

Quarterly Reports & Issues, 3rd quarter 2019

Community involvement	Shelby County Fair	7/2 – 7/6
	Live coverage from fairgrounds 5 – 9pm each night of the fair updating the activities, interviewing fair officials, participants at the county fair.
	Each daytime broadcast included fair schedule updates and Interviews on the fair
<hr/>
Local economy	Gov Eric Holcomb announced that Indiana farmers are eligible for assistance under a secretarial natural disaster designation by the U.S. Department of Agriculture.	8/30
	Interviewed county FSSA Susan Houston for details on funding, Who to contact, the process for farmers to file and what prompted the change to now include Rush and Shelby counties which were not in the first declaration.	25 min
	USDA press release aired with local audio and posted to website.
<hr/>
Public safety Local government	Shelbyville and Shelby Co. governments discuss the consolidation of 911 dispatch services including the possible merger of services with neighboring Hancock county.	8/12
	Shelby County Sheriff Louie Koch appeared on GIANT fm and detailed what a consultant revealed to local officials including costs, jobs impacted, equipment purchases and the process of handling emergency calls with a new system.	30 min
<hr/>
Charitable organizations	Scott Shrader appeared on GIANT fm to preview the upcoming Cornstock day of music.	8/30
local events	The annual event brings together area musicians from central Indiana to remember Pete Jarvis who began the event.	50 min
	Proceeds from the day benefit local charities
<hr/>

Public safety Area events	NASA's Tim Rutherford and the Greenfield Fire Department's Division Chief and Fire Marshal previewed the upcoming Hancock County Community Night.	7/29 40 min
	Event included fun-filled, educational, family friendly event in collaboration with our neighborhood Public Safety Officers, Firefighters/EMT's, Judicial, non-profit community staff, and related professional organizations. A variety of educational and leisure activities for children and adults.	7/30 Live at event 6-8 pm
	GIANT fm also broadcast live from the event in Greenfield.

Health	West Nile Virus
	With the usual uptick in mosquito concerns amidst a wetter than normal spring season, Robert Lewis with the Shelby County Health Dept. appeared to talk about repelling mosquitos, destroying standing water and the health concerns of the virus.	Sept 10 7:40 am 15 min
	Additional warnings prompted by discovery of West Nile in northern Ind counties

Public safety, Fireworks safety, 4 th of July	Indiana State Fire Marshal Jim Greeson appeared on GIANT fm to detail the laws involved and ways to be safe this fireworks season.	7/1 25 min 8:30 am
----------------------------------------------------------------	------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--------------------------