Major Initiatives

Connecticut School of Media, Farmington, CT partnership. Amy Grey Assistant Program Director at Red Wolf Broadcasting is also a career counselor and mentor to hundreds who have attended their school.

Red Wolf Broadcasting has had a long term relationship with CSM and has hired more than 25 employees over the years. Grey will invite students to job shadow her or intern at Red Wolf's stations. Since she is at the school and spends extensive time in the classroom with students, she discovers students which can be a good fit. This initiative has been great for students, who would have never been able to set inside the competitive world of broadcasting and a unique and dynamic resource in Red Wolf's recruiting efforts.

Latin Festival Oct. 8, 2021 Farm Fresh RI 9 AM to 3 PM. WKKB & WSKP produced a Latin Festival targeting the Hispanic community in the greater Providence community. As a part of the festival it had a job fair and many employment opportunities. WKKB also had a booth to recruit sales, marketing, street teamers, voice over artists and on air personalities. About a 1,000 attended. This is the 8th year for the event. Hundreds of commercials were run over Red Wolf's stations, as well as flyers & posters and social media posts.

Job Fairs At The Radio Stations. Red Wolf went on an extensive outreach in the fall of 2022 with three in station job fairs. The first ever in the world of broadcasting. Hundreds of commercials were aired on all of it's stations offering a free audition to find the next great voice. Marketing, sales, public affairs and potential news broadcaster were also invited to attend. Red Wolf had more than 50 participants.
