ISSUE ONE

Moral Issues: Abortion, pornography, drug abuse, euthanasia, homosexuality, etc.

The preceding issues were determined through phone calls from listeners, letters from listeners, and a "verbal" sampling of community leaders, and monitoring of other media sources (i.e. television, newspapers, etc.) As well as issues that have come to the attention of the American Family Association.

FAMILY LIFE TODAY

October 23 — Healing Wounds of Sexual Betrayal - When Sheri Keffer's fiancé confessed that he had called a 900 number, she wasn't even sure what that meant, but was sure he wouldn't do it again since he was a pastor. But once they married, Keffer tells how her Prince Charming's secret became more difficult to hide. Keffer encourages women to keep their eyes open for red flags and to ask the hard questions before marriage.

October 24 — Repairing, Rebuilding - "Intimate Deception" author Dr. Sheri Keffer reflects on her first marriage and her husband's repeated porn use. Keffer, now a relationship therapist, talks about the post-traumatic stress she and other women experience when their husbands confess sexual sin.

November 29 — The Complicated Heart - When Sarah Mae became pregnant as a teen, she chose abortion when encouraged by both of her grandmothers. But through the shame and sadness, God's love still pursued Sarah. She tells her story to Kim Anthony.

December 2 — Breaking Free From Destructive Patterns - Julie Plagens shares how living under the shadow of her pastor father led her to stuff her anger and bitterness, which adversely affected her health. Realizing her life was on the line due to her resentment towards her parents, Julie tells how she made the decision to cut ties with her family.

December 3 — A Family Break Up - All of us have an extension cord tied to our family of origin. Author Julie Plagens explains what life was like after she cut ties with her family. While her health issues did improve, Julie admits that avoiding her parents and siblings was still difficult. Julie tells how she realized that unforgiveness had taken root in her heart.

December 4 — Family Reconciliation - Julie Plagens spent years estranged from her family of origin. However, after much prayer and counseling, Julie began to see that the real enemy wasn't her parents, but Satan. She committed to do whatever it would take to restore her relationship with her family. Julie shares a word of wisdom to those experiencing brokenness in their family.

December 16 — Helping Walk Through Stress - Parenting teens and young adults can feel both complicated and challenging. Dr. Steve Argue, an Applied Research Strategist at the Fuller Youth Institute, empowers parents with three new strategies to help their young people have better connections with their family, faith and world.

December 17 — Learners, Explorers, and Focusers - How can you help your kids move into adult life? Steve Argue notes that most young adults today are embracing a theology that tells them "God wants them to be happy," and will show up for them when needed. But in college and real life, they find that ideology doesn't work. Not everything in life turns out as planned. Hear Argue tell parents what to do when their child doubts their faith.

December 18 — Intro to Adulting - Steve Argue tells parents how they can help their kids transition in life. In past generations, you became an adult when you reached certain milestones, like getting married, working full-time, or moving away from home. Now it varies from person-to-person. Parents can help their kids navigate their way forward by asking key questions and staying involved.

FAMILY TALK

Oct 2 - Domestic Violence and Toxic Anger I - Guest: Dr. Barry Lord

For nearly 40 years, October has been observed as Domestic Violence Awareness month. On this broadcast, Dr. Tim Clinton talks to licensed psychotherapist Dr. Barry Lord, about this growing problem of abuse. Dr. Lord shares shocking statistics on this pervasive issue and why protecting victims is paramount. The two also explain how spousal abuse breaks the bond of trust in a marriage.

Oct 3 - Domestic Violence and Toxic Anger II - Guest: Dr. Barry Lord

Researchers have found that nearly 1 in 4 women are victims of abuse from their supposed loving partner. On this edition, Dr. Tim Clinton continues his conversation about domestic violence with licensed psychotherapist, Dr. Barry Lord. He describes an abused woman's feelings of imprisonment and why she keeps this abuse secret from everyone. Hear what the church can do to help those in violent situations at home.

Oct 8 - Betrayed: How Pornography Wrecked My Marriage I - Guest: Nancy Blake

Pornography is an evil that warps the minds of many young people, with an addiction stronger than most drugs. On this broadcast, Dr. Dobson welcomes author Nancy Blake to the Family Talk studios. She opens up about her first husband's struggles with pornography, which eventually destroyed their marriage. Hear how she recovered from this heartbreak and what she is doing to help other women in similar circumstances.

Oct 9 - Betrayed: How Pornography Wrecked My Marriage II - Guest: Nancy Blake

According to research from Enough is Enough, America is the top consumer of pornography with 4 in 10 people believing these images are morally acceptable. On this edition, Dr. Dobson concludes his interview with author Nancy Blake. She reveals why she initially blamed herself for her first husband's addiction to pornography and how she depended on God through this betrayal. Nancy also talks about getting remarried and the healing that she continues to experience.

Nov 4 - Speaking Truth to an Immoral Culture - Guest: Eric Metaxas

The prophet Daniel was a prime example of properly engaging the surrounding culture without compromising one's beliefs. On this broadcast, Dr. Tim Clinton discusses this concept with best-selling author and radio personality, Eric Metaxas. Eric points to the rampant immorality that exists in politics and on social media. He and Dr. Clinton urge Christians to be active in this darkening society.

Dec 18 - Taking My Life Back II - Guest: Rebekah Gregory

When devastating circumstances rock our world, we often blame God for allowing them. On this edition, Rebekah Gregory, a survivor of the Boston Marathon bombing, shares why she doesn't harbor anger over that traumatic event. She explains to Dr. Dobson how her strong faith allowed her to endure the bombing, along with an abusive childhood, and an unhealthy marriage. Listen to what she is doing now to help others with PTSD.

Dec 9 - Unplanned: The Story of Abby Johnson - Guests: Abby Johnson and Ashley Bratcher

On this special broadcast, Dr. Tim Clinton sits down with pro-life advocate Abby Johnson and actress Ashley Bratcher. Abby shares how her former position as a Director at Planned Parenthood blinded her to the horrible truth about abortion. Hear about the moment she realized the evil that was happening, and what Abby is doing now with her new feature film.

Dec 19 - God's Miracle of Life I - Guest: Dr. William Lile

More than 46 years ago, the Supreme Court infamously legalized the murderous practice of abortion. This selection from Family Talk's '2019 Best of Broadcast', revisits Dr. Dobson's conversation with pro-life advocate, Dr. William Lile. Dr. Lile shares his passion for defending the pre-born, and explains the intricate procedures done on babies in the womb. You'll also hear the science that points to life beginning at conception.

Dec 30 - Homosexuality and the 21st Century Church I - Guest: Anne Paulk

Many churches and Christian groups are intentionally supporting the LGBTQ movement. On this '2019 Best of Broadcast' edition, Dr. Dobson addresses this disturbing trend with Anne Paulk, Executive Director of Restored Hope Network. They examine the hostility towards Biblical truth concerning homosexuality, while Anne shares her own story of being liberated from lesbianism.

Dec 31 - Homosexuality and the 21st Century Church II - Guest: Anne Paulk

Over the last 20 years, more and more Christians are adopting a 'gay-friendly' worldview. On this edition, Dr. Dobson wraps up his discussion on this topic with author and speaker, Anne Paulk. They walk through 4 doctrinal views on the LGBT lifestyle and address the false ideas concerning counseling and therapy.

FOCUS ON THE FAMILY

October 17: Demonstrating Christ's Love in an Angry World - In a time when angry, knee-jerk responses are the norm on social media, it's critical for Christ followers to engage others in a different way. Dr. Ed Stetzer shares about the importance of treating others with respect, when you disagree on divisive cultural issues.

October 23-24: Understanding How Your Teen Thinks - When you understand how your teenager's brain is wired, you can better connect with and influence him. Jeramy and Jerusha Clark discuss how neuroscience and God's Word intersect in the life of our teens. You'll learn how to engage the pre-frontal cortex of your teen through conversation, and how to ride the waves of teen emotions.

We'll also describe the "love trap," discuss why your kids always need to hear the truth, and talk about the "rudder approach" to parenting!

November 8: Better Ways to Communicate to Your Children – II - One of the best things you can teach your child is the joy of being “average.” We’ll examine why today’s kids suffer from too much stress, perfectionism, and limited opportunities to fail! But we’ll also help you encourage your child and prepare them for real life!

November 18: Guiding Your Child’s Media Choices – I - Almost 90-percent of kids have smartphones, with the average child getting a phone at age 10. Teen expert Jonathan McKee tells parents how to deal with “Generation Screen” ...and encourages us not to freak out!

November 19: Guiding Your Child’s Media Choices – II - As a parent, it can be difficult to keep up with your teen’s life in social media, not to mention their movie and music choices. Teen expert Jonathan McKee will share tips and techniques for coaching your child on their media decisions, without alienating them.

December 5-6: Helping Your Daughter to Become a Confident Woman - I & II - As a dad, you have a powerful influence on your daughter. Dr. Meg Meeker shares about the special bond with her own father and how it helped to shape her life. She addresses the negative influences in the culture from peer pressure and social media, and the heroic impact of a loving father.

December 9-10: Motivating Your Kids to Reflect the Character of God - I & II - As a parent, teaching character and motivating change in your child can be a challenge. So, where do you begin? By strengthening the relationship with your child! Dr. Kathy Koch explores practical ways to teach character, just by getting to know your child better.

December 19-20: Raising Boys to Become Good Young Men – I & II - Pediatrician Dr. Meg Meeker offers encouragement to mothers for raising godly sons. Dr. Meeker addresses the natural conflict and distancing that will occur between mother and son as he matures, and she admonishes moms not to be overprotective, or to find their identity in their children.

December 23: Trusting God with Your Adult Child - When your children are little, you can wrap them in your arms. But when they grow up, sometimes all you can do is wrap them in your prayers. ... how one woman learned to trust God with her adult children’s complicated lives. Hear the seemingly simple prayers she prayed that changed her perspective on parenting.

REVIVE OUR HEARTS

October 14 — The Spirit-Filled Life: God’s Power in You - We all know what we’re supposed to be doing. Be honest. Be humble. Follow the commands in the Bible. The problem is we can’t live this way. At least we can’t do it on our own. Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth shows you how to have the power you need to do God’s will.

October 15 — The Personal Devotional Life: “Seeking Him” Daily - Do you know you make an important choice every single day? Through your actions, you’re showing whether your day will be all about the Lord or all about yourself. Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth shows you how to make God your priority.

October 16 — Facing the Fear of Cancer - Could you trust God to write your story, even if you heard that dreaded diagnosis? Dawn Wilson is in the middle of cancer treatments. She shows us how it’s pulled her closer into God’s embrace.

October 17 — Courage and Faith - In the middle of treatments for cancer, Dawn Wilson is greatly tempted to fear. But she’s choosing to worship God, watching courage grow. She’ll tell you how to trust God to write your story...even in the midst of a health crisis.

November 25 — A Call to Worship - At a typical worship service, what is your singing like? Do you sing joyfully? The Psalms call us to loud, passionate worship.

November 26 — Causes for Worship - What’s your favorite style of worship? It’s fine and normal for everyone to have preferences. But our worship of God goes beyond just styles. Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth will take you to the heart of worship.

November 27 — A Warning to Heed - We’re about to enter a season where we like to sing about Peace on Earth. But it’s easy to get discouraged when you look around and see a lot of places where there is no peace. Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth will point you to the Prince of Peace to find calm even when your world is rocked by storms.

November 28 — Praise for Who He Is - As we prepare for a busy upcoming holiday season, REVIVE OUR HEARTS wants to help you slow down and simply worship. Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth will provide Scripture and music all about who God is. Join Nancy and make sure your Thanksgiving Day is full of worship!

November 29 — Praise for What He Has Done - More than 140 years ago, Fanny Crosby wrote, “To God be the glory . . .” and do you remember the next line? That’s right! “To God be the glory, great things He hath done.” You’ll spend some time praising Him for those great things the Lord has done for us.

December 3 — Come, Thou Dayspring - When you think of names of Christ, what comes to mind? He’s our Savior and our Shepherd. He’s the King of Kings and Son of Man. How about the “Key of David?” We don’t usually focus on that name, but it shows up in the song “O Come, O Come, Emmanuel.”

December 4 — God is Writing a Story: Alexandra - A teenager named Alexandra had a hunger to know the Lord. Every day she read the Bible and memorized passages. But she wasn’t allowed to attend a Bible-believing church. How could she grow without attending a local church? Find out how God provided a way.

December 5 — Lord, You Know! - The prophet Ezekiel saw a vision - a valley full of dry bones. Some situations in life seem like those bones - hopelessly dead. But a phrase from Ezekiel gives us hope.

December 6 — Dry Bones Live Again - It can seem like certain relationships are dead. Marriages can feel that way. Parent-child relationships can feel that way. But on the next Revive Our Hearts, Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth takes us to the book of Ezekiel to remind us how God brings dead relationships back to life.

FAMILY LIFE TODAY

October 28 — Understanding Your Child's Feelings - Parents don’t always know what their children are feeling. Authors and counselors Josh and Christi Straub explain how to help children identify and name what’s going on in their hearts. Hear them explain the importance of learning to name what they’re feeling.

October 29 — Fostering Emotional Safety - Family coaches Josh and Christi Straub explain what it means to be emotionally safe and how feeling safe is the hallmark of an emotionally healthy home. The Straubs explain the value of teaching children to identify feelings.

October 30 —The Challenge of Motherhood - Kara Kae James, author of “Mom Up,” thought that motherhood was a cinch. And then she had kids! Three children in three years, in fact. James admits that motherhood made her emotionally and mentally tired, weary and burned out, especially as she struggled with postpartum depression. Hear her explain how to overcome the motherhood blahs.

November 1 — The Childless Stepmom - For a woman with no biological children, stepping into the role of stepmom can be a bewildering labyrinth of complexities. Ron Deal and Laura Petherbridge discuss how to navigate this winding path.

November 6 — Becoming a Kingdom Man - Pastor Jerrad Lopes' father left when he was 3 years old, instilling in Jerrad a deep desire to be the father to his children that he never had. Marriage and fatherhood proved challenging, however, and he tells what finally woke him up from his self-absorption.

November 7 — Getting Your Dad Game On - Pastor Jarred Lopes, founder of DadTired.com, shares practical advice to dads for leading their families spiritually. Lopes reminds dads that they can't just tell their sons what to do, but they need to show them what to do.

November 8 — The Spiritually Awake Dad - Pastor Jarred Lopes, author of “Dad Tired,” rallies dads to be “all in” when it comes to spiritually engaging with their children. Lopes strives to be the spiritual leader in his home and wants his kids to see just how much he needs Jesus to change his broken heart. Hear him explain the power of a wife's role in a dad's spiritual growth.

August 30 — Praying for Your Kids - Nancy Guthrie recalls a season in her parenting when she realized she was worrying a lot more than praying. She realized her desires needed to be shaped by the Word of God. Using the Scriptures to pray helps parents pray for even deeper things.

December 2 — Breaking Free From Destructive Patterns - Julie Plagens shares how living under the shadow of her pastor father led her to stuff her anger and bitterness, which adversely affected her health. Realizing her life was on the line due to her resentment towards her parents, Julie tells how she made the decision to cut ties with her family.

December 3 — A Family Break Up - All of us have an extension cord tied to our family of origin. Author Julie Plagens explains what life was like after she cut ties with her family. While her health issues did improve, Julie admits that avoiding her parents and siblings was still difficult. Julie tells how she realized that unforgiveness had taken root in her heart.

December 4 — Family Reconciliation - Julie Plagens spent years estranged from her family of origin. However, after much prayer and counseling, Julie began to see that the real enemy wasn't her parents, but Satan. She committed to do whatever it would take to restore her relationship with her family. Julie shares a word of wisdom to those experiencing brokenness in their family.

FOCUS ON THE FAMILY

October 1: Preparing Your Child for Adulthood – I & II - Going through puberty can be an exciting and scary transition — is your family ready? We'll examine some godly ways parents can prepare their kids for issues like dating, body image, social media, and God's purpose for their lives.

October 8: Rethinking Your Parenting Strategies – I - Your child keeps misbehaving and nothing you do seems to work! You'll hear some new strategies for parents — where you talk less, enforce consequences, and let your kids learn from their mistakes!

October 9: Rethinking Your Parenting Strategies – II - Sometimes the best lesson your child can learn comes from life itself! Discover why you need to step back and see how kids will solve their own problems—rather than rushing in to help every time.

November 7: Better Ways to Communicate to Your Children – I - Discover why threats, warnings and reminders are ineffective ways to prepare your children for life! We'll also describe the “love trap,” discuss why your kids always need to hear the truth, and talk about the “rudder approach” to parenting! A practical lesson for moms and dads.

November 8: Better Ways to Communicate to Your Children – II - One of the best things you can teach your child is the joy of being “average!” We’ll examine why today’s kids suffer from too much stress, perfectionism, and limited opportunities to fail! But we’ll also help you encourage your child and prepare them for real life!

December 19-20: Raising Boys to Become Good Young Men – I & II - Pediatrician Dr. Meg Meeker offers encouragement to mothers for raising godly sons. Dr. Meeker addresses the natural conflict and distancing that will occur between mother and son as he matures, and she admonishes moms not to be overprotective, or to find their identity in their children.

December 23: Trusting God with Your Adult Child - When your children are little, you can wrap them in your arms. But when they grow up, sometimes all you can do is wrap them in your prayers. On the next “Focus on the Family”... how one woman learned to trust God with her adult children’s complicated lives. Hear the seemingly simple prayers she prayed that changed her perspective on parenting.

ISSUE FOUR

Unemployment, poverty, and financial difficulties, etc.

The preceding issues were determined through phone calls from listeners, letters from listeners, and a "verbal" sampling of community leaders, and monitoring of other media sources (i.e. television, newspapers, etc.) As well as issues that have come to the attention of the American Family Association .

FAMILY LIFE TODAY

October 7 — Why Is He So Touchy? - "Why is he so touchy?" It's a question a lot of wives ask. Shaunti Feldhahn and Brian Goins dig into this subject. Find out how influential a wife can be as her husband grows into the man God wants him to be.

October 8— Making History - Mom, you have a life-giving mission. Linda Weber, an author and mother of three grown sons, shares how she sought to make her kids feel important and accepted. Weber reminds moms that their influence will leave an eternal mark.

October 9 — A Mother's Assignment - Linda Weber, wife of Pastor Stu Weber and mother to three grown sons, talks to new moms about their important assignment. Weber encourages moms to believe what the Scriptures tell them about their role.

November 11 — The Motivation for Financial Health - Financial expert Art Rainer shares how his parents' handling of the family finances influenced his own approach to money. Rainer reminds us that God wants believers to be a conduit of His blessings.

November 12 — The Money Disruptors - Art Rainer talks about four different money personalities in marriage: the saver, spender, investor, and ignorer. He also points out how bad money habits, like hiding purchases, can derail a marriage.

November 13 — Great Money Milestones - Financial advisor Art Rainer encourages believers to showcase the generosity of God by giving generously to those in need. He lists eight money milestones couples can aim for that can help them get their finances on track.

December 11 — Playing Spiritual Defense - Sometimes it's best to just walk away. That's what best-selling author and Pastor Gary Thomas wants you to know when facing toxic people. Thomas explains how, in the gospels, Jesus walked away from people 41 times. Thomas defines what a toxic person does, and explains the best way to deal with them.

December 12 — Help! I'm Married to a Toxic Spouse! - Is your spouse mentally and emotionally draining you? Gary Thomas explains that when a spouse is controlling or has a murderous spirit, it might be necessary, in some circumstances, to walk away. Sometimes separation or divorce can be a tool to remove the abusive behavior. Thomas contrasts a toxic marriage from a difficult marriage.

December 13 — When My Family Is Toxic - When the people in your family hurt you the most, what do you do? Gary Thomas, author of "When to Walk Away," explains that if a family member enjoys tearing you down and destroying the relationship, then it may be time to walk away. We need to protect our family members from evil, and if that means limiting our time with those who are destructive, then so be it.

FOCUS ON THE FAMILY

October 17-18: How to Raise Jesus-Followers – I & II - You take your children to church and Bible school, but how do you know if it's sinking in? Sissy Goff and David Thomas identify four milestones to consider with your child's spiritual development. You'll learn fun, relatable ways to coach your child with God's truth.

October 18: Finding Hope through a Family Tragedy - Sometimes God can use tragic circumstances to get our attention.... and then real life begins. Keith Becker tells the story of his dysfunctional family and the tragedy that God used to change their hearts.

November 11: Healing the Wounds of War - His life was altered forever by a grenade explosion on the banks of a river in Vietnam. Veteran Dave Roeber shares how God even used that near-death experience for good. Dave's inspiring story to overcome his injuries – and how his wife stayed by his side throughout his difficult journey.

November 12: Getting Organized for Christmas - Christmas is just around the corner, but are you ready? Author Kathi Lipp shares practical ways you and your household can get organized for end-of-the-year festivities. From budgeting and planning ahead to stocking-stuffer ideas and gift-giving guidelines, you'll learn how to have a more peaceful and sacred holiday.

November 20: Understanding Our Mission in the Culture - As Christians, we're called FOR the world, not FROM it. John Stonestreet encourages us to share our faith in the culture with love and grace. He'll discuss God's design for sexuality, and the sanctity of human life.

December 9-10: Motivating Your Kids to Reflect the Character of God - I & II - As a parent, teaching character and motivating change in your child can be a challenge. So, where do you begin? By strengthening the relationship with your child! Dr. Kathy Koch explores practical ways to teach character, just by getting to know your child better.

December 16: Enjoying Marriage at Any Age - For a good time, call HOME! Pastor Ted Cunningham encourages couples to make a deliberate effort to have fun together and to enjoy each day as husband and wife. Laugh along and be encouraged as Ted shares stories from his own marriage.

December 17-18: Sharing the Gospel through Hospitality - I & II - Your home can help transform lives! You'll hear about "radically ordinary hospitality" — where you open your home and your life to neighbors, friends and strangers, and intentionally share your faith. This simple act of obedience will lead people to Jesus!

ISSUE FIVE

Health concerns, etc.

FAMILY LIFE

October 23 — Healing Wounds of Sexual Betrayal - When Sheri Keffer's fiancé confessed that he had called a 900 number, she wasn't even sure what that meant, but was sure he wouldn't do it again since he was a pastor. But once they married, Keffer tells how her Prince Charming's secret became more difficult to hide. Keffer encourages women to keep their eyes open for red flags and to ask the hard questions before marriage.

October 24 — Repairing, Rebuilding - "Intimate Deception" author Dr. Sheri Keffer reflects on her first marriage and her husband's repeated porn use. Keffer, now a relationship therapist, talks about the post-traumatic stress she and other women experience when their husbands confess sexual sin.

October 25 — Revealing Beauty from Ashes - Coming out of a marriage filled with sexual betrayal left Sheri Keffer emotionally exhausted and filled with shame. Keffer, now a relationship therapist, tells how God kept her together when her marriage fell apart. Hear what her life is like now since starting over.

November 6 — Becoming a Kingdom Man - Pastor Jerrad Lopes' father left when he was 3 years old, instilling in Jerrad a deep desire to be the father to his children that he never had. Marriage and fatherhood proved challenging, however, and he tells what finally woke him up from his self-absorption.

November 7 — Getting Your Dad Game On - Pastor Jarred Lopes, founder of DadTired.com, shares practical advice to dads for leading their families spiritually. Lopes reminds dads that they can't just tell their sons what to do, but they need to show them what to do.

November 8 — The Spiritually Awake Dad - Pastor Jarred Lopes, author of "Dad Tired," rallies dads to be "all in" when it comes to spiritually engaging with their children. Lopes strives to be the spiritual leader in his home and wants his kids to see just how much he needs Jesus to change his broken heart. Hear him explain the power of a wife's role in a dad's spiritual growth.

December 16 — Helping Walk Through Stress - Parenting teens and young adults can feel both complicated and challenging. Dr. Steve Argue, an Applied Research Strategist at the Fuller Youth Institute, empowers parents with three new strategies to help their young people have better connections with their family, faith and world.

December 17 — Learners, Explorers, and Focusers - How can you help your kids move into adult life? Steve Argue notes that most young adults today are embracing a theology that tells them "God wants them to be happy," and will show up for them when needed. But in college and real life, they find that ideology doesn't work. Not everything in life turns out as planned. Hear Argue tell parents what to do when their child doubts their faith.

December 18 — Intro to Adulthood - Steve Argue tells parents how they can help their kids transition in life. In past generations, you became an adult when you reached certain milestones, like getting married, working full-time, or moving away from home. Now it varies from person-to-person. Parents can help their kids navigate their way forward by asking key questions and staying involved.

FAMILY TALK

Oct 1 - A Story of Cancer and Comfort I - Guest: Dr. David Jeremiah

It's been said that everyone is either coming out of hardship, in the midst of a struggle, or about to experience difficulty. On this classic broadcast, Dr. Dobson sits down with his good friend, prominent pastor and author, Dr. David Jeremiah. He discusses his battle with cancer and why he believes God allows suffering in all of our lives.

Oct 11 - A Story of Cancer and Comfort II - Guest: Dr. David Jeremiah

On this edition, Dr. Dobson concludes his interview with Dr. David Jeremiah, pastor at Shadow Mountain Community Church. Dr. Jeremiah talks about the emotional and spiritual low points in his battle with cancer, and refutes the delusional belief that Christians won't experience suffering. Hear why we must rely on God's strength when hardship comes.

Dec 17 - Taking My Life Back I - Guest: Rebekah Gregory

On April 15, 2013, terrorists set off bombs at the Boston Marathon, which killed 3 people and brutally injured over 260 more. On this selection from Family Talk's '2019 Best of Broadcast', Dr. Dobson sits down with one of the survivors, author and speaker, Rebekah Gregory. She shares her horrifying account of that day and the gruesome injuries she sustained, which led to the amputation of her leg. Hear how God spared Rebekah and her son's life that day.

Dec 18 - Taking My Life Back II - Guest: Rebekah Gregory

When devastating circumstances rock our world, we often blame God for allowing them. On this edition, Rebekah Gregory, a survivor of the Boston Marathon bombing, shares why she doesn't harbor anger over that traumatic event. She explains to Dr. Dobson how her strong faith allowed her to endure the bombing, along with an abusive childhood, and an unhealthy marriage. Listen to what she is doing now to help others with PTSD.

FOCUS ON THE FAMILY

October 10: Setting Boundaries in Toxic Relationships – I - Maybe you know someone who is impossible to please. It may seem like they're trying to control your life! Gary Thomas describes toxic relationships and when it's okay for Christians to simply walk away.

October 11: Setting Boundaries in Toxic Relationships – II - When someone is hostile toward you, there's a temptation to respond in the same way. But toxic behavior only breeds more toxicity! Gary Thomas returns on the next "Focus on the Family," urging believers to offer love instead of hate, and compassion for non-Christians. Discover how to be a better witness for Jesus.

October 15: Grieving, Healing, and Hoping After Miscarriage - Having a baby is a time of great excitement and joy. But sometimes things go wrong, and what should be an exciting time turns into a devastating experience. Adriel Booker shares her experience with pregnancy loss and offers words of encouragement, hope, and healing to families walking this path of grief.

November 21: You Can Have a Healthy Family (Even if Yours Wasn't) - A strong family tree displays solid branches reaching through the generations, but what do you do when those branches are broken by dysfunction? Elizabeth Oates discusses her childhood, including a family riddled by divorce, neglect, and addiction, and offers encouragement for becoming the spouse and/or parent God wants you to be.

November 26: The Beautiful Struggle to Forgive - As he grew up, his anger towards his alcoholic father turned into hatred. Hear Jason Romano's incredible story of how a football game, a struggle with infertility, and a phone call changed his life, leading him to extend true forgiveness to his dad— despite never hearing the words "I'm sorry." An inspiring story about healing from a chaotic childhood.

December 11: Discovering God's Freedom from Pornography – I - Imagine growing up in a loving, Christian family and giving your life to ministry. But you also struggle with pornography. A pastor and his wife describe their painful cycle of confession, forgiveness, and relapse, and how pornography put their marriage and ministry at risk.

December 12: Discovering God's Freedom from Pornography – II - Pornography is a deadly trap that will undermine your marriage, threaten your family and destroy your faith. But you can find freedom. A pastor and his wife reveal how God rescued their marriage and healed their lives.

December 4: Growing Your Marriage in Times of Stress – II - Why isolation is the worst way you can respond to stress! Instead, find ways to emotionally connect with other people, especially your spouse, so you can experience the comfort and renewal you need to move forward.
