

Quarterly Issues 2019 Third Quarter

Immigration crisis, Divorce, Domestic Abuse, Dropping out of School, Free speech, Financial Call In, Community Redevelopment, Business Integrity, Starting Over, Staying fit as we age, Adult children Finances, Aging Parents

July 10 Broadcast a 30 minute discussion with Dr James Dobson about the humanitarian crisis at the southern border with suggestions on how churches and others can help alleviate human needs brought about by immigration policies.

July 22 Had a 25 minute discussion at 8:30 with Linda Ranson Jacobs and Ron Deal about how to help children once the parents have divorced.

July 29 We carried a 30 minute interview at 9:30 with Autumn Miles, author of “I Am Rahab” She shared how she survived domestic abuse and steered our listeners who needed help where to turn.

August 6 Interviewed Gary Chapman and Clarence Shuler at 8:30 for 25 minutes. They discussed the benefits of applying oneself and staying in school, and how we can encourage students to hang in there through completion.

August 12 Interviewed Dennis Prager at 9:30 for 30 minutes about his documentary on free speech and universities.

August 15 We carried two financial experts at 6:00 for 30, taking phone calls to field various questions from our listeners.

August 19 Carried an interview with Dr. Tim Clinton and Dr. Ben Carson, secretary for HUD, about what churches are doing to help inner cities and building communities.

August 27 We shared a lecture at 8:30 for 25 minutes, with Jonathan Holmes, the founder and executive director of Fieldstone Counseling, on how to rebuild trust and respect in a relationship after infidelity.

September 2 Interviewed Jim Perry, CPA, about running a business with sound financial boundaries, ethics, and integrity.

September 17 We carried an interview at 8:30 for 25 minutes with Ryan and Selena Frederick about starting over and how to dream again after life difficulties change everything that had been up to that point.

September 19 Broadcast a discussion with Dr Larimore about the importance of staying fit over 50 years of age. He offered tips and how to implement a regimen of physical and mental well being.

September 24 We shared an interview with Dr Jim Burns about helping parents understand how and when to help or cut off financial assistance to adult children.

September 25 At 8:00 for 30 minutes, we interviewed Michelle Howe and Lisa Anderson about insights they have garnered from caring for their aging parents. They discussed the role reversals, the siblings, and the impact on marriage.