

KOPN Community Radio

915 E. Broadway, Columbia, MO 65201

SIGNIFICANT TREATMENT OF COMMUNITY ISSUES

This is not an exhaustive list of KOPN community-oriented issue programming.

April 1st, 2022 to June 30th, 2022

Community Issue	Show/Broadcast	Description	Date/Time	Length
Missouri zoning laws regarding residential solar installations	Farm and Fiddle	Margot McMillen, host, talked to MO Senator Bill White about his bill to allow solar installations on a mid-sized level for neighborhoods and subdivisions.	Wednesday, April 1 6-7pm	1 hr
Community art walk	Speaking of the Arts	Interview with North Village Arts District (501(c)3 non-profit organization) Board President, Tootie Burns, and artist, Shannon Webster about the North Village Arts District new Art Walk.	Thursday, April 7 7-8pm	30 minutes
Local arts history	Speaking of the Arts	Interview with the University of Missouri School of	Thursday, April 7 7-8pm	30 minutes

		Textile Management's (501(c)3 non-profit organization) Nicole Johnson about a new historical show about Missouri fashion at the State Historical Society of Missouri.
Guardianship at the county level in mid-Missouri	Glocal News in Social Artistry	Callaway County, Missouri Public Administrator Karen Digh Allen discusses issues related to guardianship, the practice of court-appointed "guardians" holding custody and providing care for minor or incapacitated people.	Monday, April 25 5-6pm	1 hr
Identification of local plant diseases, pests, chemical damage and other plant problems.	Farm and Fiddle	Margot McMillen, host, interviewed Peng Tian, researcher at University of Missouri plant pathology lab on what problems he's seeing and how gardeners,	Wednesday, May 11 6-7pm	1 hr farmers, landowners, can pursue accurate identification of plant problems.

Nurturing young black leaders in Missouri	Glocal News in Social Artistry	Local Director for MO Faith Voices, Gregory Butler, discussed the various organizations and projects to build Black leaders.	Monday, May 30 5-6pm	1 hr
Community gun violence	Let's Learn More	Part 1 of 2: Host Andrew Grabau speaks with people directly impacted by gun violence in our community and they offer their perspectives for going forward.	Wednesday, June 1 5-6 pm	1 hr
Community art festival	Speaking of the Arts	Interview with the Columbia Art League Executive Director, Kelsey Hammond, about the League's annual Art in the Park fine art festival.	Thursday, June 2 7-8pm	1 hr

		(501(c)3 non-profit organization)
Community gun violence	Let's Learn More	Host Andrew Grabau speaks with Police Chief Jones and Rev. James Gray to continue the conversation on gun violence. Part 2 of 2	Wednesday, June 8 5-6 pm	1 hr
Reproductive resources in our community	Evening Edition	Host Laura Wacker discusses the implications of the Supreme Court/MO Legislature decisions and how mid-MO citizens will be affected.	Tuesday, June 28 6-7pm	1 hr