FAMILY LIFE TODAY

10/14/13

Love is a Commitment

with: Dennis Rainey and Barbara Rainey from the series: Starting Your Marriage Right

School is valuable, but it has its limits, especially when it comes to learning about marriage. It's only until you enroll in the lifetime school of love, called marriage, that certain facts make sense. Dennis and Barbara Rainey, lifetime students of one another, share more lessons they've learned from their four decades of marriage, including the one that holds all the others together: Love is a commitment.

10/23/13

Taking the Journey Up the Steps to Manhood

with: Dennis Rainey

Dennis Rainey talks about the four steps that need to be applied to help a boy develop into a man.

10/31/13

Will You Be My Neighbor?

with: Amy Lively from the series: The Neighborhood Cafe

Do you know your neighbors? Research shows that a majority of us don't. Amy Lively, the creator of The Neighborhood Café, remembers what it was like the first time she knocked on doors to invite her neighbors over. But that little step of faith, and the relationships she developed, made her initial nervousness worth it. Amy shares how anyone can easily reach out with the love of Christ to their neighbors, and perhaps change their neighborhood for good.

11/06/13

Surrendering Control

In what ways are you controlling your husband and kids? Karen Ehman and Nicole Unice, controlling over-comers, talk about the very real temptation to control your kids so they'll live happy lives and stay on a good path. However, Karen and Nicole remind us that parenting is all about training your children to make wise choices and eventually working yourself out of a job. Hear these former control freaks tell where they've been challenged to "let go" and not control their husbands.

11/19/13

Confession and Reconciliation

with: Paul David Tripp

Selfishness runs in our DNA. That's why we need to make confession and forgiveness a part of our lifestyle, according to Paul David Tripp. Paul recalls a time in his own marriage when his eyes were opened to his own anger issues, and he was finally in a place where God could change and restore him.

11/21/13

Every Story Whispers His Name

with: Sally Lloyd-Jones

Sometimes one bold, courageous step can lead to a higher calling and purpose. Such is the case for Sally Lloyd-Jones, author of "The Jesus Storybook Bible." Sally recalls how her father sent her off to boarding school at the tender age of eight with the words of Joshua 1, "Be strong and very courageous." Though ill and terribly frightened at the time, Sally was sure that God was going ahead of her. Sally tells how those years of boarding school stretched her imagination and helped mold her into the writer she is today.

11/27/13

The Hope of Resurrection

with: Jake and Rebecca Mutz, Dennis and Barbara Rainey and Bill and Pam Mutz from the series: A Symphony in the Dark \(2013\)

The time had come to let Molly go. Surrounded by family, Jake and Rebecca Mutz surrendered their newborn daughter to the arms of Jesus. Hear Jake and Rebecca, Dennis and Barbara Rainey, and Bill and Pam Mutz share their thoughts on the memorial service. Hear also, how Rebecca has processed her grief in the last five years.

12/06/13

There's Power in the Name

What's in a name? When the name is that of the King of Kings and Lord of Lords, Jesus Christ, the name means a lot! Dennis Rainey continues exploring the meaning behind the many names, particularly the royal names, of Christ.

When men get together to compare notes, Pastor Voddie Baucham says there are usually three measurements – The boardroom, the bedroom, and the ballfield. But is that Biblical masculinity? Voddie Baucham unpacks genuine manhood.
