

KOPN Community Radio

401 Bernadette Drive, Columbia, MO 65203

SIGNIFICANT TREATMENT OF COMMUNITY ISSUES

This is not an exhaustive list of KOPN community-oriented issue programming.

October 1st, 2022 to January 31st, 2022

Community Issue	Show/ Broadcast	Description	Date/ Time	Length
The food system in mid-Missouri	Farm and Fiddle	Dr. Hendrickson has been watching food corporations in mergers and unfair practices for almost 30 years. As she noted, things are not getting better. In fact, food insecurity has risen and corporations are still making mergers that work against consumers and farmers.	10/12/2022	1
Domestic violence awareness	Women's Issues, Women's Voices	Tonight on Women's Issues Women's Voices, Corri Flaker Fraser, interviews Jennifer Graves Hickam, Executive Director of True North, about Missouri's ranking as 6th in the nation for the most women murdered by domestic partners. Chilling statistics will be revealed, and Jennifer will share ways True North helps victims of domestic violence.	10/17/2022	1
Gun violence	Evening Edition	Discussion with local representative from Moms Demand Action on gun violence and the recent shooting at a St. Louis school. Talked about the risk teachers and students face, the lack of regulation to prevent further shootings in MO and what the citizens of our community can do to move toward change.	10/25/2022	1
The arts	Speaking of the Arts	Discussion about a book of poetry that addresses Alzheimers and dementia	11/12/2022	1
Columbia police department	Let's Learn More	Interview with the Chief of Police Jones to discuss access to video through a new software system.	11/16/2022	1
The arts	Speaking of the Arts	Discussion of unsheltered populations through a collection of portrait photography	11/25/2022	1
Midwifery and doula care in Mid Missouri	Women's Issues, Women's Voices	Corri Flaker Fraser invites local birth workers and educators, Dawn Finney, Lori Maybrier, and Angela Buckhall, , on to the show to discuss the current state of	12/5/2022	1

		Midwifery, Doula work, the challenges they face, and their future importance in the field of Birthing Babies. And also, the importance of this kind of care as a way to improve the Mental Health of the family and mother.
Low participation of the Hispanic community in the WIC program	La Voz Latina	Interview with Dr. Michelle Segovia- There are many families in Missouri that qualify to participate in the WIC program, but chose not to. Dr. Michelle Segovia is leading a research project aiming to identify those issues and find ways to increase the participation of the Hispanic community to benefit our children	12/10/2022	1