

Here follows a list of some of the significant issues responded to by 1360-WDRC-AM, 1470-WMMW-AM, 1240-WWCO-AM and 610-WSNG-AM, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period July 1, 2014 to September 30, 2014. The segments listed below aired at various times on "The Brad Davis Show," Monday through Friday, from 6:00 a.m. to 10:00 a.m., on WDRC, WMMW, WWCO and WSNG. The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear do not reflect any priority or significance.

Description of Issue	Date	Length	Narration of type and description of program/segment
State Economy	7-1-14	10:00	7:20 AM - Southington GOP State Sen. JOE MARKLEY. Joe talked about yesterday's U.S. Supreme Court ruling against so-called "forced unionization." We have just such a policy here in Connecticut as do 25 other states! How might this affect Connecticut?
State Politics	7-2-14	10:00	8:20 AM - KEVIN RENNIE - Hartford Courant columnist and former Republican state legislator. Kevin joined us again to chat about all the twists and turns in the governor's race, including Mark Boughton dropping out, and Jonathan Pelto still insisting that he's running to challenge Governor Dannel Malloy from the left.
State Politics	7-3-14	10:00	8:35 AM - ZACH JANOWSKI - investigative reporter for the Yankee Institute. Zach has written a piece posted at the website publicsectorinc.org regarding this week's U.S. Supreme Court ruling against forced unionization. Zach has broken down what the Court's decision might mean in dollars and cents for the service sector workers and others who were caught up in the bill that was passed by the General Assembly that now might be pointless.
State Economy	7-7-14	10:00	7:20 AM - PETER GIOIA - chief economist at the Connecticut Business and Industry Association. Peter checked n for his monthly call with a closer look at CNBC's ranking of Connecticut ranking on its list of "business friendly" states, as well as his thoughts on the nation's latest employment numbers.
State Economy	7-8-14	10:00	7:20 AM - TIM STEWART - former New Britain mayor and current president of the Greater New Britain Chamber of Commerce. Tim joins us to talk about his column posted in the New Britain City Journal regarding the likely loss of the New Britain Rock Cats to Hartford, and his perspective on what went on leading up to the move.
Public Safety	7-8-14	10:00	7:50 AM - LEN SUZIO - former GOP State Senator and current member of the State Victim Advocate Advisory Committee. Len will update us on a couple of more instances of early-release prison inmates being involved in subsequent crime, including one high-profile case.
Consumer Issues	7-9-14	10:00	8:35 AM - HOWARD SCHWARTZ - from the CT Better Business Bureau. Howard joined us for his monthly call-in. Today's topic: How to protect your personal information while you're on vacation.
State Politics	7-10-14	10:00	9:35 AM - JOHN MCKINNEY - Fairfield Republican state senator and GOP gubernatorial candidate. John updated us on his campaign activities as the August 12th primary is only about a month away.
Children's Issues Public Safety	7-11-14	10:00	7:20 AM - LAUREN SARDI - assistant professor of Sociology at Quinnipiac University in Hamden. What is behind the recent rash of small children being left in hot cars, with many of them dying due to the extreme heat? How can a parent be that disconnected to allow something like that to happen?
Public Safety Transportation	7-15-14	10:00	7:50 AM - MIKE RILEY - head of the Motor Transport Association of Connecticut. Mike returns to the show to talk about an op-ed he recently wrote that appeared in the Hartford Courant, talking about proposed I-84 improvements through Hartford, as well as the theory of "congestion pricing" for any tolls that might return to Connecticut.

Education	7-16-14	10:00	7:50 AM - Wilton GOP State Sen. TONI BOUCHER. Toni is the ranking member on the General Assembly's Education Committee. She joins us to talk about a vote coming up tomorrow by the State Board of Regents for Higher Education that would approve raises of as much as 5 percent for management and nonunion personnel. Are these raises wise at a time when tuition and fees at the four regional state universities and 12 community colleges keep going up?
Crime Public Safety Women's Issues	7-17-14	10:00	8:35 AM - KAREN JARMOC - executive director of the Connecticut Coalition Against Domestic Violence. Karen talked about this morning's release --by the CCADV and Injury Prevention Center at CCMC/Hartford Hospital-- of a report regarding "Intimate Partner Violence Policies on College Campuses in Connecticut." The report will outline "best practices" for campuses to strengthen policies related to dating violence.
Immigration	7-21-14	10:00	9:10 AM - Watertown GOP Sen. ROB KANE on the feds failed attempt to put a boatload of those immigrant kids at the Southbury Training School.
Immigration	7-22-14	10:00	8:20 AM - JOHN JAIRO LUGO - from the Connecticut Immigrant Rights Alliance. A rally is set for today in New Haven to protest Gov. Dannel Malloy's refusal to house some Central American migrants anywhere in Connecticut. Several groups believe that the state should step-up and help.
State Politics	7-23-14	10:00	7:20 AM - GOP State Rep. and Lieutenant Governor candidate PENNY BACCHIOCHI (52nd District - Stafford and Somers). Penny checks in to update her campaign.
State Politics	7-23-14	10:00	8:35 AM - MARK GREENBERG - Republican candidate for Congress in the state's Fifth Congressional District. Mark will face off with Congresswoman ELIZABETH ESTY in the November general election. Word broke yesterday that Mark has been upped to a "contender" in the GOP's "Young Guns" program, which will enable Mark to tap into more resources for the November match-up against Esty.
State Economy	7-24-14	10:00	7:50 AM - LOUISE DeMARS - executive director of the New England Carousel Museum in Bristol, which manages the Bushnell Park Carousel. Louise talked about this Saturday's 100th birthday celebration for Bushnell Park's Carousel in Hartford.
Local Charity	7-29-14	10:00	8:20 AM - BETH CONNOR - director of communications and fund development for "The Connection." Beth talked about this year's "Corporate 5K" race, August 7th at Bushnell Park.
Health/Medical	7-29-14	10:00	8:35 AM - CURTIS ROBINSON called in to chat about this year's Curtis D. Robinson Men's Health Institute at Saint Francis Care 5th Annual Celebrity Golf Classic, next Thursday, August 7, at Tunxis Plantation Country Club. The Curtis D. Robinson Men's Health Institute at Saint Francis Celebrity Golf Classic Series has been an outstanding fundraising success in years past, bringing in hundreds of thousands of dollars to support the screenings, examinations, and prostate cancer surgeries that have saved lives in the greater Hartford community.
Crime Public Safety Women's issues	7-30-14	10:00	7:20 AM - KAREN JARMOC - executive director of the Connecticut Coalition Against Domestic Violence. Karen talked about yesterday's presentation at the Capitol of the latest report from the Connecticut Domestic Violence Fatality Review Committee.
State Economy	8-4-14	10:00	7:20 AM - PETER GIOIA - chief economist for the Connecticut Business and Industry Association. Peter joined us for his regular monthly call to chat about last week's national job numbers for July.
Local Economy	8-5-14	10:00	7:20 AM - New Britain Mayor ERIN STEWART. She returned to give us an update on the latest controversy surrounding the New Britain Rock Cats. She's demanding that the team pay its back taxes, or be evicted!

Health/Medical	8-5-14	10:00	8:20 AM - Dr. JENNER PENNOYER - dermatologist at St. Francis Hospital and Medical Center. The U.S. surgeon general has issued a call to action to prevent skin cancer, calling it a major public health problem that requires immediate action. Nearly 5 million people are treated for skin cancer each year. The U.S. Department of Health and Human Services has set five goals for communities to decrease the risk of skin cancer, such as providing shade at parks, schools and other public spaces, and reducing indoor tanning.
Health/Medical	8-6-14	10:00	7:20 AM - Prof. FODEI BATTY - assistant professor of political science at Quinnipiac University in Hamden. Professor Batty is from Sierra Leone, where hundreds of troops were deployed Monday to quarantine communities hit by the deadly Ebola virus. He's keeping in touch with his family and friends in Sierra Leone by phone, and talked about how the epidemic is affecting his home country and the government's response.
State Politics	8-11-14	10:00 each segment	7:20 AM - HEATHER SOMERS - Republican candidate for lieutenant governor; 7:35 AM - JOHN McKINNEY - Republican candidate for governor; 7:50 AM - PENNY BACCHIOCHI - Republican candidate for lieutenant governor; 8:20 AM - TOM FOLEY - Republican candidate for governor; 9:10 AM - DAVID WALKER - Republican candidate for lieutenant governor.
State Politics	8-12-14	10:00	7:50 AM - CT Secretary of the State DENISE MERRILL. Secretary Merrill talked about today's primaries and a special hotline set up to report possible voting irregularities.
State Politics	8-13-14	10:00	8:35 AM - TOM FOLEY - winner of last night GOP gubernatorial primary.
State Politics	8-14-14	10:00	7:50 AM - DENISE MERRILL - Connecticut Secretary of the State. Secretary Merrill wrapped up some of the numbers from Tuesday's primaries, and explains just how close the race was for lieutenant governor, and why there will apparently be no recount.
Local Politics	8-14-14	10:00	8:20 AM - New Britain Mayor ERIN STEWART. The New Britain Rock Cats have gone to court in the battle over their property tax bill in Berlin. City officials are calling the team's legal maneuvering "ridiculous" and "completely without merit." The Rock Cats filed a motion last week in New Britain Superior Court seeking to reopen talks on the taxes the team pays Berlin. New Britain Stadium, where the Rock Cats play, straddles the New Britain-Berlin line.
Crime Public Safety	8-15-14	10:00	8:20 AM - Office of Victim Advocate Advisory Board member and former Meriden GOP state Sen. LEN SUZIO. Len chatted about an important event coming up this Monday regarding the search for a new state Victim Advocate.
Health Women's Issues	8-19-14	10:00	7:20 AM - Republican state Rep. PAM SAWYER - 55th District: Andover, Hebron, Bolton and Marlborough. After hearing the tragic story on August 13th of the infant found dead in an East Hartford trash can this week, Rep. Sawyer is asking all female legislators to attend a press conference today announcing the formation of a public-private working group that will seek ways to spread the word to Connecticut's young people about the state's Safe Havens law. State agencies, hospitals and universities and legislators are being asked to participate in the working group to formulate a plan for ongoing publicity of this life saving law to protect both children and mothers. It is imperative that our citizens are aware that a distressed mother may anonymously leave her newborn at any hospital emergency room if she cannot adequately care for the child. She and her child will be given matching bracelets so that she may come back for the baby if she changes her mind within 30 days.

Education	8-20-14	10:00	7:20 AM - Republican state Sen. TONI BOUCHER of Wilton. Toni is the ranking Republican member of the General Assembly's Education Committee. She talked about her feelings regarding the "departure" (or ouster?) of Education Commissioner Stefan Pryor. Was he forced to resign, with a threat from the state's teachers' unions?
State Politics	8-21-14	10:00	7:20 AM - JOE VISCONTI - petitioning candidate for governor. Joe joined us to talk about the word he got yesterday from Secretary of the State Denise Merrill that he has achieved the minimum 75-hundred signatures to get on the November ballot. Is he worried about pulling votes away from Tom Foley?
Crime Public Safety	8-25-14	10:00	7:20 AM - Office of Victim Advocate Advisory Board member and former Meriden GOP state Sen. LEN SUZIO. Len had information about another former prison inmate --released from custody early-- who went on to allegedly murder an infant.
Consumer Issues	8-25-14	10:00	8:20 AM - HOWARD SCHWARTZ - spokesman for the Connecticut Better Business Bureau. In his monthly call, Howard talked about some common sense financial tips that all couples should go through before getting married.
Consumer Issues	8-26-14	10:00	7:20 AM - Southington GOP state Sen. JOE MARKLEY. Joe talked about an important public forum coming up tomorrow (Wednesday) in New Britain, regarding the state Public Utility Regulatory Authority, or "PURA." Connecticut Light & Power is proposing a rate hike of about $13 per month, per customer. Public input is being solicited on this proposal.
Health/Medical	8-26-14	10:00	8:20 AM - Dr. ULYSSES WU - Section Chief Infectious Disease at St. Francis Medical Group. Dr. Wu talked about the necessary immunizations that kids have to receive when heading back to school. Also, why are there more and more parents refusing to immunize their kids? Is this causing a major health risk?
Consumer Issues	9-3-14	10:00	7:50 AM - CHRIS HERB - president of the "Connecticut Energy Marketers Association" which represents 600 locally-owned home heating oil and propane companies. Chris and his organization are upset at the pro-Dannel Malloy fundraising undertaken by the CEO of Northeast Utilities, which the state Elections Enforcement Commission is currently looking at for possible violations. Is NU just trying to buy favor with the governor for its future expansion plans?
State Politics	9-3-14	10:00	8:35 AM - SCOTT McLEAN - political science professor at Quinnipiac University. Former President BILL CLINTON was in New Haven yesterday for a rally to boost the campaign of Dannel Malloy and Nancy Wyman for re-election. What did this accomplish? Why is Bill Clinton is such demand? Who will Tom Foley call on the help his campaign? Is all this just about raising more money?
Crime Public Safety	9-4-14	10:00	7:20 AM - MICHELLE CRUZ - former CT State Victim Advocate. Michelle filled us in on a forum held last night in Cheshire regarding the ongoing search for a new State Victim Advocate.

State Politics	9-4-14	10:00	8:20 AM - SUZANNE BATES - policy director at the Yankee Institute for Public Policy. Suzanne talked about a new study done for the Yankee Institute that says Connecticut's unfunded pension liability is much greater than the $24.5 billion reported by the state. The study suggests that the real unfunded pension liability is $76.8 billion, or 213 percent higher than current forecasts.
Health/Medical	9-5-14	10:00	8:20 AM - Dr. MARLENE MURPHY-SETZKO - urologist at St. Francis Hospital and Medical Center. September is "Prostate Cancer Awareness Month." It's the most commonly diagnosed cancer in men, second leading cause of death behind lung cancer. There's a free screening event coming up on September 17th.
Veterans' Issues	9-8-14	10:00	8:35 AM – A look at the "Dancing With Our Heroes Gala Event" with KIM HAIDINGER - Director of the Fred Astaire Dance Studios of New England and THOMAS C. FLOWERS - Judge Advocate, American Legion Post 196, chief master sergeant US Air Force (Ret.) and Fisher House Special Projects Manager.
Crime Public Safety Women's Issues	9-9-14	10:00	7:50 AM - KAREN JARMOC - executive director of the Connecticut Coalition Against Domestic Violence. Karen will talk about the extremely disturbing and graphic video that surfaced yesterday of NFL player RAY RICE punching his wife JANAY PALMER --who at the time was his fiancé-- in an elevator. Rice was already serving a suspension when the latest video was released yesterday, but the NFL claimed that it never actually saw the newest video, when it handed out a preliminary suspension. A short time after yesterday's video release, Rice was released by the Baltimore Ravens, and permanently suspended by the league. The major question? Why would his fiancé at the time stick around, and become his wife?
State Economy	9-9-14	10:00	8:35 AM - GOP state Sen. ROB KANE of Watertown. ANOTHER POOR FISCAL RATING FOR CONNECTICUT. According to Kiplinger and the Tax Foundation, Connecticut is the second least "tax friendly" state in the U.S. How much is this hurting the state?
Crime Public Safety	9-11-14	10:00	7:20 AM - GOP state Sen. LEN FASANO (North Haven, East Haven and Wallingford). Senate Republicans are connecting the man accused of stabbing a 1-year-old baby to death with a policy enacted under Gov. Dannel Malloy that reduces prison sentences. At a news conference Wednesday, State Senators Len Fasano and John McKinney announced that 35-year-old Arthur Hapgood was a recipient of Connecticut's Risk Reduction Earned Credits, widely known as the early release program. Early release allows prison inmates to earn time off of their sentences in exchange for good behavior and completing rehabilitative programs. In August, Hapgood was arrested for fatally stabbing Zaniyah Calloway in the stomach at his mother's Bristol apartment. Police reports detailed that Hapgood was taken out of the apartment naked and had told someone prior to the incident that he was going to smoke pot. According to Fasano, Hapgood earned 233 early release credits while in prison on armed robbery and drug charges. Fasano said those credits were earned despite repeated bad behavior by Hapgood, including multiple failed drugs tests and assaulting another inmate. Fasano also said Hapgood assisted two inmates in escaping from a halfway house.
Addiction Issues Crime Education	9-15-14	10:00	7:20 AM - Wilton GOP state Sen. TONI BOUCHER. Toni is the ranking member of the General Assembly's education committee, and is among the legislators concerned about a marketing arrangement between IMG Sports and UConn, that generated some controversial billboard ads linking Coors Light with UConn. How proper was this, considering UConn's well-documented problems with drinking on campus, and campus sexual assaults? Did anyone at UConn actually approve this campaign?

Crime Health/Medical	9-16-14	10:00	7:20 AM - CT Attorney General GEORGE JEPSEN. The AG joined us to talk about some reservations he has about Apple's upcoming new "Apple Watch." The watch will reportedly have the capacity to record some real time health information. Will this information be secure from hackers? What about patient privacy issues?
Health/Medical	9-16-14	10:00	8:20 AM - Dr. ULYSSES WU - section chief of infectious diseases at St. Francis Hospital. IS A NEW VIRUS SICKENING SOME KIDS HERE IN CT? The Connecticut Department of Public Health (DPH) has received reports from two hospitals in different parts of the state of clusters of severe respiratory illness among young children that could be due to enterovirus D68 (EV-D68). The CDC reports that from mid-August to September 12, 2014, a total of 97 people in Colorado, Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky and Missouri have been confirmed to have respiratory illness caused by EV-D68. The CDC is working with state health departments to track the spread of EV-D68. What is this virus? How serious is it? Where did it originate?
State Politics	9-17-14	10:00	7:20 AM - GOP state Sen. LEN FASANO (North Haven, East Haven and Wallingford). Len talked about Republican reaction to a decision handed down by the State Elections Enforcement Commission. The commission Tuesday found that Northeast Utilities CEO Thomas May didn't violate the law last year when he solicited more than $50,000 from subordinates to support re-election of Democratic Gov. Dannel P. Malloy – but it also condemned the solicitation as an "offensive" violation of the law's "spirit and intent."
Economic Development Transportation	9-18-14	10:00	7:20 AM - MICHAEL SANDERS - from the Connecticut Department of Transportation. Michael talked about the new "CTFastrak" bus way, which is set to open this coming Spring.
Health/Medical	9-23-14	10:00	7:50 AM - Dr. JEFFREY RABUFFO – well-known local urologist. SEPTEMBER IS PROSTATE CANCER AWARENESS MONTH Dr. Rabuffo, from Haddam, has treated thousands of patients during many successful years of practice. Recently retired, Dr. Jeff has embarked on a new career as a crusader for men's health. A respected authority on men's health, Dr. Rabuffo now draws upon his extensive experience of healthcare experience to help men of all ages lead healthier lifestyles.
Consumer Issues	9-23-14	10:00	8:35 AM - HOWARD SCHWARTZ - spokesman for the Connecticut Better Business Bureau. In his monthly call-in, Howard talked about college students and money. Students' money management habits can make or break their ability to obtain future credit, according to Connecticut Better Business Bureau. College provides most young people their first opportunity for financial independence. This is also when many young adults establish habits they will carry with them for the rest of their lives. What are some of the common mistakes they make, and what traps can they fall into?
Consumer Issues	9-24-14	10:00	7:50 AM - GOP state Sen. ART LINARES - 33rd Senate District: Chester, Clinton, Colchester, Deep River, East Haddam, East Hampton, Essex, Haddam, Lyme, Old Saybrook, Portland and Westbrook. Art called in to remind us about another public hearing on a proposed CL&P rate hike that'll increase customer bills by about $150 a year. The state's final public hearing on the rate hike request is scheduled for 9 a.m. this Friday, Sept. 26th, at the Public Utilities Regulatory Authority (PURA) office, 10 Franklin Square, New Britain.
Health/Medical	9-24-14	10:00	8:20 AM - Dr. YIFRAH KAMINER - psychiatrist at the UConn Health Center. MEDICAL MARIJUANA IS NOW BEING SOLD HERE IN CONNECTICUT. Dr. Kaminer is a professor of psychiatry at UConn Health and a vocal opponent of medical marijuana. He's very well-versed in the topic and is being asked to speak all over the state about the issue -- especially concerning the potential dangers to teens). About 23-hundred patients can now purchase medical marijuana in Connecticut, limited to about 2 ounces a month.

State Politics	9-25-14	10:00	7:20 AM - State Senate GOP Leader JOHN McKINNEY of Fairfield. SHOULD STATE PUBLIC SAFETY COMMISSIONER DORA SCHRIRO BE FORCED TO RESIGN? John is one of a growing number of voices calling on Governor Dannel Malloy to confront Commissioner Schriro on the fact that during her confirmation process, she did not tell legislators about the specifics behind a Justice Department investigation into a juvenile facility on Riker's Island, while she served as New York City's corrections commissioner. However, the governor's office says that the GOP is only trying to score election year political points.
Health/Medical	9-26-14	10:00	7:20 AM - Dr. JOSEPH CHERNESKI - medical director of Bristol Hospital's Med-Help Urgent Care Center. It's flu season again, and Dr. Cherneski returned to talk about the severity of this season's flu, as well as who needs to get vaccinated and just how effective this year's vaccines might be.
