ISSUE ONE

Moral Issues: Abortion, pornography, drug abuse, euthanasia, homosexuality, etc.

The preceding issues were determined through phone calls from listeners, letters from listeners, and a "verbal" sampling of community leaders, and monitoring of other media sources (i.e. television, newspapers, etc.) As well as issues that have come to the attention of the American Family Association.

FAMILY LIFE TODAY

April 1 — What is Holy Sexuality? - Author, speaker and graduate of Bethel Seminary, Christopher Yuan joins Dave and Ann Wilson and co-host, Bob Lepine, to talk briefly about his former life as drug dealer and homosexual. It's a thought-provoking discussion on the meaning of holy sexuality as prescribed in the Scriptures.

April 2 — When Your Identity is in Christ - We live in a culture that wants to define our identity by our sexuality. But what does God's Word say? Christopher Yuan, who left his homosexual lifestyle for a life in Christ, talks freely about his identity now as a Christ follower.

April 3 — Finding Freedom - Author and speaker, Christopher Yuan, knows what it's like to be a captive. Christopher talks with Dave and Ann Wilson and co-host, Bob Lepine, about his time in prison and how God got his attention and eventually, his heart. It's a redemptive story you don't want to miss.

May 15 — How Did I Get Here - Dave and Ann Wilson talk with licensed mental health counselor, Jay Stringer, about our culture's growing obsession with sex, and the brokenness that results from it. He explains that while a crisis can expose a sexual sin, often the help received is only in managing it, ignoring the root of the problem.

May 16 — Why Do I Stay? - Mental health counselor Jay Stringer, author of the book, "Unwanted," joins hosts Dave and Ann Wilson to talk about his study on the topic of sexual brokenness and shares what he considers to be at the root of the problem.

June 17 — Cementing Your Covenant - If God created marital intimacy, why exactly is the Church so silent on the subject? Counselor and therapist Juli Slattery explores the things the Church needs to address if we are reclaiming a Christian worldview on this important topic.

June 18 — Test You and Teach God's Love - Marital intimacy is just that, intimate, and that makes discussing the topic difficult. But Christians must push past our personal discomfort if we are to have any hope of conveying a Christ-honoring vision of it onto our children.

June 28 — Grace in the Valley - "The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want." For Heath Adamson, Psalm 23 is more than a familiar verse. Heath's journey to those pastures of God's care included detours through parental abuse and neglect, drug addiction, and even homelessness. Kim Anthony explores the riches of God's Word through Psalm 23 with Heath Adamson.

FAMILY TALK

Apr 24 - Hooked: The Consequences of Casual Sex I - Guest: Dr. Joe McIlhaney

Many young people are completely unaware of the devastating physical, emotional, and spiritual consequences of casual sex. FOCUS ON THE FAMILY

April 2: Dealing with Loss and Grief in an Adverse Pregnancy - We'll hear the courageous story of a pro-life couple who decided to go ahead with their pregnancy, even though their baby wouldn't survive outside the womb. A powerful reminder about the value of human life — even when it's measured in minutes.

April 9-10: Abortion Survivors Tell Their Stories – I & II - You'll hear the compelling true stories of two women, who survived abortions as babies. Melissa Ohden and Claire Culwell will speak up for the preborn, as they share perspectives that many have never considered, regarding human life.

May 13: Setting Healthy Boundaries with Your Kids – I - On the next "Focus on the Family" ... do your kids think that stop means go, no means yes and later means now? Maybe they don't understand your rules! If you feel like you're being taken advantage of by your own children, tune in for tips on how to set boundaries. Drs. Henry Cloud and John Townsend will help you get started.

May 14: Setting Healthy Boundaries with Your Kids – II - Tired of playing control games with your kids? Want to stop the tug-of-war? Drs. Henry Cloud and John Townsend share some clear-cut advice to help you set parent/child roles and boundaries.

May 29: Finding Healing and Hope after an Abortion – I - We'll share the dramatic story of Pat Layton, a Christian woman who discovered she was suffering from a terrible secret — her abortion from several years ago. But God had a plan for Pat's healing and freedom.

May 30: Finding Healing and Hope after an Abortion – II - Some people believe abortion is safe and rare. But they ignore the pain that many women carry for years after the decision to end the life of a pre-born. We'll share about one woman's journey to find God's forgiveness and grace — and how you can experience it, too.

June 14: Honoring Dad's Impact on My Life - He taught you to ride a bicycle, or played catch with you in the yard. But, regardless of how close you were to your father, he was always the man you looked up to. More than a dozen Christian authors share stories of dad's impact on their lives. Learn how you can honor your father this weekend.

June 17: Learning and Teaching Godly Manhood - Men need to be reminded that their identity comes from Jesus Christ! We'll combat toxic masculinity with a message for men about their influence, passion, and the importance of surrendering their lives to God!

June 19: Navigating the Challenges Teens Face – I - Youth expert Jim Burns offers help to parents in spiritually training their teens, as he describes the shift from adolescence to adulthood, and the importance of understanding the teen culture. He'll talk about peer pressure and the wise use of technology, as well.

REVIVE OUR HEARTS

April 17 — The Right Way to Complain - The New Testament tells us to do all things without grumbling or complaining. Yet the Psalmist and many other biblical characters complained! How do you know which one is right?

April 18 — Sorrow Mixed with Light - Believers in Jesus are called to be joyful. But when you go through something tragic, it's OK to be honest and OK to grieve. Pastor Mark Vroegop will show you how to grieve with hope.

April 19 — The Lament of Jesus - Jesus knew what it meant to grieve deeply. Whatever pain or suffering you go through; He knows what it feels like. Mark Vroegop will explore the lament of Jesus on Good Friday.

April 22 — Pain that Points to a Glorious Future - Psalm 137 has been called “perhaps the most troubling of all the psalms in the Psalter.” It’s difficult to read and difficult to understand. But Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth says even though it’s challenging, it’s valuable for us to study.

April 23 — Setting Your Eyes Toward Home - When you’re in the middle of a painful situation, do you feel like you can’t sing? Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth will show you some moving examples of believers who sang even when it seemed like there was no earthly reason.

April 24 — Courage in a Foreign Land - Imagine you owned a business and received a big order. Then you realized the order came from Planned Parenthood, a major provider of abortions. Would you fulfill the order? You’ll hear about a woman in that situation.

April 25 — A Whole Different Prayer - One Psalm in the Bible has been described as having a beloved first verse and a horrible sounding final verse. Can you guess which Psalm it is? Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth will walk you through the much-loved parts and the horrible sounding parts while showing how the entire Psalm points us to the gospel.

May 6 — Investing in the Next Generation - In Titus 2, we’re told that older women are to teach younger women. But how? What practical steps do you take to set up those mentoring relationships? Susan Hunt has a lot of experience in connecting women in the church.

May 7 — You Can Be a Mentor! - Susan Hunt is a grandmother in her seventies. When she wants to disciple younger women, do you know what she does? One thing she does is send them a text on their phone. If she can embrace new technology in the service of discipleship, you can train younger women, too.

May 8 — Imperfect People Can Be Powerful Mentors - When you feel like a failure, you actually just received valuable experience that you can use to teach and encourage others. Susan Hunt will show you how to take your painful experiences and allow God to redeem them. Those experiences can be powerful when you invest them in younger women.

May 9 — The Long-Term Influence of Your Life - When the Lord calls you home, will your work carry on behind you? Susan Hunt explains how to build a women’s ministry in your local church that will continue even after you’re gone.

June 3 — A Mom’s Faith and a Daughter’s Faith - Karen Melby was afraid for her daughter’s safety. Her daughter had a big idea involving orphans in Uganda, a paddle board, and a volatile body of water. She was afraid to give her blessing on her daughter’s big idea.

June 4 — Persevering Through the Storm - About a month ago, Ginny Melby spent the night out on Lake Michigan, cold, wet and sleep deprived. She struggled to stay on her paddleboard in dangerous waves and paddled hard to stay on course. Find out why she chose to do this all night long,

June 10 — Expect Suffering - Imagine being in a dark, underground prison with the sewer of a major city running through it. Then imagine writing about being joyful! Hear some interesting background on the writings of the Apostle Paul.

June 11 — The Purpose of Suffering - There are athletes enduring long, difficult days of training, because just over a year from now, they hope to compete in the Olympics. It’s easier to endure when you have a goal in mind.

March 7 — Learning to Love Your Husband Again - For five years, Vicki Rose and her husband Bill were separated. When they came to know Christ, this couple had to begin a long process of learning to love each other and live together. Learn how couples can stay committed through messy situations.
