get a pile of cash dumped on you, when you weren't expecting it in the least? Just ask actors Kevin Brophy and Peter Barton, former stars of the Young and the Restless, who so entertained Illinoisan Ray Fulk that he left them a $1 million estate. Amy Robach reports.
- Lucky to be Alive: When expert skydiver Craig Stapleton jumped from a plane in March, it was routine until his main parachute didn't deploy and even his back-up chute got stuck in its strings. Stapleton believed he was living the final two minutes of his life while he plummeted to earth from 8,000 feet in the sky. Matt Gutman reports on a very lucky man.
- Make Your Own Luck: Can you make yourself lucky? Ty Igodmind of West Palm Beach thinks you can -- especially if you buy his IGodMind brain programming videos, which he says uses binaural beats and hypnotic visuals to help your subconscious absorb "positive subliminal programming" and make yourself a better receptor for good fortune. Dan Harris speaks with Ty and a hypnotist about their approaches to attracting good luck.
- Superstitions: We all know rationally that walking under a ladder isn't really bad luck, and that rabbit's feet don't bring good fortune. Yet many of us still practice these superstitions anyway. Jay Schadler conducts some social experiments with skeptic Tom Shermer.

FAMOUS PARENTS, FAMOUS PROBLEMS

- Kid Stalkerazzi: Nick Watt reports on Halle Berry and Jennifer Garner's emotional testimony in front of the California legislature this week as they described their encounters with the relentless paparazzi that make no excuses for their endless pursuit of celebrity kids. Nick Watt goes on a lively joy-ride with a well-noted paparazzo to see first-hand how they hunt their pint-sized celebrity prey.
- Custody Battles: Hollywood Style: Usher's ex-wife Tameka Raymond sits down for an exclusive interview about her son's recent near-drowning accident and her strategy to establish full child custody. Dan Abrams reports on the very public and ugly collateral damage that is caused when celebrity kids take center stage in a grizzly battle of tug of war.
- That's My Boy!: What happens when a celebrity donates his sperm and then decides he wants to raise a child? A lot of tabloid headlines – and maybe even precedent-setting legislation – get written. Actor Jason Patric opens up to David Muir in a new interview about his struggle to be not just a donor, but a father to his son Gus.
- Kids Tweet the Darndest Things: For a generation of celebrity kids who have no filter, social media is the new public confessional. From Paris Jackson's online breakdown to Arnold Schwarzenegger's son tweeting about his own father's extra-marital affair and celebrity kids outing the real-life excess of their parents' lives on Instagram – their parents may be the Hollywood stars, but these kids know how to find and shock their own audience. Chris Connelly reports.

HIGHWAYS FROM HELL

- GPS Astray: How much do you trust your GPS navigator? It might be much less after hearing this tale. In July 2010, Donna Cooper, her daughter, Gina, and their friend, Jenny Leung, took a wrong turn in Death Valley. Turning to their GPS for navigation, things quickly went downhill – and off the beaten trail. With no cell phone signal or paper maps, the women had no idea they were driving into one of the most remote and unforgiving corners of the 3.5 million acre desert. Jay Schadler reports their harrowing ordeal. (OAD 3/15/13)
- Pileup: Matt and Catie Stegmoyer and their two children were driving along a Texas highway last Thanksgiving when they found themselves in the middle of a deadly 118 vehicle pileup. But the Stegmoyers were able to walk away unscathed largely because they ignored conventional wisdom about what to do in a traffic accident. John Quiñones reports. (OAD: 4/26/13)
- Hit and Run: Inside the LAPD's Hit and Run Investigations Unit, cops use the latest forensic techniques and caught-in-the-act video to track down hit and run drivers in the country's deadliest city for pedestrians. Cecilia Vega reports.
- Truckers: Jim Avila report on the sights, the sounds and the smells of life on the road as one of America's long-haul truckers.
- Dead Man's Curve: John Quiñones lets you know if you're driving on one of the nation's most notorious and dangerous highways every day.

- Drive Home Alive: Mudslides, downed wires, avalanches, flash floods, earthquakes... ABC News Correspondent Gio Benitez with a how-to survival guide to best handle potentially deadly roadside scenarios.

MR. RIGHT on MATCH.com

Those who date online might expect a certain amount of innocent fudging in others' profiles; there's always the risk of encountering a liar. But police say when Jeffrey Marsalis created his Match.com profile, his intentions were far less innocent than getting a date. He wasn't just a conman. Cops and criminal prosecutors say he may have been the worst date-rapist in the nation's history. David Muir updates an investigation into the man who called himself "Dr. Jeff. (OAD: 7/15/09)

Friday, September 6, 2013 (Season Premiere)

SNEAKING SUSPICIONS

Does Michael Wohlschlaeger have terrible luck or is there something more at play in the sudden death of his fifth wife, Shirley Seitz? Seitz died in 2010 from a blunt force head injury. Yet the manner of death was undetermined. And that's not all... 33 years earlier, Wohlschlaeger's first wife, Lynn, died at the age of 25 after choking on a cough drop, and his third wife, Gloria Potts, now alleges that he tried to harm her during their marriage, which ended nearly two decades ago. Jim Avila reports.

Friday, September 13, 2013

SMALL TOWN SCANDAL

Former Mayor Linda Lusk and her husband Kevin Lusk, were one of the most respected couples in Prosser, Washington. Linda was accused of having inappropriate contact with a 14-year-old high school student who also happened to be her daughter's ex-boyfriend. After a police investigation, the once golden couple was under siege. Linda admits that what started out as a maternal and nurturing relationship with the boy, turned terribly. But how much of the story was true? David Muir updates a report with an exclusive new surprising interview with Linda.

Friday, September 20, 2013

- Bulldozer: What would drive a Port Angeles, Washington man to destroy his neighbor's property with a bulldozer? Jay Schadler reports on the ultimate neighbor nightmare, including exclusive video of the unbelievable act in progress.
- Neighbor From Hell: Lori Christensen made it her mission to ruin the lives of Kim and Greg Hoffman's lives. Her brand of terror was wide ranging. She had agreed to plead guilty to violating a harassment restraining order and receive 10 years probation and "stay away" order that would have kept her out of her house for a decade. Last week she submitted a motion to withdraw her guilty plea, suggesting it had been coerced. Amy Robach reports.
- Nextdoor.com: It's billed as a customized social network for individual neighborhoods – a way to connect, to problem-solve, even to fight crime. Nextdoor.com is a high-tech neighborhood watch, where neighbors can post personal observations and security cam images. But is it also just another way to gossip or to spy? Nick Watt reports.
- A Lethal Line in the Sand: Matt Gutman reports the tale of two neighbors...a do-gooder who devoted his life to helping children and the elderly, and the other, an intellectual, an inventor, and immigrant carving out his American dream. Neither of them are magnets for trouble. So how does one of them end up in jail and the other in the morgue over bushes that separated their homes?

BETRAYAL

- Remeo Jo Lee had always dreamed of becoming a mom. Earlier this year, she was thrilled when she became pregnant with the baby of her boyfriend John Andrew Welden, a medical student and the son of a prominent gynecologist. But what happened next is unthinkable. Lee lost the baby after Welden deliberately switched her medication without her knowledge. In an exclusive network interview, she speaks candidly to Elizabeth Vargas.
- Who killed family man, churchgoer and former marine Randy Stone? It was a mystery that baffled the community members who turned up for the funeral and listened to David Love give a stirring, heart-felt eulogy. But mourners weren't the only ones in attendance... detectives were there as well, because they believed the killer might be attending the funeral.

20/20 SATURDAY

Saturday, July 6, 2013

- The Bling Ring: There's a new brat pack in Hollywood, and police say it's comprised of teenagers hungry for celebrity status. The man at the center of this accused group of teen burglars, known as the infamous "bling ring," sits down with ABC News to talk about the details of their alleged crimes. (OAD 3/5/10)
- How Well Do You Know Your BFF: A small town girl leaves Washington for the glitz and glamour of Los Angeles. Like so many other Hollywood hopefuls, Meili Cady hoped to make it big on the silver screen, but the 19-year-old also longed for friendship. One day the aspiring actress was introduced to Lisette Lee, a wealthy young socialite, Meili struggled to make ends meet - until her good friend proposed the perfect solution -- take a position as her executive assistant. The job seemed simple enough. As Elizabeth Vargas reports, Meili says she had no idea that her troubles were just beginning... she had become a drug trafficker. (OAD 3/29/13)

Saturday, July 13, 2013

- The Performers: Theresa Caputo is your average suburban mom -- with one major exception: she says she talks to dead people. In the last several years she has parlayed her "sixth sense" into stardom with her hit TLC show, "Long Island Medium." There is rarely a moment when Theresa is not describing messages from spirits she says are looking to connect with their loved ones in the physical world.
- The Power of Premonitions: Have you ever had a gut feeling or a hunch that later came true? You may have actually experienced a premonition. Elizabeth Vargas meets people who say they've experienced the two most likely types.
- Proof of Heaven: Five years ago neurosurgeon Dr. Eben Alexander contracted a brain infection that brought him to the brink of death. So close, in fact, that he believes he went to Heaven. But Heaven apparently wasn't ready for Dr. Alexander. He survived, and shares his tale and his No. 1 bestselling book, Proof of Heaven, with Vargas.
- Animal Premonitions: "20/20" looks at the sixth sense and predictive abilities of animals. Jay Schadler reports.
- Do You Have the Gift?: Laura Day believes she has the power of premonitions and has turned it into a lucrative career as a psychic advisor to major corporations – advising them on everything from hiring decisions to investments and mergers. How and why do some people have this ability?

Saturday, August 3, 2013

SIXTH SENSE

When nothing adds up and a gut feeling is all you have, forget about your five senses... what you really need is the sixth sense. Featuring an interview with "Long Island Medium" Theresa Caputo, who says she can communicate with the dead, "The Sixth Sense," is anchored by Elizabeth Vargas.

- How Well Do You Know Your Boyfriend?: Do you think you know your new boyfriend? Do you think saying, "Maybe we should just be friends" is the way to end it and just walk away? Soraida Hicks says to think again. David Muir reports. (OAD: 3/29/13)
- Looking for Love: From a professional cuddling service to make-out parties, Dan Harris reports on the crazy and sometimes extreme tactics people do to seek love and affection in today's hectic world.
- Sniff Your Way to Love: It's the new trend in the world of dating that's spreading throughout the country -- Pheromone Parties. At these get-togethers, singles submit a T-shirt that has been slept in for three consecutive nights so that other participants can pick the scent that is most appealing to them. ABC News Correspondent Nick Watt reports.
- Wacky Wedding Proposals: It used to take just a ring, a drop to one knee and those four magical words, but today it seems a successful proposal needs to wow not only your girlfriend but millions online. Elizabeth Vargas reveals some of the wackiest and most romantic viral proposals.

THE LOOKOUT

A survival guide to the modern consumer jungle, this weekly broadcast will offer a mix of compelling undercover investigations and lively dispatches separating fact from fiction about how you spend your money. ABC's powerhouse team of correspondents will report.

Wednesday, July 3, 2013

- Undercover Mechanic: ABC is on the lookout for what you should know when you go into an auto repair shop. We take a real mechanic and send her undercover with Correspondent Elisabeth Leamy to repair shops for some simple fixes. Our undercover mechanic plays like she doesn't know, but she's an expert when it comes to cars. We also send in two men to the same shops with the same cars...two cars to the same five shops, all rigged with undercover cameras. Our expert bites her tongue while she is in the shops. But you won't want to miss what she says once she's out, and what our cameras catch. Will the shops we visit give our teams a fair shake or will they take them for a ride? (OAD 6/19)
- Undercover House: The Great Pillow Case Fight -- 300, 400, 1000... Does a higher thread count mean a better night's sleep? With the help of a Consumer Reports' textile expert, "ABC's The Lookout" takes to Central park with two queen-sized mattresses to unravel the secrets of thread counts before you spend big. Deborah Roberts reports. (OAD 6/5)
- TSA iPad Theft: (Nightline repeat) After reports of TSA agents stealing from airline passengers around the country, ABC News decided to investigate. We purposely left iPads behind at TSA checkpoints at ten major airports--each with a history of theft by government screeners. At the Orlando airport, the device disappeared, but we tracked it 30 miles away to the home of the TSA officer last seen handling it. (OAD 9/12)
- Skymall: Bill Weir's visit to Skymall HQ in Phoenix, first aired two years ago.... Skymall is the ubiquitous airplane magazine that sells products from the sublime to the ridiculous to millions of American travelers...We have an update with newly trending items. (Originally aired on "Nightline")

- The Ring: It might be the most important decision one makes before popping the question -- buying that diamond engagement ring. Dan Harris went undercover in New York's famous diamond district to see how upfront jewelers would be about the diamonds they sold us. What many consumers may not realize is that some diamond rings are "clarity enhanced," which means that cracks inside the diamond have been treated.
- Bridal Boot Camp: "ABC's The Lookout" follows three brides as they take on Bridalicious Boot Camp in Dallas, Texas to lose that excess weight before their special wedding day. We see their hurdles, frustrations, workouts, dress fittings -- and finally, their weddings. Cecilia Vega unveils who lost the most weight and who won a special prize.
- The Cake Test: Big box supermarkets are now in the wedding cake business, but how do they stack up? "The Lookout" put a cake from big box store Safeway to the taste against a cake baked by a high-end N.Y. cake master and a Betty Crocker cake baked by an ABC News assistant. Paula Faris traveled the cake slices across the country to a special group of cake experts - who won the very unscientific taste test?

Wednesday, July 17, 2013

- Hypoallergenic Cat: After a big publicity splash trumpeting the world's first scientifically proven hypoallergenic cat, hundreds of allergic pet lovers felt it was worth thousands of dollars to solve their sniffing. But then complaints began to surface. So "ABC's The Lookout" took some of these pricey pets to the lab to find out just how special they really are. Dan Harris reports.
- Ordering Flowers: How close do online flower orders come to the pictures that are advertized on their sites? To find out, "ABC's The Lookout" ordered three different flower arrangements from three of the top online sites, For You Flowers, FTD and Teleflora. The arrangements were sent to three ABC News producers in Chicago, Los Angeles and Atlanta, and to Correspondent Paula Faris in New York.
- Mani and the Mob: He's sold stolen cars to unsuspecting customers, but that may be the least of his crimes. Chief Investigative Correspondent Brian Ross tracks down an FBI informant and former Russian Mob figure who's been allowed to live the high life until he is implicated in a murder case.

Wednesday, July 24, 2013

- A Lookout Claim Check: Juju Chang checks out the huge calorie-burning claims made by makers of two new high tech weight loss gadgets. We're taking it to the lab.
- Fine Print: Commercial ads are required to have a level of transparency to protect consumers, but the most important information is often reduced to the fine print, or in the case of radio, to fast talk. "ABC's The Lookout" examines some of the tricks of the trade when it comes to obscure disclaimers. Linsey Davis reports.
- Dogs Day Out: Americans love their dogs, and now there are new ways to lavish luxury on your pet pooch. But do they really need or even want it? Nick Watt takes a few four-legged friends out on the town.
- Ice Cream "Study": It shouldn't take much to sell ice cream in the middle of a hot summer. "The Lookout" considers Baskin Robbins' new research linking ice cream flavor to personality traits, and takes to the street to see if the study passes our own taste and smell test. Gio Benitez reports.

Wednesday, July 31, 2013

- Flood Car Investigation: When Superstorm Sandy hit the Northeast last fall, an estimated quarter of a million cars were submerged for days in corrosive salt water. Now tens of thousands of those cars are washing up on used car lots across the country. Bill Weir and the "Lookout" team go undercover to show consumers how to spot these potentially dangerous cars.
- Hyper-milers: "ABC's The Lookout's" Jon Donovan shares the secrets of miles millionaires who freeload the friendly skies.
- Pet Psychic: Think you know your pet? Would you pay up to $200 to find out what's on your pet's mind? Cecilia Vega is on the lookout for pet lovers.

Wednesday, August 7, 2013

- Boosters: Rings of organized shoplifters are driving up retail prices. Matt Gutman is embedded with sheriffs on a Central Florida investigation.
- Debt Collectors: How far is too far when it comes to debt collectors? "ABC's The Lookout" turns the tables on an agency that just might have crossed the line. Elisabeth Leamy is on the case.
- All-Inclusive Vacations – Correspondent Paula Faris, her husband and two children go undercover on vacation in Mexico to learn what to look out for when booking that all-inclusive trip. Also, from restaurants, oceanfront rooms and room décor, an expert shows us how sometimes online photos can be deceiving. (OAD 6/12/13)
- Gourmet Dog Food: How much would you pay to feed your pooch? "ABC's The Lookout's" Reena Ninan is in search of dog foodies.

Wednesday, August 14, 2013

- Infomercial King Kevin Trudeau Update: The US government won a lawsuit against infomercial king Kevin Trudeau, saying he has to pay $37 million back for misleading costumers about a weight loss program he was selling. But Trudeau didn't pay. In the premiere episode of "ABC's The Lookout," Bill Weir went in search of Trudeau, finding him living in Switzerland, claiming he has no assets. Now Trudeau is back in the U.S., and back in court. Are his days of living large finally over?
- Extreme Couponers: Stores have tightened their policies on couponing, but that hasn't stopped two extreme couponers. "ABC's The Lookout" pits the two famed couponing divas against each other to see who can help keep more money in your pocket. Juju Chang reports.
- Airline Ticket Prices -- Our bags are packed and we are heading to the airport to find out if and why you are paying more for your airplane ticket than the person sitting next to you. Plus, Correspondent Linsey Davis asks experts: Are there really tricks to buying cheap tickets? (OAD: 6/12/13)
- Gas Meters: Think that gas pump meter is accurate? Think again. Cecilia Vega looks at the efforts to calibrate gas pumps, the army of workers out on the road testing them, and how a pump can 'creep' – sometimes picking your pocket and sometimes giving you a little surprise. (OAD: 6/26/13)

- The Preacher's Son: Ephren Taylor used the pulpit of some of the country's biggest megachurches to quote the bible and allegedly take millions of dollars from parishioners. The feds say he needs to pay up. Taylor has dodged the court and our cameras before. But ABC News Correspondent Steve Osunsami and "ABC's The Lookout" track him down.
- Irresistible Summer Food Treats: Summer treats are everywhere and hard to resist. ABC News Correspondent Paula Faris, with the help of Dave Zinczenko, ABC News' Nutrition and Wellness Editor and author of the best-selling book, Eat This, Not That, look at which treats are the least fattening.
- Germs!: "ABC's The Lookout's" "germ team" joins Correspondent Nick Watt and a germaphobic mom and her family on the great American road trip to investigate where an average family encounters the most germs and what dangers they may pose. (OAD: 6/12/13)

- Yo-Yo Car Finance: Done deal on that used car purchase? Better check the small print. Brian Ross takes a closer look at a growing practice in the car trade associated with conditional car sales. Consumer advocates and government regulators say some car dealers attempt to renegotiate a used car sale with more expensive terms after the consumer takes delivery. Dealers say they need the ability to work out a new deal or undo the deal if financing falls through. Brian Ross investigates.
- Skimmer Scam: One swipe of your credit card at the gas pump is all it takes for a new breed of digital thieves to steal your money. It's all part of a high-tech crime wave called "Skimmers," in which tiny credit card readers are criminally installed inside gas pumps to record credit card information. A former hacker takes The Lookout inside this criminal subculture and shows how this works and what consumers can do to protect. Nick Watt reports.
- Make Up Wars: How much do you really have to spend on make-up to achieve a perfect look that lasts all day? The Lookout puts a spectrum of cosmetics through extreme conditions to find out. Juju Chang reports.
- Real Estate Update: In June, The Lookout's Cynthia McFadden profiled realtor Dottie Herman's 24-hour makeover of a small suburban house that stayed empty on the market for months. The Lookout has an update to the story with news that the house is now in contract and will soon become someone's new home. (OAD: 6/26/13)
- Online Flowers: Have you ever wondered if the bouquet you just received looks like what your cousin in Vermont picked out for you online? How close do online flower orders come to the pictures that are advertized on their websites? Paula Faris tests three online flower companies to see if what the consumer views online is really what the recipient gets at their doorstep. (OAD: 7/17/13)

Wednesday, September 4, 2013

- The Mortgage Rescue: Thinking of lowering your mortgage payments? Be careful whom you trust... Brian Ross and ABC News Fixer Stephanie Zimmerman try to save one woman's home from foreclosure after she was allegedly cheated by a company that said it would help fix her financial problems. "ABC's The Lookout" with a cautionary tale for homeowners.
- Online Rental Scams: It is happening all over the country: internet scammers posing as home owners to rent out properties that are real but not theirs to rent out. Cynthia McFadden is on the lookout to help make sure your dream rental doesn't turn into a horror story.
- Vegas Survival Guide: They say what happens in Vegas stays in Vegas. And, as Rebecca Jarvis reports, that often includes visitors' money -- without ever walking into the casinos. "ABC's The Lookout" with a can't-miss Vegas survival guide that will help beat the odds in keeping the cash in your pocket.
- Rental Cars: "ABC's The Lookout" hits the road to show how you get the best deal on a rental car with the help of Vroomvroomvroom.com's David Eastes.
- Mattress Wars: How much does it cost to get a good night's sleep? "ABC's The Lookout" puts a spectrum of mattresses to the test to find out.
- Flood Cars Update: This summer Bill Weir reported on dangerous flood cars from Hurricane Sandy that have washed up on used cars lots throughout the country. Weir's report has led to an about face by a major insurance company and a potential change in how the industry handles such cars. A complete report is will air on "Nightline" Wednesday.

48 HOURS

07/06/13

48 HOURS: "Shattered Dreams" - A report about David Ditto, a husband accused of killing his wife, Katrina Ditto and possibly drugging his children. In March 2011, David Ditto called 911 to say his wife had fallen down a flight of stairs in their Mira Mesa, California home and slammed her head on a tile floor. First responders were suspicious of Ditto's version of what happened because of the extent of Katrina's injuries and the positioning of the body. Ditto said he tried to administer CPR, which they also doubted. Katrina Ditto died two days later. The Medical Examiner ruled that Katrina was beaten and strangled; Ditto was charged with murder. Investigators discovered that the image of the couple's seemingly perfect marriage was a facade. Katrina met David while he was on a vacation in Mexico in 1993, married him and moved to the U.S. knowing little English. They had two children. She had written letters to her mother in Mexico, detailing the fact that David was very controlling and she often wondered why she had married him. She had recently tried to break free, getting a job and having control of her own money for the first time in her life. Investigators also questioned why the teenage children, asleep in the home that night, never woke up, given the number of people in the house that night. They suspected the children had been drugged. David Ditto took the stand during the trial, giving emotional testimony; however, he was found guilty.

Onscreen text graphic: David Ditto will be eligible for parole in 2037. He will be 70 years old. To this day, Ditto insists he's innocent and has hired a new defense attorney to file an appeal. Four months before Katrina Ditto's death, David took out a life insurance policy for his family in the event of his wife's death, he would have collected $150,000. He never did. Onscreen text graphic for the 07/06/13 rebroadcast: Four months before Katrina died, David Ditto took out a family life insurance policy. He never got to collect it. David Ditto insists he's innocent and is appealing his conviction. David Ditto will be eligible for parole in 2037. He will be seventy years old.

Interviewed: David Ditto; Pat Doughty and Maggie Cascio, Ditto's mother and sister; Silvia Benitez, Katrina Ditto's mother; Lisa Chandler, first responder; Jonathan Mota, co-worker of Katria Ditto; Claudine Ruiz, San Diego prosecutor; JC Smith, San Diego homicide detective; Dr. Othon Mena, San Diego City Medical Examiner; Keith Rutman, Ditto's defense attorney; jurors Francine Foman-Maisel, Christine Ellis, Patricia Woelk. 48 HOURS (continued)

48 HOURS: "Chasing the Barefoot Bandit" (9:00-10:00p) - A report on Colton Harris-Moore, also known as the "Barefoot Bandit," because of his habit of committing crimes barefoot and leaving chalk outlines of his feet; and whose criminal exploits included stealing planes, guns, yachts, and even escaping to foreign countries. His exploits reminded many of legendary outlaws like Jesse James, and as news of his crimes spread beyond the Pacific Northwest, his popularity grew, even spawning Facebook fan pages. Born on Camano Island, Washington, Harris-Moore was an unpopular teen, physically neglected and mentally abused by his mother, Pam Kohler. He wanted to become a pilot, but instead turned to a life of crime at age 10, stealing laptops, cell phones, and jewelry. He was arrested and sent to a halfway house, but escaped custody and continued breaking into vacation homes and leaving his mark. He even ordered a DVD on learning to fly a plane with a stolen credit card. In 2008, he stole his first plane, crashing it 250 miles away from where he stole it, and simply walked away. He then worked in Las Vegas, then went to Canada and stole guns. In 2009, he stole his second plane, and the legend of Colton Harris-Moore was born. After stealing his third plane, the Department of Homeland Security joined in the hunt; but he still avoided capture. In 2010, he stole an airplane in Bloomington, Indiana and flew it to Abaco Island in the Bahamas, where he continued to commit break-ins. While 48 HOURS was on his trail in the Bahamas, he allegedly stole a yacht and escaped to the nearby Bahamian island of Eleuthera. He was spotted by some local teens who, knowing about the $10,000 reward offered for his capture, chased him by boat. Police joined in the hunt, and Harris-Moore was finally captured. Deported from the Bahamas, he is was returned to the U.S., where he was indicted on federal charges for stealing two planes, guns, a boat and flying without a license. He faces ten years behind bars. Onscreen graphics: Colton Harris-Moore will be arraigned Thursday in federal court. He faces additional charges in several states. Colton and his mother have not seen each other since his arrest. She's had offers to buy Colton's story and has hired a well-known entertainment lawyer. Interviewed: Ashley Martin, childhood friend of Colton; Jessica Wesson, classmate; Paul Ciolino, 48 HOURS investigator; Bob Friel, Harris-Moore biographer; Jacquie Staggs, friend of Colton's mother; Harley Davidson Ironwing, burglary accomplice; Colleen Armstrong, editor of the local newspaper on Orcas Island; Kyle Ater, owner of the Orcas Homegrown Market, allegedly burglarized by Colton; Suzanne Vidal, local realtor; Marion Rathbone, operator of Vern's restaurant; Bob Rivers, Seattle radio personality and owner of the first stolen plane; Hi Stickney, Kelly Kneifl, Kristen Jones, Gary Martin Sawyer, victims of Colton's; James Coakley, club owner; Kenny Strachan, security guard; Jordan Sackett, American tourist. Update for the 06-18-11
Rebroadcast: On June 17, 2011 Colton Harris Moore plead guilty to seven federal criminal charges in U.S. District Court in Seattle and could face up to 6 ½ years in prison. Onscreen graphics: Colton Harris-Moore will be sentenced on the federal charges in October. Interviewed: Jenny Durkan, U.S. Attorney for the Western District of Washington; John Henry Browne, Colton's attorney; Paul Ciolino, 48 HOURS investigator. Addendum for the 07/13/13 rebroadcast: Colton has been behind bars for nearly three years. A manager at Boeing has become a mentor, encouraging him to pursue his dreams of one day working in aviation. Addendum includes a brief interview with Jonathan Standridge, Boeing executive; and an onscreen text graphic: Colton Harris-Moore could be released from prison as early as December, 2016. He will be twenty-five years old. (C: Peter Van Sant - P: Paul LaRosa, Sarah Prior) (OAD: 11/13/10; 1st rebroadcast: 06/18/11 - includes an update.)

07/13/13      48 HOURS: "Crazy Love" (10:00-11:00p) - A report on the investigation into the 2009 murder of millionaire Ben Novack, Jr. in Rye Brook, New York. Novack was the son of Bernice and Benjamin Novack, Sr., who once owned the famed Miami hotspot, The Fontainebleau Hotel, where the rich and famous came to stay in the 1960s. When the family lost their fortune and the hotel in the 70's, Benji was inspired to start his own business planning conferences for corporate clients, which earned him millions. Friends described him as a brat who ruled his empire by fear and who had a lot of enemies. Police suspected his wife Nancy, but did not have enough evidence to charge her; then they received a letter, in Spanish, which stated that Nancy Novack and her brother Cristobal Veliz were responsible for the crime. Police believed that Veliz had hired two men, Alejandro Garcia and Joel Gonzalez to kill Benji Novack. After arresting the two, Gonzalez implicated Novack and Veliz, along with Garcia. They were arrested on murder charges. A year later, reporter Julie Brown began looking into the circumstances of Bernice Novack's death, said to be from a fall. Convinced she had discovered a murder, she took her findings to the Fort Lauderdale police department. And as investigators were making a deal with Alejandro Garcia to testify against Nancy and Cristobal, he revealed he had also been hired to attack Bernice. Novack and Veliz were once again charged with murder. The motive: Nancy Novack knew Benji was having an affair and the pre-nuptial agreement only guaranteed her $65,000 in the event of a divorce. She had to kill Benji and his mother to get all the money. On screen text graphic: Nancy Novack and her brother Cristobal Veliz were sentenced to life in prison without the possibility of parole. Detective Alison Carpentier retired from Westchester County Police after the arrests. Ben Novack's fortune is still tied up in a Florida probate court. Revised onscreen text graphic for the 07/13/13 rebroadcast: Nancy Novack and her brother Cristobal Veliz were sentenced to life in prison without the possibility of parole. They plan to appeal their convictions. Detective Alison Carpentier retired from Westchester County Police after their arrests. Ben Novack's fortune is still tied up in a Florida probate court. 07/20/13

48 HOURS: "Secrets, Lies and Alibis" (9:00-10:00p) - On August 22, 2004, John and Susan Sutton had a family get together in their Coral Gables, Florida home, that included their son Christopher, his girlfriend Juliette Driscoll, and Teddy Montoto, John's law partner and friend. Afterwards, when Teddy had left and John and Juliette had gone to a movie, John and Susan retired to separate bedrooms -- Susan often slept in the second room because John snored. Sometime later in the evening, a gunman entered their bedrooms and shot both of them several times. Susan was killed, but John survived. Nothing was taken from the house -- not money, nor jewelry. There was no doubt that this was a premeditated effort to make sure that they were dead. Police interrogation of Teddy Montoto revealed that he had been having an affair with Susan, but further investigation eliminated him as a suspect. Interviews with some of John's closest friends suggested that the Suttons' son, Christopher, should be investigated as a suspect. He had been sent to a behavioral program, Paradise Cove, on the Polynesian islands of Samoa, when he was 16. He claims he was abused there and tried to tell his parents about it, but they didn't believe him, and he was kept there until he was 19. He became the prime suspect. After checking his cell phone records, authorities noticed more than 300 calls to his friend Garrett Kopp, who had been arrested less than 24 hours after the Suttons shooting for attacking someone else with a gun. That turned out to be the same gun that was used to shoot the Suttons. Kopp told police that he was hired by his friend Christopher Sutton to kill his parents. Christopher's then-fiancée Juliette Driscoll told the police that Christopher had a deep-seated resentment towards his parents for sending him to Samoa. She said he often spoke of how great their lives would be if his parents were dead. Garrett Kopp and Juliette Driscoll testified against Christopher in court. Christopher claimed that Kopp had gone to the Suttons' house to steal marijuana and that Driscoll testified against him because she had been threatened by police. After a day and a half of deliberations, the jury found Christopher Sutton guilty of first-degree murder as charged. He was sentenced to life in prison with no possibility of parole. Onscreen graphics: Christopher Sutton is planning to appeal his conviction. Hit man Garrett Kopp is scheduled to be released in 2035. John Sutton vows he will fight to keep Kopp and his son Christopher behind bars. Onscreen text graphic for the 07/20/13 rebroadcast: Christopher Sutton's appeal was denied. Hit man Garrett Kopp is scheduled to be released on 2035. John Sutton vows he will fight to keep Kopp and his son Christopher behind bars. Interviewed: John Sutton; Melissa Sutton, Christopher's sister; Mary Marier, Susan Sutton's sister; Rosanna Cordero, Miami-Dade Detective; Larry Belyeu, lead Detective; Christopher Sutton; Erik Polk, friend of Christopher; Randy Rogers, who was at Paradise Cove with Christopher; Juliette Driscoll, Christopher's fiancée; Kathleen Hoague and Carin Kahgan, prosecutors; Bruce Fleisher, Christopher's attorney; Mitchell Kopp, Garrett's father. 48 HOURS: "Long Island Serial Killer" (10:00-11:00p) - a second followup report to "Long Island Serial Killer" (OAD: 07/12/11; 1st rebroadcast: 12/17/11) on the disappearance of professional escort Shannan Gilbert, near Gilgo Beach, New York. The search for Shannan led to the discovery of a total of ten bodies in the scrub brush of Gilgo Beach, Long Island, New York, leading police to suspect the work of a serial killer. In this report, Suffolk County Police Commissioner Richard Dormer appears in his first one-on-one interview with Correspondent Erin Moriarty since remains identified as Shannan's were found this week. The other identified bodies included: Melissa Barthelemy, Amber Costello, Megan Waterman, and Maureen Brainard-Barnes, all who had been working as escorts, advertising their services on Craigslist. After police found and identified the previous four women, they discovered more bodies and body parts along the beach. Possible suspects include: Joseph Brewer, who hired Shannan; Michael Pak, Shannan's driver, who took her to Brewer's house; and Peter Hackett, a retired emergency services doctor who called Shannan's mother a few days after she went missing. Interviewed: Sherre and Sarra Gilbert, Shannan's sisters; Suffolk County Police Commissioner Richard Dormer (new and original footage); Attorney Robin Sax who was hired by the Gilbert family to help with the investigation of Shannan's disappearance; Gus Colletti, whose house Shannan ran to for help, resident of Oak Beach and neighbor of Joseph Brewer; Lynn Barthelemy, Melissa's mother; Steven Cohen, the Barthelemy family attorney; Vernon Geberth, retired New York City homicide commander; Dave Schaller, Amber Costello's roommate; Lorraine Ela, Megan Waterman's mother; and Melissa Cann, Maureen Brainard-Barnes' sister. (Andrew Strickler, a crime reporter with Long Island's Newsday, who had appeared in the original 07/12/11 broadcast, did not appear in the 12/17/11 rebroadcast or the 06/23/12 rebroadcast.) Onscreen graphics: Suffolk County Crime Stoppers is offering a cash reward of up to $25,000 for information leading to an arrest in the Long Island Serial Killer case. The 06-23-12 followup includes: an interview with John Ray, attorney for the Gilbert family. Authorities still believe Shannan was not a victim of foul play. Ray put the police's theory to the test by traveling into the marsh at the same time of year and day on what police believe was Shannan's path. Ray highlights houses nearby where Shannan most likely would have traveled to, the harshness of the marsh indicating Shannan would not have taken off her clothes, and shallow waters where her body was found making it unlikely for her to have drowned. Ray and his team did this to further defend his theory that Shannan was murdered in connection with the serial killer and believes her remains were dumped 100 ft. off of Ocean Parkway. The 07/20/13 second followup includes: Interviews with Dominick Varrone, former Suffolk County chief of detectives who speaks for the first time on network television, and with journalist Bob Kolker, who has written a new book about the Long Island cases called, "Lost Girls: An Unsolved American Mystery". Previous interviews with Robin Sax and Vernon Geberth were not included in this rebroadcast. 07/27/13      48 HOURS: LIVE TO TELL: "Black Wave" (8:00-9:00p) - In June 2005, John and Jean Silverwood of San Diego, California, along with their four children, were sailing around the world in their 55-foot catamaran when they struck a hidden reef. A massive wave then forced the 2,500 pound mast to fall on John Silverwood, pinning him to the deck and cutting right through his leg. Through the resourcefulness of his son, Ben, and his wife, Jean, John's blood loss was stopped, and the family was moved to a coral ledge about a hundred feet away from the boat. The signal from their emergency beacon, held by son Jack, enabled the Coast Guard Station in Alameda, California, to pinpoint their location - approximately 350 nautical miles west of Tahiti Papeete. They were finally rescued and John was transported to the hospital in Tahiti. Although his leg had to be amputated, John's life was saved. Includes individual narrations by Jean and John Silverwood and their children: Ben, Amelia, Camille and Jack; Ernie Delli Gatti of Coast Guard Search and Rescue. Onscreen text graphic for the 07/27/13 rebroadcast: The Silverwoods have written a book about their experiences called "Black Wave". 48 HOURS: LIVE TO TELL: “The Railroad Killer” (9:00-10:00p) - A report on the August 29, 1997 attack on two University of Kentucky students as they walked along the railroad tracks in Lexington, Kentucky. Chris Maier was killed by his attacker who then proceeded to stab, beat, and rape Holly Dunn, who miraculously survived her injuries. Fourteen months after Holly’s attack, Dr. Claudia Benton was murdered inside her Houston, Texas area home, located near railroad tracks. Lexington Detective Craig Sorrell received a call from ViCAP, a national crime registry database, linking the crimes. Through fingerprint analysis, they identified Rafael Resendez-Ramirez as the suspect. After his arrest, he was ultimately identified as Angel Maturino Resendiz. His trial started in May of 2000 in Houston; he was found guilty of capital murder. Holly testified in the penalty phase of the trial and identified Resendiz in court. The jury decided he was a future danger to society and the judge sentenced him to death. He was executed in June of 2006. Holly chose not to attend the execution. She has dedicated her life to helping other victims and founded Holly’s House, a child and adult advocacy center in Evansville, Indiana. Onscreen graphics: By the time of his execution, Resendiz was linked to at least fifteen murders in six states. Authorities learned he killed a teenage couple in Florida, just months before he attacked Chris and Holly. Onscreen text graphic for the 08/03/13 rebroadcast: By the time of his execution, Resendez was linked to at least fifteen murders in six states. 48 HOURS: “Desperate Measures” (10:00-11:00p) - a report about a wealthy married couple, Dennis and Merna Koula, who were found shot dead in their Wisconsin home, and the questions that arose surrounding the circumstances of their May 2010 murder. Though elderly, both continued to work, Dennis at a pharmacy and Merna as a teacher, even after Dennis sold his car dealership and the chain of pharmacies he owned. Eric Koula and his sister, Cindy Cowell, each with families of their own, were close to their parents. Both received money from their wealthy father: Eric received hundreds of thousands of dollars to start a career as a day trader, but Cindy received less compared to her brother. At first, police believed that the couple was targeted for assassination. Days later, police received their first clue: neighbor Steve Burgess, the president of a local bank, had received death threats. The police initially suspected a case of mistaken identity when, after checking an Internet map site, the Koulas’ house was identified as the Burgess residence. A timeline was established, and a time of death was determined from the last keystroke Merna Koula made on her computer. Police kept this information a secret. The lead regarding possible mistaken identity turned into a dead end and attention turned to the Koula children. Cindy Cowell and her husband had alibis. Then Eric Koula claimed to have received a shocking note in the mail saying “fixed you”. Following protocol, police examined bank records and discovered that Eric Koula had received a check from his father and had cashed it after their deaths. Investigators started to take a closer look at Eric’s entire story. They discovered that Eric was in financial trouble. Helen Van Roo, a co-worker of Dennis, told police that Dennis had told her that he was going to stop giving his children money. Eric Koula became the target of the investigation and was eventually arrested and charged with two counts of first-degree intentional homicide. In June 2012, the trial began. Eric Koula was found guilty of murdering his parents and the additional charge of forging his father’s name on a check. Onscreen Text Graphic: Eric Koula received nothing from his parents’ estate. 08/10/13

48 HOURS: LIVE TO TELL: "Hunting Humans" (9:00-10:00p) - On July 29, 2007 Shea McDonough of Chelmsford, Massachusetts, returned home and left the back door open for her brother, not knowing he was spending the night at a friend's house. Hours later, her parents were startled by a sound coming from her room. They thought Shea was having a bad dream. When her father Kevin went to her room to check on her, he saw a large masked man standing over her with a knife at her throat. He jumped on top of him and they struggled and tumbled to the floor. His wife Jeannie came to the room and tried to grab the blade of the knife with her bare hand. Kevin told Shea to call 911. When the police arrived they were able to apprehend the intruder, Adam Leroy Lane, a trucker from North Carolina. A search of his truck revealed more weapons and a DVD about a serial killer, entitled "Hunting Humans". Police put out an APB to other police departments on the East Coast to see if there were similar incidents. Seventeen days before the attack on the McDonough family, a Pennsylvania woman, Darlene Ewalt, was murdered while talking on the phone on her front porch. Her husband Todd would become the prime suspect. One day before the attack on the McDonough family, Monica Massaro of Bloomsbury, New Jersey was murdered in her home, which was in the vicinity of a truck stop. Detective Sergeant Geoff Noble had seen the APB about Lane and contacted the police in Chelmsford. They told him they had found a receipt in Lane's truck from Bloomsbury, New Jersey. When Noble arrived in Chelmsford, he and his team inquired about the whereabouts of Lane's truck and were told that the rented truck had been returned to its owner, who threw Lane's possessions into a dumpster. They retrieved his personal property and sent it back to their forensic lab in New Jersey. Before they returned home, they questioned Lane, who realized they knew he had killed Monica Massaro so he eventually confessed to stabbing her. Several weeks after his knives were submitted to the forensic lab in New Jersey, the results showed that they contained DNA from Monica Massaro and Darlene Ewalt. This information exonerated Todd Ewalt. Lane reached a plea bargain in the McDonough case and was sentenced to 25-30 years in a Massachusetts state prison. For the murder of Monica Massaro, he was sentenced to serve 50 years in a New Jersey state prison. As part of another guilty plea deal, Lane was sentenced to life in prison for killing Darlene Ewalt. The McDonough family attended all of the sentencing hearings to support the other families. Jeannie McDonough wanted to know what would make someone like Lane start killing people and decided to write a book about it. Onscreen graphics: Adam Leroy Lane was convicted of assaulting another woman in Pennsylvania. He will spend the rest of his life in prison. Jeannie finished her book, "Caught in the Act". Onscreen text graphic for the 08/10/13 rebroadcast: Adam Lane has been linked to two more attacks on women, one in Pennsylvania and one in New York. Both victims survived. New Jersey victim Monica Massaro's birthday is tomorrow. She would have been 45. Narrated by: Shea, Jeannie and Kevin McDonough; Detective George Tyros of the Chelmsford Police Department; Todd Ewalt; Ed Marsico, Jr., District Attorney from Pennsylvania; Nicole Pogasic, Todd and Darlene Ewalt's daughter; Kerry Ahern, Assistant District Attorney from Massachusetts; Detective Sergeant Geoff Noble of the New Jersey State Police Department. 48 HOURS: "The Perfect Family" (10:00-11:00p) - Bernie Pyne returned home one day in May 2011 with his young daughter to find his wife Ruth in the garage, brutally beaten and stabbed to death. To outsiders, the Pyne's appeared to be an all-American family. Bernie Pyne was a successful auto engineer who, with his wife, had raised a seemingly happy family in Highland Township, a suburb of Detroit, Michigan. They had two children, the oldest, Jeffrey, was his high school's valedictorian and on his way to college. After Ruth was murdered, police learned the Pyne's were not as perfect as portrayed. The investigation immediately turned to those who lived with Ruth, and they learned Ruth had some psychiatric issues, including arguments and confrontations about taking her medications. Investigators also learned Ruth and Bernie's marriage was fractured, and Bernie had had an affair. They also found Ruth's relationship with their son, Jeffrey, was strained. Ruth's sister Linda Jarvie thought Bernie was responsible for the murder, and given his affair, Bernie understood the suspicions, but he had an ironclad alibi backed by his boss and four witnesses, ruling him out as a suspect. Five months into the investigation, Jeffrey Pyne was charged with his mother's murder. Police had circumstantial evidence against Jeffrey -- blisters on his hands, lies about gardening at his neighbor's home and his detached demeanor when authorities told him what had happened to his mother. In addition, there was no sign of Ruth being sexually assaulted and no sign of a break-in. Before the case went to the jury, Prosecutor John Skrzynski asked the judge for another option for the jurors; a charge of second-degree murder, rather than the original charge of first-degree murder. Skrzynski believed it would make it easier for the jury to convict him. Jeffrey's defense attorney, James Champion, argued against it, but the judge granted the motion. After three days of jury deliberations the verdict was announced, and Jeffrey Pyne was found guilty of second-degree murder. On Screen Text Graphics: Jeffrey Pyne will be sentenced on January 29th. Under Michigan law, he could receive as much as life in prison with parole or as little as a year. Onscreen text graphic for the 08/10/13 rebroadcast: Bernie Pyne and his daughter Julia regularly make the five hour round trip to visit Jeffrey in prison; A new attorney is working on Jeffrey's appeal. The plan is to file before the end of the year. Interviewed: Greg Glover, Oakland County Det. Sgt.; Dave Hendrick, Oakland County Det. Sgt.; Bernie Pyne, father of defendant; Linda Jarvie, Ruth Pyne's sister; James Champion, defense attorney. (C: Tracy Smith - P: Liza Finley, Marc B. Goldbaum, Ruth Chenetz) (OAD: 01/12/13)

48 HOURS: "Memory of Murder" (9:00-10:00p) - In November 2004, Bethlehem, New York couple Peter and Joan Porco were brutally attacked in their bed with an ax. Peter died at the scene. Joan survived and, although initially unable to speak because of her wounds, she nodded "yes" when a detective on the scene asked her if her son Christopher was their attacker. Afterwards, when she had recovered from the attack, Joan said she doesn't recall that nod and that Christopher is innocent. 48 HOURS follows the police investigation into the case, leading to Christopher Porco's trial and conviction. Includes interviews with: Mike McDermott, chief prosecutor, Albany County; Chris Bowdish, detective; Christopher Porco; David Rossi, prosecutor; Laurie Shanks, lawyer; Terry Kindlon, lawyer; Dr. Mary Dombovy, neurologist. Onscreen text graphic for the 08/17/13 rebroadcast: Christopher Porco is serving a sentence of fifty years to life in prison. - 08/17/13 48 HOURS: "Everything to Lose" (10:00-11:00p) - a report on the murder of Dana Clair Edwards and the story of Edwards' mother, Deborah Edwards, who believing the alleged killer, Dana's ex-boyfriend, Jon Thomas Ford (also referred to as Thomas Ford) was actually guilty, tormented him with notes and emails marking anniversaries, birthdays and holidays; each note including a reference to her daughter. Dana Clair Edwards was found dead in her home in San Antonio, Texas just after New Year's 2009. She was last seen alive leaving a New Year's Eve party just after midnight. Police believed the killer had also murdered her beloved rescue dog, Grit, and dumped his lifeless body two miles from the crime scene. Police interviewed friends and acquaintances, including John Thomas Ford. Though no longer a couple, they each attended the same New Year's Eve party. Prosecutors soon believed that he was their main suspect, but the investigation dragged on and Ford remained a free man. Deborah Edwards became frustrated with the pace of the investigation and started writing to Ford. She sent the notes for months. Finally, a year after the murder, a break occurred in the case and Ford was arrested on murder charges. There were many mistakes made in the investigation, including lost surveillance footage and evidence, but prosecutors believed they could get a conviction despite Ford having hired a famed defense attorney: Dick Deguerin. In fact, one of the prosecutors was a former student of Deguerin. The trial commenced and prosecutors were at first worried, but they used cell phone records to map his movements and dispute his alibi. He was found guilty. On-screen text graphic: Thomas Ford is appealing his conviction. He will be eligible for parole in twenty years. The remains of Dana Clair and Grit were laid to rest one month after the conclusion of the trial. Onscreen text graphic for the 08/17/13 rebroadcast: Thomas Ford has until August 27th to appeal his conviction. - 08/31/13 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Every Picture Tells a Story" (9:00-10:00p) - On February 15, 2009, Cathy McNaughton was stabbed to death in her home in Sharpsburg, Georgia. The day had started with her husband Alec serving her breakfast in bed. He said he then went to visit his mother in Sandy Springs, Georgia, about an hour away. When he returned home, he says he found his wife in a pool of blood. As the victim's husband, he was a suspect, but he had an alibi. Another suspect was Cathy's former husband, Gary Mendenhall, who had been in town that day. He also had an alibi. Alec claimed to be at his mother's house until the evening. He said that he had called Cathy at 2:30PM from his mother's house, but records showed the call originated from a cell phone tower only two miles from his house in Sharpsburg. He also claimed that he made a 911 call while kneeling down next to Cathy's body, but he had no blood on him. Alec's friends and family members started calling police to say they were afraid of him and that he was abusive. Alec's first wife, Linda, said he had beaten her and that is why they were divorced. Police discovered a secret file about Alec that Cathy kept in the closet. There were disposable cameras with pictures of a bruised and battered Cathy. Alec was arrested, but the prosecutor could not show these pictures to the jury until they found the photographer. Their investigation led them to Sandra Harmon, who had been a counselor at Delta Airlines where Cathy had worked. Cathy told her that Alec had attacked and beaten her the day before, and she asked Sandra to take pictures of her injuries. Prosecutors were now able to present these pictures as evidence. Another previous wife said that Alec had pulled a shotgun on their daughter and threatened to kill their daughter, her and himself. During the trial Alec took the stand and denied everything his accusers said about him. The jury found him guilty of murder and he was stunned by the verdict. Onscreen text graphic: Alec McNaughton was sentenced to life in prison. McNaughton is now represented by a public defender and is planning an appeal. Onscreen text graphic for the 08/31/13 rebroadcast: Alec McNaughton was sentenced to life in prison. 08/31/13

48 HOURS: "Collision Course" (10:00-11:00p) - Brittney Brashers, a 21-year-old Air Force member, died while driving home with her ex-boyfriend, Robbie Walters in November, 2009. On the surface, her death seemed like an accident; however, Robbie had walked away from the car crash unscathed, which posed questions to authorities. The Denver, Colorado Police and Detective Troy Bisgard were convinced they had a homicide on their hands and that Robbie was responsible-- but they had no way to prove it. All along, Robbie maintained he was a passenger in the car and told police he didn't know what happened since he was falling asleep because the two of them had been drinking. Medical Examiner John Carver noticed that Brittney's injuries did not seem to come from the car accident when he saw bruising around her temple and upper right cheek. Instead, Carver thought Brittney was hit on her right side and strangled... but he came up short with evidence to prove this was a homicide. A breakthrough in the case occurred when Robbie's wife Elena took a call from Det. Bisgard. Throughout his relationship with Brittney and after Brittney died, Robbie Walters had been married. After Brittney died, and knowing all about their affair, Elena took Robbie back. Elena told Det. Bisgard that she had recorded Robbie confessing to murdering Elena more than a dozen times. Three days after speaking with Elena, Det. Bisgard flew to California where the couple lived and arrested Robbie, charging him with first-degree murder. While awaiting trial, Robbie enlisted a fellow inmate to help him arrange to have Elena killed, but the inmate turned out to be a witness for the prosecution. Robbie was charged with soliciting Elena's murder. At the trial the jury took two days to deliberate and found Robbie guilty of murder. Jurors acquitted Robbie of conspiring to murder Elena. Robbie was sentenced to life without parole. Onscreen text graphic: Elena Walters now lives in an undisclosed location under a new name. Interviewed: Steve Sanchez, 911 caller; Barry Brashers, Brittney's dad; John Brashers, Brittney's brother; Robbie Walters, Brittney's ex-boyfriend; Detective Troy Bisgard; Ret. Master Sgt. - 09/29/13 46TH SEASON PREMIERE
- “The Secretary of State” – in a wide-ranging interview conducted during this week’s annual United Nations General Assembly, Secretary of State John Kerry discusses a deal negotiated with the help of the Russians, which prevented a potential U.S. air strike, for the surrender of Syria’s chemical weapons. Additionally, Iran’s new President Hassan Rouhani said last week he would open his nuclear program to U.N. inspection, if the U.N. will lift crippling economic sanctions, leading for the first time since the 1979 Iran-Hostage Crisis, to high level negotiations between and the United States. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Henry Schuster)
- “Imminent Danger” – an examination of America’s mental health system, which many experts believe is failing those with severe mental illnesses. In the last seven years, the shooters in about half of the twenty-three mass shooting incidents in the U.S. -- Virginia Tech, Aurora, Colorado, and the recent Washington Navy Yard shooting -- have turned out to be severely mentally ill -- not in control of their faculties and not receiving treatment -- and the majority suffered from schizophrenia. Includes interviews with: Dr. E. Fuller Torrey, psychiatrist; Dr. Jeffrey Lieberman, Pres. of American Psychiatric Association; Mike Robertson, schizophrenic and his mother, Linda Doran; Sandra Luckow, documentary filmmaker; Tom Dart, Cook County Sheriff, Chicago; Elli Montgomery, social worker at Cook County Jail. (C: Steve Kroft – P: Coleman Cowan, Graham Messick)
- “Killing Jesus” – an interview with Fox News Channel host of “The O’Reilly Factor”, and best-selling author Bill O’Reilly. His first two books, “Killing Lincoln” and “Killing Kennedy”, co-authored with Martin Dugard have sold over five million copies. His third book, “Killing Jesus” -- also a collaboration with Dugard -- while not a religious book, might prove to be his most controversial title yet. Includes an excerpt from “O’Reilly”(C: Mike Wallace - P: John Hamlin; OAD: 09/26/04) (C: Norah O’Donnell – P: Robert G. Anderson)

- 09/07/13 48 HOURS: “The Usual Suspect” (9:00-10:00p) - a report about the death of Tina Caronna, a Memphis, Tennessee woman with a doting husband and a garage full of cars who disappeared in 2008 and after two days, was found dead in the back seat of her Chevrolet Avalanche. The initial suspicion was carjacking; the only thing certain was homicide. Tina and her husband Joe led a charmed life: both with successful finance careers and a lifestyle that included cars, cruises and casinos. Joe accompanied Tina everywhere; but that meant less time for Tina with her mother and the two became estranged. Law enforcement officials thought the crime scene had been staged; Jerry Hathaway, Joe’s friend and alibi, began to suspect that too. His suspicions were raised when he learned that the Avalanche was found on a dead-end street not far from where the couple’s automobile storage unit was located and he also noticed one too many cars parked at the Caronna’s house. As the investigation continued, financial fraud and a secret affair on Joe’s part were discovered. Investigators asked Joe’s mistress, Becky Black, to wear a wire when meeting with Joe, but doubted that the affair was the motive for the crime. They learned about a home the Caronna’s were planning to buy. Prosecutors believed that Caronna did not want Tina or the bank looking into his finances: his business was a house of cards and he was scamming people, including Tina and his closest friends. Joe disappeared, eventually surrendered and was charged with first-degree murder. Four years later, the trial commenced: Joe Caronna was found guilty and sentenced to life in prison. On-screen text graphic: This week, Joe Caronna pleaded guilty to four of the 57 federal charges of fraud, embezzlement and money laundering. Caronna could face an additional 50 years for the federal charges added to his murder conviction. On-screen text graphic for the 09/07/13 rebroadcast: In late February, Joe Caronna pleaded guilty to four of the fifty-seven federal charges against him... embezzlement, money-laundering and two counts of fraud. That added seven years to his life sentence for murder. Interviewed: Shelby County prosecutor Tom Henderson; prosecution team members Karen Cook and Danielle McCollum; Tina Caronna’s son Todd Gray and her mother Clara Murphy; friends of the couple: Cathy and Matt Struna, Gary and Pat Hathaway; Joe’s mistress Becky Black; Joe’s friend Patricia Turner; jury members Jeanna, Ron and Amy (no last names available). - 09/07/13 48 HOURS: "Death Wish" (10:00-11:00p) - a report on questions surrounding the July 2009 death of Jeffrey Locker, whose body was found slumped over the steering wheel of his car in Harlem, New York. Initially, it appeared that Locker had simply been in the wrong place at the wrong time; however, when authorities tracked Locker's ATM card to Kenneth Minor and questioned him, Minor said Locker had begged Minor to kill him. 48 HOURS MYSTERY interviewed Minor in depth and he described how Locker was circling around a block in Harlem and approached Minor about how to find a gun. Then, Locker told Minor that he wanted him to shoot him. Minor asked for $60, went to buy drugs, and later called Locker and told him he couldn't find a gun. Minor questioned Locker as to why he needed Minor to kill him and Locker explained that he wanted his family to collect millions from his life insurance policies and if he committed suicide, there was no payment on the policy. Furthermore he told Minor how he was caught in a Ponzi scheme and had several lawsuits against him. Minor was promised money from Locker if he helped to kill him, and Locker gave him his ATM card and PIN. As they sat in Locker's car, Minor was asked to get a knife out of the glove compartment, and Locker asked him to hold it at the steering wheel, and Locker lunged at the knife numerous times, killing himself. To help prove Minor's story, his defense lawyer found another man, Melvin Fleming, who said Locker had approached him days prior, with the same request. Instead, Fleming decided to con Locker and did not help him. During Minor's trial, the defense argued that this was a case of assisted suicide. Evidence revealed during the trial highlighted Locker's severe financial troubles, pending lawsuits, and most notably, a multimillion-dollar life insurance policy that Locker had purchased months before his death. The prosecution challenged the assisted suicide claim and argued that Minor was simply a cold-blooded killer. After hours of deliberation, Minor was found guilty of murder and sentenced to 20 years to life. On-Screen text graphics: Locker's widow is suing to get $4 million worth of life insurance from a policy he bought a month-and-a-half before his death. As for the other $8 million in policies, the insurance companies refuse to say whether they paid the family. On-screen text graphic for the 09/07/13 rebroadcast: Jeffrey Locker's widow lost her suit to get the four million in life insurance he bought a month and a half before his death. As for the other eight million in policies, the insurance companies refuse to say whether they paid the family. Kenneth Minor is appealing his conviction. Interviewed: Robert Stewart, NYPD detective; Laura Italiano, New York Post reporter; Steve D'Annunzio, Locker's friend; Robert Miller, insurance executive; Al Brodbeck, who hired Locker as a business coach; Kevin Flynn and Jeff Hershman, detectives; Kenneth Minor, murder suspect; Dan Gotlin, Minor's defense lawyer; Melvin Fleming, Harlem resident; Murray Weiss, police reporter and CBS News Consultant; Peter Casolaro, prosecutor; Michael Barry, investigator; Cyril Wecht, forensic scientist; Kirt Markle, jury member. - 09/14/13 48 HOURS: "Cold as Ice" - a report on a 55-year-old cold case, in which a childhood memory of a friend's murder was the key to solving the case of the death of 7-year-old Maria Ridulph, from Sycamore, Illinois. In 1957, while playing in the snow with Maria Ridulph, eight-year-old Kathy Chapman went home for mittens. When she returned, Maria was nowhere to be found. Both girls had been talking to a man who called himself "Johnny"; a frantic search failed to locate Maria. The FBI took over the case but when her body was found five months later, the Illinois State Police took over the case, but it went cold. Almost fifty years later, Jeanne Tessier's mother, a Sycamore neighbor, made a shocking deathbed confession: her son, John Tessier, was Maria's killer and she urged her daughter to contact the authorities. Jeanne Tessier contacted the FBI and the Sycamore Police. Her brother appeared to have had an alibi and had passed a polygraph test. Both agencies chose not to investigate. Ten years later, Jeanne contacted the Illinois State Police. During the course of the investigation, long buried sexual secrets of the Tessier family came to light. Maria's playmate, now a 61-year-old grandmother, identified a photo of John Tessier as "Johnny", who is now a 72-year-old former policeman from Seattle, Washington, and now known as Jack McCullough. He was arrested and charged with murder. There was little or no physical evidence in the crime; prosecutors chose to charge McCullough with a different crime: the rape of his sister, fifty-five years ago. They felt they had a better chance of conviction. But the prosecutor had promised Jeanne Tessier that he would never pursue a rape trial without her consent. With no physical evidence to back up her story, Jeanne Tessier felt betrayed by prosecutor Clay Campbell and feared her word would not be enough for a conviction. McCullough was found not guilty. Five months later, the murder trial commenced. Jack McCullough felt confident he would be acquitted in this mostly circumstantial case too. When both sides rested, the judge delivered his decision: guilty. McCullough was sentenced to life in prison. On-screen text graphic: Clay Campbell won the case, but in November 2012, he lost his bid for re-election. Interviewed: Maria Ridulph's childhood friend Kathy Chapman; Maria Ridulph's brother Chuck Ridulph; Patrick Solar, retired Sycamore Police Lieutenant; the sisters of suspect John Tessier/Ray McCullough: Jeanne Tessier and Jan Tessier; Special Agent Brion Hanley; suspect Jack McCullough (a.k.a. John Tessier); Prosecutor Clay Campbell; Seattle cold-case detectives Mike Ciesynski and Cloyd Steiger; McCullough's step-daughter Janey O'Connor; Tacoma bartender/former 14-year-old runaway Michelle Weinman; defense investigator Crystal Harrole. 48 HOURS (continued)

09/21/13 48 HOURS: "Honor and Dishonor" - a report on Sgt. Brent Burke, who was court-martialled for the 2007 murders of Tracy Burke, his estranged wife and his former mother-in-law, Karen Comer. Four civilian trials, with no physical evidence, had already led to three mistrials and a hung jury; but the military decided to move forward with action under the uniform code of military justice. Tracy Burke and Karen Comer were discovered shot to death in Comer's Rineyville, Kentucky home. When it was discovered that Tracy was in the process of going through a divorce, Sgt. Brent Burke was taken into custody and booked for murder. There was little physical evidence and no murder weapon, but during an interview, Eion Burke, a young child of four, said that Sgt. Burke was the killer. When charges were dropped and he was released from jail, Kentucky State Police spoke to the Army and they came to the same conclusion: a case for murder, this time to be tried by the Army's Judge Advocate General's Corps (JAG) because Burke on active duty at Fort Campbell when the crimes were committed. He would face a court martial trial which is very different from a civilian court trial -- there is always a verdict and never a hung jury. The trial commenced and the JAG prosecution team was able to present physical evidence -- a tiny piece of glass taken off of Burke's coat, which was similar to the shattered glass door at the crime scene. The panel decided that Sgt. Burke was guilty and that he would serve a life sentence without parole. He would also be dishonorably discharged and stripped of his rank. Onscreen text graphic for the original and 09/21/13 rebroadcast: Tracy Burke's children visit each other regularly. According to military law, Brent Burke will get an automatic appeal. Interviewed: JAG prosecution team members: Lt. Colonel Matthew Calarco, Major Sondra Smith, Captain Janae Lepir; U.S. Army Defense Attorney Nathan Brown; JAG attorney Major Rebecca Kliem; Kentucky State Police Detective Larry Walker; Kentucky State Police Investigator Mark Gillingham; Tracy Burke's father and step-mother David and Gractia Wilburn; Tracy Burke's sister-in-law Hillary Wilburn; defense attorneys Chris Davenport and David Broderick; Brent Burke's parents Stan and Irene Burke; Master Sergeant Michelle Kerstetter, Karen Comer's daughter. 09/28/13 48 HOURS: "The Sweetheart Murders" - a followup to "The Sweetheart Murders" (OAD: 01/27/07), the story of sweethearts Sabrina Gonsalves and John Riggins, who in 1980, were brutally murdered in Davis, California. Initially, police suspected Gerald Gallego, but he was in jail at the time of the murders. In 1989, police arrested Gallego's half-brother David Hunt, David's wife Sue-Ellen, Richard Thompson, and Doug Lanier -- calling them The Hunt Group -- and charged them with a copycat murder, designed to call into question Gallego's guilt in other crimes. DNA proved their innocence and the charges were dropped, however questions remained. In 2002, using advanced DNA technology -- not available at the time of the murders -- police matched samples stored in a FBI database to Richard Hirschfield, a convicted rapist, who was released from prison in 1980. Police interviewed Hirschfield's brother, Joe, who committed suicide the day after the interview. Based on information in his suicide note, police assumed that Joe helped his brother. Richard Hirschfield was charged in the case. In 2012, 10 years after the DNA hit, and almost 32 years after the murders, the capital murder trial began. Time had taken its toll: 63-years-old and confined to wheelchair, Hirschfield was no longer the menacing figure he once was. David Hunt, suffering from cancer, hopes to live to hear his name cleared, and the Gonsalves and Riggins families hope to put an end to their suffering. The jury deliberated and Hirschfield was found guilty and sentenced to death. On-screen text graphic: Richard Hirschfield is appealing his conviction. David Hunt did not live to see his name cleared. He died during the trial. Interviewed: Detective Carol Daly and Investigator Ron Garverick, both from the Sacramento County Sheriff's Department; family members Andrea Gonsalves-Rosenstein (sister); Dr. Richard Riggins and his wife, Kate Riggins (parents); Hunt Group suspects David Hunt and Doug Lanier; prosecutor Dawn Bladet; lead defense attorney Linda Parisi.
