Local Sport Hobbies & Gaming	Saturday Night Special	Live talk	1915	11/16	30 min	In light of the deer hunting season in our area, hosts, Harold Smith and Cameron Weage, opened a discussion about hunter safety. They related two recent incidents in other states as examples of what can go wrong. From a Fox News article dated 11/15/19, in South Carolina, a hunter accidentally shot his friend while they were hunting, having mistaken him for a deer. In another state, according to the Sun Sentinel, a man hunting in Florida was attacked by an alligator. In an effort to encourage every type of safety among hunters in our area, Smith and Weage recommended hunters stay aware of their surroundings, prepare as much as possible for the unexpected and emergencies, and wear bright hunter orange. Phone lines were open for listeners to share their words of wisdom or hunting horror stories.

Public Safety	Legal Alert	Legal Advice	0730 & 1130	10/02	1.5 min each 3 min total	Today Attorney David Gibbs advised ministries and churches about how to deal with a shortage of volunteers in children's ministries.
