

Seventh Annual Zonta Club of Lafayette Art Bra Event, "Save ze Ta Ta'z."

Help us to celebrate an important milestone for the women (and men) who have triumphed over breast cancer. Just as women are never too young to be aware of the risks for breast cancer, people are never too young to start supporting breast cancer education, treatment, prevention and advocacy. Join us on Thursday March 10, 2016, at 6:00 pm at River Oaks Event Center Napoleon

Ballroom for an evening of breast cancer survivors, who will model amazing art bras created by local artists, friends, family, celebrities and even themselves. Mix, mingle and enjoy fellowship, dinner and drinks. You will have an opportunity to bid on art bras in both the silent and live auctions. Tickets for "Save ze Ta Ta'z" available at $40.00/person on Eventbrite or at the door. All funds raised will benefit local service and advocacy projects of the Zonta Club of Lafayette Foundation, Inc. Our Club will donate a portion of the proceeds to the Institute for Breast Health, Inc., an nonprofit 501(c)3 organization. Community service projects include Faith House of Acadiana, the Lafayette Community Health Care Clinic, Fire Prevention Week, and more. The Zonta Club of Lafayette Foundation, Inc. is a not for profit 501(c)3 organization. For more information, please, contact Mary B. Neiheisel at mbn8682@louisiana.edu or at 337.482.6683 or 337.278.4241 or ZontaLafayette@gmail.com.

MORROW MORROW RYAN BASSETT SCHOLARSHIPS

The law firm of Morrow, Morrow, Ryan & Bassett is offering scholarships to individuals of St. Landry and Evangeline Parishes. The purpose of these scholarships is to encourage applicants to pursue a degree in their field of study and upon graduation to encourage those individuals to seek employment within these two parishes.

Scholarships will be awarded based on academic background (must have a 2.5 cumulative GPA), maturity of the applicant, financial need, community involvement, the availability of resources, funding and the applicants' chosen career field. Applicants must be permanent residents of St. Landry or Evangeline Parish.

Six (6) scholarships for $2,500 each will be awarded. These six scholarships will be awarded as a one-time award for the 2016-17 school year. Scholarship amounts and guidelines will be set by the MMRB Scholarship Committee and may be adjusted on an annual basis. Scholarship funds will be paid directly to the educational institution the applicant is attending. Applicants must be attending an educational institution/college in the state of Louisiana and can apply during any portion of their educational career (i.e., undergraduate, graduate, professional school, etc.) Applicants can also be current TOPS recipients.

The OGHS Foundation is operating this scholarship program. Therefore the completed applications should be submitted to the OGHS Foundation office located at the Main Campus of Opelousas General Health System. Application forms must be submitted with:

1. a photo of applicant (at least a 4 X 6)
2. two letters of recommendation
3. original high school transcript/GED and all original post-secondary transcripts (college) if applicable.

All documents, including application, should be submitted to the Foundation Office by mail or in person no later than end of business day on April 1, 2016. Applications may be mailed to the following address: P. O. Box 1389, Opelousas, LA 70571. All applications will be considered without regard to race, sex, national origin, age, physical or mental impairment or veteran status. Applications will be reviewed by the MMRB Scholarship Committee and the top candidates will be called for interviews with the committee. Scholarships will be awarded in July/August.

A copy of the application can be obtained online at www.mmrblawoffice.com or www.opelousasgeneral.com under the Foundation tab.

Questions can be directed to the Foundation Office at 337-594-3499.

Joshua A. Pellerin Urges Acadiana to Give Back this Lenten Season

Local entrepreneur and businessman, Joshua A. Pellerin, is urging Acadiana to join him in taking a different approach to this Lenten season. Mr. Pellerin is implementing a program that will instill a sense of giving in the community; a focus on caring for our brothers and sisters and giving of ourselves to bring aid and grace to our brethren.

A collection area will be set up outside of the main entrance of the Acadiana Mall (5725 Johnston St, Lafayette, LA 70503) for the duration of the Lenten season (February 11 through March 20, 2016). Drop off times will be every Sunday from 11am to 3pm. Each week, Pellerin will hold collections benefitting various community organizations including churches, nonprofit organizations, and diverse members of the community.

DONATION 1: SUNDAY; February 14, we ask for donations of the following: NEW adult women's clothing (Plus Sizes are most needed), Large Size diapers, and children's clothing (male and female for ages 0-9 years) to be donated to local women's shelters.

Spring Eggs-pressions Public Art Exhibit Coming to Downtown Opelousas

An art exhibit designed by students will transform unused building space into an eye-catching outdoor museum. The exhibit, titled Spring Eggs-pressions, is headed to downtown Opelousas this spring and will feature exquisitely designed eggs from students in Opelousas and around St. Landry Parish. The exhibit, which will be displayed across from the St. Landry Parish Courthouse, is scheduled to be unveiled

Friday, March 18th at 5 p.m. at a special ceremony.

The decorated eggs will be judged by a committee who considers design, originality and overall beauty; students will win cash prizes for winning designs. Students from the following schools involved in the project include Opelousas Catholic Elementary, Opelousas High School, Magnet Academy of Cultural Arts, Port Barre, J.S. Clark; Southwest, Grolee and Southwest Elementary.

For more information about Spring Egg-spressions, please contact Opelousas Main Street at 337-948-5227 or tourism@cityofopelousas.com or visit www.cityofopelousas.com.

Seventh Annual Zonta Club of Lafayette Art Bra Event, "Save ze Ta Ta'z."

Help us to celebrate an important milestone for the women (and men) who have triumphed over breast cancer. Just as women are never too young to be aware of the risks for breast cancer, people are never too young to start supporting breast cancer education, treatment, prevention and advocacy. Join us on Thursday March 10, 2016,

at 6:00 pm at River Oaks Event Center Napoleon

Ballroom for an evening of breast cancer survivors, who will model amazing art bras created by local artists, friends, family, celebrities and even themselves. Mix, mingle and enjoy fellowship, dinner and drinks. You will have an opportunity to bid on art bras in both the silent and live auctions. Tickets for "Save ze Ta Ta'z" available at $40.00/person on Eventbrite or at the door. All funds raised will benefit local service and advocacy projects of the Zonta Club of Lafayette Foundation, Inc. Our Club will donate a portion of the proceeds to the Institute for Breast Health, Inc., an nonprofit 501(c)3 organization. Community service projects include Faith House of Acadiana, the Lafayette Community Health Care Clinic, Fire Prevention Week, and more.
