FAMILY LIFE TODAY

Series: America: Turning a Nation to God Monday, July 6 — Returning America Back to God America is in serious trouble. That's the sentiment of respected pastor Dr. Tony Evans as he considers the acceptance of homosexual marriage, legalization of marijuana, and the general lawlessness sweeping over our land. Is there anything believers can do to stop this landslide? Tony believes so, and shares what Christians can do to help turn the tide.

Tuesday, July 7 — Solving Our Country's Problems What is at the root of the problems our country is facing today? Respected pastor Dr. Tony Evans believes much of the unrest, crime, and financial and social problems we're seeing in America are directly related to God. While God may be directly involved in America's problems, Tony believes that God also offers a solution.

Series: Love Renewed: Chuck and Melissa Douglas Wednesday, April 15 —The Mess

When Chuck Douglas saw her, she was everything he wanted—tall, beautiful, and full of life—and so he pursued her with gusto. So, how did "everything" turn into nothing but heartache so fast? Chuck and Melissa Douglas talk about the drift into isolation.

Series: Secret Thoughts of an Unlikely Convert Monday, July 27 — A Train Wreck Conversion Rosaria Butterfield's life wasn't typical. An English professor at Syracuse University, Rosaria was a full-fledged feminist and lesbian bent on exposing a sector she believed was out to threaten her freedoms, the religious right. Rosaria recalls how she viewed Christians back then, when she was a respected leader in the LGBT community and what caused her to reconsider her views about God.

Friday, July 31— Hide or Seek It's time we get real with God about sex. John Freeman, president of Harvest USA, a ministry that helps those dealing with sexual brokenness, recalls his past struggles—first with sexual abuse and then with same-sex attraction. John shares how he found deliverance through God's people as well as God's Word. John offers advice to parents whose sons and daughters may be dealing with sexual sin.

Monday, August 10 — Could You Be a Feminist? Would you call yourself a feminist? Growing up with three brothers, Courtney Reissig believed she could do anything boys could do and tried her hardest to prove it. Saturating herself in feminist theory in college, Courtney felt conflicted. Although she really liked guys, she didn't have a strong desire to get married or raise a family. Cut off from her family, Courtney began to feel the brunt of her choices and tells how God gradually changed her heart and led her back home.

Tuesday, August 11 — The Default of Feminism Is feminism the default today? Author Courtney Reissig thinks so. Reissig explains that to most feminists, equality equals sameness. In Scripture, however, God made men and women equal before Him, yet unique in their distinctive roles. Reissig shares how God changed her from a staunch feminist to a Bible-believing wife and mother.

Wednesday, August 19 — Sexual Immorality in Light of the Gospel It can't be ignored--sexual immorality is everywhere. How can Christians speak into this issue? Pastor David Platt reminds believers that God's word is clear on sexual immorality, and talks about the epidemic of porn that's hijacking the minds of men, and increasingly, women in our culture. Platt describes how he hopes to cultivate in his children a desire for God's glory in their lives and help them think through sexuality in healthy ways.

Wednesday, September 16 — To Know and Be Known God loves sex. Surprised? Well-known author and speaker, Dan Allender, reminds listeners that sex was designed by God to be a good and enjoyable part of marriage.

Thursday, September 17 — Desire and Holiness God thinks highly of the sexual union. After all, He created it. Professor Dan Allender walks us through the Song of Solomon, beginning with a description of Solomon and the first inklings of desire. What can we learn from this unique biblical book? Plenty, according to Dan, who shares some practical advice for contemporary husbands and wives.

Tuesday, September 22 — Deliver Us from Evil Can domestic abuse be found in Christian homes too? Pastor Justin Holcom says absolutely. A desire for power and control over someone else is at the root of domestic abuse, Justin says. The best way to avoid an abusive relationship is to not get in one in the first place. Watch how a man treats his mother and other women around him, and you'll have a good idea of how he'll treat you someday.

Wednesday, September 23 — Prepare to Be Safe If your marriage is abusive, what should you do? Author and Pastor Justin Holcomb gives us a glimpse into the heart and mind of an abuse victim, and tells why a victim often chooses to stay in an abusive relationship rather than seeking safety. Hear some steps to take to devise your own safety plan.

FOCUS ON THE FAMILY

Wednesday, July 1: Pursuing Healthy and Authentic Relationships - II Being vulnerable with your spouse and others is hard, but it can positively impact your relationships! We'll help you learn how to identify and deal with past shame, let other people see your flaws, and give you the tools you need to live a life of meaning and purpose.

Thursday, July 9: Bringing Home the Prodigals - I Is your heart broken over seeing a loved one walk away from their faith? Rob Parsons reminds us to turn to our heavenly Father while we're waiting. Tune in for a challenging message of hope for anyone who loves a prodigal.

Friday, July 10: Bringing Home the Prodigals - II God is always ready to run to those who've turned away. Rob Parsons looks at the parable of the Prodigal Son, giving us hope for the day, when our prodigals finally come home.

Monday, July 27: Restoring the Broken Pieces of Our Lives-I Everyone has experienced failure, so why do we pretend that we're perfect? Elisa Morgan describes her broken life and broken family — and how God has reconnected all the pieces into a glorious masterpiece!

July 28: Restoring the Broken Pieces of Our Lives-II God can turn your biggest failure into your greatest success! Elisa Morgan shares a vulnerable message about her imperfect and broken family. But God can transform any mistake into a ministry, and He's given the Morgans new hope for the future!

Monday, August 10: Helping Your Middle Schooler Develop a Healthy Identity- I Navigating the physical and emotional changes of the middle school years can be tricky. Dr. Kathy Koch identifies the five core needs of every middle schooler and how you, as a parent, can help meet them.

Tuesday, August 11: Helping Your Middle Schooler Develop a Healthy Identity- II Angst and drama usually surround the average middle schooler, but there is hope! Dr. Kathy Koch shares how security, identity, belonging, purpose, and competence all play a role in your child's confidence.

Friday, August 14: Addressing the State of the Church Recent research seems to indicate that Christianity is on the decline, but is that really true? Researcher Ed Stetzer will offer a different perspective as we look at the current state and future of the church. Learn more about connecting with the secular culture in an encouraging discussion.

Tuesday, August 25: Sound Advice for Today's Parents-II Is it a battle to discipline your kids? Are your children winning the war? It's time for some fresh discipline ideas that work! Dr. Kevin Leman shares pointers on how you can exercise healthy authority and radically change your child's behavior and attitude. Sound too good to be true? Decide for yourself.

Wednesday, August 26: Battling Giants in Everyday Life-I With God's help, you can accomplish more than you think! Popular author Malcolm Gladwell will provide a unique spin on the David and Goliath story and share how you can overcome obstacles just by changing your paradigm.

Tuesday, September 1: Religious Liberties around the World The persecution of Christians and the threat to religious liberties is greater now than at any other time in history. Former Congressman Frank Wolf makes a passionate plea for us to remember the religious minorities in Iraq, Egypt, Pakistan, China, and other places of oppression. Learn what you can do to make a difference.

Friday, September 4: Opening Your Home to Those in Need Bringing a stranger into your home might sound dangerous and foolish, but caring for needy people is what God calls us to do! Pastor Francis Chan and his wife, Lisa, describe how God used a foster child to bless their family!

Monday, September 7: Gaining a New Perspective on Life We can all use some encouragement in our daily lives. British evangelist J. John shares a humorous look at life, and provides practical ideas to help you gain a better perspective.

Monday, September 21: Courageously Stepping Out to Change the World – I He wanted to change the world and plant a church, but God had other plans. A man shares his story of dealing with unemployment, underemployment, and how God reshaped and redefined his definition of success through the process.

Tuesday, September 22: Courageously Stepping Out to Change the World—II You can change the world, but it begins with changing yourself. One man shares his story of making a radical promise to God to give up a year of his salary, and the adventures that came along the way. An insightful look at walking out our faith.

ISSUE TWO

Problems and needs of families, youth and children.

The preceding issues were determined through phone calls from listeners, letters from listeners, and a "verbal" sampling of community leaders, and monitoring of other media sources (i.e. television, newspapers, etc.) as well as issues that have come to the attention of the American Family Association.

FAMILY LIFE TODAY

Wednesday, July 1 — This Is It ... or Is It? With last Friday's Supreme Court decision regarding the United States' marriage laws, the furor around the redefinition of marriage will finally die down... or will it? Bob Lepine delivers a sobering assessment of what the next steps of relational redefinition might hold for America, and for the church.

Tuesday, July 7 — Solving Our Country's Problems What is at the root of the problems our country is facing today? Respected pastor Dr. Tony Evans believes much of the unrest, crime, and financial and social problems we're seeing in America are directly related to God. While God may be directly involved in America's problems, Tony believes that God also offers a solution—turning back to Him.

Wednesday, July 8 — A Meeting, a Marriage, a Mom Climbing the ladder of success meant the world to Sandy once upon a time. Then she met and married Ken, and a baby boy completed the package. Sandy Calwell talks about her decision to stay home with her son and invest herself in her family, rather than pursuing the career she loved.

Thursday, July 9 — Motherhood: A Rewarding Priority If a job is worth doing it's worth doing well. That's what Sandy Calwell thought when she decided to stay home with her son instead of pursuing her career as a media executive. Sandy and her husband, Ken, talk about her transition from media guru to full-time mom.

Monday, July 27 — A Train Wreck Conversion Rosaria Butterfield's life wasn't typical. An English professor at Syracuse University, Rosaria was a full-fledged feminist and lesbian bent on exposing a sector she believed was out to threaten her freedoms, the religious right. Rosaria recalls how she viewed Christians back then, when she was a respected leader in the LGBT community and what caused her to reconsider her views about God.

Tuesday, August 4 — Connecting Well Make a new friend and call me in the morning. That might be a prescription for aging well, according to Dr. John Dunlop, a geriatrics physician. Dunlop reminds us that healthy relationships are vital if we are going to live long and age well.

Wednesday, August 5 — Grandparent Connection As a grandparent, what are you doing to build into the lives of your grandchildren? Mary Larmoyeux and Nancy Downing, grandparents themselves, have collaborated to help you be intentional in this special relationship. Even if you live far away from your grandkids, Mary and Nancy have suggestions that will help you stay connected with the next generation of your family.

Thursday, August 13 — Adopting the Football Team In his many years as a spiritual leader and guidance counselor, Bishop Aaron Blake had counseled many people in many difficult circumstances. But nothing prepared him for the chat he would have with a 15-year-old boy named Melvin who was in the foster care system. Hear how Bishop Blake and his wife went on a journey they never expected.

August 17 — The Gospel and Social Issues Pastor David Platt wonders why believers are rising up against popular social injustices like poverty and slavery, but remains silent on other issues like abortion. Platt reminds Christians that they are called to look after orphans and widows in their distress, and tells how his church, and family, have sought to do that.

Tuesday, August 18 — Standing Boldly and Compassionately Standing up for a cause demands courage, especially when it's unpopular. David Platt, president of the International Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention, calls listeners to stand boldly on the word of God, yet remain compassionate towards those who are lost and hurting.

August 20 — Defining Family Dysfunction When it comes to your home, is God in charge? Author Michelle Anthony tells how her and her husband's fairy tale began to unravel on their honeymoon. Children then added a new layer of difficulty. How then does a family become spiritually and emotionally healthy? Anthony reminds us that being healthy doesn't mean being perfect, but rather means letting God be the Lord of our hearts and homes.

Friday, August 21 — The Critical Parent What does it take to be a spiritually healthy parent? Michelle Anthony talks about six different dysfunctional parenting styles moms and dads often default to, like the micromanaging parent or the critical parent. Anthony reminds moms and dads that there's great power in the tongue to bless or curse our children. Anthony encourages parents to affirm, appreciate, and admire their children for the good things they see in them.

September 7 — 68 Words to Change Your Marriage Are you regularly praying for your spouse? David Delk introduces the Marriage Prayer—68 powerful words that can change the direction of your marriage.

Tuesday, September 8 — Making Your Spouse Your Priority You said, "I Do." Now what? David Delk, president of Man in the Mirror, encourages couples to get out of their ruts and change the way they think about their spouse by intentionally praying for them daily.

Monday, September 21 — What Is Domestic Abuse? Domestic abuse is ravaging our homes Pastor Justin Holcomb, author of "Is It My Fault?" defines the meaning of domestic violence and shares a little about his wife's experience growing up with an abusive father. While physical abuse is definitely a part of domestic abuse, mental, emotional, and financial abuse are just as devastating, Justin explains.

Tuesday, September 22 — Deliver Us from Evil Can domestic abuse be found in Christian homes too? Pastor Justin Holcomb says absolutely. A desire for power and control over someone else is at the root of domestic abuse, Justin says. The best way to avoid an abusive relationship is to not get in one in the first place. Watch how a man treats his mother and other women around him, and you'll have a good idea of how he'll treat you someday.

Wednesday, September 23 — Prepare to Be Safe If your marriage is abusive, what should you do? Author and pastor Justin Holcomb gives us a glimpse into the heart and mind of an abuse victim, and tells why a victim often chooses to stay in an abusive relationship rather than seeking safety. Hear some steps to take to devise your own safety plan.

FOCUS ON THE FAMILY

Thursday, July 9: Bringing Home the Prodigals - I Is your heart broken over seeing a loved one walk away from their faith? Rob Parsons reminds us to turn to our heavenly Father while we're waiting. Tune in for a challenging message of hope for anyone who loves a prodigal.

Friday, July 10: Bringing Home the Prodigals - II God is always ready to run to those who've turned away. Rob Parsons looks at the parable of the Prodigal Son, giving us hope for the day, when our prodigals finally come home.

Wednesday, July 15: Sharing Your Faith as a Family Have you become a "shut-the-garage-door-and-go-inside" type of neighbor? You'll hear from an ordinary couple with kids who decided to open up their home to the neighborhood to share their faith.

Monday, July 20: The Sheep-Like Qualities of a Disciple As you go through life, do you sometimes feel lost and uncertain? Comedian Ken Davis looks at how God sees us—vulnerable like sheep—and the help we can find in the person of Jesus Christ. An encouraging and humorous look at the human condition.

Thursday, July 23: Avoiding the Common Mistakes of Parenting-I Oftentimes the best path to success is through failure! We'll challenge some well-meaning, but dangerous parenting practices — like doing your child's work and never letting them fail! It's an eye-opening list of mistakes parents can avoid.

Friday, July 24: Avoiding the Common Mistakes of Parenting-II As parents, we all make mistakes, but many of them can be easily avoided. We'll encourage you to be consistent with your children, not give them everything they want, and help them have a realistic view of their potential! We'll examine those principles and more.

Monday, August 10: Helping Your Middle Schooler Develop a Healthy Identity- I Navigating the physical and emotional changes of the middle school years can be tricky. Dr. Kathy Koch identifies the five core needs of every middle schooler and how you, as a parent, can help meet them.

Friday, August 21: Confronting Your Fears as a Mom-II If you've ever felt more fearful than fearless when it comes to your mothering journey, you're not alone! MOPS president Sherry Surratt will share practical ways you can combat fear—and the seven habits of better moms.

Monday, August 24: Sound Advice for Today's Parents-I Should our kids be happy all the time? Dr. Kevin Leman tells us why the answer is a resounding no. In fact, he'll explain why there are definite times when your son or daughter needs to be unhappy.

Tuesday, August 25: Sound Advice for Today's Parents-II Is it a battle to discipline your kids? Are your children winning the war? It's time for some fresh discipline ideas that work! Dr. Kevin Leman shares pointers on how you can exercise healthy authority and radically change your child's behavior and attitude. Sound too good to be true? Decide for yourself.

Tuesday-Wednesday, September 8-9: Being a Champion to Your Wife and Kids- I & II No one can deny the dramatic importance of a father's influence. For some, the word "Dad" evokes images of playing catch or going fishing. For others, it spells pain and disappointment. Carey Casey from the National Center for Fathering will bring inspiring stories and advice on being a championship father.

Thursday, September 17: Teaching Good Manners to Your Kids- I Teaching your child to say please and thank you can impact his future achievement. Donna Jones shares how good manners tie into success down the road. She offers wisdom and hope as you conquer the monumental task of instilling these behaviors in your children. Learn how to build an environment of love and respect in your home.

Friday, September 18: Teaching Good Manners to Your Kids- II You've likely seen a child throwing a temper tantrum at the grocery store. But, what if he's yours? FOCUS ON THE FAMILY

Thursday, July 2: Nourishing Yourself in the Midst of a Busy Life You’re busy, but you can find moments throughout the day and week to be renewed and refreshed to find joy! We’ll share how you can reduce stress, combat clutter, and create a nourishing schedule for yourself and your family!

Friday, July 3: America’s Strong Foundation On the next “Focus on the Family” ... America isn’t just a place, it’s an idea! Tommy Nelson gives us a fascinating look at the history of our nation and the Christian principles that are embodied in our institutions — from the government to your children’s education.

Friday, July 10: Bringing Home the Prodigals - If God is always ready to run to those who’ve turned away. Rob Parsons looks at the parable of the Prodigal Son, giving us hope for the day, when our prodigals finally come home.

Monday, July 13: Being a Good Man, Not Just a Nice Guy-If God created men to be “good,” not just “nice!” A countercultural view of masculinity, encouraging men to be strong and godly leaders in their families. It’s about doing the right thing, even if you step on a few toes.

Tuesday, July 28: Restoring the Broken Pieces of Our Lives-If God can turn your biggest failure into your greatest success! Elisa Morgan shares a vulnerable message about her imperfect and broken family. But God can transform any mistake into a ministry, and He’s given the Morgans new hope for the future!

Wednesday-Thursday, July 29-30: Engaging Today’s Culture with the Gospel Instead of avoiding the culture, engage it with God’s love! Dr. Russell Moore encourages you to live out your Christian faith in a world that doesn’t understand or embrace your values. That might mean looking different from your neighbors – but that’s O-K.

Friday, August 14: Addressing the State of the Church Recent research seems to indicate that Christianity is on the decline, but is that really true? Researcher Ed Stetzer will offer a different perspective as we look at the current state and future of the church. Learn more about connecting with the secular culture in an encouraging discussion.

Monday, August 17: Understanding Personality Types Imagine if everyone in the world were just like you! Discover why God gave each one of us a different personality – and how to determine yours and your children’s. Dr. John Trent describes the four personalities of the lion, otter, beaver, and golden retriever.

Monday, August 24: Sound Advice for Today’s Parents-I Should our kids be happy all the time? Dr. Kevin Leman tells us why the answer is a resounding no. In fact, he’ll explain why there are definite times when your son or daughter needs to be unhappy.

Tuesday, August 25: Sound Advice for Today’s Parents-II Is it a battle to discipline your kids? Are your children winning the war? It’s time for some fresh discipline ideas that work! Dr. Kevin Leman shares pointers on how you can exercise healthy authority and radically change your child’s behavior and attitude.

Wednesday, August 5: Discovering the Best Ways to Educate Your Child-I If your child struggles in school, but all the other students seem to be doing fine, who’s to blame? We’ll examine why you need to keep looking for the right “keys to learning” so your child can succeed!

Thursday, August 6: Discovering the Best Ways to Educate Your Child-II The best education for your child may be out-of-the-box learning!” We’ll encourage you to try some creative teaching methods — like a “ditty” or an “idea factory,” or simply taking the pencil out of your child’s hand — to help them learn better!

Friday, September 25: Helping Your Kids Express Their Faith You want your child to live out their Christian faith. You’ll hear how one mom is inspiring her children to take God into their community – and the classroom. And you’ll find out how your child can strengthen his faith through an easy nation-wide event coming soon!

FOCUS ON THE FAMILY

Wednesday, July 1: Pursuing Healthy and Authentic Relationships - II Being vulnerable with your spouse and others is hard, but it can positively impact your relationships! We'll help you learn how to identify and deal with past shame, let other people see your flaws, and give you the tools you need to live a life of meaning and purpose.

Thursday-Friday, July 16-17: Using Our Words Wisely- I & II As we interact with the world around us, our words matter. But, our motives and intentions sometimes muddle what we're trying to say. Author Karen Ehman helps us understand how to be more aware of how we're communicating. Through her personal experiences, she shares practical ways to tame the tongue and use words positively.

Thursday, July 23: Avoiding the Common Mistakes of Parenting-I Oftentimes the best path to success is through failure! We'll challenge some well-meaning, but dangerous parenting practices — like doing your child's work and never letting them fail! It's an eye-opening list of mistakes parents can avoid.

Friday, July 24: Avoiding the Common Mistakes of Parenting-II As parents, we all make mistakes, but many of them can be easily avoided. We'll encourage you to be consistent with your children, not give them everything they want, and help them have a realistic view of their potential!

Monday, August 10: Helping Your Middle Schooler Develop a Healthy Identity- I Navigating the physical and emotional changes of the middle school years can be tricky. Dr. Kathy Koch identifies the five core needs of every middle schooler and how you, as a parent, can help meet them.

Tuesday, August 11: Helping Your Middle Schooler Develop a Healthy Identity- II Angst and drama usually surround the average middle schooler, but there is hope! Dr. Kathy Koch shares how security, identity, belonging, purpose, and competence all play a role in your child's confidence.

Monday, August 17: Understanding Personality Types Imagine if everyone in the world were just like you! Discover why God gave each one of us a different personality – and how to determine yours and your children's. Dr. John Trent describes the four personalities of the lion, otter, beaver, and golden retriever.

Wednesday, September 23: Finding Peace through Forgiveness Sometimes family relationships can be strained to the breaking point. So, how do you find healing? Author and speaker Gil Mertz explains how he was able to reconnect with his father after ten years of silence and find reconciliation and forgiveness.

Monday-Tuesday, September 28-29: Examining Your Part in a Difficult Marriage– I & II Former World Series Champion and All Star Darryl Strawberry and his wife Tracy share a message of hope for all less-than-perfect marriages. They candidly talk about their potentially catastrophic errors that were redeemed only through the power of God. Find out how an almost-dead marriage can come alive again.
