ISSUE	PROGRAM TITLE	PROGRAM TYPE	SOURCE	TIME (EDT)	DATE	DURATION	DESCRIPTION
Anger Management	Preaching Time	Dr. Larry Brown	Recorded/Washington, Iowa	14:02	02/02	13 min	Dr. Larry Brown preached a sermon about anger, how to use it properly, and how to keep it under subjection to God's will instead of letting it get the best of you.
Church Rights & Responsibilities	The Legal Alert	Legal Advice	Recorded/Seminole, FL	15:30	01/05	1.5 min	Attorney David Gibbs advised churches that their properties are not places of "public accommodation" and, therefore, churches may choose who is and is not allowed to use their ministry property, and they can base that choice according to their faith.
Church Rights & Responsibilities	Blessed Hope Daily	Devotional	Recorded/Jasonville, IN	05:30 & 18:02	02/20	10 min	Government safety regulators are not always enemies of the church. When churches are in building projects, those regulators such as fire marshals are here to protect us. Romans 13 commands us to be subject unto the higher powers.
Emotional Health	Country Preacher	Devotional	Recorded/South Carolina	08:30	01/02	14 min	The late Bob Jones Sr. discussed what happiness is and how to have it, pointing out that happiness is related to being what God intends you to be, doing what He intends you to do, where He intends you to do it. Happiness begins on the inside of you, not on the outside.
Emotional Health	A Visit with Mrs. G	Children's Dramatized Devotional	Recorded/Canada	13:30	01/03	15 min	In a short story, Kitty Griffiths related examples of the fears children and adults face and the best way to overcome those fears by believing Jesus and what He said: "Fear not, I am with you."
Emotional Health	Teen Issues	Devotional	Recorded/Pensecola, FL	17:30	02/11	5 min	Steven Blankenship began a week-long series in which teens were encouraged to keep a positive attitude when life does not go their way and does not keep them comfortable; life is full of surprises but God is in good and in control and able to trusted to make it all work for good.

Family Relationships	Church Triumphant	Devotional	Recorded/Santa Clara, CA	13:30	01/05	4 min	Pastor Jack Trieber discussed leadership in the home, pointing out that parents, as opposed to children, are the ones in charge; Dad is to be the one who sets the direction, Mom guides the home in that direction, children are to obey. Communication among all is important. All should welcome questions and communication. The church is only as strong as its families.
Family Relationships	Viewpoint on the Home	Devotional	Recorded/Lexington, KY	20:02	02/11	3.5 min	Two approaches to child training: 1)allow a child to misbehave and then punish him 2)teach a child what is right to do and guide him so that he does it. Pete Steveson suggested that the second approach is Biblical and best; especially works well when parents model the behavior and beliefs they want to instill in the children
Family Relationships	Children's Gospel Hour Daily	Children's Devotional	Recorded/Greenville, SC	16:02	02/20	13:30	Fathers must be careful what decisions they make for the household because they will have lasting effects on the family for a lifetime. Fear must not motivate bad decisions for the family. Always do right whether you are young or an adult.
Homelessness	Unshackled	Dramatized True Stories	Recorded/Chicago, IL	01:00 & 17:00	02/01/15	30 min	The story of Travis Sharpe who grew up in a stressful home of fighting parents and alcoholic father who divorced and broke up the home. After a period of rebellion, he was born again and when on to reach homeless people with the Gospel, though at first, he was afraid of them.
Marriage	Bethel Baptist Sunday Sermon	Sermon	Recorded/Linton, IN	13:00	01/04	53 min	Pastor Doug Cassel explained some of the problems facing marriage and some of the simplest solutions to overcoming them,
