Alcohol	Preaching Time	Preaching	Recorded/Washington, Iowa	03:30 & 14:02	06/15 to 05/17	15:00 appx.	In a sermon broken into 3 parts for radio, Evangelist Larry Brown shared with listeners why he chooses not to drink alcoholic beverages, showing in Scripture where God commands us not to do so, relating stories about its "slippery slope" of destruction, and sharing that his father said "don't" so he never has. He related his father's admonition to our Heavenly Father: He said "don't" so we should never.
Alcohol	Family Altar	Preaching	Recorded/Corpus Cristi, TX	02:02 Sat 01:02 & 20:02 Sun	06/27 & 06/28	00:30 appx	In a recorded message, the late Lester Roloff pointed out places in history of our nation's decline. Repealing the prohibition amendment increased alcoholism in USA and lead to drug addiction as well. Rather than lift up our nation, alcohol consumption brings it down.
Alcohol	Unshackled	Dramatized True Stories	Recorded/Chicago, IL	01:02 & 15:02 Sat 02:02 Sun	05/16 & 05/17	30 min	The dramatized true-life story of Lester Myers who was raised by a boot-legger and taught the same business. He told listeners about how alcohol destroyed his prospects in two respectable businesses, a few good jobs, left him broke and homeless. Lester also shared in his story how he came to salvation in Christ and won victory over alcohol when he landed at a rescue mission. Lester founded and ran a rescue mission in San Jose California.

							Yes. Churches are private institutions and may define standards for membership and member dos and don'ts. Church constitution and bylaws must be review and updated on a regular basis. Attorney David Gibbs Jr.
Discrimination	Recorded/Seminole, FL	07:30. & 11:30	Recorded/Seminole, FL	07:30. & 11:30	06/15	01:28	Can a church be forced to participate in a same-sex marriage for fear of being accused of discrimination. No. Church constitution and bylaws and statement of faith must be clear about what the church holds to; and a morality clause in the constitution must spell out what the church believes about sexuality in and outside of marriage. Attorney David Gibbs Jr.
Discrimination	Lamplighter Theatre	Dramatized fictional stories	Recorded/Westar Media Group	14:02 Sat 15:02 Sun	05/16 to 06/07	28:00	In a 4-part dramatization from the book "The Captive" listeners heard a story about true-to-life slavery of a Christian among Muslims involving discrimination of the slaves and how Truth spoken in love and lived daily conquered hatred and discrimination.
Home Life	Blessed Hope Sunday	Preaching	Recorded/Jasonville,IL	09:02	04/26	40:00 appx.	Pastor Jerry Ross encouraged listeners to "bring Jesus into" their homes so that their children can know Him in real life. Children of all ages deserve the opportunity to learn about Jesus and see how to live for Him and trust Him. Jesus never discounted children or saw them as a bother; He saw them as most important.
Home Life	Blessed Hope Sunday	Preaching	Recorded/Jasonville,IL	09:02	05/24	40:00 appx.	Pastor Jerry Ross encouraged mothers and people who have them, exalting the "office" of Christian Mother, and explaining God's miraculous purposes for godly Mothers as they influence their children and other children.
